

Chapter 567

"Karen Lee, how dare you come back!"

The few people in the room immediately got angry at the sight.

Elijah was stunned. Did Karen actually come over in the middle of the night?

What was she doing?

"She's so bold to seek death so quickly! Isn't the Oatker family already a handful? She's actually coming here for us!"

Brayden was furious.

"Brother, get the Superb Household Forces to stop Karen!"

"Yeah, how dare she come back? Make sure she won't get out alive!"

The suggestion fanned their anger!

If this was to be spread out, where would the dignity of the Lee family lie?

"The captain of the Superb Household Forces was trained by Karen Lee," Brayden brought up coldly.

"It's okay, I don't think he could possibly still be loyal to her."

Brayden nodded and ordered, "Bring all of them out! I want Karen alive!"

Karen couldn't die, because she was a tool for him to deal with the Oatker family.

How could she die early before fulfilling her purposes?

She had to die for a good reason!

"Understood," The person who had just come in ran out quickly to convey Brayden orders.

On the monitor, Karen's troops could be seen driving into the Lee residences. However, the Superb Household Forces appeared in front of them, forming an impregnable wall like soldiers who guarded the city in ancient times.

They were prepared to see how Karen would attack.

"Is Karen planning to attack us?" Someone asked.

"Attack us? Hmph, is she qualified to? No!" Brayden snorted coldly.

"That's right. Karen came from the Lee family. Is she qualified to even fight against the Lee family?"

In addition, the Oatker family had already dealt with Karen. What kind of strength did she have left to face both of them?

"I think Karen is just desperate. Fortunately, she was driven out of the Lee family. Otherwise, such a person will really bring shame to our Lee family!"

"That's right. She's just garbage. Look at her car, it's so heavily modified with armour. Her technology company has been operating for so long, and look what they've been able to figure out? Useless garbage!"

Someone laughed. Now that the Superb Household Forces were out, they were an army of elite soldiers. This was impossible! Karen's forces were dead for sure.

On the monitoring screen, Karen's motorcade rampaged around and crashed into the group of guards, creating a ruckus.

"Mad! She's mad!!"

From the surveillance, Karen seemed to have gone insane. All her cars were tailor-made of special alloys developed by her own technology company. They were extremely durable.

The same could not be said for other cars, so they could not withstand the impact of Karen's cars.

In the room, Karen's elder brothers were shocked. What was the difference between this and a tank?

"Why is her car so tough?"

"Did her so-called science and technology company really come up with something like this?"

They looked at each other in despair!

"What on earth does she want? She's really gone crazy this time."

Brayden stared at the monitor screen and sneered. "She wants to come in!"

"No way! She's been thrown out! The Lee family doesn't have a place for her!"

Upon hearing that, everyone immediately refused.

"Superb Household Forces, try your best to stop Karen's car!" Brayden ordered.

"Yes sir!"

Everyone was in chaos. The people brought by Karen were specially trained, and they could cooperate extremely closely unlike others since they had trained together for quite some time.

The Superb Household Forces were now forced into a tight spot with nowhere to run.

Karen's strength was indeed incredible!

Just then, a loud rumble was heard.

An off-road vehicle blocked Karen's way. A man stepped out of the car, his expression a mixture of respect and awkwardness.

He was the captain of the Superb Household Forces and Karen had taught him a lot of things personally. He had silently sharpened the skills of the Lee family's Superb Household Forces.

"President Lee, please don't be like this!" The captain said.

"Get out of the way!!" Karen stepped on the accelerator and continued rampaging.

"President Lee."

Bang!

Karen's car crashed into his car with amazing strength, demolishing and knocking away his car like a gust of wind.

"President Lee!" The captain continued chasing her.

"Today, whoever stands in my way will die!" Karen shouted.

The captain flinched. Karen's words were full of murderous intent, and even he was intimidated.

Bang! Crash!

The motorcade crushed the Superb Household Forces like a hot knife through butter!

They were a group of unstoppable beasts that could not be tamed!

They were here to fight for Chuck!

No one could stop them!

"She... That lunatic actually broke through! Are our guards nothing but trash?" In the room, everyone was extremely angry!

Brayden's expression was dark. How could Karen's men be so powerful?

However, it wasn't a big deal. The Superb Household Forces were just the first layer of defense!

The Lee family's defenses were not limited to just these!

"Karen, you are underestimating the Lee family! We've got more cards up our sleeves!"

Bang!

The men brought by Karen had surrounded the Lee family and stopped!

Only Karen's car continued moving forward and she finally arrived at the gate!

"Let her in. I want to see how desperate she is today!" Brayden smirked.

The other people were snickering. She was thrown out in the past but now she was back. What was she going to do?

The door opened. Karen drove in, her men waiting for her on standby.

"Come on, let's go see her!" Brayden taunted.

The other people were excited.

Elijah sighed, "What do you want her to do?"

"What do I want her to do? I want her to know what the consequences will be for what she did today!"

As soon as Brayden went out, the others followed suit!

Looking at Karen on the surveillance screen, Elijah sighed and felt even more regret in his heart.

He found that Karen's eyes were bloodshot. What was she going to do? Did she really want to fight to the death?

"You came to the wrong place. You don't have the strength to do so," Elijah shook his head.

He continued to watch with no intent to leave the room.

In the Lee family hall!

Brayden and the others had arrived. Brayden had already ordered someone to attack the people outside at his command!

"When the time comes, catching Karen will be like getting candy from a baby!"

"She's pretty brave!"

"Haha! She's in a desperate need of help. Is there anything she won't do? I guess she's here to bargain with us," A man said with a sinister laugh.

"I think so too. She's begging us to help her deal with the Oatker family. Tsk tsk, when did she become so stupid?"

"Ha ha!"

Several people were laughing at them. Karen came in alone. Betty wanted to follow her, but she didn't allow her to.

"Karen, what are you going to do today with such a large fleet of soldiers with you?" Brayden mocked her.

It was such an ignorant move to come in alone!

Without anyone else's help, they would be able to capture her. She was like a sheep in a tiger's den.

"Are you here to beg us?" Brayden ridiculed.

Karen approached him slowly. She kept staring at Brayden as she asked, "I'm here to ask you only one question!"

"Oh, do you think I'll answer if you ask me? Who do you think you are? Do you think you're a part of us?" Brayden stated disdainfully.

"We let you off last time, but you can't escape today!" The others glared at Karen.

She had to remain here today!

"Did you do something to my son?" Karen asked.

"Oh, your son is dead, right? Haha, that's good news. Do you want me to celebrate with you? Haha!" Brayden laughed menacingly.

Turns out that Karen was just here for Chuck!

Did something happen? Was he killed? Did some unfortunate accident happen to him?

Excellent!

However, Brayden felt a little regretful because he wanted to kill Chuck personally. He didn't expect Chuck to die before he could make his move.

Oh well, his death was good enough!

His son could rest in peace now.

"Your d*mn son Chuck's definitely the unluckiest man on earth. We didn't even need to personally kill him at all! Tell me, did he get beaten or hacked to death? Tell me, I'll sleep well tonight." One of the brothers laughed maniacally.

"The way I see it, you came to the wrong place. It must have been done by the Oatker family. They killed your son, so why don't you go to them? What are you doing here?"

"Haha, I told you. She's just to make us happy."

"Hahaha!"

The room was filled with the sounds of a diabolical laughter. To them, Karen brought great news of Chuck's death!

"Karen, you've come to the wrong place, but you won't be able to leave today!" Brayden said coldly!

Chapter 568

In the face of their mockery, the hostility in Karen's eyes grew. Chuck was the most precious thing to her, but now, these people were laughing at him!

They were taking pleasure in others' misfortune!

Flames of fury sprang up in Karen's heart, as if they were fanned in a furnace!

"My son's not dead!"

Karen walked up to them. Brayden and the others frowned and surrounded her. They were going to take her down personally!

As a former member of the Lee family, Karen had been a castaway. She couldn't just stay a coward and even went to attack the Lee family!

This was intolerable!

"Oh, he's not? Then what are you doing here? Haha, the person who injured your son really is a genius!"

"That's right. If your son is dead, why are you still here?"

Several people ridiculed her. Suddenly, Karen appeared in front of a middle-aged man. She struck him with a fist equipped with all her strength.

Bang!

It was shockingly fast, as well as shockingly powerful. This middle-aged man who still had a face of mockery widened his eyes in disbelief. His face was instantly filled with surprise, pain, and fear!

With a scream, he flew back!

Thud!!

He smashed onto the wooden tables and chairs and flopped onto the floor.

There was dead silence!

Not a sound was heard in the room.

Brayden was shocked. They were all combat masters, but someone was sent flying by a single punch from Karen? Did they not have the slightest strength to fight back?!

Even he, Brayden Lee, couldn't do that!

That was simply amazing. Where on earth did Karen's strength come from?

"Karen, I am your brother. How can you treat me like this? You..." The middle-aged man struggled to get up, black spots dancing in front of his eyes. The power of Karen's punch was too amazing!

"My brother? From today onwards, you are not!"

Karen's footsteps were too fast. Before the middle-aged man could react, Karen's fist had already hit him in the chest!

"Argh!"

It was an ear-splitting shriek!

Due to Karen's punch filled with anger, he fell to the ground and spat out blood, then stopped moving.

The two punches had pummeled a combat expert to the ground. This was something that even Brayden didn't expect!

Last time when he chased Karen out, she had already made her move but she was nowhere near as good as now. Was she just holding back that time?

In the room, Elijah, who was watching the surveillance, was shocked!

He was also a combat master, but he couldn't do this when he was young. Yet, Karen seemed to be able to.

How strong had his own daughter become?

He couldn't believe his eyes!

The feeling of regret spread in Elijah's heart as he trembled slightly. If he hadn't chased her out, if he hadn't been so strict on her since she was young, perhaps...

"Karen, you're looking for death!" Brayden was furious!

"No, you're the one who's seeking death!"

Karen headed straight for Brayden!

This punch of hers contained an astonishing amount of power!

"Guys, let's get her together!" Brayden was furious!

Everyone, including a few combat experts, sprung into action. The formation they took on was pretty astounding.

However, Karen managed to single Brayden out and threw a punch at him!

"Die!"

Brayden sneered. Men and women were physically different. No matter how powerful she was, her frame was not as big as his. She was destined to be weaker. Compared to him, he could destroy the bones in her arm with this one punch.

He was going to cripple her for life!

Karen ignored everyone else and their fists collided with each other!

However, to everyone's surprise, Brayden's arm buckled. He felt that he had smashed into an iron fist. It was too hard!

His fist was deformed, blood seeping out of the cracks in his fist.

Pain made him come to his senses!

"Karen, how dare you?"

Brayden was shocked and stepped back, but Karen's petite-looking fist headed straight for him once more!

Her speed had reached superhuman speed!

Bang!

He flew backwards, blood spurting out from his mouth. He was in a terrible state!!

Brayden stood up and slumped onto the ground again as if his body had fallen apart. He was extremely shocked.

Why! Why was he so weak today?

How could this be possible?

Brayden found it unbelievable!

The other people were stunned and their jaws dropped. Just now, they tried to besiege Karen with all their strength, but she easily escaped. A second later, Brayden had been beaten up badly.

What... What was going on?

They couldn't even describe how shocked they were.

Suddenly, a figure rushed towards him. Brayden tried shuffling backwards, but there was no chance at all. A hand grabbed him by his neck!

His oxygen supply was cut off and the feeling of suffocating overwhelmed him all of a sudden. The fear of death descended upon him, causing him to panic as he croaked, "You, you..."

Was this a dream? How could he be so vulnerable today?!

"You're the one who's going to die! You didn't kidnap my son, but I'm going to kill you anyways. I'm here to make the person who kidnapped my son know the consequences!"

Karen carried a murderous intent that she had never seen before!

Brayden was terrified and pleaded, "No, I'm your brother. I hugged you when you were little, and I..."

"If it weren't for this, I would have killed you long ago!" Karen's hand was exerting more strength, her fingers wrapping around Brayden's neck tightly that even a simple grip would snap his neck off easily.

It was only then that Brayden regretted what he had done.

He was vulnerable in front of Karen.

Apparently, Karen could've killed him a long time ago.

He had been playing with fire all the time, and today, the fire was finally creeping up on him!

The other people in the room were frozen for a long time. No one thought that this was possible.

"Stop, Karen! He's your brother!"

Right then, an old man's voice was heard.

Elijah came out shakily. He saw what was happening on the surveillance screen and his heart was trembling. Karen had been hiding her true strength all this time and had finally shown it today.

It was both terrible and somewhat amazing.

"Dad," Brayden shouted in fear and pain.

Karen turned to look at him and said, "He is not. I have always been an outsider in the Lee family!"

The people in the room were speechless!

The gap in power flung them awake. This was no longer just a dream!

It had finally come to light that Karen was not so easy to deal with after all!

Her strength had long surpassed that of the Lee family!

So they were the ones looking for trouble...

Their previous lucky encounters appeared in their minds, completely demolishing their pride and arrogance as combat masters!

"Sigh, Karen, it's my fault. I shouldn't have treated you like that. Let your older brother go. He's your older brother after all!" Elijah sighed.

His persuasion was hollow, but what kind of confidence could he have? His daughter had been driven out, and he had always thought that she was just a dispensable person. Yet today, Karen had proved her strength, completely overturning everyone's expectations and images of her.

"No! Both him and his son wanted to kill my son. Is this something a brother would do?" Karen refuted. She tightened her grip once more, causing Brayden to suffocate. He was drowning in constant fear.

"Karen, you are still carrying the surname Lee. I was wrong. Let go of your brother! Do you want the Lee family to be finished? I will even kneel down for you!" Elijah knelt down!

The people in the room suddenly came to their senses!

"Dad, what are you doing?"

"How can she bear to see you kneeling down? Get up, get up quickly!"

"Please don't kneel!"

Several people surrounded him and tried to help him up, but he refused. He stared at Karen with remorse and pleaded once again, "Karen, let your brother go. I have knelt down to you. What else do you want? Do you want me to kowtow to you?"

"Karen, what kind of daughter are you? Dad already knelt down before you, so what else do you want? Are you still human?" Some of them were angry.

"You are not qualified to talk to me. Am I not human? All of you will die here today!!" Karen's cold voice echoed in the room!

Everyone was speechless. Indeed, if Karen was willing to throw away her conscience, no one in the Lee family was going to survive the night!

They could feel Karen's wrath!

No one dared to refute her. They didn't have the conviction and didn't know how to do so. Karen had been too kind to the Lee family. Although she was kicked out, they still wanted to trick her and even annex her. It seemed that they were the ones who weren't humans. They were the ones who forced her to throw away the last shred of familial love she had for them!

"Karen, let your brother go. I'll kowtow to you!" Elijah's voice was hoarse as he prostrated himself.

Chapter 569

Karen was not a cold-hearted person. In fact, her heart had already softened when her father knelt down.

True, she was still a Lee after all!

Furthermore, the man who knelt down and kowtowed was an old man!

"Karen, you have no conscience, you're worse than a beast. Dad's kowtowed to you. What else do you want?" One of them asked in agony.

"Yeah, Karen, you are a beast. No, the word beast isn't even enough to describe you. Dad knelt down and kowtowed to you. No matter how serious the matter is, you should just let bygones be bygones. How can you do this?"

Her brothers reprimanded and cursed her angrily.

"Shut up!!" Elijah chided!

"Father!"

"We're the ones who are lower than beasts! We've treated Karen so badly! What happened to her didn't happen to you, so none of you have the right to say anything about her!" Elijah shouted hoarsely.

Everyone was speechless!

Everyone who had been scolding Karen could only cower silently.

"Karen, let your brother go. The Lee family will never do that again," Elijah begged, his voice cracking.

If Brayden died, the Lee family's situation would continue to deteriorate. Now that Karen, who was originally the pillar of support, was driven out, the Lee family would hit rock bottom if Brayden was killed!

If that happened, the Lee family's fate would be disastrous. This is because the Lee Family was a rich family, and many wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to annihilate them!

Karen turned around and glared at Brayden, who was already starting to froth and convulse from the lack of air. She was silent for a second and released her grip, but quickly gave him a punch!

Bang!

Brayden wailed miserably. He flew out and laid on the ground, motionless. He was seriously injured and unconscious, a look of fear still plastered on his face.

"From today onwards, don't provoke me anymore! I have nothing to do with the Lee family!" Karen went out!

"Karen, I am your father. Have you forgotten?" Elijah's heart ached.

Looking at him, Karen shook her head and refuted, "You really think you have the courage to say this?"

Elijah was rendered speechless! That's right, he couldn't even admit it.

Could anyone still say that after they knew what he did?

"From today on, I don't have a father! Neither do I have a brother!" Karen left just like that.

The entire place was silent, only the faint sound of breathing and gasps could be heard.

In the end, Elijah looked at what was left of the house and sighed...

"Dad, Karen, she..."

"Get someone to send the two of them to the hospital. From today onwards, don't provoke Karen anymore," Elijah sighed.

"Dad, Karen is so sneaky! She is so good at hiding and at fighting, what a scheming b*tch!" One of the brothers scoffed.

Elijah walked over and slapped him in the face!!

"Shut up, she's your sister!" He scolded!

"But dad, she said that she won't recognize our ties anymore," The man clasped his cheek in pain but did not show any anger.

"It's not that she doesn't recognize our ties. We were the ones who cut off the ties on our own."

Elijah was worried. He had a feeling that from today onwards, the Lee family would begin to decline. Without Karen, the Lee family would definitely fail. He was starting to really regret his decision.

"What did you say? The Lees were besieged? What happened? Who could do this?"

The people of the Oatker family were all stunned!

The news spread immediately!

"It's true! It was Karen who did it! The Superb Household Forces of the Lee family were easily broken through by Karen."

"What? She actually had such strength? Why did she do that? Why did they suddenly break into a fight?"

It was hard for them to imagine!

The Lee family was also one of the Four Greatest Households. How could they be so vulnerable?

"I heard that Karen's son went missing. She had gone to the Lee family to find her son."

"Karen has a son?"

"Yes, it seems that he has come to the United States recently. Karen decided to do this as a warning to people who kidnapped her son, telling them to watch out!"

"Who could be so bold to kidnap her son?"

"Who knows? Anyways, it was not done by our family,"
Several people were talking about it.

The head of the Oatker family ordered, "Get someone to send those people in the lab over. Karen may come anytime soon!"

If Karen launched sudden attacks, this was not a good sign!

"If she dares to ambush us, I'll kill her!"

"That's right. Those from our lab don't feel pain. Ten of them would be enough to kill Karen. How dare she come over?"

The family members began to look down on her.

"No matter how good Karen is at fighting, so what? In this era of advanced technology, fighting and killing can't solve problems."

"Get those people over!"

"Yes, sir!"

They began to make preparations!

"Also, stop attacking Karen Lee for the time being. The Lee family was attacked by her, so a few of them must have died. From now on, attack the Lee family with all your strength. I want them dead!" The Oatker family head anticipated the annihilations of the Lee family.

If he conquered the Lee family, which was also one of the Four Great Households, the Oatker clan would be able to dominate the world!

Since Karen was also the one who provided them this opportunity, wouldn't it be a waste if he just let this chance go?

"Dad, I've been wanting to do this for a long time. I'll get to it right away!"

The people of the Oatker family began to get excited.

At the same time, news had spread to other families.

.....

One of the Four Greatest Families, the Lawrence family, had also received news that the Lees had been attacked!

"Karen's son was caught? Who did it? Those from the Oatker family?" A charming young woman muttered to herself.

If Regine was here, she must have known this young woman. She was the spitting image of Elise!

Yes, she was Sophia, Elise's mother!

"It's possible. Otherwise, who else would do such a thing?"

Someone else in the room suggested, throwing out ideas. The room was filled with beautiful United States beauties, proof of how the Lawrence family was dominated by women.

"That's right. It's better not to mess with Karen's son. There's a reason that she has been able to stay here for so many years," said Sophia.

"I don't think so. Isn't she just a woman thrown out by the Lee family? She's nothing on her own, and can only be angry with the Lee family. How dare she get angry with other families. Recently, the Oatker family dealt with her, but she didn't dare to say anything and didn't even dare to resist. I think the reason why she can fight against the Lee family this time is that she's from the Lee family and is familiar with them, hence explaining the surprise attack. She won't come after us because she probably won't know our household well!" Another pretty woman in jeans called Sonia scoffed in disdain.

Yes, they knew that Karen had been driven out. What strength did a stray woman like her have?

"Forget it, let's not talk about her. Where's your daughter, Elise?"

Sophia shook her head and shrugged, "I'm not sure. She hasn't come back today. It's so late."

"Could it be that she's on a date with someone?"

"No, I know my daughter, Elise. She doesn't like ordinary men," Sophia answered with satisfaction.

Her daughter was a girl with chastity. She was quite good at preserving her innocence.

"You're right. Who's qualified to be picked up by Elise anyways?"

Sophia smiled gently, "Forget it. Let's drop the topic. We don't need to do anything about Karen. It's none of our business..."

"So what? Will she dare to fight me?" Sonia sneered.

The Lawrence family was a family specializing in firearms. Karen wouldn't even dare to step foot in the mansion. She would be blown to smithereens with bombs!

"Yes, even if our family kidnapped her son, there is nothing to worry about." Another blonde lady said.

Sophia nodded. That was true, so there was no need to worry, was there?

She took out her phone and called Elise.

"Hi, Mom."

"It's late, so why aren't you home?" Sophia pretended to be angry. Elise was probably drinking somewhere at a bar. Although Sophia always advised her daughter not to go to such places, Elise loved to go drinking. However, she would usually frequent bars that belonged to their family.

"Mom, I have to go abroad in a few days."

"What are you doing abroad?"

"I'm having some fun. I've found something interesting and I think it'll be entertaining!"

Sophia couldn't stop Elise and just sighed, "Come back soon."

"Got it. I'm hanging up."

Sophia smiled.

"What's Elise doing?"

"She said that she found something fun and entertaining." Sophia didn't know whether to laugh or cry. What fun was worth Elise going abroad for?
