

Chapter 666

"Black Rose, you'd better protect him during this time. I'm worried that something may happen," Karen was worried that the Oatker family would do something out of desperation.

In addition, there was also Chadrick to worry about!

She was annoyed but helpless. Their son was in trouble, but he hadn't shown up yet. For the first time, she felt disappointed in Chadrick.

"Okay, got it," Black Rose answered as she nodded.

"By the way, Chucky does listen to you, right?"

"Yes," Black Rose replied. In truth, she was rolling her eyes deep down. Why would he even listen to her?

"Alright, you should go and rest. I'm going out," Karen had to leave. Betty was already waiting for her.

Black Rose did not answer and just nodded slightly.

After that, she went into the room next to Chuck.

Karen and Betty left.

Now that the Oatker family was in chaos, Karen had to end the battle quickly. As long as she managed to intimidate the other families, she could begin to deal with the Yeager family and also Adriana Whitlock!

There were some things that Karen couldn't tolerate.

The two of them went out. The next morning, astonishing news painted global headlines...

.....

"Hubby, why are you so quiet today?" Yvette felt that Chuck was in a very bad mood. He didn't even look at her.

What was going on?

Actually, it wasn't that Chuck didn't want to look at her. If possible, he would like to gaze at Yvette's face for his whole life. Rather, it was because of the affair with Sophia. He felt sorry for Yvette.

It was just like what happened with Quinn previously.

Chuck had nothing to say. After all, it was his fault for not controlling himself.

If he had left at that time, this awkward situation would have never happened.

Such a great partnership with Sophia would never have become so messy.

He was in a dilemma.

"Honey, let's go to bed. Stay in my arms," Chuck said softly, feeling guilty.

Yvette let out a sigh of relief. She thought that something had happened to Chuck.

She did not sleep until Chuck came back because she was worried about him. She was afraid that something bad would happen to him again.

However, he was safe now. Nothing was going to happen to him.

She was soon asleep, but Chuck was so ashamed that he couldn't sleep all night.

He could only sigh. He felt sorry for Yvette and Sophia...

.....

The Oatker family had gone mad.

"D*mn it, it's the Lawrence family! That b*tch Sophia Lawrence was the one who sent a bomb. Has she gone nuts? How dare she do this?"

Everyone in the Oatker family was infuriated.

This all happened so unexpectedly! They originally thought that Sophia would stand by the Oatker family and join forces with them to deal with Karen together. After all, a few of their core family members had suggested blackmailing her. However, they didn't expect the operation to fail and for the two members who carried out the operation to die. In addition, they had incurred Sophia's wrath and caused her to start bombing their headquarters in the middle of the night.

How could they have expected something like this?

Their plans were all messed up now!

"F*ck you, Sophia Lawrence! Dad, let me go and kill her now. The bomb just killed my son and daughter!!" An old man roared in anger. His eyes were red-rimmed.

Earl Oatker, the head of the Oatker family, had also flown into a rage.

He didn't expect Karen's strength to be so strong.

"Leave her alone first. Try your best to deal with Karen Lee and kill her. Eventually, that b*tch, Sophia, won't be able to escape!" Earl ordered coldly.

"But Karen is not that easy to deal with," Someone shivered.

In just a few days, Karen had already given them enough terrible surprises to last for a lifetime. They had assumed themselves to have enough power to crush her since they were one of the Four Greatest Households.

However, Karen had completely shattered this idea!

04:37

She had shown them that there would always be someone else stronger than them.

"Not easy to deal with? Release those things in the lab! I want Karen Lee dead!" Earl shouted viciously.

Indeed, they had another secret weapon up their sleeves.

Without the sense of pain, a person would have enhanced senses and longer durability. They would no longer be humans anymore - they would be biological weapons!

If they attacked Karen, she wouldn't be able to escape from their wrath!

"Yes!"

Some people were excited. Those test subjects had degraded intelligence and would only follow orders blindly. They were like trained beasts.

Earl sneered, "Karen Lee, let's see if you can survive tonight!!"

Those things could definitely tear Karen apart.

"There's no way she's going to survive this. Her son as well! Both of them deserve to go to hell!"

"That's for sure. Also, the Lee family suddenly stopped taking action. They all have to die!" Someone said in a gloomy voice.

"Yes, Brayden Lee is a wimp. Just because he's afraid of Karen, he's decided to back down like a spineless coward. He deserves to die too!"

The Oatker family members were all excited. They soon descended into a discussion on how many of their opponents they were about to kill.

In a luxurious villa.

Adriana was no longer calm. In fact, she was very irritated because the issue surrounding Chuck had managed to provoke her.

"What's going on outside? Karen destroyed the Oatker family?" Adriana asked coldly.

She knew exactly why Karen was anxious to deal with the Oatker family.

After combining forces with the Oatker family, Karen probably thought she could grow stronger and hence stand a chance to the hidden families.

What an idiotic dream!

This was no more than a baseless fantasy!

"That's about it. Karen has been focusing her attacks on the Oatker family, attacking their important bases to weaken their power. She's pretty good, I have to give her that. In addition, that Sophia Lawrence from the Lawrence family has also given a little surprise to the Oatker family," Nelson said.

"Oh? That old hag Sophia... Why is she getting involved?" Adriana was slightly startled.

She knew that Elise was Sophia's daughter. Previously, Elise had mistreated Chuck quite badly, so she had a constant urge to completely wipe the duo off the face of the earth.

However, she later realized that if Elise hadn't captured Chuck and escaped to the Amazon, how could she have met Chuck?

As a matter of fact, Elise was their matchmaker.

Therefore, Adriana didn't want to deal with Sophia. She decided to let them go.

"Maybe it has something to do with Chuck! However, I received news that someone from the Oatker family who has always wanted to get their hands on Sophia Lawrence has died today..." Nelson reported.

"Oh? He's dead?" Adriana seemed to have thought of something.

She quickly understood. After all, she was smart.

"Yes, I think Sophia was pissed off with the man. After all, he was trying to harass her," Nelson attempted to analyze the situation.

"Then, what do you think about the man from the Oatker family? Did he manage to get his ways?" Adriana asked lazily.

"He probably did. Otherwise, why would Sophia be so angry and send such a big gift to the Oatker family overnight?" Nelson smiled faintly. He found it a bit interesting.

"Everyone seems to like older women. What's so good about those hags anyway?" Adriana mocked.

Nelson couldn't give her an answer. What could he say about this? All men had different tastes in women.

"Chuck is the same. Yvette and Willa are older than him. I'm younger than her, but he... Hmph!" Upon thinking of this, Adriana frowned, and her beautiful eyes were cold.

Instantly, Nelson trembled. Adriana seemed too frightening now.

"All right, you may leave," Adriana waved her hand lazily.

"So are we just going to allow Karen to obtain the Oatker family so easily? Won't we only be feeding her power and ego?" Nelson hated Karen the most.

He couldn't wait for Karen to die right away. He still held a grudge towards her for hurting him last time.

"Her ego? Hah, does someone like her even have an ego? Even if she does, she won't affect us at all. She can go ahead and take over the Oatker family as far as I'm concerned. After all, she'll still have to bow to us despite the amount of so-called power and ego she has!" Adriana taunted maliciously.

It didn't matter to her. Karen was just taking up whatever the hidden families discarded. She should be thankful for what she had!

"Understood," Nelson was about to leave. Just then, something suddenly came to his mind. He asked, "Miss, regarding Chadrick..."

"I know what he's thinking. I never thought that the Cannon family would have such plans," Adriana laughed.

She was thinking about another problem.

It had come to her attention that Chuck was also a descendant of the hidden family. However, given Chadrick's attitude, he was not planning to recognize Chuck as his descendant.

"It seems that Chadrick has been remarkably forbearing. He's been using Karen Lee all these years. She's quite pitiful," Nelson seized the opportunity to make snide remarks about Karen.

"Yes, Karen is indeed pitiful. She has been used by a man, but she is still unable to figure out the difference between a man and a woman," Adriana waved her hand and ordered, "Continue keeping an eye on Chadrick. One of these days, maybe I'll be in a good mood and decide to meet him!"

After all, he was Chuck's father. Eventually, he was going to be aware of their marriage once Chuck married into the Whitlock family.

"Yes, Miss Adriana," With that, Nelson left.

After he left, Adriana sat there silently in the room. She sounded cold and unforgiving as she muttered, "Chuck, if you don't grasp the chance I'm giving you, don't blame me for what's going to happen next!"
