

Chapter 202

Fade Chen scoffed and glared at Kiki Wei, asking, "Now, do you remember the pain from just now?"

Kiki couldn't help but tremble at Fade's voice, her face displaying fear and avoidance at the mention of the pain.

Fade continued, "I can spare your life now. Tomorrow, you must leave Scott. Don't try to play any tricks, and don't try to get his help either. Otherwise, the pain will be triggered and you'll be dead in three minutes."

"No, I won't. I'll leave Scott immediately. Right away." Kiki waved her hands repeatedly and said hurriedly.

Fade nodded and said, "Since your attitude has made me happy, I'll let you live. However, you know what's waiting for you if you make one wrong move. I'm watching you."

Kiki quickly nodded and looked respectfully at Fade. She wouldn't dare to try any tricks anymore.

"Now, get lost!" Fade said coldly.

Kiki opened the car door as if she had been granted amnesty, and collapsed on the ground. She struggled to stand up and wanted to get as far away as she could from Fade. He had terrifying skills up his sleeve, something that she would've never imagined he had.

Then Fade drove home.

The next day, Fade found out that Kiki turned down Scott. She found an excuse and had left Hanover City.

Scott's issue was now settled, but soon after, Fade found himself in the middle of things once again.

He had received an invitation card. Upon opening the card, he found that it was an invitation to a banquet. The card was signed by Jaeger Hu from the Hu family.

After asking around, he learned that Jaeger Hu was Shawn Hu's nephew, the current head of the Hu family. Since Shawn's son was not at home, Jaeger was like the heir of the family. He had been following Shawn all the time and dealing with the Hu family's affairs.

Moreover, Jaeger seemed to be quite skilled in martial arts. His ability at mid Yellow Level would already brand him as an expert amongst his peers in Hanover City.

“Since Jaeger Hu invited me, it seems like the Hu family is making their move.” Fade chuckled at the thought of this. He didn't reject their invitation and instead took a car to the indicated venue.

The place to attend the banquet was not a hotel, but an elegant and quiet small restaurant. There was a small wooden house surrounded by an elegant garden filled with flowers and greenery, as well as a clear pond. It looked like a quaint place to be.

When Fade walked into the small wooden house by the lake, a lot of people were already sitting inside.

After a rough glance, Fade could recognize several of them, who belonged to the rich circle of Hanover City. He saw some faces from the banquet at Big Brother Qian's place, and it was clear that they saw him as well. Their gaze shifted uncomfortably upon seeing him. Since the Hu family and the Qian family were at odds, the fact that they were attending banquets from both sides showed that they didn't want to anger any side.

There were also some who Fade was not familiar with that did not attend Big Brother Qian's banquet. They were probably the rich gang who were better acquainted with the Hu family.

Among these, Fade's eyes found a familiar figure. It was Yoshua Hu, who had just got into a fight with him the previous day.

At that time, Yoshua glared at Fade with resentment, a proud and confident expression on his face. Obviously, he wanted to take this opportunity to take revenge on Fade and regain his honour from yesterday.

However, Fade didn't care about Yoshua. Instead, he looked at the man seated at the host's table. He wore a white robe and a light smile on his face as he gestured gently at

Fade, "Mr. Chen, please take a seat."

He sat down and right after, the banquet began. Instead of serving food on the round table, everyone had a few dishes placed in front of them to enjoy fully and personally.

After the meal was served, many people started digging into the food. Some rich kids who were closer to the Hu family did not forget to shower their flatters and praise after each dish.

Some said that the ingredients were rare. If it weren't for Jaeger Hu, they wouldn't even have the chance to treat their taste buds to such food.

Some praised the chef's skills at cooking, and implied that they would never have the chance to try their cooking if it weren't for Jaeger Hu.

In short, they were flattering Jaeger and the Hu family, and indirectly showing their disdain and discontent at Fade.

Fade didn't care and just ate quietly. Since the other party didn't make a move, he was not in a hurry. To him, it was just a normal party.

He was in no hurry and was about to finish his meal. Yoshua, who was sitting opposite him, couldn't sit still. He winked at Jaeger Hu, who was sitting in the main seat.

Jaeger took a look at Fade who was still enjoying his meal and narrowed his eyes slightly. He thought to himself that Fade was either ignorant or actually skilled to be able to eat his food so relaxedly under such circumstances.

However, the thought lingered only for a moment as he smiled to himself. He had everything planned out properly, so why should he even worry? He had to just follow his plan, and everything else would fall into place.

Thinking of this, he nodded at Yoshua.

Yoshua's face lit up with excitement as he gave a signal to the bodyguard standing outside the door.

All of a sudden, the sound of footsteps could be heard outside the cabin. Although no one saw them, everyone knew that they were surrounded.

For a moment, the expressions on Jaeger and Yoshua's faces became more confident and proud. They looked down at Fade with a condescending look on their faces.

Yoshua slammed his chopsticks on the table, glared at Fade and shouted, "Mr. Chen, let's settle things from yesterday."

Fade just stared at Yoshua and said, "Are you still looking for a fight?"

Yoshua was provoked and was about to rush straight up at Fade and give him a beating, but was stopped by Jaeger. Instead, Jaeger smiled and said to Fade, "I know that Mr. Chen is very confident, but our Hu family is also a family with a long history of engaging in martial arts. We are very confident in our skills too."

Fade glanced at Jaeger and said, "What's wrong? Are you going to fight me then?"

Jaeger shook his head and said arrogantly, "No, not everyone is qualified to fight with

Fade continued provoking, "Really? You took the words right out of my mouth."

"You're courting death!" Yoshua shouted at the sound of such arrogance.

However, Jaeger stopped him. He rolled his eyes and looked at Fade, saying, "I know that Mr. Chen is quite famous in Bay City. You even have a nickname called Lunatic Chen."

Fade shot a cold glance at Jaeger and suddenly shouted, "Since you know my name, how dare you disrespect me!"

As he said this, a shot of energy instantly headed towards Jaeger and his company and overwhelmed them entirely. Many people in the crowd looked shocked as they fell on the ground in disbelief.

Chapter 203

Jaeger and Yoshua Hu's expressions changed. However, Jaeger's expression soon calmed.

His face darkened and his tone steeled. He shouted, "Mr. Chen, I know you are famous, but don't forget that this is Hanover City, not Bay City. Some things are better left unsaid, Mr. Chen."

The minute he said that, Fade Chen noticed bright red spots dancing across his eyes. Upon closer inspection, he found that there were two of them focused on his chest, and another two right behind him.

"Sniper!" He looked up abruptly in the direction of the red dot.

He could detect snipers laying a few hundred metres away on the outer wall of the small restaurant, on top of the man-made hill as well as at the wooden attics surrounding him.

The four snipers had Fade surrounded with no chance to avoid the path of the bullets. Clearly, they wanted him dead at all costs.

Fade's expression hardened at the sight of this.

Towards Jaeger, Fade's expression was a look of fear.

Instantly, Jaeger's calm and confident demeanor returned. He looked at Fade with a smile and said, "Mr. Chen, in fact, the Hu Family doesn't kill people easily."

"But when some people cross the line, we really have no other choice but to deal with them." Jaeger looked at Fade. "Mr. Chen, do you understand what I mean?"

"What are you trying to say?" Fade remained calm and even picked up a cup of tea and took a sip.

Jaeger thought Fade was pretending to be calm. He smiled confidently and said, "Mr. Chen, you came to Hanover City on the pretense of just visiting. Yet in reality, you had already joined hands with Hubert Qian to drive the Guo family away, and then set a banquet to shock everyone. Finally, you challenged my Hu family and wanted to take the opportunity to uproot us from power. Just like how you conquered Bay City, you want to conquer Hanover City."

Fade Chen burst out laughing and thought to himself that Jaeger was overthinking. The following events that happened was only because of a conflict during the trip.

In Jaeger's eyes, Fade's smile looked fake and forced. He became more confident and said, "If my guess is right, Mr. Chen's subordinates in Bay City have already secretly entered Hanover City. Jimmy Wei's sudden departure is to give way to you."

Fade shook his head and was speechless. If he really wanted to destroy the Hu family and unify Hanover City, he could just singlehandedly take on the whole Hu family. Why would he bother going through all the trouble? These people didn't understand his strength, so they tried to figure out his strategies based on ordinary thinking.

But what they didn't know was that Fade's strength had already surpassed them by several levels. He did not need to use any tricks and could just crush them directly.

"You're speechless now that I've figured everything out, aren't you?" Jaeger smirked with a confident smile.

Yoshua and others looked at Jaeger with respect and admiration. At the same time, they secretly looked at Fade with displeasure and discontent.

Fade was indifferent and said, "Well, what if the rumours were fake? What would you have done? Even if they're true, what are you planning to do then?"

Jaeger chuckled and raised his glass, "If the rumours are fake and I am wrong, this banquet will remain as a banquet. Mr. Chen, you can return after eating."

Following that, his tone changed and his voice was sharp and stern with oppression. He threatened, "However, if it's true, I would like to ask Mr. Chen to return from wherever you came from. Don't think about making trouble in Hanover City."

"This... is not your territory, Lunatic Chen!"
Jaeger narrowed his eyes and glared at Fade with a confident expression.

Yoshua and others were also excited by the rising tension that was going on between Fade and Jaeger.

"Master Jaeger is right. This is not your place!"

"What Lunatic Chen? This is Hanover City, not Bay City. It's ridiculous."

"You can't topple the Hu family! Get out of here before you face humiliating defeat!"

"Master Jaeger is giving you a chance. Otherwise, the Hu family would have destroyed you long ago."

The crowd's nasty jeers and taunts were directed towards Fade.

Yet, he stood unfazed like an oak in the wind, calm and collected.

He drank up the tea in his hand, then looked at Jaeger and said, "What if I don't?"

Upon hearing this, Jaeger's eyes narrowed in annoyance. He slammed on a table and said coldly, "In that case, let me show you the strength of the Hu family and Hanover City."

As he spoke, he raised his hand and gestured. All of a sudden, the sound of footsteps could be heard as white-robed warriors appeared one-by-one and surrounded them

The four snipers also held their breath and waited for the signal to be made. Their targets were all on Fade's chest and heart area, and they made sure that their aim was steady and right on the target.

Seeing this, Fade looked at Jaeger and said, "Since you know my nickname is Lunatic Chen, you should've heard about my strength."

"Your strength," Jaeger said, "You defeated Aaron Wan and killed Shancus Wan in Bay City."

"Since you know my strength, then what you are doing now is just courting death!" Fade coldly shouted.

Jaeger was momentarily stunned, but he quickly repositioned himself and taunted,

09:11

"Let's not talk about those rumors. Even if you really killed Shancus Wan, so what? The Hu family is not the Wan family, and Hanover City is not Bay City. You really think you can succeed?"

"Moreover, I don't think that you are eager to have a taste of the power of the four sniper rifles." He continued with a smile on his face.

"A sniper rifle?" Fade shook his head and sneered. "I can't believe that the infamous Hu family with supposedly martial arts skills passed down centuries ago would be like this. Any true martial arts master would be able to see that your tricks and schemes are no more but jokes."

A Black Level martial artist would already be able to dodge small-scale guns, such as pistols. Once one reached the post Black Levels, one would be able to block bullets using their bare hands.

Further ascending to those at the Earth level, they could easily block a bullet if they meditated and concentrated their aura. Although sniper rifles could inflict damage to them, it wasn't fatal. Moreover, it was still unknown if snipers would be able to hit them with their quick reaction and perceptiveness.

As for higher Heaven Level martial artists, sniper rifles would pose no threat to them at all. As long as they concentrated their aura, blocking bullets would be as easy as ABC.

Therefore, all these tricks by Jaeger Hu were nothing in Fade Chen's eyes since he was already at the peak of the Heaven Level.

Chapter 204

"What a joke!" Jaeger Hu's face darkened.

Yoshua Hu couldn't suppress his anger. He stood up and said to Jaeger, "Cousin, this guy is too arrogant. Let me get my guys and let's teach him a lesson."

Jaeger nodded, beckoning Yoshua to bring over his men for a full-on brawl.

At Yoshua's gesture, there were a flurry of footsteps. More than a dozen white-robed martial artists rushed into the wooden house and attacked Fade.

There was a smug smile at the corner of Yoshua's mouth as he shouted, "Kill him!"

In an instant, more than a dozen white-robed warriors raised their palms and unleashed a surge of energy that shook the whole wooden hut.

The energy that was released were as deadly as sharp blades and headed straight towards Fade. Yoshua added into the attack and released his own beam of energy towards Fade's heart. He wanted to get revenge for his previous feud in the bar.

When other guests saw this scene, they were all excited and shocked.

"So this is true martial arts, so strong!"

"The Hu family indeed has a long history of martial arts. Its strength is unimaginable!"

"That Fade Chen is screwed. He's the one who got into trouble with the Hu family."

In the midst of everyone's discussion, Fade just gazed up at the wave of energy that headed towards him. His eyes hardened and he raised his arm, revealing a sneer as he shouted, "Such ignorance. It's time for you to witness the true strength of martial arts."

As he spoke, a force was released from his arm and his whole body seemed to disappear into the shadows. With immeasurable speed, one could only see the afterimage of him heading straight towards the white-robed henchmen.

They instantly noticed a red energy growing in front of them and tried to force it back. Before they could even react, the light from their eyes disappeared as they took their last breath unknowingly.

Jaeger and the others witnessed the whole scene unfolding. Even before the white-robed martial artists could rush to attack Fade, their bodies were split cleanly in half. Blood gushed out from the wound and dyed the whole cabin a metallic red.

"Ugh..."

Jaeger's face changed rapidly, and so did the other guests. All of them looked pale and they all bent over to vomit.

Fade's movements didn't stop there. Taking advantage of the momentum, he landed on the ground gently on one foot and turned midair. He then headed straight for the back of the white-robed man like an arrow heading for its target.

"Stab!"

Instantly, they didn't manage to dodge in time and ended up like their companions who were now laying motionless on the ground.

Yoshua, who was among the warriors in white, was prepared to attack Fade. Now that he looked around, an ominous red pool had gathered around his feet, staining his shoes a coppery red. Fade who was now standing right in front of him had a sinister smile on his face, looking as though he was a devil from hell.

Yoshua terrified out of his wits upon seeing his smile. The revenge and delight he had just now had disappeared without a trace. He turned around and tried to run away.

"Do you think it's possible for you to escape?"
Fade snorted and chased after him.

"Save me!" Yoshua was shocked and shouted in a hurry.

At this moment, Jaeger was stunned in his spot. He did not expect that despite having ten elitists of the family attack Fade at one shot, the situation would still be in Fade's favour. This came as a shock to him.

Yoshua's cry for help awoken him from his daze. Seeing that Fade was going to kill his cousin, he was furious and shouted, "How dare you!" At the same time, he looked up and motioned for his men to shoot at Fade.

Immediately, Fade noticed that the red dots flashed across his eyes and gathered on his chest.

Immediately, a slender bullet cut through the air and headed straight towards Fade's chest.

The sniper shot.

The bullet rotated in the air with such momentum that it was guaranteed to pierce whatever obstacle in its path.

But just as the bullet was about to hit Fade, his eyes flashed with an unusual light. In his eyes, the fast-moving bullet slowed down and showed its trajectory clearly.

He leaned to one side effortlessly and the bullet passed by him.

The bullet planted itself in the ground behind him and left a fist-sized hole in the wooden planks on the ground. Splinters of broken wood flew everywhere.

In the distance, only the sound of a sniper rifle firing could be heard.

Seems like the bullet was faster than the sound.

After this shot, three more shots were heard. Three bullets landed right where Fade was standing a while ago and left their marks in the wooden floor.

The sniper rifle was fired four times, but missed its target completely.

At that moment, everyone including the four snipers were completely astonished. The four snipers were specially hired by Jaeger at tens of millions, and they had chose suitable sniping spots where they would guarantee a hit on the target. Moreover, the distance between them was less than three hundred meters. For experts of their level, they wouldn't make such a mistake.

They were a little lost in thought, but at this time, Fade looked up and glanced at the position of a sniper. His body moved quickly and rushed toward the sniper.

Noticing Fade getting closer, the sniper suddenly came to his senses. He quickly adjusted his aim and fired at Fade.

However, Fade's speed was beyond his imagination. In what seemed like a breath, he had already arrived in front of the man-made hill where the sniper was hiding.

He raised his arm and released a surge of energy towards the man-made hill.

The energy sliced the man-made hill cleanly in half. Without any support, the upper half of the hill toppled down.

The sniper hiding there was instantly frightened and wanted to escape.

But of course, Fade would never let him succeed. With a slight tightening of the fist, an invisible strength lifted the sniper up in the air. His hand tightened around the neck of the sniper, and only a crack sound could be heard. In just a moment, this sniper whom was hired using thousands of the Hu family's money was dead.

Momentarily, the snipers in the other three directions finally adjusted their shots again and fired at Fade.

This time, they were confident that they could shoot him dead as he had just turned his body around after the bullets were fired. No matter how fast he was, it was impossible for him to dodge the bullet in time.

For a moment, the three snipers looked at Fade's face from the sniper scope with a proud smile on their faces.

But just as the bullets were going to penetrate Fade's chest, a bright red light engulfed him suddenly. The three steel bullets that were supposed to penetrate even steel walls were blocked by the red light. They fell to the ground completely contorted in shape.
