

The Protector Chapter 1301

Moreover, it is said that the family meeting, Aaron and Caitlyn are not allowed to attend.

To put it bluntly, I was afraid they would stop it!

As soon as Zoey said this, everyone's face changed.

"Why don't you? Everyone in the three families agreed, but you didn't agree? Who do you think of yourself? Do you want to betray your ancestors?"

Meredith and Harry scolded.

"It's not that I don't want to, but Morris Group Group is not mine, it is Livi's, and there are many people who own a large proportion of shares! I can't be the master!"

Zoey.

"Huh, you're bullshit! Who are you lying to? Who doesn't know that Morris Group Group is yours! Even if it is Levi Garrison? You are a husband and wife, and his is yours!

What's more, he is handicapped, you have to take care of him, this company is yours! "

Jennie angrily scolded.

"You are not allowed to bully your mother! No..." mi. c

Levilia had a small face and looked at everyone fiercely.

Zoey smiled: "What are you doing for the three joint development, isn't it just for the Morris Group Group?"

Don't think I can't see it!"

Aaron glared at her and said angrily: "Yes, nothing wrong! We just want your Morris Group Group!"

"This is what you deserve to contribute to the Lopez family and Black family! Forget about your family after you have developed?"

...

Seeing that they couldn't hide it, everyone showed their true colors.

"I want to tell you one thing clearly-it's impossible, don't fight the idea of ??Morris Group Group!"

With that said, Zoey was about to leave with Levilia in his arms.

"Let's go! Whenever you step out of this gate! Your child will be nameless!"

As soon as Zoey walked to the gate, Jennie's voice sounded.

"Ok?"

Zoey was taken aback, then slowly turned around and looked at everyone.

Concubine Jennie looked at her condescendingly and said, "This is Levi Garrison's child, right? Why is it called Levilia?"

"What does it have to do with you?"

Zoey stared at Jennie.

"It's related, why doesn't it matter?"

Harry's voice sounded.

"This child follows his mother's surname, but the surname is Lopez! I am the head of the Lopez family, and I have never agreed that she can be named Lopez!"

"what?"

Zoey was taken aback.

"As long as I say a word, I can deprive her of her surname! She can't be named Lopez!"

Harry stared at her.

"Yes! What is the surname of Levi Garrison's child? Does he have the qualification? Lopez should be deprived of his surname!"

Everyone in the Lopez family scolded.

Meredith also said: "Not to be named black! The Black family also doesn't agree!"

Logan's father smiled: "It's okay if the surname is Zhang, just see if she is willing or not!"

How could Levi Garrison's child be named Zhang?

Lopez and Black reluctantly considered.

Because it has something to do with Zoey.

No other surname is possible

Zoey looked at everyone in despair.

This is premeditated!

She was just thinking about what they would use to suppress herself.

Now I understand.

This is a fuss about the child's last name!

Can't be named Black.

Nor can the last name be Lopez.

Not to mention other surnames.

Only one last name is left-Garrison.

Let Levilia and his father's last name.

But this is an unworkable road.

The Garrison family in Oakland City had a thousand warnings-Levi Garrison's child could never be named Garrison.

Any surname is fine, except for Garrison!

This is to put plum dye on a dead end!

"Zoey, we don't make it difficult for you! As long as you agree to the Morris Group Group to support the joint development of the three companies, you will be surnamed Black and Lopez!

The Protector Chapter 1302

"Otherwise! Levilia will never have a surname, even a household registration status! Believe it or not?"

Faced with the threats of the crowd, how could Zoey not believe it?

What can't these people do?

Not to mention this little thing.

They even expected the character of Zoey.

Forcing her to agree!

“You deceive people too much!”

Zoey stared at everyone helplessly.

“It’s not that we bullied people, it’s mainly that Levi Garrison was disabled, and we resolutely refused to agree!”

At this time, the Levilia in his arms suddenly said: “Mom, I can be named Garrison! I want to follow Dad’s surname!”

Levilia knows everything. ...

Meredith and others laughed; “Follow your father’s surname, right? Well, you can be named Garrison! Then you just wait for the revenge of the Garrison family in Oakland City. Let’s see if the Garrison family agrees or not!”

Everyone looked triumphant.

“Hmph! They dare not! They are afraid of father! My father is the god of war in Erudia! Everyone must be afraid!”

Levilia has gone through the things before and after.

Messiah still regarded Levi Garrison as the god of war in Erudia.

He even knew the fate of Tyrone Garrison and Garrison family.

Even the Garrison family is under the control of Levi Garrison. She wants the surname Garrison, who dares to hold him accountable?

Levilia is innocent and innocent, and he speaks the truth.

“Haha, listen? What did Levi Garrison teach this kid?”

“Erudia God of War? Is there a crippled God of War? If Levi Garrison is the God of War, it would be a shame. Can Erudia still look up?”

The Erudia God of War is Ray! Not Levi Garrison! “

“Don’t you worry about Levi Garrison teaching the child badly? Look at this lie?”

Everyone laughed.

Also blame the child’s education problems.

Zoey’s complexion is also ugly.

What does Levi Garrison teach this?

Indeed, you used to be the Erudia God of War.

But now it's not anymore, what else do you mention?

The key is that Levilia is still young, she will take it seriously.

This will cause a lot of trouble in the future.

It will also seriously affect the development of Levilia.

This can't work!

"Mom, I believe Levilia, Levilia can be named Garrison! No one can do it!"

Levilia insisted.

But who would listen to a child?

"Zoey quickly make a decision, don't think about it for yourself, but also think about it for your children!"

"Furthermore, take Morris Group Group out to support the joint development of the three companies, and the future is yours! Levilia is also the princess of the three families! Beloved by thousands of people! Not necessarily a bad thing!"

Meredith started to tempt her.

At this moment, Zoey really moved.

She didn't want Levilia to become a child who didn't even have a registered permanent residence.

A child doesn't even have a surname.

How pitiful is that?

"I think about it!"

Zoey.

Too bully.

Relying on Levi Garrison sitting in a wheelchair.

First, one of his kidneys was removed.

Now they are threatening to take the Morris Group Group away with the child's surname!

Zoey couldn't even imagine what kind of family he was born in.

The rich are as deep as the sea!

The affection here became a joke.

She would rather be born in an ordinary family in her next life.

“The time can’t be too long, just give you one day! Otherwise, immediately log out the child’s household registration status and deprive her of her surname!”

The crowd threatened.

Zoey carried Levilia home.

Levi Garrison knew something was wrong at a glance.

“what’s happenin?”

He asked.

Zoey told him everything that happened.

Levi Garrison was very angry, but he was a little bit happy.

“Nothing, Levilia’s surname is Garrison!”
