

The Protector Chapter 1309

“F*ck!?”

Bryan’s eyes are about to fly out.

Victoria fell to the ground with a puff... her body trembled sharply.

The adoptive father and mother were dumbfounded on the spot.

Joseph’s blood pressure rose and he almost fainted.

A disabled person stood up in front of them...

This is an unimaginable thing!

He has nothing to do?

Nothing happened!

Seeing Levi Garrison walk in front of them step by step, Joseph and others’ hearts almost burst.

Levi Garrison always pretends. mi. c

Not only that, he was also the master of Erudia’s thousands of people who went to Wanhaomen.

North Hampton made such a big move, it turned out to be celebrating the change of surnames for his children?

All these changes were too fast for the North Hampton Garrison family to adapt.

They also remembered what Levi Garrison had just said to give them one last chance.

They disagree.

“No! Why do you all listen to him? Even if his body is recovered, his position as God of War has been taken away by Ray!”

The adoptive father looked unbelievable.

The same is true for others.

Levi Garrison is not disabled, everyone accepts it.

But he was deprived of the position of God of War, and he was just an ordinary person.

Why does the Erudia Ten Thousand Clan listen to him?

This is unreasonable!

“What is Ray? He even killed Ray’s master, four masters, and even the first master of the East Island, Demon Blade! He is even the lord of the Levi’s Squad! And the capital has unanimously determined that he is still the Erudia God of War!”

Jamal Garrison sneered.

“boom!!!”

This fact was a shocking blow to everyone in the Garrison family.

He is still the pinnacle!

Do not!

Stronger than before!

It just covers up the glory and edge of the body.

Fool!

Too stupid!

As long as they are smarter, just like the Oakland City Garrison Clan, they are likely to rise!

“We were wrong in Levi!”

Joseph knelt down one by one.

Kowtowing to Levi Garrison begging for mercy: "We have no eyes! We are wrong!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

...

Everyone kowtowed, and blood was bleeding from their foreheads.

I dare not stop yet.

Levi Garrison ignored them.

Because they gave a chance just now.

North Hampton Garrison family didn't want it.

He also has no idea.

So the Garrison family didn't even have the chance to regret it!

Levi Garrison did not speak.

The Garrison family kept kowtow.

Blood is coming...

Several people even passed out directly.

“From now on, I don’t want to see North Hampton Garrison’s family still active in Erudia!”

Levi approached.

One sentence is equivalent to a trial.

The North Hampton Garrison family has since disappeared, and Erudia will never have a place for them to survive.

Garrison family’s heart is ashamed...

Completely finished!

At this time, Meredith and Harry who inquired about the address were rushing to the Tianchen International Hall.

Seeing the vehicles outside the hall and a private helicopter on the apron, everyone was even more excited.

If they can climb up to some of the big shots, they will definitely rise to the top in the future.

If Zoey's Morris Group were to be taken, the three of them would have taken off completely.

The thought of this made everyone's heart surging, and they couldn't bear it anymore.

Meredith and Harry entered the hall with enthusiasm.

"Grandpa and grandma, I heard that Levi Garrison and his evil seed were caught here. I'm afraid they are suffering?"

Concubine Jennie just heard the message from Zoey.

At this time, there was a thumping sound in the hall.

There was a lot of movement.

It's like fighting.

"It seems that Levi Garrison and his daughter are being abused!"

Concubine Jennie smiled.
