

Chapter 157

Dragon City Villas?

The most luxurious and heavily guarded villa area in Shang Shang Jiang City City. It was a gathering place for the richest people in Shang Jiang City!

A villa here cost more than ten million.

The outer villa's starting price was from thirty million!

The most expensive villa in Dragon City was Palace No. 1, which was located in the center. It had a unique geographical position, as if it was guarded by the very best. It was very magnificent and majestic.

You couldn't talk about Dragon City without mentioning the boss behind it, which was the Long's Group belonging to the Long family.

They were the local enterprise in Shang Jiang City which stood firm for forty years, and the power behind it was terrifying.

Even Bruce, the emperor of Shang Jiang City had to act according to the Long family's will.

Nobody could afford to disrespect the family. They were that powerful!

The power of Long's Group permeated almost every corner of Shang Jiang City.

The network of people behind them was complicated. Normal people couldn't possibly imagine it.

Cindy was surprised. She looked at Jason doubtfully, 'I know. What's wrong?'

Jason smiled. He took Cindy's hand, 'Come on, come with me to have a look. I have a gift for you.'

Cindy's heart was trembling. She was being pulled by Jason's big hand. Her bare, fair and tender feet stepped on the goose-shattered carpet. Then she walked down hundreds of meters of the long white-golden Western Europe-style corridors. She came to the more than one thousand square meters courtyard.

It was very majestic. The sky garden in the southernmost direction immediately attracted Cindy's attention.

There was a fountain, a rockery and a swimming pool in the courtyard. There were a lot of amazing flowers planted there as well.

There was also a tea pavilion, a small golf course, and a children's amusement park.

Cindy walked forward and stepped on the soft lawn. She looked at the long table full of white and red roses in front of her, and the rich delicacies and wine. She saw a warm candlelight dinner, and eight maids in white and black uniforms. They were standing on both sides of the long table and bowed slightly to Cindy. They said with respect, 'Madam.'

Cindy covered her mouth. Her eyes were full of excited tears. She looked at Jason, who was behind her, 'This... this is?'

Jason came over and knelt on one knee. He took out a small box from his pocket. It contained a custom-made diamond ring made by Swarovski. It was shining brightly.

'Cindy, this is our new home from now on. You've been wronged for so many years. Let me make it up to you,' Jason said gently. He personally helped Cindy change the shabby silver ring on her hand.

When they got married, Jason couldn't even afford a decent diamond ring.

At this moment, Cindy was undoubtedly moved and happy.

Her eyes sparkled with tears. She immediately rushed to Jason who was about to get up. Her warm red lips touched Jason's mouth.

She hugged Jason, and the grievances in her heart were released. She burst into tears, 'Being with you is my greatest happiness I could have in this life. No matter what you give me, I will love it.'

Candlelight dinner.

Cindy carefully put away the silver ring.

Jason was puzzled, 'Why do you put it away?'

Cindy rolled her eyes at him angrily, 'This is the first ring you have given to me. I have to keep it safe. It has a significant meaning.'

Jason shrugged and said nothing more.

'By the way, did you really buy this... here? How much is it? Where did you get so much money?'

Cindy looked at the surrounding environment curiously. It was so luxurious. Looking around, it was all customized with world famous brands.

The brightly lit lamp in this villa behind her was enough to make Cindy's heart skip a beat.

It was so extravagant. She had never seen such a villa.

Jason smiled slightly , 'I bought it with my parents' money.'

This villa was bought by Joe. He had been keeping it as a wedding house for Jason and Cindy.

However, he just didn't use it.

'How much does this cost?' Cindy asked again.

Not much, maybe ten million or so.' Jason replied. He didn't tell Cindy the specific number because he was afraid that she couldn't accept it.

Cindy was very nervous. When she heard ten or more million yuan, her heart couldn't stand it anymore. She hurriedly took a few sips of her drink.

'That's too expensive. Why do we have to buy such an expensive house? We can just buy a hundred square meters one.'

Cindy was a little angry. Jason was too wasteful. Didn't he fall out with his family? How could he buy a house worth this much?

Jason smiled, 'It's okay. Haven't I told you that I bought some shares with my money and made a good profit?'

Cindy trembled. She swallowed a mouthful of her drink and suddenly asked coyly, 'Jason, tell me, is your family really only running the Polaris Restaurant?'

Jason put down his knife and fork and handed a piece of steak to Cindy, 'Well, that's not true. My family has other properties..

'What do they do?'

Cindy widened her eyes. Especially when she thought of the scene in Sunrise Pharmaceutical. Her heart couldn't stand it since then.

It seems that my husband's identity is not so simple.

For someone like him, why would he be willing to be a useless son-in-law in the Jiang family for three years?

Jason knew what Cindy wanted to ask, 'I actually called my father's friend. He's working as a special security guard in Shang Jiang City. I don't know why he made such a big scene. But don't be afraid, it's okay.'

Cindy was relieved. She thought that Jason's family were gangsters, or the kind of family with an unusual background that was only usually seen on the TV.

It seems that I've thought too much.

However, Cindy became more and more curious about what Jason's family did for a living.

During the candlelight dinner, Cindy asked a lot of questions. Jason cleverly avoided the key issue and gave Cindy a satisfactory explanation.

'Cindy, trust me. There are some things that I can't tell you right now, but I can assure you that one day, I will tell you everything.'

Jason sat in the garden with Cindy. She leaned against Jason's arms and enjoyed the warm moment after the meal.

Cindy nodded in agreement.

At this moment, she trusted Jason very much.

At least, Jason had confessed some of it to her.

For example, Jason was going to take Cindy and Angela home to meet his parents.

Cindy was very excited and nervous. Would her parents-in-law like her and Angela?

'Cindy, what should we do about your parents? Should we tell them that we have bought the villa in Dragon City?' Jason suddenly asked.

Cindy thought for a moment, 'Let's wait for a while. She might invited trouble for us.'

Jason nodded and gently held Cindy in his arms, looking at the bright moon and stars.

Two days later, the wound on Cindy's face healed.

Over the past two days, Jason had been going back and forth between the hospital and Dragon City Villa.

Cindy asked for a leave, but she had to go to work that day. Sunrise Pharmaceutical just announced bankruptcy two days ago. There were a lot of things in the company that Cindy needed to deal with.

After Rhett's news announcement, he had been taken away by an officer. He was convicted of his many crimes

The large Sunrise Pharmaceutical collapsed overnight. It became the main headline in Shang Jiang City. Many people loved to talk about it.

This incident caused a stir in Shang Jiang City.

Many people in the higher society were talking about Sunrise Pharmaceutical and thought that the company must have offended someone.

Even the Lyu family in the capital city who supported Sunrise Pharmaceutical was being investigated.

As soon as the two things were connected, everyone knew that the Lyu family had provoked a big shot. Otherwise, how could such a big family in the capital city be sealed for investigations overnight?

Even Old Master Lyu was not spared from interrogation.

Everyone was discussing who Lyu family and Sunrise Pharmaceutical could have offended.

Cindy's company was no exception. As soon as she returned to the company, she heard her colleagues talking about it.

'Hey, have you heard that Sunrise Pharmaceutical is being investigated because they offended a big shot?'

'I know. My uncle was there that day.' One of the girls said excitedly.

'Really? Then what did your uncle say? What did he see?'

'Yeah, tell me, I'm so anxious! Who did Sunrise Pharmaceutical offend?'

A group of employees chattered with the girl, which made her feel quite important.

'My uncle was only delivering some goods at that time. He saw four tanks and special forces escorting a man and a woman into a car and left.'

The woman said excitedly, and her face couldn't help but show joy. She said, 'Hey, do you know, they were in Bruce Scott's car, Shang Jiang City's underworld emperor! My uncle saw it with his own eyes. Bruce respected the man very much!'

The group of people were stunned.

'Come on, tanks and special forces? Do you think you're watching a movie?'

'Yeah. How can there be such a powerful person in this world? Only people with a special background has that kind of power.'

They discussed this non-stop.

'Hey, Manager Jiang, you went to the Sunrise Pharmaceutical that day. Do you know anything about this?'

When Mandy saw Cindy coming from the door, she ran over with the intention to gossip.

Cindy just smiled and flicked Mandy's smooth little head. Then she stared at her colleagues who were gossiping and said, 'Why are you talking about this at work? Do you want me to deduct your salary?'

The group of people knew that Cindy was joking. They grinned and continued to work.

Cindy didn't say anything more. She turned around and went into her office.

Sitting on a revolving chair, she took out the golden card with the word "Yun" from the drawer and held it in her hand. She didn't know what she was thinking.

After a while, she put the business card back into the drawer again.

'Can I find that woman in all the Yun shops in the city?

Did she really know everything about Jason?

Cindy gave up the idea of prying. If she really did this, she would be distrustful of Jason.

Back with Jason.

He had just come out from Dragon City's Palace No.1. He was carrying the food made by the maid in his hand. He was preparing to go to the hospital to accompany Angela.

Suddenly, a shout came from behind.

'Hey, Jason. Why are you here? Shouldn't you be in the hospital?'

Jason quickly turned around and saw his mother-in-law coming over with two elegant middle-aged women.

Amanda looked doubtful and puzzled. She also looked at the huge and luxurious villa behind Jason.

Why had this loser come to Dragon City Villa?

Jason was also confused. He didn't expect to see Amanda here.

What should he do?
