

Chapter 210

"Where did this group of poor people come from? Why did they come to Dragon City?"

Suddenly!

A discordant voice rang out.

A young couple came over. The man was handsome and the woman was beautiful.

They were not ordinary people by judging at their clothes and appearance.

The man spoke discontentedly as he frowned

The woman next to him who was wearing revealing clothes next to him wrinkled her nose and said unpleasantly, "Mason, honey, isn't Dragon City's security very strict? Why is it so many trashy people here? They smell so bad."

Mason Cui was very disgusted with these kind of trashy people coming in. He said to several well-trained Long family security guards at the villa's entrance, "Hey! Why don't you send them away?"

Amanda Yang immediately got angry when she heard this. She raised her voice and pointed at the couple, "Little b*stard, who do you think you're talking to? Who is trash? You are trash and so is your family? What's so great about Dragon City? We are here today to view a villa. My son-in-law bought it!"

Amanda did not care because Jason Smith mentioned that he had bought the villa. He had even organized the Long family's cars to pick them up.

He could handle these matters.

Even if something happened, people would only look for Jason!

She could not stand these people pointing and gossiping about her.

"Yes, that's right. Our sister-in-law, Amanda bought this villa!"

"Who dares to send us away?"

"We just came here in the Long Family's cars! Who are you? You're so rude"

These people immediately pointed at the couple in front of them and began to swear.

17:04

Oh my god! They just looked like a group of shrews scolding each other.

In fact, they deliberately made things more complicated since they wanted to see whether Jason could solve the problem.

Mason was furious. He scolded the security guards, "Why are you still standing there? Do you want me to call your manager? Get rid of these stinky people!"

"That's right. Mason is here. What are you afraid of?"

The woman scolded the guard harshly as well.

Even in Dragon City people were of different status.

Several strong security guards ran over in a hurry. First, they saluted Mason, "Master Mason, I'm sorry. I'll ask them to leave right now."

The security guards turned around and stared at Amanda and others coldly. They shouted, "How did you get in?"

What was wrong with these people? How could they have broken in through the outer gate?

17:04

They looked unfamiliar so they were definitely not Dragon City's residents.

There were only one hundred and eight apartments in Dragon City. So these security guards could recognise all the residents.

They even knew the residents' cars.

Besides, Amanda and others were dressed very ordinary. So they certainly could not afford to buy a villa here.

Therefore, these security guards were feeling headache with the situation. What was wrong with the security guards on the outer gate today?

Were they not doing their duty properly?

If the manager found out about this, they would definitely be in trouble.

It was not a big deal to be in trouble but it would be terrible if they lost their jobs over this matter.

"Who said we broke in? We came here by car!"

Amanda immediately replied in dissatisfaction.

They had come in by the Long family's gold-dragon logo cars. Were these people blind?

17:04

The security guards were stunned. Had they really came in by car?

That meant it had been permitted by the outer gate's guards.

Fortunately, they were not stupid. They knew that the outer gate guards would not let them in if these people did not have a special identity or some other reason.

There must have been a misunderstanding in this matter.

When Mason heard this, he put his hands in his pockets and walked over. He sneered, "By cars? What kind of cars could you have taken? Were they junk cars?"

"Hahaha! That's for sure. Look at the clothes they're wearing. They're here to sweep the rubbish. After all, the kind of rubbish that comes from Dragon City. Who knows, they might get lucky to pick some treasures."

The slutty woman laughed mockingly. When she laughed, her cleavage bounced.

"You! You! Bullsh*t! You are the ones who pick rubbish!"

17:04

Amanda had never been insulted like this. She was always the only one who scolded others and no one else could scold her.

She said angrily, "We came here in the Long family's cars. If you don't believe me, you can ask the security guards at the outer gate! The cars are still parked at the entrance!"

After that, Amanda looked very proud.

She did not believe that these two people could match the Long family.

The Long Family's cars?

Mason looked at them suspiciously. When he had arrived, he did see several of the Long family's cars parked at the outer gate.

He thought that the Long family were there. However, after listening to them...

"Hahaha! Please, don't be silly! You are just a bunch of poor people who pick up rubbish. How can you have come here in the Long family's cars?"

Mason immediately sneered.

These people were so funny. How could they be so shameless to say they had been sent by the cars that were parked at the door.?

17:04

Josephine Yang, Karen Wang and others became angry when they heard Mason humiliating them like this.

This couple was so arrogant. How could these kinds of people live in Dragon City?

However, they did not dare to speak out. After all, this was Dragon City. If something happened, the Long family would do something about it.

They were just ordinary people, so they could not afford to offend them.

However, they did not mind Amanda quarrelling with this man. It would be best if they could just watch and enjoy the show.

Charles Jiang was not stupid. He stood up and pulled Amanda's sleeve. He whispered, "Well, Amanda. Don't make trouble. This is Dragon City. We can't afford to offend these people."

The Long family was the biggest family in Shang Jiang City.

No one dared to provoke them.

17:04

Amanda was so angry that she would not even listen to Charles. She turned and angrily slapped Charles in the face. She scolded, "Charles, you are a loser just like Jason! You used to be someone great. What had happened to you? Can't you see that I'm being bullied? Are you just going to tolerate this?"

Charles's face turned red. His wife had slapped him in front of so many people. He was angry but he did not dare to say anything.

If he dared to get angry, he would be in trouble when he got home.

So, he just endured.

On the other hand Mason sneered, "Oh! You used to be someone great. Not bad."

What the hell was this? In Mason's eyes, they were all rubbish!

His family worked with the government as well!

His father was the chief officer!

"What are you waiting for? Send them away. If something happens, I'll hold responsible!"

Mason was pissed off and he shouted angrily.

17:04

The Long family's guards looked at each other, knowing that they could not afford to offend Mason.

The Cui's was of high status in Shang Jiang City.

"I'm sorry, you need to leave," a security guard said as he tried to drive them away.

Josephine and others were being pushed by these security guards. They were very angry, "Amanda, didn't you say that Jason bought a house here? Didn't he arrange for the Long family's cars to pick us up? Hurry up. Call him and ask him to come here and pick us up!"

"That's right, sister-in-law Amanda. Let Jason solve this matter. He told you that he bought the villa so he must know the people here!"

"That's right. That dude was just boasting and he has brought us here. Who could be responsible for this if it wasn't Jason?"

"Hurry up and make him come over. If it weren't for him, we wouldn't be in this mess."

Several women shouted.

They felt a lot of hate for Jason now. This loser had caused a lot of trouble. Now they were being humiliated and chased out by the guards. It was so shameful!

17:04

They had to make Jason come over to solve this problem.

Even if something happened, it should be Jason who held responsible for it!

They could easily leave this place. Anyway, they were only here today to humiliate Jason and watch how he covered his lies.

Now they had their opportunity.

If Jason had not really bought the villa, he would not be able to pretend anymore.

Would Cindy Jiang be able to tolerate Jason if he embarrassed himself in front of them?

Soon, they would be in charge of Cindy's company. Then, they would easily be able to get a hold of the one billion dollar investment!

Karen, Camilla, Jimmy and Steven, as well as their children had already made up their mind as they looked at each other.

Only Hudson Han and Cecelia Zhou stood far away and watched what was unfolding.

17:04

They knew that Mason was in trouble.

"Ouch!"

Of course, Amanda could not resist against the pushes of these strong security guards. She fell to the ground and then cursed, "Well, well, well. How dare you push me away? I'll call my son-in-law right now. I'll ask him to teach you a lesson!"

Mason smiled coldly and stood there very arrogantly. He put his hands in his pockets, "Make your phone call. I'd like to see what kind of trash you can call to help. If you are able to enter Dragon City today, I will kneel down and crawl out of here!"

Amanda dialed Jason's number and vented all her anger to him. She shouted, "Jason, where are you? We're being kicked out of here. Come quickly!"

"What's wrong? Have you already arrived?"

Jason was just arriving at Dragon City. He was arranged things in the villa when he saw that something missing so he went out to buy it himself.

"We're here! But we are being driven out by the guards. They said that we are trash and wanted to drive us away! They beat me too! Come here quickly! If you don't come here right now, I might get beaten to death!"

Amanda shouted and hung up the phone immediately.

If Jason could not solve this matter, she would force Cindy to divorce him.

That d*mn loser, Jason had brought them here. And now they about to be kicked out by the guards!

Was he trying to embarrass them on purpose?

It was so embarrassing!

Jason was confused as well. However, he knew that something must have happened. So he rushed in from the outer gate.

As soon as Jason arrived at the inner door, he saw some people clamoring and pushing each other.

Amanda's crying was the loudest.

He jogged over with a big bag in his hand.

Mason saw Jason from a far. He laughed, "What the f*ck! Is this your son-in-law? He's must be a poor man. Is he carrying the rubbish that he picked up earlier?"

17:04

Chapter 211

Hudson Han looked at the scene. He suddenly felt pity for the guy who was swearing.

He used to ridicule Jason Smith like this too.

And the consequences?

He was slapped in the face by all his previous words!

What was so great about the Long Family? They Long Family was nothing compared with the Smith Group from the capital city.

"Jason, what took you so long? Do you know that we have almost been driven out? Was this arranged by you? Do you want us to embarrass us?"

Amanda Yang was very angry. She got up from the ground in a hurry, walked over while twisting her big ass. She went straight up and attempted to slap Jason in the face.

However, Jason dodged it. He stared at Amanda coldly and frowned, "Mom, did you call me to come over to solve the problem or to have everyone laugh at me?"

17:04

Jason had endured so much of Amanda's slaps in the past.

However, he did not want to endure anymore.

People would soon know his identity anyway, so why should he hold his anger?

Amanda felt bad due to the glare from Jason. However, she could not retreat because of her ego!

What's more, what right did this loser have to stare at her like this?

"What are you looking at? You asked someone to bring us here. There's a problem now so you should go and solve it!"

Amanda took advantage of the situation and shouted fiercely.

Jason looked at the relatives behind him. All of them looked at him with unfriendly expressions. They were like an audience waiting to watch a show.

Only Hudson and Cecelia Zhou were sensible enough to nod at him.

17:04

"Oh! This is the son-in-law you were talking about. He looks very ordinary. Can such a poor guy have enough money to buy a villa in Dragon City?"

Mason Cui walked over and looked Jason up and down arrogantly. Then he put his arms around the coquettish woman's waist and sneered.

The woman cursed in a vicious way, "Mason, the air is so smelly today. All the trash has come to the Dragon City. I'm really not happy today. You have to get me a new bag."

"Just buy one and then throw away all those that you don't need. Since, the garbage collectors are all here today."

Mason said with a smile. His eyes were full of mockery.

Jason frowned. "What's wrong with this couple?" He thought.

"I'm sorry. Did my mother-in-law them provoke you?" Jason asked with a smile. He was being quite reasonable.

What the f*ck!

17:04

Mason suddenly burst into laughter. He went up and kicked Jason in the abdomen. He scolded him, "Who the f*ck are you? Who asked you to speak? Do you know where are you? Dragon City! How can a trash like you to get in here?"

Mason was very unhappy with Jason's questioning attitude.

How dared this poor guy talk to him like that?

Jason took two steps back. He felt pain in his chest and abdomen. The corners of his mouth curled up and his eyes were full of coldness.

"I don't think it's right to hit someone." Jason said coldly.

"Why can't I hit you? A pauper like you deserves to be beaten! I'm going to hit you again. How can you stop me?"

The woman came over and slapped Jason.

Amanda and others were so shocked when they saw this that they stepped back in horror.

This couple was so ruthless that they started a fight whenever they felt like it.

Fortunately, Amanda and the others did not quarrel with them. Otherwise, if the couple called the security guards, they would be in trouble.

Amanda was angry about this.

Didn't Jason brag that he had bought a Villa in Dragon City? Why couldn't this couple recognize him?

Why was he being beaten?

He was really a loser!

He only knew how to swindle and lie!

However, the next second!

Jason waved his big hand and slapped the woman!

Pat!

The slapping sound echoed through the inner gate.

Everyone became dumbfounded and were lost for words.

Their words were all stuck in their throats.

Jason had actually dared to fight back!

"You! How dare you hit me?"

The woman covered her swollen face and shouted hysterically. She reached out her hand to rub it.

17:04

However...

Boom!

Jason kicked her with his big foot.

Her hips fell to the ground so hard that they almost broke!

"Ah! Mason. How dare this poor guy hit me! Kill him! Kill him!"

The woman was crazy. She sat on the ground and shouted loudly. She kept pointing at the security guards, "You idiots, are you standing there just to watch the show? I'm a resident here. Why don't you watchdogs cripple him? Beat him! Beat him!"

The several security guards looked at each other in dismay. They had never seen such a tough person. This guy daring to fight in Dragon City meant that he was disrespecting the Long Family!

Those who disrespected the Long Family were basically already dead!

Mason was angry too. Glancing at the crying woman on the ground, he stared at Jason angrily, "You're finished! You hit my woman, I'll break your legs! I'll make you beg for mercy!"

17:04

"What are you waiting for? Beat him! I'll take responsibility if anything happens!"

Mason shouted angrily.

The few people by Amanda's side panicked when they saw the security guards surrounding Jason.

"Amanda, let's run quickly. Jason didn't buy this villa at all. Otherwise, these people would have recognised him."

"Yes, we've got problems now. This is the Long Family's territory! We're going to get into trouble!"

"This silly Jason has really caused so much trouble for us!"

A few people criticised Jason one after another, then they turned around and ran away.

A lot of security guards arrived, coming from different directions. They were in black uniforms, black hats with Golden Dragon logos on their chests.

Each of them had a baton in their hand. They looked fierce!

"Oh my God! It's over! We're finished! We've all been ruined by Jason!"

Karen Wang, Camilla Sun and the others were all full of resentment and fear.

Amanda was afraid. There were so many security guards here. How could they escape?

"Jason, why are you still standing there? You've caused all of this, so you better solve it!"

Amanda was angry. She stood by the side with the others. She pointed to Jason, "Please just beat him. He brought us here and has caused all this trouble. It has nothing to do with us. We are all women. If you dare to beat us, we will sue you!"

Seriously?

Amanda showed her shameless spirit at this moment.

All the Long family's security guards who had rushed over were confused.

Mason grinned when he saw all of Long Family's security guards rushing over, "Idiot, you're dead meat! How dare you make trouble here! You're in big trouble."

However, he was suddenly stopped before he could finish speaking!

17:04

This was because all the Long family's security guards stood neatly behind Jason in an instant. They bent down respectfully and shouted, "Mr. Smith."

Mr. Smith?!

Mason was dumbfounded!

What was going on here?

Even Mason was not powerful enough to have all the Long family's security guards call him 'Master'.

Was this poor dude actually someone important?

Amanda and others were also dumbfounded!

Such a loser. How could he be Mr. Smith?

Were all of Long Family's security guards blind?

"Well. You guys got here quite fast. I don't want to see these two people anymore. Throw them out."

Jason said calmly before turning around to leave.

The security guards looked at Mason. They did not ask him anything and went forward to grab him.

17:03

"F*ck! How dare you touch me? Do you know who I am? I'm Mason from the Cui family! My villa is here! Who dares to hurt me? My father is Hector Cui!"

Mason became anxious. He could only let the security guards lifted him up without even saying a word.

"F*ck! Let go of me! My father is Hector Cui!"

"My family has high status in Shang Jiang City! My dad is the mayor!"

However, the security guards did not listen at all. They dragged Mason and threw him out mercilessly!

The woman was thrown out as well!

It was like tossing a couple of sandbags!

Jason looked at the couple outside the door and frowned. He called Joe Qiao, "Joe, is there someone named Hector Cui? Check it out."

After that, he hung up the phone and looked at Amanda and others with a smile, "Mom, uncle, aunt, let's go in."

Amanda was now surrounded by these few relatives. She stared at Jason as if he was a weirdo. She hesitated, "Go where?"

17:03

"The villa." Jason smiled innocently.

Meanwhile, Cindy Jiang came over with a smile, "Mom, why did you arrive so early? Let's go."

With this, she turned to look at Jason, "Is the villa ready?"

Jason nodded, "It's settled."

The people felt fearful as they followed Jason and Cindy into the inner gate. They walked along the wide road to Palace No.1.

Amanda and others did not dare to talk nonsense anymore. They were just like frightened quails, shrinking their heads and looking around.

"Amanda, what just happened? Why were Long family's security guards afraid of Jason?"

Karen found an opportunity to ask.

Amanda did not know what happened either. She became very nervous when she looked at Jason.

"Has he really bought a villa here? He had just thrown out the man who had mentioned that he was a resident. What kind of person is Jason?"

17:03

Camilla came over and asked this.

"I don't know. Stop trying to guess. Who knows what the hell this loser is up to. We're here anyway. Let's wait and see."

Amanda's felt very annoyed and guilty.

What if Jason really had bought a villa?

After walking for about ten minutes, they arrived Palace No.1's gate.

"This. Is this the Palace No.1?!"

Josephine Yang was so shocked that she covered her mouth with her hands and opened her eyes wide. She was totally stunned.

Amanda looked at the villa in front of her in disbelief.

This was the most expensive villa. It cost over two hundred million!

"Jason, don't tell us that the villa that you bought is Palace No.1?"

Amanda asked this with a look of disbelief.

Chapter 212

Jason Smith turned and looked at the crowd, "Is there any problem?"

The way he spoke shocked everyone.

Amanda Yang had a sour expression on her face. Where had Jason, this loser, got the money to buy Palace No.1?

Was he lying to them?

"Sister-in-law Amanda, what the hell is going on here? Doesn't this villa cost two hundred million dollar? Where could your family have got that much money?"

Karen Wang was anxious. This luxurious villa was much bigger than other villas she had seen when entering just now. It was really like a palace.

Didn't Amanda say that they could not afford it? What was going on?

Was she bluffing?

"Don't worry. We haven't entered the villa yet. Who knows what Jason is up to. Let's wait to see him make a fool of himself when we can't get into the villa."

Josephine Yang was disappointed. Originally, she had come here to ridicule Jason but she could not accept the fact that the villa was right in front of her.

With that, she turned her head to look back at her son-in-law, Hudson Han. She was enquiring whether he could afford to buy this villa.

Hudson shook his head helplessly and said with a smile, "Mom, I really couldn't afford to buy a villa here. Maybe Jason really has bought it?"

Hudson did not say this with an intention to mock. His intention was to make these people understand that they should not underestimate Jason.

However, when the crowd heard what Hudson said they saw it as an excuse to mock Jason even more.

"Yes, can that loser really afford to buy it?"

"We've just arrived at the door. Let's see what will happen after we enter the villa."

17:03

Karen and Camilla echoed this with disdainful looks on their faces.

Jimmy Jiang and Steven Jiang who stood beside were also looking at the Palace No.1 with suspicion and excitement. It was so luxurious.

It would be great if they could live here.

Lex Jiang and Ivy Jiang had already taken out their mobile phones and began to take lots of photos. They had no concerns. They just wanted to take photos so that they could show off later.

Amanda was in a stinking mood. She immediately walked over to Jason and pulled at him, " I warn you not to embarrass yourself. You still have the time to tell us the truth. If the owner doesn't want to let us in, you will embarrass yourself!"

Did Jason still want to pretend?

Jason smiled faintly, "You will know whether I'm the owner of the house as soon as you enter the villa."

Cindy Jiang said, "Mom, why won't you believe him?"

After that, she hold Jason's arm and walked to the door. Four Long's guards opened the door and greeted, "Welcome home, Mr. Smith and Miss Jiang."

Everyone was completely gobsmacked by their greeting!

Moreover, when they saw Jason and Cindy entering through the door together, it really seemed as if they were walking in to their own house.

They could not accept it!

How... how could this be possible?

Josephine, Karen, and others had a look of shock on their faces. This was completely beyond their imagination.

Amanda now felt both excited and guilty. She even felt uplifted.

She felt that she was on cloud nine.

She could not care less whether Jason had bought this villa. She walked in happily like a child kept exclaiming with amazes.

"Hey! Come in and see my new house."

Amanda turned her head and shouted towards the people outside. Her face showed a lot of pride. Amanda felt on top of the world. Especially when she saw her relatives were all depressed and smiling helplessly.

She did not expect that Palace No.1 could really be her house!

Josephine and others felt very uncomfortable. They hesitated at the door for a while before walking in. Although they did not want to enter the villa, they could not resist the temptation of this kind of luxury.

As soon as they entered, all of them became very excited!

It was so extravagant. It was just like the imperial palace.

All of them were just normal people, so they had never seen such a luxurious villa before. They felt like Alice that just arrived in Wonderland. They could not stop screaming in awe of what they were seeing.

The crowd were dumbfounded when they entered and stepped into the villa.

It was just like the rich and powerful families's villas on TV. It was so extravagant. So high-end!

The chandeliers were custom made by Swarovski!
And the sofa was custom made by Crown Sofas too!

Besides that, there was a spiral staircase heading up to the second floor!

It looked expensive at first glance!

"Sister-in-law, what's going on? How that loser Jason afford to buy such a villa? It's worth two hundred million dollars!"

Camilla pulled Karen aside. Her face was full of jealousy and dissatisfaction.

She was very unhappy. All of them were members of the Jiang's. How could Amanda's family afford such a villa?

Karen's face was gloomy too. They had agreed that they were here to ridicule that loser, Jason. Everyone was confused now by the situation.

"I don't know either. Amanda's son-in-law has always been a loser. Where did he get so much money?"

Karen said with a puzzled face. She felt uncomfortable when she looked at Cindy and Jason standing over close by.

"Did you see that all the security guards at the door were respectful to Jason. Is this guy secretly a rich second generation?"

Jimmy suddenly interrupted. Steven who was beside him nodded to show his suspicion as well.

Karen agreed too but she did not take it seriously. The reason for this was why would Jason have endured the treatment from the Jiang's for three years, if he was really a rich second generation?

Everyone knew how Amanda treated him.

Josephine came over. She was still in shock even though she had visited Palace No.1 before.

She casually mocked them, "It's not true. It must be fake. The last time I came here, the owner of this villa was not called Jason. He was the richest man in our city. Jason must have spent money to rent it for a day!"

Karen and the others immediately understood what must have happened when they heard this. The mockery on their faces was even more obvious.

"Could that loser, Jason really afford to buy such a villa? I think sister-in-law, Amanda must be stupid, she actually believes him."

Karen said angrily with a sneer at the corner of her mouth.

On the other hand, Amanda already felt like this was her house. She would never stop bringing people to visit the villa,, as if she was more familiar with the house than the servants were.

"Amanda, is this the villa Jason bought? It's so luxurious!"

"Well, the villa is really good. It's high-end and luxurious. It must be the most luxurious villa we have in Shang Jiang City. How could Jason be this rich? Why didn't you tell us before?"

"This is your fault Amanda. We are one family. This is such a good villa and there're so many empty rooms. Why didn't you invite us to move and stay here?"

The relatives kept praising and flattering Amanda so that she would remember them in future.

Josephine was the one who was suffering most. She had always liked to show off in front of Amanda and ridicule the loser Jason in order to gain a sense of superiority. However, she had to hold her words now.

Moreover, when she remembered that the real owner of this villa was actually Joe Qiao, she could not wait to reveal it to everyone. She would make Amanda's family embarrass themselves.

Amanda was so proud now. She felt so happy to show off in front of her relatives.

She had forgotten everything that Jason had said to her that morning. All the apologizing and kneeling. All gone.

How would it be right for a mother-in-law to apologize to a son-in-law.

"Well, of course you can stay. You can stay over when you have the opportunity. The more people the merrier"

Amanda sat on the sofa in the hall and she looked like a hostess, "Don't worry. You can choose any room on the first floor. I'll make the decision."

The people sat around on the sofas, looking at each other with a slight look of disdain.

17:03

Amanda already regarded herself as the master of the house.

"Amanda, did your family really buy this villa?"

Karen asked. Since Sister Josephine had mentioned something just now. So now it was necessary for her to expose Jason's lie. This family would be seen as a joke.

Amanda understood what she meant and immediately replied, "Sister-in-law, why are you asking when you're already here? Are you the ones who bought the villa if my family didn't buy it?"

"Amanda, do you think we don't know about your family's condition? How could your loser son-in-law afford to fork out two hundred million dollars to buy this villa?"

Jimmy said in a deep voice.

"What do you mean? You're looking down on me, aren't you?"

Amanda felt a little anxious. In fact, she was very suspicious as well. After all, she knew her family really could not afford such a villa.

She was sure that Jason could not afford to buy the villa either.

"Watch your words Amanda. I've heard that the owner of this villa is someone called Joe Qiao. He is the richest man in the city."

Karen crossed her legs and looked like she was waiting for the punchline. "If Jason really bought this place, then why isn't the owner's name Smith? Did you just rent it to deceive us?"

Jason heard this too. He came over and was about to say something before Amanda stared at him.

She asked angrily, "Jason, tell me honestly. Did you rent this villa?"

Amanda remembered what had happened the last time she visited the villa. Mrs. Zhao called and asked. The owner of the villa was indeed called Joe.

Had this loser purposely rented this villa to fool her?

If that was the case, wouldn't it have been a waste of time for her being so happy?

"Why don't you call the property agent and ask the villa owner's surname?"

17:03

Jason said indifferently. He took out his mobile phone casually, dialed the property agent's number and handed it to Amanda.

Amanda did not refuse. She took the phone and asked in front of the crowd, "Hello, may I ask who is now the owner of Palace No.1?"

The property agent on the line replied politely, "Hi madam, the owner of Palace No.1 is.."

Chapter 213

"Hi madam, the house owners of Palace No.1 are... Ms. Cindy Jiang and Mr. Jason Smith."

The property agent was very friendly and replied very enthusiastically.

"What? Can you please repeat again!"

Amanda Yang was shocked and her eyes widened. She could not believe what she had just heard.

"The property belonged to Ms. Cindy Jiang and Mr. Jason Smith."

The property agent replied politely.

Thud!

Amanda's heart suddenly skipped a beat. She looked at Jason and Cindy who were both smiling.

It was really their villa!

It was the Palace No.1!

Two hundred million!

17:03

Amanda could no longer stand on her feet and suddenly felt very happy. A proud look began to appear on her face.

This was Palace No.1 and now it actually belonged to her family?

"Please hold on the phone."

Amanda immediately switched to the handsfree mode on her mobile phone and then put it on the jade tea table. She crossed her arms and legs and began to look very arrogant, "Speak louder please. Who is the owner of the Palace No.1?"

The property agent smiled, "Now the Palace No.1's house owners are Ms. Cindy and Mr. Jason."

"Well. Okay, it's none of your business now."

Amanda tapped the screen and hung up the call. She sat down on the sofa in a bossy manner. She felt like her life had been turned around.

It was totally a life-changing moment!

Karen Wang, Camilla Sun, Josephine Yang and other people were all stunned too!

They were completely stunned!

17:03

The Palace No.1 really belonged to their family!
Amanda's family!

It belonged to Amanda's loser son-in-law and her daughter.

Oh God!

They looked at each other suspiciously and their eyes were full of envy and jealousy.

This was a villa worth two hundred million dollars and unexpectedly it was now Amanda's home!

"Sister-in-law Amanda, this is really your home. Why didn't you tell us earlier? You made us so anxious waiting here."

Karen immediately switched her attitude with a smile on her face. She started to flatter them.

It would be nice if she could live here. She even glared at her husband when this thought entered her mind.

Camilla Sun flattered Amanda as well, "Sister-in-law, you are really lucky that you can live in such a villa."

Jimmy Jiang and Steven Jiang looked at each other with envy and jealousy in their eyes.

Their elder brother-in-law had really bought a villa. It was the most expensive one in Shang Jiang City. They felt very uncomfortable with this idea.

When Cindy heard this, her heart suddenly skipped a beat. She turned her head and looked at Jason who was in front of her.

Her name was on the ownership of the villa and was also written before his name.

It turned out that she was so important in Jason's heart.

There were tears in Cindy's eyes. Looking at the man in front of her whom she had once misunderstood and complained about.

No matter what happened in the future, she must always stand by Jason's side.

This was the man who truly loved her the most!

Everyone present except Amanda's direct family felt uncomfortable.

Especially Josephine Yang. Her face was livid at that moment. She gritted her teeth with hatred and still could not believe it, "Amanda, please don't mind me talking too much. Could your family really afford to buy Palace No.1 for two hundred million dollar? Did Jason buy it? Where did the money come from?"

17:03

Josephine was very unhappy and asked Amanda frankly.

As soon as Josephine said this, all the relatives looked at Jason suspiciously.

Amanda was so excited that she only just remembered that the villa also belonged to Jason!

D*mn it. Such a nice villa. How could they have put Jason's name on it?

Had this loser really bought the villa?

Where did he get the money? Had he stolen it?

"Cindy, what's going on here? When did you buy this villa? Why didn't you tell me and why did you put Jason's name on the deed?"

Amanda asked with puzzlement.

Jason stood up and wanted to answer but Amanda stared at him. She scolded, "Shut up. It's none of your business. I'm asking my daughter."

Amanda was very unhappy now. Why did he deserve to have his name on the villa's ownership?

Cindy looked unhappy, especially when she saw Amanda scolding Jason. Couldn't her mother see that it was Jason who had bought this villa?

"Mom, in fact this villa is..."

Just as Cindy was about to reply, Josephine interrupted, "I've got it. Did you use the Smith Group's one billion investment money to buy this villa?"

All of a sudden, everyone felt envious but started to despise Cindy at the same time.

She had just become her company's CEO and she had started to use the company's assets. If something went wrong, would she be able to handle it?

However, they were also coveting the one billion investment.

This was such a huge amount of money. If they got to share the money, they would be multimillionaires. They would live a stable and comfortable life in the future.

Amanda was nervous when she heard this, "Cindy, did you really use the investment to buy the villa?"

"Are you sure you won't get into any trouble?"

If something happened, Cindy would go to jail.

Although Amanda really wanted to move in here, she did not want to live in fear for the rest of her life.

Cindy looked at Jason and he pulled her hand. He said to everyone, "It's all right. Even if we used the investment money, we won't be investigated because this money was..."

"What are you talking about? Look at yourself, what right do you have to speak?"

Amanda interrupted Jason before he could finish and pulled Cindy to the side. She asked with worry, "Cindy, please tell me, was it Jason's idea? Was he the one who wanted to buy this villa?"

Cindy said, "He bought the villa but..."

"Oh, Cindy! Why are you so stupid? If something goes wrong, you have to take the responsibility! How could you have listened to that loser? What's more, you even put his name on the property's ownership."

What Amanda was more concerned about was just who was the owners of the villa's deed.

17:03

She did not want Jason to split the household in the future.

Cindy felt very helpless too. She could only reply with, "Mom, don't worry, it's okay. It's not a problem."

Amanda did not ask any more questions when she heard her daughter say this. She was determined to live here. She would not live a good life if she kept worrying about everything.

Amanda glared at Jason in the living room and said in a hurry, "Jason, I warn you, don't try to take advantage of my family! You can't include your name on this villa. You better go to remove your name tomorrow and changed it to mine and your father-in-law's names!"

Jason was a little unhappy and replied, "What does this have to do with you? The villa is in mine and Cindy's names. What right do you have to warn me? Besides, have you spent a penny? Why should I write your names?"

"You!"

Amanda was so angry that she became speechless. She scolded, "Why don't I have the power? Did you buy this villa with your own money? You just used Cindy's! You're just a loser who lives off a woman. You have no right to fight with me! I'm your mother-in-law! If I don't let you live here, then nobody can stop me."

17:03

Amanda was mad because Jason did not respect her in front of her relatives.

The situation made her feel embarrassed.

Jason did not bother to explain anything to Amanda. He sneered, "Amanda, please remember that the names on the villa's deed are Cindy and mine. I'm the master here! You have to get my permission if you want to stay here!"

"What do you mean?"

Amanda was a little worried, especially when she saw the look in Jason's eyes.

This guy acted tough now. How dared he talk to her with such an attitude?

Well, well, this loser had been hiding for so long. It turned out that this was the day he had been waiting for.

Why was her daughter so stupid? How could she married such a cold blooded man!

Would her family be able to live a good life in the future?

"What I mean is, I'm in charge of this family. Do you understand?"

Jason took a step forward which scared Amanda to step back. She said with a guilty conscience, "You... What do you want to do? The villa is in my daughter's name as well. What makes you think you can become the master?"

Jason did not bother to explain to her. He looked around at the relatives and shouted angrily, "Today, I will tell you that this is my house. If you want to come here to visit, you better behave yourself! Get out of here if you don't want to follow the rules!

So domineering!

Jason showed his fierceness in front of these relatives right then and there.

He had always seemed like a coward in the past. He had always been humiliated and ridiculed by them.

However, it was the other way around today.

17:03

The relatives all looked at each other. Right away they took their bags and ran out in a hurry.

Only Charles Jiang and Amanda remained in the big living room.

"Have you forgotten what you said this morning?"

Jason suddenly asked with a sneer.

Amanda's back started sweating when she heard this and felt very nervous.

She remembered vividly saying that if Jason had really bought a villa, then she would kneel down and apologized.

Did she really need to kneel down?

Chapter 214

Amanda Yang was so angry that she gnashed her teeth. Jason Smith really wanted her to kneel down!

This d*mn loser, how dared he be so bold!

"Jason, what are you talking about? I'm your mother-in-law!"

Amanda stared at him with her red face as she said this.

She felt nervous to her core. What if Jason really wanted her to kneel down?

Ah!

She was going crazy!

This was so humiliating.

Charles Jiang was in between them. This crazy woman who always liked to make a scene was finally being forced to yield.

"Charles, what are you doing? Can't you see how arrogant your son-in-law is being? Can't you help me?"

Amanda was very unhappy when she noticed that Charles was not really paying her any attention.

Charles smiled and trying to persuade Jason. "Jason, forget it. We are one family. What your mother-in-law told you this morning was just out of anger. Don't take it seriously. How can a mother-in-law kneel down to own son-in-law? It would be disgraced if anyone found out about it."

"Yes, that's right. Do you want to be humiliated? You still want me to kneel down to apologize to you? Dream on!"

When Amanda heard Charles helping her by advising Jason and supported her, she regained her confidence.

At first Jason just wanted to scare Amanda. However, she was getting ridiculous.

"Amanda, I'm not joking with you. You have to keep your word. I'm going to say it again. This villa belongs to Cindy and I. You have to kneel down and apologize to me if you want to stay here. Otherwise, just go straight home after your visit here."

Jason said this coldy as he pulled Cindy and walked away without taking a glance at Amanda and Charles.

Cindy did not want to stop Jason because she knew that he was putting pressure to her mom.

Moreover, she did not worry that Amanda would kneel down. She knew her mother's temper. She thought Amanda would just scold Jason and leave the villa.

As expected, Amanda was angry. She pointed at Jason's nose and started to scold him, "Fine! You are so bold now that you insist I kneel down. You are asking for trouble. Even if it means not staying here, I will not kneel down to you."

After Amanda finished, she broke all the teacups angrily. She grabbed her purse, twisted her butts and kept nagging as she went out the door.

Charles sighed helplessly and followed her out reluctantly.

After leaving, Amanda kept shouting and screaming all the way, "Charles, why was Jason so bold just now? Do you think this loser really bought the villa? I think he tricked Cindy into buying it. No! I can't let him go that easily. I can't let him to stay in such a nice villa."

17:02

Amanda muttered these few words and felt very uncomfortable. She looked at the Palace No.1 behind her.

It was so tempting.

It was such a huge mansion!

"What the hell do you want? Jason gave you a warning. Do you really want to go back to kneel down and apologize?"

Charles felt so helpless. What was this crazy women thinking?

She had always been a little arrogant, but she was never as unreasonable as she was right this moment.

"What do you know? I think Cindy could be the only one who bought this villa. That Jason just asked Cindy to add his name on the deed. What will happen to Cindy if we just leave her like this?"

The more Amanda thought about it, the more uneasy she felt. She quickly turned around and trotted back.

She bumped into Jason who was about leave

"Where is Cindy?" Amanda could not see her.

"She's gone home." Jason put his hands in his pockets and replied indifferently.

After hesitating for a while, Amanda made up her mind and asked, "Jason, will you really let us move in if I kneel down?"

Jason's heart skipped a beat. What did Amanda want to do?

Plop!

Before Jason could react, he saw Amanda kneel in front of him, "I'm sorry."

Then, she quickly stood up again. She turned around and left without dusting off her knees. She even shouted, "I'll move in later. You can't drive us away this time around!"

Jason shook his head helplessly and laughed when he saw Amanda pulling Charles as she walked away.

His mother-in-law was truly shameless.

Unexpectedly, she really knelt down.

Well, let them stay here then.

Soon after, Amanda pulled Charles back to the 17:02

Jiang's mansion. She could not wait to call the moving company to pack her stuff. She even put the Jiang's mansion up for sale online.

Then, she lead the moving company and moved into Palace No.1.

She was very high profile as if she wanted all the residents in Dragon City to notice that she had just moved in.

She even put the firecrackers in front of the house.

Charles watched Amanda busily decorating the villa. All the nice designs in the villa were ruined by her decorations. He sat on the sofa helplessly, "Can you stop changing things? What if Jason gets angry when he arrives home later and chases us out. This villa doesn't have your name on it."

Oh god.

His words got Amanda's attention.

Yes, her name was not on the villa. She was now under that loser's roof.

She was definitely not happy with this!

Absolutely not!

"Charles, let's think of a way to make Cindy add our names to the property. Then we remove Jason's name. Cindy bought this villa, we can't let that loser to have a piece of it. What if they divorce in the future and have to split the household in half, are you willing to let that happen?"

Amanda sat down and racked her brain thinking of ways.

Charles had a headache, "How do you know that Jason didn't buy this villa?"

"Are you dumb? Such a huge villa which costs two hundred million. Do you think Jason could afford to buy it without using Cindy's investment money?."

Amanda rolled her eyes at Charles.

Charles felt what Amanda said made sense, "I don't want to get involved in this matter. You can do whatever you want and I'll have nothing to do with it."

After Charles finished talking, he went out ready to meet some new friends.

When he arrived at Dragon City, he noticed there were a few old folks playing chess in a park.

17:02

Meanwhile, Jason's phone rang not long after leaving Palace No.1. It was a phone call from Yusra Su, "Jason, it's my birthday tonight. Don't forget you have to come and accompany me."

Jason was stunned when he heard this. He had promised to spend Yusra's birthday with her, "Okay, I'll come over soon."

"Okay, shall I pick you up tonight?"

Yusra asked with a little joy.

"It's okay." Jason shook his head.

His relationship with Yusra was still complicated. It would be very hard to explain the situation to Cindy if Yusra's car came to fetch him.

He did not want some people to see this and gossip about him.

"Tell me the address and I'll take a taxi there."

"All right, you can just mention my name when you arrive." Yusra nodded and felt a little disappointed.

Jason thought for a moment after hanging the phone. He did not tell Cindy.

He did not want Cindy to overthink. Moreover, the reason he wanted to meet Yusra was to clear things up with her.

Yusra's birthday party was in a high-end club next to Shang Jiang River. It was called Sunset Heights. It was far away in the suburbs and the environment was very relaxed.

Jason went to the hospital to accompany Angela for a while and then took a taxi to the Sunset Heights. He saw many luxury cars parked in the square.

The BMWs and Audis were considered the lowest grade cars there. Even the Mercedes could only be considered as a medium-level car.

There were many other luxury sports cars such as Lamborghinis, Porsches and so on.

He even saw a Rolls-Royce Phantom with eight number sixes on the car plate.

It was quite hard to spot this kind of car in Shang Jiang City.

"It seems that Yusra has invited a lot of people tonight. What is she planning?"

Jason felt a lot of doubt.

After he told the receptionist Yusra's name, she invited him in respectfully.

The decorations in Sunset Heights were luxurious and unique. Obviously, it was of the highest class in Shang Jiang City.

Looking around, the hall was brightly lit. All the people in there were well-dressed upper-class figures.

There were also a lot of young fashionable men and women of about the same age as Jason. They all basically knew each other and formed a small circle. They were all talking with each other.

On the other hand, Jason came in wearing only a casual suit. He dressed in such a way which attracted a lot of people's attention.

He had become an outsider. Many people looked at him suspiciously. They looked him up and down.

Who was this man?

It was a buffet style party. Jason noticed that the birthday party had not yet begun and Yusra had not seemed to have arrived.

So he simply went over to the buffet to pick up a plate and looked for something to eat.

17:02

He had been hungry for the whole day.

However, a pleasantly surprised voice suddenly came from the side.

"Jason?"

Jason suddenly felt very familiar with this soft voice. When he turned around, he saw a familiar smiling face staring at him.

Why was she here?

Chapter 215

It was Rita Han!

She was beautiful. She wore a bodycon black dress with a white jacket, nude socks and high heels. She was in exquisite makeup and looked like an elite mature office worker.

Jason Smith turned around and looked at Rita who was very surprised. He could not help but smile.

"Why? Are you shocked that you can come here but I can't?"

When Rita saw Jason, it reminded her of the incident at the cake shop near the playground. She could not help but blushing. Then she immediately changed the topic.

"I came here with my friends to have fun."

If it were not for Jason's help, she might have been annoyed to death by Glen Lee.

After the incident she just realised that Glen's family had gone bankrupt.

This incident made Rita have insomnia for several days, because she did not know whether it was Jason who made Glen's family bankrupt.

Jason looked very ordinary.

After she finished talking, she blinked and looked at Jason, "Brother Jason, who are you here with?"

"Rita, why are you talking with this kind of person? Let's go and have fun. They're almost here."

A pretty lady with pale face walked over quickly and looked at Jason with vigilance.

Her figure was well-proportioned and well-toned. She had a face that would make any woman jealous.

Jason stopped smiling and said lightly, "This pretty lady is right. I'm just here to get some free food. Not to mention that the food in this clubhouse is very good. There are a lot of delicious desserts. Would you like to try some?"

"Really?"

Rita pursed her lips and chuckled. She seemed to be a little taken back.

When Rebecca Xia saw Jason and Rita talking and laughing, she snorted coldly. The look in her eyes became more intense.

17:02

.....

A few girls who were not far away looked over.

"Is that Rita's friend? Why didn't she introduce him to us?"

The girl who asked this was oldest among them. She was wearing a black low-cut evening dress with her hair tied in bun.

"That man is so eye-catching. His style so old fashioned. Rita was so excited when she saw him. Could he be her boyfriend?"

"He doesn't look that handsome and he looks quite old. Could it be that his family is very rich? Her hidden rich boyfriend?"

These girls had known Rita and Rebecca since they were children. It was rare for them to get together these days.

When Rita saw Jason, she immediately abandoned the girls. How could they not be suspicious about it?

Maria Zhang who was dressed in branded stuff from head to toe sneered, "D*mn boyfriend. He's obviously just a poor dude. What's wrong with Rita?"

Rita's was well-known in the circle for having great taste. They did not expect that she would be in a relationship with such an all round ordinary loser. It was really a surprise.

Someone shook their head and sighed.

"Rita is still innocent. She won't live a good life if she conned by this type of person."

These girls' net worth was at least ten million dollars. Several of them had been studying abroad since junior high school. They had only just returned to the country recently. How could they possibly fancy such a loser?

The woman in the low-cut evening dress frowned, "As the eldest of us, I will try and dissuade her by telling her about my past experiences."

"This type of man is just for playing with when we are lonely. It's important not to fall in love with them. We have to find guys that match our identities."

The girls fell silent when they heard this.

Yasmine Qin was the eldest among the girl and she had already graduated. She once fell in love with a boy when she was in high school. However the boy did not have good family background so she quarreled a lot with her family. In the end, the boy fell out with her after they graduated from university and ran way with a girl from Shead Town. So, Yasmine had become the laughing stock among the girls.

Then, Yasmine who still claimed that she was very matured stepped on her high heels and twisted her hips. She walked towards Jason and Rita who were having nice conversation.

What's more, Yasmine and the other girls walked forward together which attracted the attention of most of the people in the hall.

This was due to the group of girls being beautiful with hot figures.

This scene was just like seeing model's on a catwalk.

"What's going on? Isn't that Yasmine?"

"Look. It seems like she's going over to that man. Who is he? Do you guys know him?"

"We don't know him. We haven't met him before. He dressed so shabby and why is he here?"

A lot of people were whispering and glancing over.

Yasmine walked up to Rita. She looked at Jason first with disdain and felt disgusted, "Hey dude! I warn you not to disturb Rita, you're not worth her time!"

Jason who was talking with Rita suddenly felt shocked to see all these girls standing in front of him.

None of them looked that old but they were dressed quite maturely.

They were being very hostile with him.

"Sorry, I don't know what you're talking about." Jason smiled calmly.

Rita was stunned as well. She tugged Yasmine's arm, "Yasmine, don't behave like this. He is my friend."

"Friend? What kind of friend? From what I see he's just a loser who likes to cheat innocent girls like you."

17:02

Yasmine gave Rita an angry look and used her fair finger to poke at Rita's head, "Fine, I'll help you to solve this problem."

Problem?

Jason was stunned. Looking at this women being hostile towards him, he thought that she must have misunderstood something.

"What are you looking at? Are you not convinced? Then let me tell you, you are not in the same class as us. Look at yourself and then look at us. Do you still want to date Rita?"

Yasmine turned her head and rebuked, "Look at the people here. All of them are either rich or have had great achievements. You're really brave to come here in your casual clothes! I guess that you must be a loser. I don't know how you got in. I advise you to leave immediately or you won't have it eat when the security guards come!"

"Sister Yasmine, please don't talk like that. He's really my friend."

Rita was a little anxious. These sisters were being so unfriendly to Jason.

Yasmine did not care one bit. Immediately, she pulled Rita and walked away. She was even giving Jason an angry stare at Jason, "Don't let me catch you disturbing Rita again, otherwise I will arrange someone to teach you a lesson!"

Jason was speechless. He shook his head helplessly and smiled. These girls were really funny.

Yasmine and others returned to the sofa. They gathered together and gave Rita a lecturing.

"Rita, you can't let yourself be deceived by such a useless man. People like him are just trying to get sympathy from innocent girls like you who don't know much about the world. Then they will use you. Do you understand?"

Yasmine pretended to be experienced and condemned Jason in any way she could.

The other girls followed Yasmine's lead and said their piece.

Suddenly, Rebecca said, "By the way, have you heard that Draco, the gang in the city run by Brother Landon, has been destroyed?!"

"Yes. I've heard. It's hot news!"

17:02

"I know. I was buying buns in the mall next to Draco that night. I saw it with my own eyes. Landon and all of his Draco followers were caught!"

Several girls immediately began to chat and discuss with a look of surprise and shock on their faces.

Landon, the leader of Draco had a lot of influence? How could it have been destroyed overnight!

"Hurry up please tell us who destroyed them? Could anyone be that powerful?"

Yasmine and the others came over one after another and asked the girl.

The girl immediately took out her mobile phone and, "The whole scene was out of this world. Even the imperial guards and armored vehicles were dispatched. I took a photo from a distance. I couldn't see clearly. It's him. It's this man. He's so handsome! All the imperial guards listened to his orders! Landon even knelt down and begged for mercy."

The girl felt as if she was there at the scene from that night as she talked about it. She was very excited, full of admiration. Her legs could not stop shaking.

Several girls came over together and stared at the low resolution photos.

From the photo, a group of guards in black combat uniforms could be seen protecting a man.

It was really amazing and shocking to look at the scene!

Especially where the guy was stepping on Landon. His face was captured by the camera well enough so that they could roughly see his face contours.

"Very handsome! So overbearing!"

There was also an evil smile on his face.

It hit right in the heart!

This was the Prince Charming that these girls had always dreamed of!

The identity of such a man, who could destroy Draco this easily, had become the object of their desire.

They had to find this man.

"Wait, don't you think that we just met this man?"

17:02

Suddenly, Rebecca blinked her big eyes and pouted her small lips.

Yes, he looked so familiar. It felt like they had met him before. Where had they met him?

"What the f*ck! Isn't... Isn't he the old loser who was chatting with Rita just now?"

Chapter 216

The girls kept looking at each other and then back at the photo on mobile phone. They were comparing it with Jason Smith who was stood close by.

It really looked like him!

But, how could this be possible?

"Don't look at him. The guy was definitely not this loser. I'll dig out my eyeballs if it's actually him."

A girl sneered and she looked at Jason with disdain.

How could a man like this, without anything special about him, be the legendary mysterious master!

Yasmine Qin and Rebecca Xia nodded too. They mocked, "Of course not. That rich master would not look like this poor man. Why didn't he bring some bodyguards with him? He looks as though he's only here for some free food."

Yasmine became angry when she saw that Rita

17:02

Han was still looking at Jason and said angrily, "All right. Don't keep looking at him. Do you really like that poor dude?"

Rita smiled slightly, got up and bowed to Yasmine and others, "Sorry, he's my friend. I'll accompany him."

After that, Rita trotted over as happy as a lark.

This made Yasmine and other people feel a lot of hate for her.

Rita had become more depraved. She even wanted to make friends with that kind of man.

The thought of this made Yasmine took out her mobile phone. She walked to one side and dialed a number.

Meanwhile, a car brandishing the imperial guards' special license plate, stopped at the door outside Sunset Heights. A tough looking young man that wearing casual clothes got out of the car. He was quite handsome and had a resolute expression on his face.

"Are you sure that Rita is coming tonight?"

He turned his head and asked his partner beside him.

17:01

The short-haired young man who stood next to him said, "Don't worry, Master Wei. Sister Yasmine's wouldn't lie to us."

"Okay, let's go in."

The young man was silent for a moment, and then said this with certainty.

In fact, this birthday party was a social gathering too. It had been arranged specially by Yusra Su.

There were two circles in the party. The people who stood in the central area were all big shots in Shang Jiang City. Every one of them was worth at least a hundred millions dollars and even the poorer ones were worth in the tens of millions.

The other circle belonged to some rich second generation men and women who had only come here to have fun. They were all young men and women with good family backgrounds. All of them were chatting together.

In the circle of handsome men and women, Rita, Rebecca, and Yasmine who were all extremely beautiful naturally became the focus of everyone's attention.

17:01

Since Rita had gone to be with Jason, many people had been looking over in that direction.

"Guys, look. Who is that dude?"

"I don't know him. He's not from our circle, is he?"

"Holy crap, both of them look so intimate. Could he be Rita's boyfriend?"

Everyone was very surprised.

Many people's expressions changed when they heard that he might be Rita's boyfriend.

Rita and Rebecca were the most beautiful women in the circle. A lot of people were coveting them.

Most of the men at the scene fantasized about these two beautiful women.

However, a strange man had suddenly broken in and was chatting with one of these beautiful women. How could they not to be angry?

"If George Wei were here, he would definitely teach that guy a lesson." Someone said sourly.

George, a young master from Jinling had great power and influence in his family.

He had been pursuing Rita recently and had beaten all of Rita's pursuers. The worst case left one pursuer lying in the hospital.

17:01

This word of this had been spreading around the circle for a while. This was the reason why people would only dare to admire Rita, but not pursue her.

These rich second generations could not even compare with George's family.

His family was very powerful in Jingling!

His family had a bond with the imperial guards.

Meanwhile, all the big shots gathered and were chatting in the hall.

Mason Cui followed behind a dignified middle-aged man. He put on a smile as the man in front of him introduced him to all the important guests.

These big shots might not be very famous throughout the country. However, they played important roles in Shang Jiang City.

Suddenly!

Mason saw his girlfriend, Josie Tang winking secretly at him.

Mason excused himself to his father then walked over and said discontentedly,

17:01

"What's wrong? Can't you see that my dad is introducing important guests to me?"

"I went to get some food just now. At the food area, I saw that idiot from Dragon City," Josie said in a hurry.

"That idiot with the surname Smith?"

Mason's eyes narrowed and he could not help but replied in surprise.

"How did that d*mn idiot manage to get in? This banquet is very strict with invitations. He wouldn't be able to get in without ten millions dollars in assets or a members' guarantee. He's just a loser. I really don't think he has the means to have got the invitation card."

Mason had been beaten up by Jason earlier the day and was still seeking vengence until now!

He purposely asked someone to check Jason's background and he found out that Jason was just a loser. He was famous in Shang Jiang City for living off a woman!

And the Dragon City's villa? It must have been purchased by his wife!

17:01

Mason had even investigated all the details of the Jiang's.

"I suspect he snuck in."

Then Josie replied with, "It wouldn't be too difficult for the idiot to have sneaked in with his wife's company investment money."

"Well... it's possible."

Mason nodded in approval. "But I can't order people to punish him so openly at this banquet. My father has warned me not to hurt him."

In fact, Mason did n'ot understand why his father cared so much about this loser.

On the other hand, Josie smiled proudly , "I just saw Sister Yasmine calling to George to tell him that Rita is here. Guess what will happen when George arrives?"

Mason was stunned. Everyone in their circle knew George, the Jinling's young master was hot tempered. If he really saw that idiot, Jason here, they might fight on the spot.

"Look! Isn't that George?"

Josie suddenly cried out.

17:01

Both of them looked over and saw a tough young man in casual clothes walking in from the door. He was pushing the crowd away and walking towards them with vigorous steps.

"There's going to be a good show."

Mason laughed.

His father did not allow him to deal with Jason but George was not an ordinary person. He was from the Wei's in Jinling!

When Rita and Jason were excitedly discussing which dessert was the most delicious, a man strode over suddenly and stopped them.

"Rita, come with me. I have something to tell you."

George did not look at Jason once, but only fixed his eyes on Rita.

"Huh? What do you want to tell me? Can't you say it here?"

The moment Rita saw him, a trace of panic flashed in her eyes and she forced a smile.

"Here?"

George looked around and then ordered Jason impolitely,

17:01

"Get out of my way. I want to talk with Rita alone."

Jason frowned and felt a little unhappy. He had been looked down upon by a lot of people just now. Where had this guy come from?

So, he replied coldly, "Why should I get out of the way?"

"Who are you?"

George did not expect that someone would dare to question him. He turned his head and looked him up and down. Suddenly, his facial expression changed slightly.

"Are you the Jason Smith that Yasmine mentioned?"

"Yes, that's me. Why?" Jason said calmly.

"Haha." George said proudly, "I advise you to stay away from Rita. Otherwise, I will kill you with one finger!"

"Oh, really?"

Jason was still being ignorant.

George smiled disdainfully. It seemed that he did not respect Jason at all. He turned his head and whispered to Rita, "Rita, come with me. I really have something to say to you."

17:01

After that, he reached out to pull Rita's arm.

Rita was shocked and quickly retreated. She hid behind Jason, "George, what are you going to do?"

George was about to step forward but Jason stood in front of him and said coldly, "Sorry, she doesn't want to."

"Get lost!"

The expression George's face changed greatly. He suddenly reached out his hand and pushed, but Jason did not move at all.

He grinned hideously, "Dude do you really want to go against me?"

"So what?" Jason's expression was indifferent.

"Do you know who I am?" George felt as if he had heard the funniest joke in the world.

"I'm the young master of the Wei's from Jinling. I have trained with the imperial guards since I was twelve years old. My grandfather was the Great Knight of the Jiangnan Border Guards!"

After he finished, he looked at Jason like he was a joke. "Do you still want to go against me now?"

17:01

"So what?"

Jason bantered. He was not afraid at all.

.....

Many people were already paying attention to this side and George's appearance immediately made everything tense.

"Isn't that George? Why is he here?"

"F*ck, this loser is going to fight George head-on."

"Look at George's face. It looks like he wants to kill Jason."

Everyone gathered around when they noticed the bustling scene.

"Who is George?"

Some ignorant second generations seemed to just enter the circle and asked with puzzlement.

"George is the young master of the Wei's from Jinling. It is said that his family are the ones who manage the imperial guards. Once, there was a young master worth of ten billion dollars who had a conflict with him. Then, the guy was wiped out by George and his team of imperial guards. Moreover, he is Rita's loyal pursuer."

17:01

These people were spreading this news throughout the guests.

These young generations were stunned. George was such a powerful person. Didn't it mean that Jason was going to suffer?

Many people looked at Jason when they thought of this.

Lex Jiang, Ivy Jiang and others were talking to people close by.

They had come here for the sake of their classmates and friends.

Lex came in with his big brother. He was a rich second generation too. Ivy came in with her best friend who was also a rich second generation.

They had just met each other.

"Ivy, can you guess who I saw?"

Lex rushed over with the fruit plate in his hand and said in excitement.

"Who?"

Ivy frowned. She was annoyed.

This was because her uncle had bought a villa and it turned out that it was Palace No.1. She was thinking about a way to stay in the place.

17:01

"It's Jason. He's actually here."

Lex said excitedly, "I even saw that Young Master George has gone to find him. It seems that they started a conflict because of a woman. It turns out that Jason has a mistress behind Cindy's back!"

"Really?"

Ivy's eyes lit up. She quickly got up, "Let's go and take a look."

How could this loser have a mistress?

If Cindy found out, he would definitely be kicked out of the villa. He might even have to leave without any money!

At that time, the villa would be quite empty. And it would be great for her to stay there.

Chapter 217

The atmosphere was getting more awkward. Rebecca Xia ran over, and was blocked just in front of Rita Han. She frowned and said,

"George Wei, this is birthday party of Miss Su from the Su's in the capital city. It's not a place where you can act wildly. Rita doesn't need your approval to go anywhere."

"Haha."

George did not pay attention to this. Instead, he stepped forward and glared at Jason Smith, saying,

"You are the first person to dare provoke me like this since I was born."

"I'll show you how big the gap is between us."

Jason smiled faintly. Just as he was about to speak, a middle-aged man with a look of dignity pushed through the crowd and walked over.

"What's going on? Who dares to cause trouble at Miss Su's birthday party?"

17:01

"Holy crap! Supervisor Ma is here. I think someone is going to suffer," someone who knew the middle-aged man said this in a low voice.

"The Su's from the capital city is very powerful in Shang Jiang City too. I don't know what's going to happen to these people" Yasmine Qin frowned.

Maria Zhang sneered, "It's best to kick George and that loser out. I feel annoyed just looking at the both of them."

George had done a lot of stupid things owing to his identity as the young master of the Wei's from Jinling,

In the eyes of most girls, such an arrogant and domineering young master had a mixture of good and bad qualities.

When they love, they love in the extreme.

When they hate, they hate in the extreme.

"Supervisor Ma, I'm George Wei."

George took a step back and looked at Jason with a faint smile. "I suspect that this person doesn't have an invitation and sneaked into the banquet. Please throw him out right away."

17:01

Supervisor Ma was stunned. It was obvious that he had recognized George. As he heard his orders, he said respectfully, "Yes, Young Master George!"

Then he turned to Jason, "Sir, please show me your invitation card."

Rita Han retorted, "Why should he have to show his invitation just because George said so? Why don't you ask to see his invitation instead?"

Manager Ma had a calm expression.

"This is because he is young master from the Wei's."

"On the contrary, I don't recognise this gentleman. I was the one who wrote out each of the invitations. May I know who you are?"

"His name is Jason and he's my cousin's husband. He's a man who lives off a woman."

Ivy Jiang snorted in the crowd. "I don't believe that he has the right to enter the banquet."

As soon as she finished speaking, Rita was shocked.

She was curious about how Jason had managed to enter the banquet with his kind of status.

17:01

After all, this was the birthday part of the third daughter of the Su's from the capital city. Those who were lucky enough to get the invitations were all high-ranking figures in Shang Jiang City.

Rita was able to attend because her best friend was Rebecca Xia.

Jason raised his eyebrows and glanced at Ivy who was standing in the crowd.

Cindy's troublesome cousin seemed to be everywhere.

"I don't think this guy has an invitation card. He sneaked in." One of the onlookers snickered.

"That's right. From his shabby clothes, I don't believe that he was invited." Another person sneered.

Someone else shook his head and sighed. "He's in big trouble now. The Su's from the capital cares about their reputation and status very much. He had offended George too. I doubt he'll escape unscathed."

"Sir, please show me your invitation card immediately or I'll call the security guard."

17:01

The expression on Manager Ma's face was getting worse as he said this rudely.

After a moment of silence, Jason replied, "I don't have an invitation card."

The crowd burst into an uproar.

"See, am I right? Let's throw him out immediately before I get angry."

An arrogant smile appeared on George's face. He looked down on Jason as if he was an ant.

"How did you get in without an invitation?"

Supervisor Ma's facial expression changed dramatically. He looked at Jason as if he was a thief sneaking into the house.

He was in charge of this birthday party and someone had sneaked in without him noticing. It was absolutely his responsibility if someone made a complaint to Miss Su.

Cold sweat broke out on manager Ma's forehead. If Miss Su found out about this, he would not be able to get out of here alive.

Moreover, Miss Su's father would personally come to the main hall tonight.

17:01

"I'd like to see the end of this guy."

Ivy felt so relieved and on top of the world when she saw this play out.

Mason Cui shook his head coldly, "Why do you want to do this? Don't come to places like this. Since you don't belong in these kinds of circles, you will only be laughed at."

Only Rita stamped her feet in a hurry, "Brother Smith, you..."

"I haven't finished yet." Jason suddenly spoke again.

"Although I don't have an invitation card, I was invited personally to come here. You can go to the entrance and check the guestlist."

"Invited personally?"

Manager Ma was stunned and looked at him suspiciously. "Only the friends of the Su's and Shang Jiang City's entrepreneurs are qualified to get invited to Miss Su's birthday party. For example, George Wei's family has a close bond with the Su's so he doesn't need an invitation card."

"Miss Su would never befriend a loser like you. Are

"You sure it was Miss Su who invited you to come here?"

Jason was stunned when he heard this. Yusra Su did not make all the necessary arrangements?

Manager Ma hesitated when he saw that Jason did not reply.

Manager Ma was thinking about whether he should send someone over to the guards to ask about this. He would be in big trouble if he made a mistake and offended a guest which had been invited by Miss Su.

A voice suddenly rang out.

"I don't know whether he was invited here."

Everyone looked over and saw a gorgeous woman with heavy makeup wearing a luxurious evening gown. She sneered, "But I saw this idiot picking rubbish at Dragon City today."

"I don't think someone who picks rubbish would have the opportunity to make acquaintances with Miss Su."

17:01

"How could Miss Su know this kind of person? Hurry up and throw him out!"

"This idiot may never think that his lie will be exposed so soon."

"It's such a shame that Rita has this kind of friend."

Everyone looked at Jason with contempt and disdain in their eyes.

Jason felt nothing at all when he faced these countless accusations. He looked at Josie instead.

Jason had met this woman earlier that morning. She was the one he had thrown out. When he switched his gaze beside her, he saw Mason sneering.

This guy was here too. No wonder.

Hadn't he ask Joe to investigate Hector Cui? Did he not find anything out about him?

Manager Ma said in a stern intonation, "Miss, are you sure what you said is true?"

"I can prove it."

Mason came out from the crowd at this moment.

17:01

First, he smiled coldly at Jason, then turned his head, "Today, my girlfriend and I met this loser in Dragon City. Can you believe that this loser brought his mother-in-law and told her that he had bought a villa there?"

Hahaha!

There was a burst of laughter.

Could this shabby dressed Jason afford to buy a villa in Dragon City?

Therefore, everyone sneered.

So, this loser had definitely sneaked into the banquet.

"Even Master Cui said so. That's all the proof we needs."

There was a smile on Manager Ma's face.

Mason was famous in Shang Jiang City. How could Manager Ma not know about him?

Mason was Hector Cui's son. With his help, this matter could be solved.

After he had finished speaking, he did not even want to look at Jason and just shouted out loudly.

17:01

"Where are the security guards? Hurry up and kick this filthy guy out of here."

"How dare you sneak into Miss Su birthday party? I can't forgive this so easily. Call the police and charge him for breaking into private property. I'll see what the police will do."

Everyone looked at the lonely Jason with pity.

At this time, would anyone dare to stand out and speak up for him?

Everyone had to think twice before they would confront George, Mason and the Su's no matter how powerful their family background was.

Ivy did not say anything, but the joy in her eyes was even more intense.

This loser had finally been taught a lesson.

Who asked him to be so boastful!

Yasmine snorted. She looked at Rita who was so anxious that she looked as though she was about to cry.

However, Mason did not even glance at Jason. He was drinking red wine leisurely.

He just said anything he could to get Jason into even more trouble.

However, it was just a trivial matter to him. A person like Jason was not worthy of his time.

Rita's friends shook their heads. It was really unfortunate for a loser like this to be there.

Only Rita rushed to Manager Ma, begging him. However, he ignored her. He picked up the walkie talkie and called the security guard.

George stood there proudly, sneering at Jason.

"So, you're a well-known loser, are you? As I said, we don't have the same status. I can kick you out of here with just a word. But what about you? What can you do now?"

Meanwhile, someone had already responded to what George said and shouted, "Get out!" to get Jason to leave the banquet.

Jason stood there silently, his gaze towards the floor and his body motionless. No one knew what he was thinking.

In the eyes of outsiders, he seemed to have accepted his fate while George, Mason, Josie and others had victorious smiles on their faces.

17:01

Suddenly, a cold voice rang out,

"Who wants him to get out?"
