

Chapter 48

"A wedding gift?" Felicity was dumbfounded.

William smiled apologetically. "Well, it's my wedding gift for you. I'm sorry that it's late for three years."

Felicity was at a loss of words.

The Emperor's Flower was her wedding gift!

The flower he mentioned a while ago was not an actual flower, but what was right in front of them...

It was the Emperor's Flower.

This must be the most luxurious flower in the world.

It was too stunning.

"Are you serious?" Felicity held the finely-made key, her hands trembling.

William nodded. "You'll know whether I'm serious when you go and open the gate yourself."

Felicity was so shocked.

The Emperor's Flower, the villa that had attracted the attention of all the people in Qena City, turned out to be a wedding gift from William.

She felt so unreal...

Felicity was dragged by William to the doorstep. Her hand could not help but reach out to the gate leading to the Emperor's Flower.

At this time, several reporters around the Emperor's Flower discovered them and shouted out.

These reporters had been waiting here since morning.

They didn't take it seriously at all when they noticed William and Felicity coming over a while ago.

However, they were surprised when they saw Felicity was going to open the gate of the Emperor's Flower.

One of the reporters happened to participate in the press conference of the Genuine Care Medical Center when they launched their new product. She stepped forward in shock and grabbed Felicity's arm to stop her.

She could still remember vividly the time when William spoke up for the reporters. Therefore, she had a rather good impression of William.

She quickly asked, "Mr. Lu, what are you doing? Everyone is staring at this villa now. Your wife and you have been perceived negatively recently when it comes to this particular topic. I know you may do this out of curiosity, but I advise you not to touch the Emperor's Flower. Otherwise, you may be teased again by other reporters on tomorrow's headlines."

Felicity's fingers flickered.

That was right. If the people discovered that they were going to enter the Emperor's Flower, the consequences would be unimaginable.

William smiled and replied to the female reporter, "Thank you. But I can reassure you that the Emperor's Flower belongs to Felicity."

What he said startled all the reporters present.

They had been staying here to wait for the owner of the Emperor's Flower.

Unexpectedly, they were told that the owner of the Emperor's Flower was Felicity.

They were so shocked that they even forgot to note down this astonishing news.

William gently held Felicity's hand as he guided her to insert the key.

Creak!

Although it was just a soft sound, it roared as loud as thunder in the ears of the reporters.

The gate...

It was open!

Felicity's eyes widened.

It seemed that the gate of the Emperor's Flower had been opened for her.

Holding the key in her hand, her face blushed in excitement.

When the reporters tried to come closer, William blocked them out of the house. "I'm sorry. I want to spend time with my wife on her birthday. Thank you."

After that, he pulled Felicity, who was still in a daze into the gate.

As soon as they entered the gate, they were greeted by the countryside style decor of the villa. Felicity stared at William, her heart rate was accelerating.

Everything she experienced at the moment was so unreal. It was a surreal mix of facts and fantasy.

She thought she had lost everything. Just a few minutes ago, she did not even have a place to stay.

In the blink of an eye, she was standing inside a villa in Qena City, enjoying all this luxury with William in the most romantic way.

Her eyes turned moist again as memories resurfaced in her mind.

The buyer stated that this villa was a wedding gift when he bought the Emperor's Flower. He also stated that their home had always been in front of them.

When Rebecca mocked William a few days ago about the buyer who purchased the Emperor's Flower, William joked that what if the Emperor's Flower was bought by him...

No one believed him at that moment.

Two days ago, the buyer announced that he would give the Emperor's Flower to his bride on this day.

Her birthday fell on the same day as the day the buyer promised to give the villa away as a wedding gift.

How could there be so many coincidences in this world?

The Emperor's Flower was a birthday present as well as a wedding gift from William.

Thinking of this, she looked at William, her eyes sparkling with admiration. She felt as if her love for William had become deeper.

He put in so much effort for her...

"William, tell me, where did you get the money to buy the Emperor's Flower?" asked Felicity, choking with sobs.

William answered gently, "Previously, I did the Genuine Care Medical Center a big favor."

Felicity was dumbfounded momentarily and immediately guessed, "Is it because Flavia signs the contract with the Genuine Care Medical Center? Does Melissa lend the money to you because you have accomplished a great task?"

William replied with a smile, "Sort of."

Felicity was so touched by his words.

Her silly husband.

Why was he still obsessed with the wedding gift?
"What if we can't afford to pay off the money you borrowed?" asked Felicity softly.

William looked at her while caressing her head gently and joked, "Should I mortgage the villa then?"

As if someone had stepped on her toes, Felicity shouted, "No! It's my birthday today. Don't you dare you make me unhappy! I don't care. I'm going to do whatever I want today. Even if you want to mortgage the villa, you have to do it tomorrow secretly, but never today."

At this moment, there was only one thought in Felicity's mind.

This very day was her birthday. No matter how exhausted and weary she was, it was going to be worth it even if she could only enjoy this heartwarming feeling for one day...

William held Felicity's hand and began to take a tour around the house. He asked for her opinion if she liked certain parts of the villa from time to time.

How could Felicity not like it? The decoration of this villa suited her taste so much.

After going around the villa, she uttered, "William, please don't tell Grandma that you've borrowed money to buy this villa, okay? She may embarrass you again if she knows that you borrow money just to show off to her."

William nodded and said nothing.

At this moment, at Fernando's side.

A tinge of awkwardness filled the air. Everyone was looking at Fernando and Yasmine.

Yasmine's eyes were twinkling with a hint of coldness.

Those ungrateful brats!

Yasmine noticed that Fernando was about to explode with rage, hence she forced herself to calm down and explained, "Fernando, you don't have to worry about this matter. Everything is under our control."

"Both of them are penniless. Besides, they are unemployed and homeless. Who else can they rely on?" Yasmine gnashed her teeth. "Felicity is stubborn because she has been spoiled by us since she was a child. She certainly can't bear these hardships. Therefore, it is only a matter of time before she leaves William and goes to you."

Rebecca immediately added, "Yes, that girl has been blinded by love. Once she starts to experience true hardship in life, she will see the one who can bring true happiness to her. Fernando, the whole Bai family is on your side. What are you afraid of? Besides, I have made my promise. They have been legally divorced now. You should know that we will always support you."

Fernando looked at the Bais disdainfully.

He knew that these villains were just trying to get on his good side so they could count on the Lins in the future.

"Felicity, I must get you!"

Fernando walked to the window to get some fresh air, desperately needed to get out of his bad mood.

As soon as he walked to the window, he unconsciously glanced at the direction of the Emperor's Flower opposite him.

What he saw made him completely dumbfounded as if he had been struck by lightning.

He pointed at the Emperor's Flower in shock, his voice trembling.

"What? Why are they inside the Emperor's Flower?"

Chapter 49

The people of the Bai family were still immersed in the anger when William and Felicity left. Thus, they didn't hear what Fernando said.

"Fernando, what did you say?" asked Rebecca.

Fernando roared as if he had gone mad, "Look! Why are they inside the Emperor's Flower?"

Everyone could hear him clearly this time.

One by one, all of them scampered toward the window, their eyes twinkling with confusion.

They discovered that William and Felicity were snuggling on the sofa inside the Emperor's Flower. One of them had a gentle smile on her face, while the other was fondling her lovingly.

The Bais were totally blown away.

To every member of the Bai family, the Emperor's Flower had been a topic that they wished to avoid talking about.

The moment they were reminded of the Emperor's Flower, they would recall William's non-existent wedding gift for Felicity.

Seeing that they were inside the Emperor's Flower at this moment, they couldn't stop staring at them with their eyes wide open.

Rebecca immediately exclaimed in shock, "D*mn!

They must be feeling reluctant to accept the truth after being humiliated by us just now. I don't know how they sneak into the Emperor's Flower. Let's go! Let's go quickly! I will make sure I expose the wicked schemes of that hypocrite today!"

Her words made everyone come to their senses.

Rebecca was right. William and Felicity had nothing at the moment. They did not have the right to appear at the Emperor's Flower at all.

They would never think that the Emperor's Flower was a gift from William.

It was simply a fantasy.

Therefore, there was only one possibility, that was, they sneaked into the house secretly.

No words could describe the fury of the Bai family at this moment.

If others knew that they were in the Emperor's Flower, the reputation of the Bai family, which was already in jeopardy, would definitely be tarnished if the public were to cast more aspersions on them.

They dashed as a group to the front of the Emperor's Flower in a hurry.

Seeing a large group of reporters craning forward through the gate, the Bais' brains stuttered for a moment.

It was too late!

They had already been caught by reporters!
These two people were practically the enemies of the Bai family!

Those reporters didn't dare to go in because they didn't get permission. However, when they saw the Bais coming over, their eyes lit up immediately.

They rushed forward and surrounded the Bai family. They came so close to them that their microphones were about to be stuffed into Yasmine's mouth.

"Hello, Madam Chen. I want to interview you. Just now, we saw Felicity and William enter this villa and mentioned that this villa belongs to Felicity. Is this true?"

Hearing this, Yasmine's rage was immediately ignited. Her blue veins were popping out. She swore, "Those two are crazy! They are so shameless! If this villa is owned by Felicity, I'll swallow this villa right away! Get out of my way! I'll go in and bring the two b*stards out."

After that, Yasmine pushed the reporters away and stomped into the Emperor's Flower angrily.

When the reporters saw Yasmine's rude attitude, their faces darkened.

William saw the Bais coming over and frowned.

Felicity wanted to get up, but she was held down by William.

Yasmine looked at the couple who was still sitting on the sofa leisurely and scolded, "Shame on you! I know you hate the Bai family, but you can't do this to humiliate us! Both of you are utterly heartless!"

William said indifferently, "Why are we heartless?"

Rebecca immediately shouted, "You sneaked into this villa and put the Bai family under the spotlight before so many reporters. They must be thinking about how greedy the Bai family is—"

"Isn't that true?" asked William.

His words made Rebecca at a loss of words.

"Are you guys going to leave this villa?" questioned Yasmine coldly.

"You guys are the ones who should leave," William uttered, and his words sounded colder than Yasmine's.

Yasmine demanded, "Alright, this is what you've asked for! Hurry up, call the security guards to come over and throw them out!"

Fernando stared at William before he ran out of the villa right away.

They ended up in a stalemate.

Soon, two security guards rushed over to the villa.

Yasmine told them what happened and said, "Sir, I'm so sorry. This matter has nothing to do with the Bai family. These two people are the ones who break into the house shamelessly."

Hearing this, the security guards immediately put on a grim look.

The Emperor's Flower was their biggest selling point.

It was the highlight of the whole city.

If the media knew that someone had sneaked into the Emperor's Flower this day, they, the security guards, would lose their jobs.

The security guard immediately shouted, "You two, come with me now."

Felicity's heart leaped when she heard that.

However, William replied coldly, "Aren't you going to verify who's the one who holds the property right of the Emperor's Flower first? Who does it belong to now?"

The security guards' heart skipped a beat, seeing that William was not afraid at all.

They immediately took out their cell phones to inquire about the property right of the Emperor's Flower.

Rebecca, on the side, chortled contemptuously. "Hmph, it seems that you do not want to give up until the very end. The Emperor's flower can belong to anyone, but surely, it'll never be yours! You will surely pay for what you did. We'll never forget the humiliation you put on the Bai family today!"

All the members of the Bai family glared at William angrily.

At this time, the security guard had already hung up the phone. Their eyes were fixed on William.

Their voices were mixed with a hint of shock. "Who among you is Felicity Bai?"

Everyone was surprised.

Felicity stood up and mumbled, "That's me."

The security guard looked at Felicity before he took a deep breath and exclaimed, "This house belongs to its owner, Felicity Bai."

His words were as loud as thunder.

It threw everyone in silence. It was so quiet that one could hear a pin drop.

The Emperor's Flower belonged to Felicity.

Oh god!

How could this be possible?

It was apparent that she was useless, and she was already a dog driven out by the Bai family.

How could she own the Emperor's Flower?

Yasmine immediately bellowed, "You must have made a mistake! Verify it and we will talk again."

However, the security guard retorted frigidly, "You can check it yourself if you don't believe it. Now that we have confirmed the property right, they do not break into the house. Instead, you all do not seem friendly at all. Are you here to cause trouble?"

The Bai family was dumbfounded.

Yasmine immediately lowered her voice and explained, "Well, there may be some misunderstanding. We are their family members..."

William interjected, "Please leave, sir. Thank you."

The security guards nodded respectfully and left.

Everyone looked at them in shock.

No one could believe it. They didn't want to believe that the property right of the Emperor's Flower was owned by Felicity.

A wild dog should have been despised by the world but it had transformed into a dragon.

This huge contrast made everyone present fall into silence.

All of a sudden, those reporters outside burst into an uproar.

"D*mn it! The friend of the buyer of the Emperor's Flower has just released another statement. The Emperor's Flower is a wedding gift for Felicity of the Bai family!"

Chapter 50

Upon hearing this, Rebecca immediately took out her cell phone and checked the latest news of Qena City.

As expected, a piece of jaw-dropping news had made the headline.

"The property right of the Emperor's Flower has been announced! This stunning wedding gift belongs to Felicity Bai in Qena City!"

Once again, the information disclosed in this news caused a stir among the crowd.

Everyone looked at Felicity with a completely different gaze.

She was a gorgeous girl in Qena City but she was willing to give in and marry a good-for-nothing.

This gorgeous girl had been reborn. She had ascended and made the top of Qena City again.

The Emperor's Flower with Felicity Bai...

They were seeing a luxurious villa with a beauty. They matched each other so perfectly.

The Bai family members glanced at Felicity. Their hearts were filled with various complicated emotions.

She was deemed inferior to others just a while ago, but at the moment, she had become the most stunning woman amongst them.

Now that she owned the Emperor's Flower, her social status was much higher than that of the Bais.

Not to mention that she still had a mysterious rich man behind her back.

She was no longer a woman who could be bullied by the Bai family.

Fernando's face had been livid since a while ago.

He wasted so much money. He spent nearly three million yuan on buying a house and a diamond ring for Felicity.

He thought that this was enough to buy his way into Felicity's heart.

Unexpectedly, her status changed so much as soon as she was kicked out by the Bai family.

The Emperor's Flower was worth twenty million yuan but his wedding gifts were only worth three million yuan.

His gifts were nothing if they were put in comparison.

How could it be possible for Felicity to marry him when she had the Emperor's Flower?

Darn it!

Who on earth was the one having Felicity's back?

Felicity, who was still in a trance, grabbed

William's hand tightly.

She thought that William, who was the one who borrowed money to buy this villa, must have put his name on the property ownership certificate.

She didn't expect that it only had her name.

She felt touched, tear welling up her red eyes.

William's love for her had been clearly expressed at this moment.

She thought she had been defeated. However, she received a lot more than what she had lost.

The feeling of ascending from hell to heaven left Felicity a little clueless of what to do.

Undoubtedly, Yasmine was the angriest person there.

Humiliated, she felt so embarrassed.

She had just belittled Felicity as if she was merely some useless trash. She even made a big fuss in front of the reporters.

However, the cruel reality seemed to give her a slap in her face, leaving her in a daze.

Felicity seemed to have found someone with great power.

The Bai family was no match for this mysterious man at all.

He might even be more influential than the Lin family.

At the moment, the only thing Yasmine was thinking about was to find a way to get Felicity back to their side.

This matter was no longer about the Emperor's Flower alone.

Offending Felicity was equal to offending that mysterious rich man.

"Are you guys done? If you are, then please leave," instructed Felicity.

She felt disgusted when she saw the Bai family watch her with that unfathomable emotion in their eyes.

When a person was poor, they would not hesitate to stampede him. However, when he became rich, all of them would come and get close to him again.

The Bai family was no longer the family that she used to know. They were no longer a harmonious and friendly family.

They were disgusting.

Yasmine's eyes lit up at once. She stared at Felicity and asked with a friendly tone, "Felicity, what are you talking about? It's your birthday today. Your birthday party hasn't started yet. We are a family, right?"

There was only one goal in Yasmine's mind. Regardless of how much she had to pay, she must keep Felicity in the Bai family.

The Bais would probably make a comeback as a family again in Qena City because of what happened on this very day.

"Birthday? I just want to spend my birthday with William," said Felicity decisively.

Anger swept over Yasmine.

Felicity would never dare to talk to her in such a rude tone.

It seemed that she was looking down on them now that she had become more powerful than them.

This little b*tch!

"Well, Felicity, don't be angry. What happened just now was our fault. We're doing this for your own good. Now it seems that you have a better choice, we should give you our blessing, right?" As Yasmine spoke, she glanced at William with an unexplainable expression.

She didn't know why William was still here as if nothing had happened.

After all, the Emperor's Flower was a wedding gift from someone else for Felicity.

This meant that William had been betrayed by Felicity and everyone in the city knew about it.

Any ordinary man would have already lost his temper and left this place.

But William acted as if this was unrelated to him. Yasmine figured out a reason to explain William's behavior right away.

"This guy is useless. Perhaps, his lifelong goal is to live without working. He doesn't care about Felicity's betrayal at all. He might even be overjoyed now that he can count on his rich wife."

Hmph, what a lowly man!

Yasmine glanced at Rebecca next to her.

Rebecca immediately got Yasmine's cue. She went to Felicity and flattered, "My dear daughter, it's your birthday today. It should be a happy occasion for everyone. Well, I propose to hold your birthday party here. Anyway, it's not that far away. We only have a few tables. We can move them here."

After that, Rebecca took out her phone and ordered the crew to start moving the tables, chairs, and food to the Emperor's Flowers.

Hearing this, fury roared through Felicity's mind, her face started to blush in anger.

All these shameless people!

They were humiliating her with the harsh words of theirs a while ago. How dared they have the nerves to hold her birthday party here!

She was about to refute, but she was stopped by William.

She looked at William in confusion.

William smiled and said, "It's okay. Just let it be."

Felicity parted her lips. Before she could reply to him, she suddenly discovered that William's gaze had become ruthless and vicious.

"I still remember how they humiliated you just now. Now that they're all here, that's an opportunity for us to take revenge on them!"

His words made Felicity hold her tongue back at once.

At this moment, William's body was surging with coldness, making no one dare to come near to him.

It was as if all the grievances of Felicity had been magnified countless times on him...

What was he going to do?

When the people realized that William persuaded Felicity to follow Yasmine's suggestion, the disdain in their eyes couldn't be more obvious.

What a useless man! How could he hold it in despite being betrayed?

He was definitely a weirdo that deserved to be recorded in history.

At this time, a group of people had brought all the tables and chairs.

It took them only a short while before they set up tables and chairs in the hall.

Yasmine looked at the house. The more she looked at it, the more she liked it. She could not help but come up with a strange idea.

Seeing that the tables and chairs were set up, she immediately went to the main table and invited Felicity, "Felicity, come and sit with me. Sit beside me."

However, Felicity gave her a look of disgust, pulled William towards the table in the furthest corner and sat down.

Yasmine's face darkened. Her heart was burning with anger.

"What an unappreciative b*tch! I invited you to sit next to me because I look up to you. How dare you refuse me?"

She gritted her teeth and thought, "I'll teach you a lesson sooner or later!"

Felicity and William were sitting in the corner. She whispered, "William, I feel sorry for making you sit here."

William put on a smile and replied, "No, it's okay. You will always shine and attract everyone's attention, no matter where you sit."

"Stop talking nonsense." Felicity couldn't believe it.

Meanwhile, there was another uproar coming from the gate.

A reporter shouted, "Look! Isn't that Hugo Li of 14:54

Qena City? Why did he come to the Emperor's Flower?"

VAMP2.0 WORK

Chapter 51

"Hugo Li?"

Was he really Hugo? There were two most respectable men in Qena City. They were Hugo and Harper Wang.

When the Bai family heard this, they couldn't help but shudder!

For the Bai family, Hugo was someone eminent and unreachable.

In Qena City, the Bai family was not even considered a third-class family.

They even had to be respectful to people from second-class families like Fernando.

Not to mention the Li family.

Unexpectedly, Hugo would come to the Emperor's Flower!

Everyone hurried to the door at once.

The eyes of the reporters outside sparkled right away when they saw Hugo in person.

Hugo had returned to Qena City a few years ago and had been living a secluded life since then. He rarely appeared in the public eyes.

Recently, it was reported that he was seriously ill and could only lie in bed all day long.

However, at this very moment, he was here, alive. All of a sudden, all the dazzling flashes of the cameras were focused on Hugo while the reporters took his picture.

Hugo, on the other hand, seemed to be in good health. He was in a good mood as well.

While he was heading to the Emperor's Flower, he took the initiative to greet the reporters with a gentle smile while nodding his head.

All the reporters were even more dumbfounded.

In everyone's impression, Hugo had always been stern-looking and unrelenting. How could he seem so friendly and approachable at this moment?

Had the world changed?

A reporter couldn't help but ask Hugo a question after gathering his courage, "Good day, Old Master Li. I heard that you were still bedridden a few days ago. How is it possible today..."

When Hugo heard this, there was a hint of excitement in his eyes. He sighed and replied, "Yes, I thought my life was over. But luckily I met a divine doctor. With his help, I can now stand in front of everyone."

"Divine doctor?" Everyone was stunned. "Which divine doctor you are referring to, Old Master Li?"

At this time, Hugo decided to keep them hanging. After all, when William was leaving, he told Hugo not to expose his identity.

He replied, "Well, when the time comes, I will tell you."

The reporters asked again, "Then, may I ask, Old Master Li, are you here for the Emperor's Flower?"

"That's right. Well, I'd better get going now." Hugo walked past the reporters and headed towards the Emperor's Flower once again.

All the members of the Bai family and Fernando were very excited when they heard that Hugo was coming to them.

Old Master Li was visiting the Emperor's Flower!

Undoubtedly, this would give the Bai family a boost in their reputation in Qena City!

Old Master Li must be taking this very seriously as he visited them right after he had recovered from his sickness.

The Bai family was going to welcome a very important guest!

At this time, Fernando's lips curled into a prideful smirk. "Old Master Li must be here to support me."

Everyone's eyes were widened in surprise.

Fernando's eyes were full of confidence.

"Previously, we had collaborated with the Li family to set up a company. Don't you remember? My father invited the Li family to have a gathering tonight. I didn't expect that the well-known Old Master Li would really come and visit me."

After hearing what Fernando said, Yasmine and Rebecca's expression changed at once.

Since when did the Lin family have such an honor? Even Hugo would pay them a visit in person!

However, since Hugo was here, the issue between Fernando and Felicity could finally be settled.

No one in Qena City would dare say no to Hugo's request.

Obviously, Felicity had also thought about it. She frowned and shot William a glance, her eyes glistening with trepidation.

However, William replied to her with a smile. "It's okay. I'm here."

His warm reassurance made Felicity feel a little relieved.

The Bai family couldn't wait any longer. Led by Fernando and Yasmine, all of them walked up to Hugo to welcome him.

The reporters immediately followed and recorded this very unusual moment when Hugo went towards the Bai family and Fernando.

Fernando took the lead to make a deep bow to Hugo and greeted, "Greetings, Old Master Li. I am Fernando Lin of the Lin family. Thank you for..."

He was so excited that his voice was trembling.

All of the members of the Bai family hurriedly followed Fernando and made a bow to Hugo simultaneously.

William and Felicity were the only ones who remained where they were.

Yasmine lowered her head while glancing at William and Felicity. The anger in her eyes flared up instantly.

These two brats!

How dare they act like this when the Old Master Li stopped by to visit them!

They were essentially planning to get the Bai family in huge trouble!

"Felicity Bai, William Lu, come here right now!" Yasmine roared in a low voice.

Felicity was used to Yasmine's yelling since young. When she took a step and was about to head towards them, she was stopped by William immediately.

When Yasmine saw this, she stamped her foot in anger.

If they were to get on Old Master Li's nerves, who was going to bear the consequences of irritating him? After all, he was a big wheel in Qena City!

All of them trembled and lowered their heads, waiting patiently for Hugo to speak first.

However, time seemed to have come to a standstill. They heard no one make a noise in front of them.

Shortly, there was a clamor of voices coming from the reporters.

Only after that, they raised their heads to check what happened before them.

Hugo was no longer before their eyes.

They turned their heads and looked back blankly. Just when they saw the scene in front of them, they were so stunned that they had goosebumps all over their bodies!

They saw that Old Master Li, the most respected man in Qena City, was actually heading towards William and Felicity.

He, who was so reputable and honorable, stood in front of them and inclined his head slightly to greet them!

Everyone was dazed and astonished, their jaw dropped.

The anger of the Bai family, as well as Fernando, was about to spurt out of their eyes!

A while ago, everyone made a ninety-degree bow to welcome Old Master Li.

However, they were completely ignored by him.

It was as if in Old Master Li's eyes, Fernando and the Bai family were just someone of no importance, a bunch of nonentities.

However, at this moment, Old Master Li was bowing to this useless couple!

At the same time, it seemed that only Felicity and William were his long lost friends!

Everyone could tell who held a more important status right away. The people who were looked down on could finally know their place.

What was going on here?

Why would Old Master Li go towards William and Felicity?

The crowd scurried towards Old Master Li.

Old Master Li parted his lips and said, "Felicity Bai, you are indeed a unique girl in Qena City. Since it is your birthday today, I have prepared a small present for you. Please accept it."

The way he spoke was so respectful. Everyone's jaw dropped in disbelief.

Old Master Li did not come for Fernando.

He was here to celebrate Felicity's birthday!

Hugo coming here itself was surprising enough for everyone. However, what they heard shocked them more.

Old Master Li was actually using the word 'please' when he talked to Felicity.

Everyone could tell that how much respect Old Master Li paid for Felicity. This caused another tumult of chatter and jabber among the reporters! Hugo darted a glance at a follower behind him who immediately took out an exquisite box and opened it.

The crowd burst into an uproar again!

Inside the box placed an enormous and brilliantly sparkling diamond necklace!

One of the reporters cried out instantly, "It's the Azure Heart! I remember that Old Master Li bought it at the Soubespin Auction at millions of yuan ten years ago. He has always cherished it. He even mentioned that he would give it to his grandson as a dowry. I didn't expect that he would give it to Felicity now!"

Felicity gazed at the necklace in front of her. The blue gem was glistening in the dark. She was completely stunned.

How could Old Master Li come to her birthday party and give her such an extravagant present?

What was going on here?

She only came to her senses when William nudged her. It was as if she had just woken up from a dream. She replied nervously, "Old Master Li, I can't take this."

But Hugo gave her a kind smile and explained, "Don't worry. You should accept it. I've come here uninvited to join your birthday feast and perhaps, to get a glass of wine to drink. I'm wondering if you would be so kind as to accept my uninformed attendance."

14:55

VAMP2.0 WORK

Chapter 52

Once again, the crowd was stunned.

Why was Hugo so respectful...

Look at the way he spoke to Felicity!

Hugo was more than enough to be Felicity's grandfather.

Now that he was being so respectful to Felicity, Felicity's worth in the Bai family rocketed right away!

What did she do that made Hugo praised and complimented her so much?

Felicity blushed with excitement and replied hurriedly. "Old Master Li, you must be joking. Please come in!"

A faint smile crossed Hugo's face. He patted Felicity on the shoulder and strode inside.

Felicity breathed a sigh of relief. Everyone was shocked by what Hugo had just done. Felicity, on the other hand, felt as if she was having a dream!

Everything was too surreal.

It was as if Felicity, whose value was synonymous with a sparrow had surged and become that of a phoenix instantaneously.

When Hugo entered the villa, only then the Bai family came to their senses. They immediately rushed in at once.

Yasmine strode forward and bowed to Old Master Li with respect. "Old Master Li, please take your seat. Thank you for coming here to celebrate my granddaughter's birthday. It's a great honor for the Bai family to have you here."

Yasmine led Hugo to the main table.

Hugo glanced around and noticed William and Felicity were walking towards the corner seats.

He had lived for so long. How could he not read the situation?

All of a sudden, he felt a flicker of anger inside him.

Very well, the Bai family!

Hugo thought, "These people are someone even I, Hugo Li, has to respect. How dare you guys leave them in a corner!"

They sure had guts!

Hugo's attitude towards Yasmine turned indifferent in no time. "No, it's not necessary. I'm afraid I don't have the honor to join you all at the main table. I'll just sit with them."

After that, he followed William to the seat in the corner without looking back at all.

This twist came too unexpected and left the Bai family completely dumbfounded.

A while ago, they could clearly feel the cold aura exuding from Hugo. It was so cold that it felt as if it could almost suffocate the entire Bai family.

Why did he change his attitude in the blink of an eye?

Yasmine was so despondent that her eyes lost focus.

However, they all had the same question in their minds.

How did Felicity get to know a big shot like Hugo?

They had never heard her mention it before.

At the side, Hugo saw that Felicity was still in a trance, thus he offered her a kind smile. "Felicity, I will feel guilty if you continue to look at me like this. I won't dare to drink this wine with you."

Felicity waved her hand instantly and mumbled softly. "No, no. Old Master Li, don't get me wrong. This just feels surreal here. Your status..."

Hugo glanced at William and continued with a smile. "Alright, I won't hide the reason I come here from you then. I've met Mr. Lu once and I regret not meeting him earlier. That's why I'm being so shameless to come here to join your birthday party today."

"William?" Felicity was stunned.

Hugo came here because of William?

William explained in a low voice. "Didn't I mention that I went to the Li family and did them a favor?"

As if she was pondering about it, Felicity nodded after hearing that.

A favor? Again?

Prior to this, he had done Melissa a favor as well. Thus, she lent twenty million yuan to him to buy the Emperor's Flower.

At this moment, he did Hugo another favor again. Hugo gave a birthday present worth millions of yuan in return...

The favors he mentioned did not seem that simple and easy to accomplish at all.

The Bai family and Fernando watched the three of them chattered and giggled cheerfully. Jealousy was about to spurt out of their eyes!

Old Master Li clearly favored Felicity and despised the rest of the Bai family!

What on earth did this happen?

What did the Bai family do to offend him? He held such an important status in Qena City!

What was it that caused him to put them in this embarrassing situation?

At this time, Rebecca whispered, "I think I know the reason. It must be because of that mysterious local tyrant who's supporting Felicity. Perhaps Old Master Li knows this man, hence he comes over here."

Hearing this, everyone nodded in agreement. At this moment, this was the most reasonable explanation.

Just then, the door was pushed open again and it attracted everyone's attention.

The camera flashlights did not show any signs to stop flashing at all.

A hoarse bass voice of an old man rang out.

"Haha, it's my niece, Felicity's birthday today. Am I late?"

The Bai family was astonished, once again. Was someone here to celebrate Felicity's birthday again?

Who was this person?

When the crowd was still making their guesses, a figure appeared at the door.

When everyone saw this person, they gasped!

All of them felt as if they were dreaming!

The person at the door was...

Harper Wang!

Harper was as well-known as Hugo!

Seeing Harper was here, Yasmine went up to him again.

Harper was even more merciless than Hugo.

When he saw Yasmine and the others coming to him, he reached out his hand and pushed Yasmine out of his way immediately.

It was as if Yasmine was a wild stray dog!

Yasmine was pushed away so roughly that she stumbled and almost fell to the ground!

Harper wasn't concerned about it at all and walked straight to William's table.

When he came over and saw Hugo was here as well, he was startled. "You old man, why are you here as well?"

And when Hugo saw Harper, he found it even more unbelievable. "You, how did you..."

"Hahaha! It's fate! I didn't expect that you, a dying man, can still be here. It must be fate to bring us here." Harper was so smart that he knew right away what happened. Hugo looked so healthy and seemed to be in good spirits. It must be William's doings.

He walked over and gave Hugo a tight hug. "It seems that we are all so shameless. We all come here uninvited today to get a free drink."

Hugo chuckled and replied. "I am here to ask for a glass of wine indeed, but I have prepared a small gift. Did you come empty-handed? If so, then you are really shameless, you old goat."

Everyone was dumbfounded.

These two men were the two people in Qena City who held the highest social status yet they addressed each other as an old man and an old goat.

It was as if they were the organizer of this party. Their unscrupulous and arrogant behaviors made no one dare to make a sound!

Well, it was only natural that it turned out this way.

They were Hugo Li and Harper Wang after all!

In Qena City, as long as one of them showed up, they would always be the focus of the spotlight no matter where they were.

Besides, they were gathering here to celebrate Felicity's birthday.

The next day, Felicity would definitely make a name for herself in Qena City!

Harper burst out laughing and said, "I'm not that thick-skinned. Well, this is my small gift. Felicity, do you like it?"

At the moment when Harper strutted over to her, Felicity was dumbfounded once again.

She didn't know Harper at all.

She only saw him on the TV. She could even feel his charm through the screen.

However, at this moment, this man stood in front of her and addressed her as his niece.

Besides, he was here with a present in his hand.

Felicity's hands were shaking while receiving the present prepared by Harper.

She opened it and covered her mouth with her hands right away, her eyes widened. She was taken by surprise.

It was a huge night pearl in the box. This night pearl could illuminate in the darkness.

A tumult of shouting and screaming broke out right away.

"This... This is the legendary Southern Sea Pearl! Mr. Wang usually doesn't even let others take a peek. But now he's giving it to Felicity. Is everything that happens today a dream? I really can't believe it!"

Chapter 53

After Felicity heard it, her hands couldn't help but tremble and she almost dropped the box.

Fortunately, William caught it in time.

Felicity felt as if she was on the verge of collapsing after all the ordeals.

All these ups and downs were too much for her to handle.

The two famous men of Qena City were sitting right in front of her.

Moreover, they were unusually friendly. The harmonious atmosphere seemed to be too far-fetched and unrealistic.

"Mr. Wang, I don't seem to know you..." Felicity mumbled softly, feeling apologetic.

However, Harper showed a kind and understanding smile. "Don't we know each other now? Do help me out in the future."

His tone was tinged with politeness. Everyone felt like their ears were going to fall off.

What kind of good deeds had Felicity done to be bestowed upon such unbelievable blessings?

She had made these two highly respected men to come and greet her!

All the members of the Bai family were so envious that their faces turned pale.

Both of them, Hugo and Harper, looked down on the Bai family. Instead, they lavished Felicity with compliments.

Was it just because of that mysterious rich man who was on Felicity's side?

Who on earth was this person anyway?

Darn it!

This feeling of not knowing the truth was awful! They felt that they would never rest in peace if they passed away at this moment without finding out the reasons behind all these.

The other guests who were present, on the other hand, couldn't help feeling jealous while looking at them chatting happily over the corner.

It should have been an empty table at the side. But at this moment, because of the presence of these two heroes, it had become a throne that everyone had to look up to!

Everyone wanted to go over and take a seat there. However, no one dared to do so.

There was a huge gap between them and the two men.

They suddenly began to regret what they had done back then.

If he had known this earlier, they would have joined them at the beginning.

However, they looked down on Felicity and missed a perfect opportunity to get on Hugo and Harper's good sides!

How depressing!

Despite everyone's envious, jealous gaze, the party began eventually. Everyone stared at them with hatred sparkling in their eyes.

No one was in the mood to eat. They were all thinking about the guests on that very table at the corner.

Fortunately, Harper and Hugo were people who knew how to read situations. They were just here to raise their hats to William and Felicity.

After giving a few toasts and having a glass of wine, they left together.

For no reason, when they left, everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

The pressure and intimidation brought by the two of them were too great.

Looking at the Azure Heart and the Southern Sea Pearl in front of her, Felicity still couldn't believe what just happened.

Since when did this start...

It seemed that it started when William gave her the Emperor's Flower...

The Emperor's Flower, the two famous men of Qena City... Her husband seemed to be...

Rather extraordinary...

Felicity was lost in her thoughts. All of a sudden, she saw Yasmine and the others walking towards her together.

Yasmine looked at Felicity with a confused expression and questioned, "Felicity, how do you know Mr. Wang and Old Master Li?"

Felicity murmured, "I don't know. I haven't met them before..."

"Bullsh*t! If you have never met them, why would they give you such valuable gifts! Are you going to destroy our family so we do not have a chance to survive in Qena City? Are you planning to be recognized by others alone and leave us to rot by the roadside?" Steven said in an acerbic, unfriendly tone.

In fact, he was so jealous that he was about to go crazy.

She was the least respected, lowliest person in the Bai family. However, at this moment, it was as if she was standing on the top of a mountain, overlooking everyone else!

She was just a b*tch and she did not deserve this!

Yasmine held back her anger when she noticed that Felicity did not seem to be lying.

Perhaps, Rebecca was right. These two old men,

Hugo and Harper were here for the mysterious man who bought Felicity the villa.

It seemed that someone was acting like a bully because of her masters' power and positions.

Yasmine managed to suppress her anger, but Rebecca didn't.

It was supposed to be her very first day to start living a life full of wealth and glory, but it turned out that Felicity snatched it away from her.

Besides, she didn't even dare to vent her anger on Felicity.

Rebecca looked at another person.

William Lu!

She couldn't help but laugh, "Oh, I can't believe that someone is still enjoying his food happily. Does he not feel ashamed at all? How could he swallow down his food after being cheated and betrayed? It's true that he only depends on women to survive."

Hearing this, Felicity's face turned cold instantly.

None of them knew the truth. But, Felicity knew it!

William was the one who gave her these wonderful moments!

"Mom, don't you dare talk to William in that tone again!" Felicity stood up and roared coldly.

Rebecca was even angrier when she saw Felicity being so protective of William. She snorted, "Humph! Go ahead and depend on your wife for the rest of your life!"

At this very moment, a few people walked towards them with fear. It was as if they were trying to say something but were hesitant to do so.

Yasmine glanced at them and noticed that these people were the guests Fernando invited. All of them were well-known corporate leaders in Qena City.

Her whole face lit up at once. She said with a smile, "Please enjoy your meal, my beloved guests."

They scowled at Yasmine with a strange expression, as if they were trying to avoid her.

They had witnessed how the two big shots treated the Bai family a while ago.

If they were going to stay on good terms with the Bai family, wouldn't they offend the two of them indirectly?

They immediately rushed to Felicity and surrounded her.

One by one, they took out their business cards and handed them to Felicity respectfully. "Felicity, I'm Uncle He of the He family. Feel free to contact me when you're available."

"Felicity, I'm Fabien Li, the chairman of the Fabien Group. Didn't you visit us for a potential business partnership a few weeks ago? I've seen your proposal and I think it's good. Can we arrange a meeting to discuss our collaboration when you have some spare time?"

"Hello, Miss Bai. I'm the chairman of Legendary Marine Mall. Please accept this VIP card as a birthday present. Do give me a call when you drop by the mall."

Felicity was stupefied again, looking at everyone paying their utmost respect to her.

On the other hand, the Bai family was completely enraged.

These people had gone too far!

Everyone was looking down on the Bai family at this moment!

However, Rebecca, who was standing at the side, watched her daughter being surrounded in the middle of the crowd, who was as stunning as a bright morning star. All of a sudden, another thought came to Rebecca's mind.

It seemed that it was an indisputable fact that her daughter had risen as a bigwig in Qena City.

There was a powerful, mysterious man who was on her side. He had the ability to make Hugo and Harper bow to her!

Rebecca thought, "Should I perhaps change my attitude towards my daughter? Chances are, I could also get whatever I want! Both the name and wealth!"

As for that annoying William... Hmph, Felicity was being protected by and had made an ally with that mysterious man.

Since he had given his wedding gift to Felicity, he must have already thought of a way to deal with William. William was nothing but an eyesore.

It seemed that she didn't need to care about William at all.

"This big shot... If compared to Fernando..."

She was pulled aside by Fernando as she thought about it.

Fernando's face, at this moment, was ghastly pale!

On this very night, he had been put to great shame!

He had spent a huge amount of money. However, he did not manage to win over Felicity's heart. Besides, his image was also crushed into pieces by that big shot standing behind her!

He couldn't take this humiliation.

"Auntie, what do you think we should do now? Didn't you say that you are very confident that we can win today?" Fernando questioned, baring his teeth.

However, at this time, Rebecca pressed her lips together and glanced at Fernando. She replied nonchalantly, "Fernando, I don't think this is an urgent matter to deal with now."

Upon hearing this, Fernando felt he was about to lose his mind!

He could no longer suppress the rage in his heart. He suddenly raised his hand and slapped in Rebecca's face!

"You b*tch! Are you kidding me? Are you looking for death?" Fernando bellowed, veins pulsing on his face.

All of a sudden, there was a dead silence hanging in the air.

"Good! You heartless woman! Then don't blame me for what I'm about to do!" Fernando spoke as he strode to Felicity.

Felicity watched Fernando stomping towards her. A cold chill ran down her spine.

What was this guy going to do?

Fernando glared at Felicity and barked, "Felicity, I'll ask you one question! I've saved your life! How can you repay me?"

Chapter 54

Felicity's face darkened. He brought up how he saved her again.

D*rn it!

Like an annoying chewing gum that was stuck under her shoe, Fernando always used this against her.

Fernando looked around and exclaimed loudly, "Of course, I won't blame you if you choose not to repay me. At least, I have finally seen your true colors."

Everyone stared at Felicity.

Felicity's face was as red as a tomato.

She was extremely aggrieved and disgruntled.

He had threatened her again and again!

By exploiting her guilt towards him, he had been trying to make her yield to him again and again!

D*rn it! He shouldn't have saved her!

This man was simply a scum!

If she had foreseen this, she would rather draw her last breath that night!

As this thought flashed across Felicity's mind, she felt that someone held her hand tightly all of a sudden.

She looked down.

It was William.

William grabbed her hand calmly. It was as if he was channeling her an infinite power and strength from his grip.

The strength for her to revolt!

The power for her to fight against them!

Felicity's eyes turned cruel instantly!

Well, if that was the case...

So be it! She did not mind being called ungrateful.

Suddenly she raised her head and clenched her jaw, roaring, "So what if I do not repay your kindness! Even if I were to be condemned by my conscience every day, I won't want to be acquainted with such a hypocrite like you! Think of it this way, you've just saved an unthankful dog! Will that sit well with you?"

Her words caused an uproar among the crowd.

Felicity was famous for being kind.

They didn't expect that she would ruin her own reputation in front of everyone!

Fernando was also dumbfounded.

He was going to use this to threaten Felicity to back down. He did not mind even if Felicity only yielded to him in the slightest bit.

However, at this moment, despite being in front of everyone, Felicity decided to refuse to surrender and submit to Fernando!

Rather than giving in to him, she chose to be condemned and criticized by others!

D*rn it!

What a bunch of useless trash!

"All of you deserve to die!"

Without warning, Fernando reached out his hand and grabbed a wine glass to throw it at Felicity. He wanted to hurt her so badly!

However, at this very moment, Fernando was flung away by a kick.

Everyone was shocked!

They just saw William throw a kick at Fernando. He kicked it so hard that Fernando was tossed away by the force.

They all stared at William at once!

Was this still the good- for- nothing who only depended on his wife?

How dared he lay his finger on a young master like Fernando?

He was digging his own grave!

Even Felicity was left aghast.

What was William doing?

However, William's reply made Felicity's eyes turn moist right away.

"If you were to be condemned and criticized by others, then I am willing to be called the most heinous man on this planet. I will be with you forever!"

Everyone's heart skipped a beat!

One of them was willing to break free from the shackles of her family and chose to be condemned and criticized by others.

Meanwhile, her man swore to follow her till death tore them apart even if he would be called the most heinous man on this planet.

What they had portrayed was so touching and heartwarming.

Life was a mixture of happiness and sorrow, union and separation. Where could they find another pair of couples who were so in love with one another?

Even if the road ahead of them would be a bittersweet journey, it seemed that as long as they were together, it didn't matter at all. Even death itself was no longer their concern.

Fernando got up from the ground, fury poured through him.

He pointed at William and roared angrily, "How dare you! How could you kick me? You're looking for your own death!"

William glared at Fernando coldly and burst into laughter suddenly.

He marched towards Fernando.

Each frounce of his was filled with extreme coldness.

It was as if he was concentrating all his strength at every step he took.

"Although I do wish to live with Felicity until we both pass away, I don't want to see her being condemned and criticized by others..."

William ground his teeth. "Didn't I tell you earlier that I'm going to clarify something today..."

"Let's start with this matter then."

Before William finished his words, he was already standing in front of Fernando.

There was no fear in his eyes!

Everyone felt that their breathing became disorganized all of a sudden!

How could a good-for-nothing in Qena City be so arrogant?

Who would have thought about that?

No one would dare to think about it!

Fernando stared at William, feeling out of breath suddenly. He choked on his own saliva and started coughing.

"You, what do you want to say?" Fernando questioned with anger.

Out of the blue, William asked, "What do I want to say? Great! Let me ask you, Fernando, would you dare to swear to God that you really saved Felicity that night?" He challenged Fernando, his eyes gleaming with bright dazzling lights.

His question made everyone present quiet down right away. The air in the room seemed to have frozen.

What did he mean?

Fernando had threatened Felicity countless times for he was her lifesaver.

Now that William asked him this question, could the truth be something else?

Fernando felt his head was about to explode.

Being Felicity's lifesaver was his greatest weapon to threaten the Bais.

He thought that he was the only one who knew the truth on that night.

What on earth did William know?

"What are you talking about? Do you think you are the one who saved her if it wasn't me?" Fernando shouted fiercely.

Fernando's reply made Felicity's heart miss a beat!

Who on earth saved her?

Was it really not Fernando?

At this moment, William's lips curled up into a quizzical smirk.

Seeing that William did not answer his question, Fernando breathed a sigh of relief secretly. He was ready to fight back. "Haha, everyone knows that we, the Lins, are a family of doctors. It's not difficult for us to treat and save a person. As for you, you're just a useless piece of sh*t! What rights do you have to question me?"

William raised his eyebrows and retorted jokingly, "Oh? Then would you perhaps enlighten us what kind of illness Felicity has? What methods did you use to save her?"

Fernando was dumbstruck.

What kind of illness?

He didn't know.

Fernando knew that Felicity had been ill since she was a child. However, many famous doctors could not even fully understand diseases as such, let alone him who was practically an amateur in medicine.

That night, when he went over to her house, he found that although Felicity was in a coma, her breath was gradually stabilizing on its own. Obviously, she had made it through the critical moment.

Thus, he simply hit a few acupoints on Felicity's back in order to convince others that he was the one who saved Felicity's life.

Now that he was requested to name her illness, how could he do that?

Everyone's expression changed while looking at Fernando, who was at a loss of words.

Felicity, on the other hand, could not help becoming more anxious, her heart began to beat wildly in her chest.

William had brought up the most crucial question.

Felicity didn't doubt Fernando previously because she was convinced that it was a fact since there were so many witnesses.

Even her mother said the same thing.

It turned out that there was something else that she didn't know.

"Humph! Although I don't know the name of the specific illness Felicity has, there's no need for me to explain myself to you since I know an acupoint that can cure all kinds of diseases," Fernando replied shamelessly.

He would be safe since they did not have any evidence against him. He just had to be firm in his stand.

At this time, William turned around and looked at Felicity suddenly. "Felicity, in your opinion, who saved you?"

Felicity's mind was in a complete mess.

But at this time, something flashed across her mind!

They did not have a witness. Even if they did, he or she could be easily manipulated by them.

However, she had evidence!

Felicity rummaged in her bag and took out a tiny silver needle. She explained, "The person who saved me that night accidentally left this special-looking silver needle..."

Fernando's face darkened again.

Didn't he get rid of all the needles last time?

Felicity must've picked it up from somewhere!

D*rn it!

Had she been suspecting him since then?

When William saw the silver needle, he put on a slight smile and took it over from Felicity gently.

Then, before everyone's very eyes, he swung his hands in the air.

As if he had just performed a magic trick, within seconds, he was holding innumerable silver needles in between his fingers.

"Haha, this kind of needle, I have..."

He thrust his jaw forward and continued, "A hundred of them!"

Chapter 55

The crowd burst into an uproar when they saw the silver needles in William's hands!

William, who was holding the silver needles, stood there. His cold gaze made everyone tremble!

It seemed that he who owned this silver needle was an invincible and unbeatable man.

His confidence emanated from his body like waterfall fell into steep mountains.

When Felicity saw the silver needles in William's hands, she was completely taken aback.

They were the same silver needle!

Besides, there were one hundred of them!

That could only mean...

That night, Fernando was not the one who saved her life!

It was her husband!

William!

Felicity burst into tears at the thought of it.

She had been under great pressure since she had been asked to repay Fernando for his grace in saving her life. She had been having insomnia and loss of appetite.

She was afraid that Fernando would threaten her with this.

And it turned out that Fernando had indeed done so.

She was about to give up her reputation and to take the name of being a despicable, ungrateful brat. She was willing to do all these for William.

However, at this moment, William took up the cudgels for her!

His gaze, at this very moment...

It was colder than how a needle would feel.

It was also sharper than a needle!

But it brought so much warmth to Felicity.

There was nothing else in the world that could bring more warmth to Felicity than to see how William stood up for her with these one hundred needles in his hands.

In fact, Felicity had been suspicious of Fernando for quite some time.

Fernando was completely clueless about her illness.

If he really had the ability to save her within one night, she wouldn't have suffered all these years!

Now that the truth was finally revealed, the only person she owed was William, whom was also her love!

Well, it was only natural for her husband to save her anyway!

She burst into tears and plunged into William's embrace.

She had been feeling breathless. The rock that had been pressing her was finally lifted off.

Fernando opened his mouth wide and stared blankly at those silver needles. His face turned livid in an instant.

"You b*stard! What are you talking about! Who do you think you are? Who'll believe you even if you claim that you could save Felicity?" Fernando yelled.

Felicity looked up, her beautiful face was stained with tears. "I do! Even if no one in the world believes him, I would never doubt him. He only needs my trust in him!"

Hearing this, William's lips curled up into a smile. He gently tapped Felicity's head.

He only needed her trust.

William had been concealing the truth that he had saved Felicity because he didn't want his medical background to be exposed.

If someone recognized that he was from the Lu family of North Lake City and decided to use this information against him, it would be a disaster for him. After all, he barely had anything to fight back at this point in time.

However, William's heart had been aching for Felicity when he saw her being tormented every day.

If keeping his medical background as a secret would result in Felicity's sufferings...

It'd be better for him to make a name for himself. Even if he would perish and leave this world in a much agonizing way, he would never regret it!

It would be good enough as long as she trusted him. She was the only reason for him to forget all his worries.

William genuinely did not care if others believed him. He did not care what others thought about him.

Fernando was extremely furious. He stamped his feet.

His biggest trump card had been torn into pieces by William at this exact moment!

"You brat, I would definitely tear you into pieces tonight!" Fernando thought, his nostrils flared.

Fury roared through Yasmine's mind at once. She had been watching them on the other side.

A fresh swell of rage rose in her as she looked at Fernando.

There were two reasons that they had been acting so confidently previously. Firstly, Fernando was Felicity's lifesaver.

Secondly, William and Felicity had already gotten their divorce certificates.

However, this useless brat had become Felicity's lifesaver!

Felicity was a person who would always repay others' kindness. Now that she knew William was her lifesaver, how could she be willing to leave William?

They almost won the battle!

Speaking of which, where did this kid learn the skill to save Felicity's life?

Could he be hiding any other secrets?

In fact, many people shared the same doubt with Yasmine.

However, none of them dared to ask any questions seeing that Felicity was totally obsessed with William.

After all, it did not do them any good to know the answers.

At this moment, Felicity asked, "William, were you really the one who saved me?"

Everyone immediately pricked up their ears.

William replied with a smile, "Well, I was worried sick about you when we quarreled that day. Thus, I sneaked in to check on you and luckily I noticed that you were having a relapse. I left earlier when I heard someone coming over as I was afraid that you were still angry at me."

Felicity's heart ached.

Her silly husband...

It turned out that he had been looking after and supporting her secretly.

Even if they quarreled, he couldn't bear to part with her...

Felicity thought, "You fool if you can't bear to part with me, why would I hold a grudge against you..."

That night, she clearly felt the warmth came from a pair of hands. It was indeed him.

"But how do you know how to cure my illness?"
Felicity was curious.

William replied, "You've been in poor health these years. Thus, I've been reading up a lot more medical books in case it would come in handy one day."

Felicity chuckled, "You're so silly. Thank you so much, hubby. This is the best gift I've ever received in my life."

After hearing that, everyone's expression changed at once. They felt they had a lump blocking in their throats.

It turned out that he just got it lucky.

He was so lucky that he didn't accidentally mistreat and kill Felicity that night.

A heavy silence hung in the air.

Felicity let go of William and held his hand tightly. She refused to let it go again.

She glared at Fernando, who was standing aside.

The more she looked at him, the angrier she became.

This guy threatened her over and over again! He claimed that he was the one who saved her!

It turned out he was just making up lies! Never did he save her life.

This kind of scumbag who took credit for other's work was an eyesore to look at!

"Fernando Lin, do you have anything else to add? I don't owe you anything now! Get lost! I don't want to see you ever again!" Felicity roared coldly.

However, Fernando burst out laughing menacingly all of a sudden.

"Get lost? Where should I go? If I were to leave this place, you would have to go with me too. After all, we are married!"

Fernando had completely torn off the disguise he had been putting on previously.

There was no need for him to pretend anymore.

This woman would only give in if he used the rough way!

Hearing this, Felicity's gaze became more ruthless. "Hmph! This can't be counted as marriage! It's illegal for you to do this! Believe it or not, I'll call the cops right now!"

However, Fernando replied arrogantly, "Go ahead! Report it to the cops! I'll see who dares to go against me in Qena City! Illegal, you say? That's funny because I am the law!"

"William and you have been divorced officially and you have gotten the divorce certificate. Hmph, trust me, I can get our marriage certificate registered by just making a phone call. Do you want to divorce me?" Fernando stared Felicity down and continued, "Let's keep my answer to that aside first. Even if I do, you will become a b*tch who has been married and divorced twice. You'll be the biggest joke in Qena City!"

Felicity was so enraged that her entire being was shaking!

She had never expected Fernando to be so despicable!

Fernando laughed even louder when he saw Felicity's aggrieved expression.

His laughter resounded in the room.

It was as if the whole world revolved around his arrogance!

Even if he couldn't own Felicity...

He wanted to ruin her life and made her a b*tch that everyone despised!

However, at this moment, someone snorted from the side.

It was William.

"Oh? Really? Skip the phone call. You want to get your marriage registered, right? I've brought it to you."

William took out two red booklets from his pocket and threw them directly on Fernando's face.

VAMP2.0 WORK