

Chapter 364

When the few people heard these words, it was as if a lifetime had passed!

Looking at the sea of people and the murderous look on their faces, they felt like they were going to faint.

If he wanted these hundreds of people to escort them home, it would definitely be a magnificent sight in Qena City!

They didn't know whether the heart was warm or not, but the unforgettable heart was real!

For the rest of their lives, they would remember that hundreds of people would escort them home together.

"At the peak of my life is nothing more than this!"

Liu Tigger's move was too cruel!

On the surface, it was a warm protection for them.

But who didn't know that this was a kind of Soul Deterrence to them!

In the future, they would cause trouble in Qena City. First, they had to think about whether they would provoke those they shouldn't!

The group of people heard the order and immediately said to Sun Richard and the others, "Let's go! Do you want us to help you?"

How would they dare?

Although his body was in constant pain, at this moment, he could only endure the pain and get up and walk slowly.

The few people in the front had just left when Liu Tigger's men stepped forward. "You're slow, aren't you? Hurry up! I have to go home and take my daughter home to do her homework!"

William sweated and looked at Liu Tigger.

Liu Tigger looked innocent, as if to say, "How could I know that I would bring out a group of female slaves?"

The few people who were surrounded could only grit their teeth and continue moving forward. The hearts of the people here were sore. Those who heard the news would be heartbroken and shed tears.

Sun Richard was the last to leave.

When he passed by William, he didn't dare to look at William at all.

However, William pushed everyone aside and stood in front of Sun Richard.

A hint of resentment flashed through Sun Richard's eyes, but she hid it immediately.

William looked at him with a funny look and suddenly asked, "I want to know, who asked you to let me come over tonight?"

Sun Richard was stunned and replied instinctively, "Ah? No?"

William said with a smile, "It's that woman named Chen Yingran, isn't it?"

"How did you know?" Sun Richard's eyes widened.

"It's true that Chen Yingran played a honey trap on me and promised me to have a good sex tonight."

That was why Sun Richard was so vicious and wanted to deal with William tonight.

However, how did William know?

William did not explain, but just patted Sun Richard on the shoulder. "Go back and ask that woman. You will have an unexpected harvest."

Sun Richard was confused.

However, he was a scheming man. After listening to William's words, although he did not understand, he immediately realized that there was a mystery behind it!

Could it be that she was being used as a tool by that woman?

What the fk!

Sun Richard's heart flew away when she thought of that.

However, his body was in so much pain that he was forced out of the room.

After this wave of people left, Liu Tigger stayed.

William knew that he had something to say to her, so she said to Xena, "Xena, you can drive the car here first."

Looking at William's mysterious appearance, Xena muttered, but without saying anything, she went to drive the car.

"Tell me, what's the matter?" William asked.

Liu Tigger immediately said, "In a few days, I will leave Qena City for three days."

"Oh, let's go. Why are you asking me?" William said casually.

Although Liu Tigger was one of her men.

However, William did not treat him as a servant.

Instead, they treated him as a friend.

He wanted to go out to do his business. It was too awkward to ask for his permission.

But Liu Tigger said seriously, "I'm going to the provincial capital this time. You may not know that there will be a dragon-headed meeting every year in our provincial capital. Even the leaders of the underground cities of the nine cities will convene to have a meeting and come up with a peaceful vision for the next year."

The Dragon Head Union?

Hearing this strange name, William frowned.

However, according to Liu Tigger's words, it was almost the same as the opening ceremony.

However, the participants had become the bosses of the underground forces in each city.

"According to the rules, there are two places for meeting in each city. A few years ago, Sirius and I had been arguing with each other, so I've been with him for the past few years. Do you want to go with us this year?" Liu Tigger asked.

William got a headache as soon as she heard this. Liu Tigger could go by himself.

He did not want to be a local king for the rest of his life.

"You can go. I don't like to attend meetings," William said casually.

Liu Tigger nodded and said, "Okay, I'll tell you the content of the meeting when I come back."

At this time, Xena's car arrived. She rolled down the window and said, "Come on up."

William called Liu Tigger into the car with him. Along the way, it looked like Xena wanted to say something but stopped on a second thought.

William looked at the co-pilot's seat with amusement. "Just say what you want to say. One is your brother-in-law and the other is your sworn father. They are both your relatives."

Xena's steering wheel trembled and almost drove out of the ditch.

She calmed herself down and asked Liu Tigger in a trembling voice, "Brother Tigger, is what you said just now true?"

She was naturally referring to the matter of recognizing one's daughter.

Liu Tigger laughed. "Don't call me Brother Tigger."

"Oh, dad..." Xena pouted her mouth, feeling a little reluctant.

William looked at it and suddenly burst out laughing.

This demoness was just too interesting.

Brother Tigger told her not to call him Brother Tigger, meaning that he couldn't stand it.

"This little girl, what does she think she is like?"

"What are you laughing at! If you're laughing, I'll open land for you!" Xena rolled her eyes at William, but her face turned red.

"Well, Brother Tigger's words just now were to support you, so that you will not be bullied in Qena City in the future. Whether you accept it or not, Brother Tigger will not have a problem with it." William said with a smile.

Brother Tigger also nodded.

Xena puckered her little mouth. "Don't you want me, brother-in-law? Are you going to drive me away?"

William was sweating, and she couldn't reason with her.

Forget it, she could do whatever she wanted.

"In any case, as long as my brother-in-law is here to protect me, he can only bully me if he wants to," Bai Xena suddenly said in a playful manner.

Hearing that, Liu Tigger coughed to show that he had misheard, and the wind was so strong that he didn't hear it clearly.

William knocked on Xena's head. "Don't talk nonsense."

That was the reason why Xena stopped talking nonsense.

On the other side, there were hundreds of people escorting Sun Richard home. After Sun Richard returned home, he did not even have the strength to stand up.

He slammed the ground hard on the ground!

Chen Yingran!

On the road just now, he had already figured it out.

"He must have been tricked by Chen Yingran!"

He immediately called the "Tang Song Style" store to find out what had happened in the store at that time.

The shop assistant told Sun Richard everything about what had happened.

Sun Richard almost vomited blood when she heard that!

"Little b*tch, you really want to kill me!"

Do you want to hurt me?

Come on!

They hurt each other!

He immediately took out his mobile phone and called Chen Yingran.

At the other end of the phone, Chen Yingran was waiting for the news of Sun Richard. She immediately picked up the phone and said, "Honey, what do you think? Did you teach that bastard a lesson?"

Chapter 365

Chen Yingran was so anxious at home.

That bastard named William caused his status, which he had accumulated for so many years, to disappear in an instant. This kind of hatred was absolutely irreconcilable.

And that Sun Richard was not a good thing either.

"Did the two men fight or not? What's the result?"

She waited for Sun Richard's call in all kinds of ways.

Chen Yingran came straight to the point.

However, Sun Richard, who was on the other end of the phone, laughed coldly.

"You little bitch. You don't care about me at all. You just want to put me to death, do you?"

At that time in the store, it was clearly Harper's men who were supporting William and beating him up.

"You dare to lie to me. You said that it was William who beat you!"

He purposely concealed the relationship between William and Harper!

If I had known that there was a trace of relationship between William and Harper, why would I be so careless and suffer such humiliation tonight!

"Haha, I beat him up and even brought him to my house. I didn't wait for you to come. There's no one else in my house." Sun Richard said to the phone.

Hearing this, Chen Yingran was overjoyed. "It's true or not. I'll be right there!"

"Alright." Sun Richard began to wait for the little slut to fall into the trap after she hung up.

Less than ten minutes later, Sun Richard's cell phone rang. It turned out that Chen Yingran had arrived at his home.

Sun Richard opened the door for her. Chen Yingran was stunned when he saw Sun Richard.

At this moment, Sun Richard's face was black and blue. How could a handsome face have anything to do with him?

However, Chen Yingran thought Sun Richard was fighting with William in person, so he didn't say anything and just asked eagerly, "Where is he? Where is he? I can't wait to pull out his tendons and rip off his skin!"

Sun Richard saw that she was already like this and that Chen Yingran did not even care for her. The resentment in her heart deepened.

He said, "It's in my room. Let's go."

The two of them walked into the room. Chen Yingran saw that there was no one else in his room and was about to turn around to ask Sun Richard.

At this moment, the door of the room was locked with a click.

When Chen Yingran saw Sun Richard's sinister expression, he immediately knew that he had been tricked.

She immediately said discontentedly, "Sun Richard, you're kidding me! You lied to me because you wanted to trick me into your room, right? Why are you doing this? Didn't I make a deal with you before? As long as you can beat that guy up, I'll be yours tonight."

Sun Richard only stared at her and did not say anything.

Chen Yingran looked impatient. "Forget it. I don't want to argue with you. I'll go first."

"Go? Where are you going?" Sun Richard suddenly stopped Chen Yingran and asked coldly.

As soon as Chen Yingran saw it, Sun Richard's face was full of fierceness. She was a little scared and took two steps back. "What, what do you want to do? I'm telling you, don't mess around. I'll call the police."

Sun Richard suddenly raised her hand and slapped hard on Chen Yingran's face!

This slap made Chen Yingran feel dizzy.

"Sun Richard! What are you doing! You want to get me by violence! This is impossible!" Chen Yingran covered his face and shouted angrily.

However, Sun Richard laughed and laughed crazily. "Get you? Hehe, who do you think you are? I want you! I'm just playing with you! Today, I'll teach you a lesson! B*tch! How dare you lie to me! I'm going to die!"

Sun Richard's words made Chen Yingran's heart skip a beat!

Did Sun Richard know something?

She suddenly became a little weak. "What are you talking about? I don't understand."

"You don't understand, do you? Then I will hit you until you understand!" Sun Richard said as she kicked him without any mercy.

Chen Yingran was kicked to the ground immediately.

It was not over yet. Sun Richard seemed to want to completely vent the humiliation she had suffered tonight. She punched and kicked Chen Yingran on the ground, and kept cursing him!

In the end, Chen Yingran's heart finally broke down completely.

She knelt on the ground and began to cry and beg for mercy. "Young Master Sun, I was wrong, I was wrong! I shouldn't have lied to you! Don't hit me..."

Sun Richard stopped. She was panting like a cow.

Only, his eyes were scarlet red, making him look especially terrifying.

"Damn it! Let me die! I was so sincere to you before! You son of a bitch!" Sun Richard began to insult Chen Yingran again.

"Young Master Sun, I really know a lot. In order to make up for my mistakes, I will accompany you tonight, okay?" Chen Yingran began to rescue the country in a curve.

Sun Richard scolded fiercely, "That's what you said! Tonight, if I don't kill you, you won't have the surname of Sun!"

A flicker of fear flitted across Chen Yingran's eyes.

This kind of rich second generation generally knew how to play.

"I don't know what will happen to me if I fall into his hands tonight..."

However, if he did not do so now, the demon would definitely not let him go.

At the thought of this, Chen Yingran's heart was filled with infinite regret.

Why did she lie to Sun Richard back then?

If she had stopped after being taught a lesson, she would not have ended up in this state today.

However, it was too late now.

Because Sun Richard had already rushed over like a wild beast and tore off her clothes.

Two lines of humiliating and regretful tears fell down from Chen Yingran's cheeks.

On the other side, after William sent Brother Tigger home, he went back with Xena.

As soon as he returned home, Felicity came out of the hall. When he saw William, his eyes lit up.

She rushed over and touched William. She said nervously, "William, are you all right? I'm scared to death! Why don't you call me! I don't care, you have to take me when you go out in the future! Why do you get into trouble?"

In the face of Felicity using both his hands and feet, and then his mouth was like a machine gun, William's normal head became bigger again.

However, his heart was warm.

After all, Felicity was concerned about her.

William grabbed Felicity's hands and said, "Don't worry, I'm fine. Isn't it good to stand in front of you?"

Felicity's face was still full of worry. "Did you offend someone outside? Have you finished?"

William looked at Felicity with a smile. At the moment, Felicity didn't look like his wife, but his mother.

Regardless of Felicity's chatter and concern, William suddenly put forth his strength and aggressively took Felicity into his arms.

Felicity's anxious heart suddenly calmed down in the embrace of the domineering man.

Her face was filled with indescribable happiness...

"It's good that you're all right, it's good that you're safe..."

The two of them were enjoying this kind of happiness that was born because of mutual concern. Suddenly, they felt a little body between the two of them desperately squeezed in.

A melancholic voice rang out.

"I also feel wronged, and I want to hug her."

Chapter 366

Xena was full of mixed feelings when she returned home.

She was waiting for her sister's concern when she realized that Felicity and Snow had ignored her.

His eyes were full of William, and his words were more like long-term William's short-lived.

Even the last two shameless b*tch couples were still hugging each other.

Xena's heart was like a dog's dog's.

She also tried her best to squeeze in and broke up this bitter pair of mandarin ducks.

After Felicity and William separated, she looked at Xena speechlessly.

However, Xena's face was full of grievances. "Sister, don't you want me? Why don't you ask me?"

Felicity rolled his eyes at her grumpily. "I can see if you are good or not! Besides, William has only gone out with you once, and he has made such a big trouble for me. Don't take William out again in the future!"

She looked as if she was trying her best to protect her child.

Xena looked at William pitifully.

William shrugged her shoulders and used her eyes to say, "Sisters like you, I dare not provoke you."

"Alright, go wash up. It's time for dinner," Felicity said.

The two of them went back to their rooms.

Once William returned to his room, Felicity also followed him in.

Then, she threw herself into William's arms again.

William was stunned. What happened to Felicity today?

Do you want to hug me regardless of the occasion and time?

"William, I'm really worried about you." Felicity suddenly whispered in Lu Boyan's arms.

Even Felicity himself did not know why.

It seemed that after he came back from the last life and death battle with William, he had a deeper affection for William.

For a moment, she didn't want to part with him. She didn't want him to get hurt again.

Perhaps it was because she thought that William was dead at that time. The feeling of resurrection from death made Felicity and Yang Feng cherish the person in front of him very much.

William looked down and saw Felicity's beautiful eyes full of affection.

Feeling the soft, fragrant, and sweet body in his arms, William's heart rippled.

"Yeah, I'll be fine. We'll be fine." William touched Felicity's head and gently said.

They looked at each other with sparks of love in their eyes.

Felicity's pretty face suddenly turned red, and he gently closed his eyes.

Her eyelashes were trembling because of nervousness.

William knew what the snow was waiting for.

He lowered his head and prepared to give her an eternal kiss.

But at this time, a loud voice came from the door. "Brother-in-law, the clothes I bought are still thrown in your car..."

His voice came to an abrupt end.

William and Felicity opened their eyes at the same time and quickly separated as if they had done something wrong.

At this moment, Xena was already standing at the door, and her mouth was almost falling out of surprise.

"These two b*stards are really good at making trouble!"

Upstairs, after hugs? Upstairs?

"We're going to kiss again after hugging each other!"

"It's just a dog's food everywhere!"

Felicity gave Xena a resentful look and went out to prepare dinner.

William also looked at Xena angrily. "You son of a bitch who defiles the scenery!"

Xena stood there, pointing at herself with her finger. She looked at the person in front of her in disbelief.

"Who knows if I was wrong in the end?"

At dinner, the three of them did not speak, as if they were all holding a breath in their hearts.

Xena was feeling uncomfortable as he ate his meal and felt the sharp gaze of the two men.

After a few bites, she pushed the bowl away and said depressedly: "I'm going back to my room. You guys have to hug, kiss, cook, and go back to your room. However, don't make too much noise. Don't disturb me."

William and Felicity looked at each other in dismay. This guy was eating gunpowder.

In the evening, when the two of them were in the room, they wanted to continue their relationship, but they found that they could no longer feel the sympathy and sympathy they had for each other like before.

Felicity cursed gloomily. "It's all because of that bastard. Let's go to sleep."

William sweated and went out of the study to meditate.

And that night, at Sun Richard's house.

Sun Richard's father, Sun Dayu, had returned home on a business trip. When he saw his son's face black and blue, he was enraged. "Richard, what's going on with you! Who beat you up like this?"

Sun Dayu worked in the Medicine Association in Qena City. After years of hard work, he became an assistant of the Medicine Association.

She could be considered a well-known person in Qena City.

Although the position of ajejun of the Medicine Association looked lower than the president and vice president's, to be honest, the real power was much greater than the vice president's power.

Because it was Sun Dayu who was in charge of the daily affairs of the Medicine Association, especially the external contacts, Sun Dayu took sole responsibility.

Therefore, he had a lot of connections in Qena City. Besides, he had a good relationship with several vice chairmans.

A few days ago, he was on a business trip. Just when he came back, he found that his son was bullied. This was terrible!

Sun Richard looked at her father's return as if she had found a backer. She pitifully said: "It's a young man named William! He was too vicious! If I didn't compromise and compromise, I wouldn't have been able to save my life."

"William?" Hearing this, Sun Dayu frowned slightly.

Sun Richard looked at him and asked, "Dad, is this person very difficult to deal with? Did he beat me up for nothing?"

Sun Dayu shook his head and said, "What does this person say? I still don't know his background until now. It seems that he has been very close to Liu Tigger recently, and recently his wife Felicity has become the vice president of the Medicine Association..."

Sun Richard slammed her fist on the table and said angrily, "Dad, you must take revenge for me!"

Sun Dayu was more than 60 years old this year, and he was also an old man. The whole family regarded Sun Richard as a precious gem.

Seeing his son in such a miserable state, Sun

Tianyu couldn't take it anymore.

"Humph! That guy, relying on someone's support, actually bullied me. Hehe, then don't blame me for being ruthless!" Sun Dayu's eyes flashed a trace of fierceness.

"Dad, what are you going to do? We can't afford to offend Brother Tigger either," Sun Richard asked anxiously.

Sun Dahu was an old fox. He thought for a while and said, "We can't afford to offend Liu Tigger, but I know that Liu Tigger will go to the provincial capital for a meeting in these two days. He is not in Qena City. This is a good opportunity."

"But his subordinate..." Sun Richard still had some misgivings.

Sun Dayu smiled and said, "Hitting directly against William is equivalent to hitting Liu Tigger's head. Of course, we can't be so stupid. All these years, you have learned from me in vain!"

Sun Richard was a free and easy person. She could not study people's hearts as Sun Dayu did.

Roland smiled and asked, "So, what do you want me to do?"

Sun Dayu suddenly looked out of the field and smiled cruelly.

"If we can't touch William directly, then we can change another person. We can still make that kid regret what he did!"

"Are you saying so?" Sun Mei's heart trembled.

"Hehe, I just happen to see that that person is also quite unhappy recently. It's time for me to move my muscles and bones." Sun Dayu said sinisterly.

"Felicity is weak and useless. What qualifications does he have to be the vice president? Then don't blame me for being heartless."

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 367

"Dad! Are you saying that you are going to attack Felicity?" Sun Richard's eyes widened.

Sun Dayu nodded. "Yes, just her."

Sun Dayu was not familiar with Felicity. He had only seen him twice in a meeting.

However, he had deep resentment towards Felicity.

Sun Dayu had been working hard for the Medicine Association all the time, and he had been in this position for ten years!

It was not easy for him to make it to the general election. He originally wanted to say that if he had time to take up the position of vice president, he should be able to get the position smoothly.

But he didn't expect that a snow storm would fall out of nowhere!

If Felicity was a man of great qualifications, Sun Dayu would have nothing to say.

It just so happened that Felicity was young. At first glance, it could be seen that he was a man who relied on his background.

This was equivalent to digging out the location of Sun Dayu directly!

Sun Dayu had been holding back his anger all this while.

After that, Bernard suffered an accident and he emptied his position as the vice president.

Who would have thought that Frandick would directly grant the title of vice president to Felicity.

This made Sun Dayu completely furious some time ago.

So he found a random excuse and said that he was going out for a business trip, but in fact, he was going out to relieve his boredom.

Sun Dayu didn't expect that there was a proud Felicity in front of him, who pushed him out of the vice president's team out of the air.

Now, her husband actually bullied her own son again.

Hate and hate, it's just so-so!

And Sun Dayu also knew that more than half of the Vice President of the Medicine Association had a few words to Felicity.

Because Frandick trusted her so much that he even gave Felicity and Snow Wind to take charge of the two regions.

This was equivalent to announcing to everyone that Felicity would be the first person below the president.

What would the other vice-presidents, who had been working hard to climb for such a long time, think?

An ordinary man is innocent, but he is in possession of a precious treasure, so he is guilty.

It was time to teach Felicity and snow a lesson.

"Dad, what exactly are you going to do?" Sun Richard asked curiously.

Sun Dayu shook his head and said, "That's none of your business. You stay at home to recover, and I'll go out."

Before Sun Dayu went out, he smiled and said, "There should be good news coming in a few days."

Sun Richard was stunned. Her mood immediately turned for the better.

Sun Richard knew how capable her father was.

He was a cunning old fox at the bottom of the picture and was very insidious.

It was common to kill without leaving a trace!

It seemed that Felicity and William were guilty!

Sun Dayu went out to find a few vice-presidents of the Medicine Association.

Coincidentally, in three days' time, Frandick would have to travel far away to get a chance to do business.

From Sun Dayu's point of view, this was a heaven-sent opportunity for him to display his skills.

In the next two days, William stayed in the Genuine Care Medical Center during the day, which made the usually lazy Lydia and Melissa feel a little flattered.

Although Melissa was beautiful, rich, and capable, she felt that she could not lift her head up in front of this little bastard.

She carried William on her back and complained to Lydia, "After this little bastard comes, why do I have the feeling of being a student in class? I always tremble with fear."

Lydia was so worried that he kept nodding, "Me too. I didn't dare to be late and left early, and I was afraid that he would ask my question suddenly. He was forcing us to be better."

Sure enough, when the two of them whispered, William's voice came from the side. "What do you think about the future development of the company?"

Melissa was stunned.

"What do you think?"

"I don't see whether it's OK or not!"

Now the company belongs to you. No matter how capable I am, I can't get out of your fingers, so I don't look at it.

William looked at Melissa playfully.

Melissa had no choice but to grab the orange peels from his hand and throw them into his cup.

Then he said as if he was a city elite, "Now our Genuine Care Medical Center is completely on the right track. On the other side, Janet also responded that the company is becoming more and more prosperous recently, because of the involvement of a big star, Flavia, and the recovery of an experienced star, Laura. In recent days, Lunanica Company has become more and more powerful, and the contract has been handed over."

William nodded. "You don't have to say anything about singing praises. Tell me the problem."

Melissa rolled his eyes at William. "What the hell did he say? Did he hear me sing praises about my virtues?"

"I despise you ten thousand times, okay?"

"Don't you want to ask a question?"

Okay!

"Go to hell!"

"The problem is that you originally thought that you couldn't put eggs in one basket, so you invested in Cangyue Company. But now it seems that one is a medicine road, one is a star road, two roads are too different from one another..." Wang Qingcao chose what to say. He wanted to say more politely.

But Lydia, who was on the side, was not tactful at all. "It means that big steps are easy to get involved."

Wang Qingxue's face turned dark. This bestie's words were too vulgar!

However, William did not take it seriously. She smiled and said, "Go on."

Melissa took a sip of orange water and said, "According to the current situation, we must continue to walk these two paths, because both of them are developing well. But how to walk them is a problem. I'm afraid that if we don't cross them, there will be two problems in the future."

William smiled a little. "It's management and quality."

Lin's mind went blank for a moment, and then he started playing dumb again.

Melissa, however, gave William a hard look. "Do you know this already? This is a test for us!"

"What do you mean?" Lydia asked shamelessly.

Melissa said to Lydia angrily, "There is no intersection between the two roads. First, there will be management problems, and the two sides will not interfere with each other. But they are all the estates of the bastard. There is no problem for him. But for the two companies, if they don't intersection, they won't have a unity effect. Instead, because of their own government, they will increase the competitive competition. They all want to perform well in front of the bastard and suppress the other side."

"On the other hand, it's about professional quality. One is about the pharmaceutical business, and the other is about entertainment industry. It's impossible to get together. It's inconvenient to manage it and professional quality needs to be tested at the same time."

William nodded. "What about your suggestion?"

Melissa said gloomily, "Weren't you already thinking about it? There are only two ways. One is to integrate, the other is to stop and do what's best."

William threw an orange into her mouth, stood up slowly, and walked outside.

However, he left behind a sentence. "So, you'll be busy in the following days."

Her words angered Melissa. He flung a pillow toward the door and said, "F*ck! He's throwing his hands away again! No no no! I'm going to attack him in the group! I won't show any mercy to him because he doesn't have the monthly menstruation!"

On the way home, William suddenly received a call from Felicity.

"William, Director Sun of the Medicine Association informed us that an emergency meeting is about to be held. I'll be there right away. You can deal with Xena yourself for dinner. Remember to eat vegetables!"

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 368

William was going home to have dinner, but hearing Felicity's words, he was stunned. "What's so urgent? Why does he have to have a meeting in the evening? And I remember Frandick has just gone on a business trip this morning?"

Felicity said on the phone, "I don't know, either. But the Deputy Director Sun's words are very serious. He asked me to attend the party. I'm also a vice president. It's a little embarrassed if I don't go."

"Okay, then you can go. Be careful on the road." After saying that, William hung up the phone.

When he thought that he would have to face the annoying elf when he got home, his brain ached.

So he made a phone call to Xena. "I am busy outside at night. You can deal with dinner by yourself."

Xena exploded on the phone. "Damn it! I've worked so hard to move here with you just to have a free meal. What do you mean by this pair of b*tch couple? One said he had a meeting and the other said he had something to do and left me alone at home to enjoy the northwest wind! I know, did you make an appointment to have dinner without me? Won't your conscience hurt? Will you come back at night? Will you still love me when you come back?"

William hung up the phone casually. It was reasonable to be overbearing when dealing with such a coquettish girl.

He directly turned around and went to Lunanica Company.

Janet was still in the office and looked very busy.

Seeing William coming over, she said hello and continued to work.

After more than ten minutes, she came out and asked William, "Hey, what kind of wind blows you here today? I thought you didn't want this company anymore."

William could feel the spiteful feelings of a married woman even from a few meters away.

William suddenly walked over and sniffed at her gently. He shook his head and said, "There is a smell of blood on you."

Janet was stunned. "What is the smell of blood? What nonsense are you talking about? Where's the smell of blood in my clean body?"

"Your menstruation is bloody, isn't it? I've told you a long time ago that you have to treat your untidy menstruation, and you don't believe it." William said lightly.

Janet's pretty face turned red and she looked at William in surprise.

"This guy's nose belongs to a dog, doesn't it?"

Recently, because of the company's affairs, Janet's life was extremely irregular.

And she really had been suffering from gynecological diseases all the time, and her lower abdomen had been hurt badly these days.

"I didn't expect that this guy could know my illness just by smelling with his nose."

However, Janet was a beautiful girl. No matter how William bragged, how could she let William see such a shameful disease?

So Janet pretended to be calm and said, "Thank you for your concern. No need. Do you want to listen to the company's recent affairs?"

She called him 'you', so much so that the veins on William's head faintly popped out.

This bastard's resentment was even greater than Melissa's.

"It's alright. I'll leave the company to you. I'm here to discuss a matter with you." William said as she retold the topic that they discussed at Melissa's place.

Then he added, "Then you and Melissa will be busy."

Fortunately, although Janet's grievances were more than Wang Qingmian's, her quality was better than Wang Qingmian's. She tried hard to hold back her anger and did not explode on the spot.

However, she changed the subject and said, "By the way, there is really something in the company recently. I think you need to know something."

"Oh? What is it?" William asked, and then he rummaged through the boxes in the refrigerator of Janet's office.

Janet was about to say something, but when she saw that William was like a starving ghost, she suddenly said gloomily, "What are you looking for to tell me?"

"Don't you have oranges in the office? You have to learn this from Melissa in order to save up a bit." William said and continued, "What did you say just now?"

Janet glared at William and said, "Due to the recent expansion of the company's business, it recruited a group of professional talents. Among them, there is a martial arts instructor. His ability is quite good, but he doesn't work at every two or three days, and then his boss fired him."

"But this guy didn't say anything, so he went to the company every two or three days to plead for mercy. This person was also strange. He sat on the ground at the company's gate and didn't say a word. Then we asked the security guards to drive him away. More than a dozen security guards were beaten by him, and they were not guilty of calling the police, so we couldn't do anything with him."

When Janet talked about this, she was even more depressed.

William was interested. "Do you mean that more than a dozen security guards can't do anything to him?"

Janet nodded, "Well, he seems to be a martial arts practitioner. Some time ago, I saw that he was quite competent in martial arts guidance, but I don't know why he has been absent all the time."

"Well, if he comes again, you'll tell me. I'll make an appointment with him to meet this person." William said with a smile.

Janet nodded with satisfaction, "At least you know that you are a member of the company. You can finally make some contributions to the company."

"Are you done with work? Let's have a meal together?" William said to Janet.

Janet thought for a moment and nodded. "Well, report the company's affairs during the meal time. You still need to know."

William suddenly felt that this meal became not very good.

At this moment, on the top floor of the Medicine Building, the lights were bright.

In the conference room, there were more than a dozen people sitting.

These people were all high-level executives of the Medicine Association.

Felicity was the last one to come. As soon as she arrived, she apologized and then sat down.

Sun Dayu, who was sitting opposite to Felicity, looked at each other and smiled.

This Felicity was extremely beautiful.

Unfortunately, they were not on the same path.

Otherwise, it would be eye-catching if there was a beautiful woman present at the meeting.

Sun Dayu cleared his throat and said, "Thanks to Mr. Hoo's commission, today I'll summon you to have a temporary meeting. It's mainly to discuss the problem of the research and development of our drug building."

Felicity nodded. She was probably aware of this matter.

Half a year ago, the Qena City Drug Association took a piece of land in the suburbs and was ready to build a drug research and development building. Now all procedures had been completed.

Sun Dayu continued, "Two days ago, all of our procedures have been taken back. We also signed a contract with a construction company, and the construction can start tomorrow. But as for the construction company, according to the contract, we will send a manager, and the main responsibility is to supervise their construction. Mr. Hoo, this matter is very important. He asked us to do good things and do practical things. Let's talk about who is the right person to do it today."

Chapter 369

Hearing these words, Felicity and Yang Feng felt that there was a slight difference.

It was a very small matter to send a manager to do that.

It was enough for the Medicine Association to send a middle-level cadre.

Why did they have to invite these vice-masters to a meeting to discuss this?

It was still a meeting in the middle of the night.

After hearing Sun Dayu's words, everyone nodded in agreement.

"Yes, it's a big deal to build the house. Now the construction companies are like chickens and chickens. If we were not careful, they would cut off the materials."

"Wouldn't we become a joke in Qena City if they cut down materials and caused problems in the quality of our building?"

"Mm. This matter is very serious. It must be discussed seriously. I feel that the person sent over should at least be a vice president. First of all, giving the construction company enough deterrence to make them feel that we greatly attach importance to the building's quality quality. Secondly, this is also the principle that Mr. Hoo adhered to. No matter how big or small, he will bow to us personally."

Everyone was discussing. Felicity didn't know what to say at the moment.

Sun Baiyu was observing Felicity's expression all the time. When he saw that Felicity was about to speak, he felt very proud.

Sending a manager over was indeed a small matter.

But now Sun Dayu just wanted to make the trifles bigger.

Last night, he had secretly discussed it with those vice-presidents. Today, he just put on a show for this ignorant Felicity to see.

Sun Dayu knocked the table with his hand and said, "It's rare for the vice presidents to be so profound and righteous. I, Sun, have been encouraged a lot and have learned a lot from you. Then, let's get down to the topic. According to what the vice presidents said just now, this management will be sent out from our vice presidents."

Felicity's heart shivered.

As for the management, although it was just a name, it had to appear on the construction site from time to time, and also needed to participate in some meetings inside the construction company.

More importantly, it would take a few months to build the building, but it only took ten days to build it.

"It's a bit hard to do so."

Sun Dayu continued, "How about this, for the sake of fairness, let's get an unofficial vote? So that everyone can't say anything. As for the selected people, the whole Medicine Association will first thank him for making such a big contribution and sacrifice for the Medicine Association. Also, please choose the deputy chairman to take the responsibility glory of our Medicine Association and do this with sincerity. What do you think?"

Everyone nodded. "Okay, let's do it. I'll take the lead. Although it's not a big deal to say that it's suffering, it takes time. I hope you don't have any complaints in your heart."

"Agreed. Let's begin."

Sun Dayu almost didn't wait for Felicity to express his opinion. He asked someone to bring over a voting box and then divided a piece of paper for everyone.

All the people bowed their heads, wrote their names, and then submitted the names to the voting box.

Felicity's head was a little big. She just remembered the name of these vice-presidents. If she was asked to vote now, it would be a complete mess.

She had no choice but to fill in a vacancy and hand it over.

Sun Dayu tidied up the case and said, "Now, I'll start singing."

"Lin Daochen, one vote."

Sun Dahu took out a piece of paper and shouted.

The person who had been called frowned, and then he looked at Felicity.

Felicity's heart skipped a beat. There was a slight difference.

It was true that this Lin Daochen was the one who had thrown himself into it.

However, how did he know that he was the one to vote for it?

"He even cast his eyes on me in the first place?"

"Wasn't it supposed to be anonymous?"

Then, Felicity and the others were completely stunned.

"Felicity, one vote."

"Felicity, two votes."

"Felicity, three votes."

"... "

"Felicity, 13 votes."

"The vote is done. It seems that everyone's opinions are very unified. It was President Bai who recommended us to be a new supervisor in person." Sun Dahu said with a smile.

At this moment, Felicity's complexion was a little unsightly.

No matter how stupid she was, it was time for her to know what had happened.

Why was everyone so united?

If it was a last-minute decision at the scene, on the one hand, the opinions would not be so unanimous; on the other hand, Lin Daochen would not look at him at the first time!

After thinking over and over again, there was only one reason!

These vice-masters had already voted for him in the press conference!

They had all agreed to work for him, so he was the only one whose name appeared, and he was the right one to do so.

Felicity suddenly had a lot of dissatisfaction in his heart. He immediately said, "Manager Sun, I want to know what's going on!"

She was naturally referring to the fact that everyone had agreed on this matter.

But Sun Dayu smiled and said, "This is everyone's appreciation for you. You've just taken up the post, naturally you should familiarize yourself with the job of the Medicine Association. From here on out, it shouldn't be too difficult for you."

"I mean, why do you vote for the last minute? Your opinions will be consistent!" Felicity said in a cold voice.

Sun Dayu suddenly frowned and also replied loudly, "President Bai! What do you mean by this? Are you suspecting that I'm committing a crime? Or are you suspecting that the vice-presidents here will run their tickets in such a bad way?"

His words made the faces of all the people present change.

They all looked at Felicity with dissatisfaction.

Felicity secretly felt bitter in his heart.

He knew that he was set up by these people, but he had too many people. If he argued at this time, it would only arouse greater anger.

However, it was hard to ease his anger!

Sun Dayu continued, "President Bai, you've just taken over. You should regard this as taking care of all the colleagues. Besides, don't you want to know why they are willing to work for you? I can give you a reasonable explanation."

Felicity looked up at Sun Dayu.

Sun Dayu looked around and said, "As we all know, in the management department of our Medicine Association, the president and the assistant are full-time employees working in the Medicine Association. There are 13 vice-presidents. Among them, ten are part-time vice-presidents. They have their own industries and companies in Qena City. Their work focus is basically on their own business and take care of the Medicine Association."

"So, they usually have a lot of things to do, so they don't have time to manage it."

"There are also three Vice-presidents. Although they are full-time employees, they are too old to run around for months. How can our Medicine Association do such a thing that goes against our conscience?"

"So, everyone must have been fully considered. On the one hand, you just took office and needed a platform to get familiar with the work. On the other hand, you are still young. It's just a small matter for you to travel for months. On the other hand, as far as I know, you have no industry in Qena City. You are said to be a part-time vice president, but you have more time than everyone else."

"So, President Bai, are you satisfied with my reason? Are you convinced? You still have an opinion!"
