

Chapter 388

Sun Dayu's heart thumped. Seeing that William was really starting to count down, he hurriedly said, "Okay, okay, okay, I agree. I promise to apologize in public tomorrow, okay?"

At this moment, Sun Dayu was completely helpless.

He had never expected that William would be so ruthless.

What's more, she didn't expect that she would hit herself in the foot with a stone!

"What the hell is it? Apologize to me!"

"Now, the main character of the apology switched to me."

However, Sun Dayu was also hoping that he would be lucky.

Fortunately, he only apologized inside the Medicine Association. If he did a good job of keeping it a secret, it wouldn't have been spread out.

"This way, I'll be able to save my face a little bit."

"I promised that I could let him move now, didn't I?" Sun Dayu suddenly asked.

After all, Li Nanfeng was a nail. As long as he was in one day, the matter that he signed the contract and ate it back would be exposed sooner or later.

"Yes, I will resolve this matter." William nodded and said.

"Then I'll leave first." Sun Dayu's heart was disheartened at this moment, and he did not want to stay for another second.

After finishing his words, he walked to the back in dejection.

But at this time, she was stopped by William. "Wait a minute."

Sun Dayu had endured for the whole night, but at this moment, it was finally going to explode.

"What else do you want? I've already promised to apologize. Do you still have to be unreasonable?" Sun Dayu's voice couldn't help but be loud.

But William just said indifferently, "You ask if the meal I ordered has been delivered? Don't make my sister-in-law dizzy with hunger. I will still get even with you."

Sun Tianyu only felt that his head was in a buzz, and his whole person was speechless.

"What the f*ck are they?"

He was still thinking about food!

Eat, eat, eat, how can I not kill you!
However, he still said, "I'll ask right away."

He made a quick phone call, and then said flatteringly, "I've asked. Your supper is almost here."

"Okay, you've worked hard. It's all right. You can go." William waved her hand and said.

Sun Dayu felt that he had met William tonight. He had treated William like a dog in his past life.

After he left, William looked again at Li Nanfeng, who was looking at the sky in a daze.

He followed Li Nanfeng's gaze and also looked up at the sky.

In the sky above the suburbs, there were stars all over the sky. It was really beautiful.

The warmth in Li Nan Feng's eyes when he looked at the stars could not help but make William a little moved.

From the time she fought with Li Nanfeng just now, William had felt that this guy had a straightforward character and was absolutely not an unforgivable villain.

Now, he was in a daze as he looked at the starlight. It was as if a fierce tiger was sniffing the roses.

He should be a man with a story.

William thought, but he did not ask any more questions.

After all, this had nothing to do with him.

He just said to Li Nanfeng indifferently, "Li Nanfeng, you can move now."

Li Nan Feng came to his senses and knew that this order would come sooner or later.

He slowly got up from the ground, and walked to the house in a daze. "I'll pack up right away."

Seeing Li Nan Feng's down and out appearance, Felicity's compassion couldn't help but move. She couldn't help but ask, "William, this kid doesn't look like a bad guy. I just don't know why he insists on blackmailing us for the medicine, and he even asked for fifty million..."

"You don't have to worry about it. We'll know what we need to know," William said casually as he looked towards the sky.

The sky, however, was beautiful. However, it was brilliant, enthusiastic, cruel, and not gentle enough.

It was just a glance, and it was unnecessary to look at her for a second.

"We'd better stay here and wait for him to move away, or it's not good for him to go back on his word." Baxter whispered aside.

At this moment, Baxter's worship for William had risen to another realm.

He had thought that he had a crush on women.

But she would never expect that she would worship a man so much in her life!

William surprised and shocked Baxter again and again.

He wrote down the feeling of respect in Baxter's heart again and again, and also refreshed the upper limit of respect of Baxter's respect time and time again.

However, William said, "This man is a man. He said that he would take him away, so he would definitely take him away."

After that, William was about to get up and leave.

After all, there was a sister-in-law at home whose life was uncertain and who was full of resentment.

If she went back a little later, she was not sure what kind of evil things Lin Mengya would do.

But at this moment, the door to the shabby house opened with a creak.

He saw Li Nan Feng slowly walking out from the inside.

He was carrying a simple bag in his left hand. It didn't look heavy either.

It should be clothes.

Everyone who saw him, including William, was stunned.

Because Li Nan Feng did not come out alone.

On Li Nan Feng's back was a woman with silver hair.

The woman seemed to be asleep, quietly lying on Li Nanfeng's back.

Li Nan Feng seemed to be afraid that she might catch a cold, so he put a thick coat on her.

He held the woman in one hand with his right hand, carrying his luggage with the left hand, and slowly walked towards William and the others.

When approaching, Baxter suddenly covered his nose and couldn't help but say, "What? What? It smells so bad."

Hearing this, Li Nan Feng frowned and his eyes were filled with anger.

However, when he saw William, this anger turned into helplessness again.

Without saying a word, he passed by William and the others quietly, about to leave the construction site.

At this time, Felicity finally couldn't bear it anymore. He stopped Li Nanfeng and said, "Hey, wait a minute."

Li Nan Feng stopped and continued to move forward.

He acted as if he didn't care about them at all.

Felicity was so angry that he stamped his feet and then quickly chased after him.

William also followed.

This time, William saw the woman behind Li Nanfeng clearly.

The woman looked extremely old, and her silver hair was shining under the moonlight.

It was just that her face was sallow and yellow, and it looked like an absolutely creepy sight to behold.

His entire body was still lying rigidly on the ground, like a piece of wood.

Her eyes were tightly closed, and her eyelashes were constantly trembling, as if she was suffering some kind of pain.

The stench that Baxter had said just now came from this old lady.

William sniffed the stench carefully and looked at the old woman's face. She suddenly frowned.

But he didn't say anything.

Felicity stopped Li Nanfeng and said guiltily, "Li Nanfeng, I'm sorry. I didn't know there was another person in your room..."

Li Nan Feng seemed to have long been used to this kind of meaningless pity. He said indifferently, "This is my grandmother. Is there anything else?"

Felicity couldn't help saying, "Where can you go at such a late hour? Why don't you stay for another night? Or maybe I can help you find a hotel to stay in?"

Felicity really couldn't bear to see Li Nanfeng's grandmother leave the street.

And Li Nan Feng touched Felicity and snow the moment he carried his grandmother on his back.

This kind of filial piety was rare in this society.

Li Nan Feng, however, did not appreciate it at all and intended to continue walking forward.

But at this moment, William suddenly slapped hard on the back of Li Nanfeng's grandmother!

Chapter 389

Li Nan Feng didn't expect that William would suddenly launch a cold arrow at this time!

He didn't expect that William would be such a person.

When he fought with William before, he still thought that William was also a man with a genuine temperament.

Unexpectedly, he was so insidious!

"He even won't let go of an old man!"

He immediately yelled sorrowfully, "No!"

At this time, William's palm had patted Li Nan Feng's grandmother's back!

As if waking up from a dream, Li Nanfeng spat out a mouthful of blood.

The blood was a faint yellowish-brown color!

Felicity and the others were stunned by what they saw!

Li Nan Feng quickly let go of his grandmother. Then, without even bothering to take revenge on William, he began to examine his grandmother.

When William saw this scene, he was quite admiring this kid.

He didn't care about seeking revenge at this time, but cared about his grandmother at the first time. It seemed that this boy's conduct was really pure.

But at this moment, Li Nan Feng's heart was so nervous that it could not be described.

Li Nan Feng's parents died when he was young, and he had always been brought up by his grandmother.

In that family, because of the death of his parents, Li Nan Feng had been bullied by other clansmen since he was a child.

Only grandma was silently guarding him.

Now, her grandmother was seriously ill, and it was Li Nan Feng's turn to stand by her side and protect her.

If anything went wrong with grandma tonight, Li Nan Feng would never forgive himself.

He looked at his grandmother seriously, but to his surprise, he found that after his grandmother spat out a mouthful of blood, the sallow color on her face actually faded a little.

On the other hand, she continued to close her eyes, and her breathing was several degrees longer than before.

This weird phenomenon suddenly made Li Nan Feng at a loss for what to do.

What the hell was going on?

How could her grandmother's life not necessarily be in danger after being slapped? Instead, her condition had improved a little?

It should be that William accidentally kicked out the grandmother's blood clot.

Fortunately, grandma was fine!

Thinking of this, Li Nan Feng suddenly looked at William angrily!

Her eyes were full of anger!

Felicity and Baxter stood at the side. They were so nervous that they felt that their breathing was wrong.

Baxter couldn't help but blame William in his heart. William was about to leave, but he still beat her grandmother. What the hell was this?

"What did you do to my grandmother!" Li Nan Feng asked sadly.

William, however, stared at Li Nan Feng's grandmother and did not answer.

According to Li Nanfeng's grandmother's smell and her illness, he had a preliminary inference.

However, this inference was simply too shocking.

Even William couldn't believe that Li Nan Feng's grandmother would be in such a situation.

Just now, William was going to slap out Li Nanfeng's grandmother's blood to see what was going on.

Now, William had an answer in his heart.

Sure enough, this was the case.

A wood Flowing Falcon!

In this world, there was an illness. To say that injury was not injury, to say that illness was not sickness, and to say that poison was not poison.

That was Shang!

Previously, Laura was framed and Shang was framed, but he was just a shallow, green-snake.

And now the death of Li Nanfeng's grandmother was thousands of times more vicious than that of the cyan snake Liuliu!

A wood Flowing Falcon!

Cyan Snakes wouldn't kill people. They would only make people feel pain.

As for this kind of wood Flowing Falcon, it was extremely vicious.

This kind of death could make a person's body gradually become wooden.

First, his torso was wooden, then as stiff as wood, and his face was as yellow as wood.

Then, the five viscera and six bowels were slowly turned into wood.

During the process of change, the patient couldn't live, and he couldn't die.

However, the process of wooding was incomparably long. It took a long time to grow into a towering tree like a seedling of a tree.

He really didn't know how many years Li Nan Feng's grandmother had suffered this kind of death, and her body had almost become a pile of wood.

It seemed that his heart, liver, spleen, and lungs had been woodenized for a period of time. Fortunately, his blood didn't seem to be viscous just now.

There was still hope.

"Speak!" Li Nan Feng saw that William did not answer, so he grabbed William by the collar!

William patted his hand away and then asked lightly, "How long has your grandmother been suffering from this disease?"

He did not say that it was Shang. After all, there were not many people in the world who knew about it.

Li Nan Feng was stunned. He didn't know what William meant.

William said casually, "I mean no harm to you and your grandmother. The slap just now only hit her acupuncture point, making her spit out a mouthful of blood and feel better. Tell me, how long has your grandmother been suffering from this disease?"

Li Nan Feng saw that William's eyes were clear and his words were also full of care, so he suddenly felt at a loss.

A person like him was used to being a lone ranger. No one cared about him, and he disdained the concern of others.

Because his childhood experience told him that no one cared about him from the bottom of their hearts.

All of them had their own plans.

But William's concern caught him off guard.

Because Li Nan Feng felt that he was completely worthless.

At the side, Felicity also said sincerely, "Li Nan Feng, don't look at the sky. It's so late and it's cold at night. If you're really worried about your grandmother, I advise you to listen to us. We'll arrange a hotel for you. You can stay here first, so that it's good for your grandmother's condition."

Li Nan Feng was once again moved by Hugo's words. He glanced at his grandmother, and his eyes suddenly softened.

He had no relatives in the matter, and he only had this grandma.

William saw that his eyes were loose, so she said to Baxter, "Dongbai, go and drive, and then arrange a hotel for them to stay."

Baxter nodded hurriedly and then strode off to drive the car.

Li Nan Feng's mouth moved and finally asked, "Why, why do you do this to me? What are you trying to do?"

William's childhood experience was similar to that of Li Nanfeng. How could he not understand the development of Li Nanfeng's arrogant character? He smiled and found a random excuse. "My wife is the most good man in the world. Who asked me to marry her? I can't be bad even if I want to."

Felicity immediately rolled his eyes at William.

After the car had driven away, several people took Li Nanfeng's grandma to the back seat, then squeezed a car and went to an open hotel owned by Baxter's family.

Li Nan Feng would feel uneasy if he stayed in a high-end hotel.

William couldn't help but nod to Baxter. This guy was getting better and better at doing things.

After they settled his grandmother, Baxter went out to tell the manager to let Li Nan Feng and his grandmother have free meals and accommodation. There was no time limit.

While William and Felicity were in Li Nan Feng's room. They saw that Li Nan Feng wanted to pour water for them to drink, and then wanted to cut the apples in the hotel room for them.

As a result, because of his clumsy actions, he failed to do anything.

Felicity immediately burst into laughter. This boy was quite cute.

But the laughter made Li Nan Feng even more at a loss.

William stood up and patted Li Nanfeng on the shoulder, trying to smooth things over.

"Li Nanfeng, I can cure your grandmother's illness."

Chapter 390

Li Nanfeng's eyeballs were about to pop out of his head.

He knew that William was trying to relieve his embarrassment.

"But this round of trying to smooth things over, it's too big!"

How could Li Nan Feng believe it?

After all, his grandmother had been ill for more than ten years.

After betraying his clan for the past ten years, he had been roaming the world with his grandmother, traveling all over the river.

The purpose was to find a miracle-working doctor for her grandmother to treat her illness.

However, the 10 years of tossing and turning had not only used up all his savings, but also made his originally eager to seek medical treatment gradually cool down.

There were many people who claimed to be famous doctors, but after seeing his grandmother's illness, they couldn't do anything about it.

There were so many arrogant eyes that they became as dumb as a wooden chicken when they looked at his grandmother.

Now, a nobody suddenly said that he could cure his grandmother.

How could Li Nan Feng believe that?

"Sure enough, it's just trying to smooth things over."

Li Nan Feng accepted William's good intentions and said with an embarrassed smile, "Well, I don't know how to entertain people. You're free to do as you like."

William knew that he didn't believe her, so she changed the subject.

Felicity didn't understand and suddenly asked curiously, "Li Nan Feng, I've been very curious about something. Can I ask you?"

Li Nanfeng replied, "Go ahead."

"You and your grandmother live in such a shabby house. In theory, when we move to your house, you can get more than 100,000 yuan, which is enough for you and your grandmother to ease their difficulties for a period of time. But why do you ask for so much money when you ask for it? Do you know how much 50 million yuan is?" Felicity finally asked the question in his heart.

Because now she knew that Li Nan Feng was not a blackmailer, then there must be something behind it.

After hearing that, Li Nan Feng became a little nervous and uneasy.

He looked at Felicity apologetically, but he didn't know how to apologize at all.

In this life, Li Nan Feng didn't know how to say thank you and sorry.

In the end, he still replied, "A while ago, I met a famous highly- skilled doctor in Qena City. I found him and wanted to ask him to treat my grandmother. As a result, he also examined her, but he didn't give treatment to her."

"Why?" Felicity couldn't help but raise his voice.

Li Nanfeng gave a wry smile. "Because I don't have any money."

Li Nan Feng's face turned slightly red as he said this.

He had been working in a company, and his income was quite good.

But a few days ago, his grandmother was seriously ill, which made Li Nan Feng have to work hard at home and at the company.

Sometimes grandma was really uncomfortable, and Li Nan Feng didn't go to work.

When the company saw that he often took off work, they fired him.

Li Nan Feng also wanted to go to the company to plead for leniency, so he was willing to say sorry.

But when he arrived at the company, his dull character came out again. He couldn't apologize and couldn't shut his face.

In the end, the company couldn't stand it anymore, and sent security guards to drive him away.

So in the past few days, Li Nan Feng did not dare to go to the company to plead for leniency.

This also completely cut off Li Nan Feng's income.

"Isn't the demolition fee money?" Felicity asked again.

Li Nan Feng shook his head and said, "Do you know what the condition of the magic doctor agreeing to treat my grandmother is?"

Felicity looked confused. "What's going on?"

But William suddenly said at the side, "Fifty million yuan for the consultation fee."

Li Nan Feng suddenly looked at William in horror. "How do you know!"

William smiled slightly. "Isn't it obvious?"

They wanted to ask for 50 million yuan by occupying the old house. This 50 million yuan was not a random number, was it?

If Li Nanfeng hadn't been forced to do so, how could it be...

Seeing that William didn't say anything, Li Nan Feng shook his head and forced a smile, "Yes, yes, it's fifty million yuan. It's a big sum of money for me. Even if I didn't lose my job before, I didn't have the money. Therefore, I was forced to occupy the old house and asked for fifty million yuan to make trouble for you..."

When Li Nan Feng came to Qena City half a year ago, he bought the shabby house at a very low price, which was used as a place for daily stay.

He didn't expect that he would be demolished either.

Felicity immediately understood after hearing this. Since ancient times, it was difficult to defeat a hero with money alone.

Not to mention 50 million. How hard could it be for Li Nanfeng?

With such a thought in mind, he asked for 50 million. He was truly filial to his daughter.

"Who is that highly- skilled doctor?" William suddenly asked.

Because in his opinion, the highly- skilled doctors in this world were mostly unearned reputations.

There were not many people who could see the B-B-B-B-B-B-B-B-B-B-B-B-B-B-B-B-

Unless...

The highly-skilled doctor came from the Lu Family.

Thinking of this, William's heart rose slightly.

Li Nan Feng immediately said, "It's an old magic doctor named Wu Daoming. I inquired about him. Many people said that he had excellent medical skills. Recently, the roving doctor just arrived in Qena City recently."

Wu Daoming?

William frowned slightly because she had never heard of this name.

However, the roving doctor's way of dealing with the patient was logical and orderly.

Because of some famous doctors in Jianghu, most of them were idle and traveled around.

They were called roving doctors.

monsoon, which had been taken in by William and worked in the Genuine Care Medical Center, was also a roving doctor who came to Qena City.

"However, he will leave Qena City at the end of the month. A few days ago, she took the initiative to call me and asked me to hurry to raise money when she said that she was going to treat the disease. So I was so anxious that my eyes turned red," Li Nanfeng finally said in a weak voice.

Hearing this, William laughed directly.

William couldn't be sure who Wu Daoming was.

However, his words were exposed.

Wu Daoming was clearly blackmailing Li Nan Feng, otherwise, why would he call him on his own initiative?

"When that happens, I'll pay you and give you some medicine, and then you'll be vaporised."

"Where else can Li Nan Feng go to seek revenge?"

It wouldn't be good for Li Nanfeng's grandmother's illness at all, and it would be harmful to Li Nanfeng if he was more ignorant and incompetent and arbitrarily prescribed the medicine.

William smiled and said, "There's no hurry. I'll go back and study it. I'll give you a reply in the next few days. You can stay here at ease."

William was not a busybody, but at this moment, he really had some thoughts about Li Nan Feng.

This person was honest, filial, and highly-skilled in kung fu.

What moved William more was that he had a similar experience with William.

William couldn't help but wonder if she would bring her aged grandfather with her if she stayed by her grandfather's side.

Therefore, William intended to use the favor of saving his grandmother's illness to subdue Li Nanfeng, this officer-in-chief!

However, B-Rinsyi was still a vicious injury after all. Moreover, his grandmother was old and had been in the middle of her life for many years, so William couldn't talk too much.

But it was enough to give him a few days to study.

But Li Nan Feng didn't know that William's medical skills were unparalleled. He only thought that William was comforting him, so he thanked him very much and sent William and Felicity away.

Seeing his grandmother lying on the bed, Li Nan Feng felt like his heart was being pricked by a needle.

And living in a hotel for free made Li Nan Feng even more uncomfortable.

However, he no longer had any source of income.

Thinking of this, Li Nan Feng couldn't help taking out his mobile phone and called the company's former leader in the middle of the night.

"Hello, boss. I'm Li Nanfeng, and I'm going back to Lunanica Company to teach you martial arts. Can you speak for me?"

Chapter 391

Yes, Li Nan Feng was exactly the tough martial arts instructor mentioned by Janet before.

Before, because her grandmother was seriously ill, Li Nan Feng had to leave work often, so he was expelled.

He was too ashamed to ask the higher-ups of Lunanica Company for help, so he had to sit at the gate of Lunanica Company.

Even now, when he called the director of the film and television department of Lunanica Company, he couldn't say a word.

However, he needed too much money. He was too embarrassed, so he had to make this call.

It was already midnight.

Li Nan Feng's call woke up the supervisor Nelson. Hearing this, Nelson was furious and shouted at the phone, "Do you know what time it is? I tell you, it's not up to me to decide to expel you from the company. If you want to find someone, you can tell the company's staff directly. And, according to your attitude, the ghost will want to take you in!"

After Nelson finished his words, he hung up the phone with a snap and directly turned it off.

Li Nan Feng gave a bitter laugh in the room. Looking at his grandmother, who was sleeping on the bed, he shook his head as if he had made a decision.

However, William and Felicity went all the way home because the house might have been blown up by the little goblin at home.

But when they arrived home and saw Xena in the hall, they were all stunned.

There was a table of delicious seafood overflowing with fragrance on the table.

Xena was eating a large meal of Taotie, and some dishes had already been eaten in a terrible state by her.

What was even stranger was that Xena grabbed the lobster with one hand, ate it, and then cried a few times.

His other hand was wiping away his tears.

The little demoness was crying and eating. She had really become a spirit.

Even Felicity Maize didn't dare to go forward.

William pulled Felicity to the front of Xena and asked softly, "Xena, are you okay?"

Xena glanced at the b*tch couple, and she had completely lost hope in them.

The two of them were going out for a date.

Just a word was enough.

As for each time, it was like guerilla warfare, with one foot in the front and one foot in the back.

"You treat me, Xena, as a fool, don't you?"

"What? Are these dishes delicious?" William had also been hungry for a day. Looking at the dishes on the table, she couldn't help but swallow.

Xena ignored them and continued to eat the lobster.

William didn't care. Anyway, she was going crazy all the time, and she would be fine tomorrow.

So he also sat down and began to attack the seafood in front of him fiercely.

When Xena saw William fighting for food with her, she cried even harder.

"It's not a big deal to play tricks behind my back, but she dares to grab food from me."

So one night, the whole hall was full of chickens and dogs. In the end, Felicity and snow couldn't help but join in the line of eating.

On the other side, Sun Dayu returned home unhappily. He saw Sun Richard waiting in the hall at a glance.

Sun Richard asked anxiously, "Father, how are you? Did you ruthlessly humiliate Felicity for a meal tonight? Quick, tell me."

Sun Dayu's face had been completely destroyed just now, and now he didn't even want to say a word. How could he mention this matter again?

What troubled him now was how to hold the apology meeting tomorrow, and how to come up with several excuses for apologizing.

However, Sun Richard had been pestering him all this while. Sun Dayu was enraged and yelled, "It went well! It went well! Alright! We have to hold an apology meeting tomorrow!"

Sun Richard was overjoyed when she heard that. Everything had indeed progressed according to her father's expectations.

He immediately said in a positive tone, "Previously, you asked me to help you inform the people at the apologizing meeting. I've already made the announcement. What do you need me to do?"

Sun Dayu stared at Sun Richard gloomily. This son of a bitch, why didn't he know how to look at others?

"There's no need. You don't have to do anything." Sun Dayu said lazily.

However, Sun Richard had started to guess at what her father was thinking.

It was obvious that his father was testing his ability to handle matters.

"By the way, didn't dad say that he wanted to release a video on purpose at the apologized meeting tomorrow, so that Felicity would be too ashamed to show his face in Qena City?"

This matter had not been confirmed yet.

"Is this the place where my dad tries to test me?"

When she thought of that, Sun Richard nodded meaningfully to her father. "Alright, Father, go rest first."

Then, Sun Richard returned to his room.

He called a good buddy who was placed in the Medicine Association at once and said, "Dude, your Medicine Association will hold an apology meeting tomorrow. Someone will apologize in public. I want you..."

He told them on the phone for a while, mainly to ask the buddy to send someone to shoot an apology video.

The buddy was usually treated kindly by Sun Mei, so he agreed immediately.

Sun Richard thought about it and said, "You must not do something like this. If you reveal it, it might implicate you and me. Find someone who is not related to the outside and get in. There will be someone to find out about it and we can say that someone has gotten in."

Hearing this, the guy quickly said, "Brother Sun, you're more far-sighted. I'll find someone at once if it's good."

Sun Richard hung up the phone and thought that the situation was still not stable enough.

Since they wanted to build up the influence of the whole city, they might as well make it bigger.

Who asked that William to treat him like that!

As such, Sun Richard used her connections again. That night, she got people to inform many newdeficiency companies. They would wait for the video to spread tomorrow and then build up the influence on the Internet.

All of this, Sun Richard did not hide it from Sun Dayu and wanted to give him an unexpected surprise.

He also wanted Sun Dayu to know that his son had grown up and inherited his father's wisdom, so he could take charge alone.

That night, Sun Hao didn't sleep all night, thinking about how to minimize the loss to the minimum tomorrow.

He got up early the next morning and then hurriedly called the administrative staff of the Medicine Bureau, telling them to keep calm during the meeting and not to take pictures.

He was still worried, so he called every vice president.

At first, when the vice-masters heard that Sun Dayu was going to apologize to Felicity, all of them were stunned.

But Sun Dahu casually explained that he made such sacrifices because of the internal unity of the Medicine Association.

The vice president all praised Sun Tianyu's high-proficiency. They said that they would never publicize the apology today.

Some of them even directly swore to heaven.

After Sun Dayu finished the phone call, he checked it carefully and found that he had not missed anything.

He even called the middle-level leaders in person, which was enough to show his sincerity and deterrent power.

Sun Dayu breathed a sigh of relief.

At the same time, he couldn't help but be proud. At the crucial moment, it was his own social network that played a very important role.

If it weren't for his great insight, how could he appease all the people who were going to the scene in the morning in the morning and minimize the losses. At the same time, he used the unity as an excuse to secretly raise his position.

"Truly awesome!"

With this thought in mind, he leisurely washed his face and washed his face before heading to the 'Medicine Association' with pride.

Chapter 392

At nine o'clock in the conference room on the top floor of the Qena City Medicine Association.

At the moment, everyone was sitting properly in the conference room.

Felicity was also sitting in the middle of it, feeling extremely happy.

Yesterday, Sun Tianyu made things difficult for him, but he didn't expect that the report would come so fast in the present world.

"Today, I'd like to see how Sun Dayu will apologize to me."

However, Felicity was not only happy, but also a little disappointed.

When William went to bed last night, he asked Felicity in detail about the management of the post, one after another.

Felicity also told William everything in detail.

In the end, she said depressedly, "Those people are snobbish, looking down on me. They think that I don't have my own career right now and have nothing to do outside, so they gave them an excuse to make things difficult for me."

At that time, William only gave a simple "oh" and did not speak.

Felicity originally thought that William would comfort himself and let him at home at ease to let him take care of her.

However, William did not.

On the contrary, his attitude seemed a little cold.

Felicity had been holding a grudge since last night.

This was not William's usual style.

"Doesn't he like me..."

A woman who was deeply trapped in love would come up to her for fear of loss and gains. It was out of control.

Just as she was thinking about it, Sun Tianyu came to the conference room.

Sun Baiyu first looked at the people in the meeting carefully, and then he nodded with satisfaction.

It was he who specially ordered them to do this again and again.

It would be a fantasy if he could make a mistake in such a way.

Not bad, not bad.

Thinking of this, Sun Dayu cleared his throat and said, "Since everyone is here, then let's officially start. Today, the main thing is that I have not considered the personal factors of Director Bai before, and let her be the manager of this position. I want to apologize to everyone."

Speaking of this, he paused and no longer put on airs, but sincerely bowed to Felicity.

Since all the people present were his men, there was no need for him to say some polite words.

Moreover, there was no need for him to fake the reason for his apology. After all, if Felicity was not happy and went home to tell William, William was a tough character. If Frandick was in trouble, he would be in serious trouble.

Therefore, Sun Tianyu told the three things about how to work together with people to design and let Felicity do the production job, as well as how to remove the construction site and the demolition units, as well as how he threatened Felicity to apologize.

In fact, the people present were also well aware that they were all encouraged by Sun Dayu, so whenever Sun Dayu bowed to Felicity and apologized, there would be a warm applause on the scene.

The applause was not for Felicity's grievances, but for Sun Dayu's honesty.

Sun Dayu's heart was filled with joy at this sight.

"Felicity, William, don't you want to see me apologize?"

Alright, I apologize now.

But so what?

The scene of an apology couldn't be spread out at all. You couldn't even touch a hair on my head.

On the contrary, on the stage, Felicity wasn't the protagonist at all. It was me who was supported by applause!

Sun Dayu thought proudly, but he did not notice that in the corner of the door, a man was secretly holding a mobile phone and taking pictures of his apology just now.

The whole apologizing scene lasted for half an hour.

After the apology, Sun Dayu sat down on the sofa with an arrogant look on his face.

Felicity was furious.

He was the one who had apologized to her, but why did she make him so arrogant?

This Sun Dayu really knew how to take advantage of the situation!

What's more, these Vice-masters and Sun Dayu were in the same boat!

They were shielding each other.

Sun Dahu saw that Felicity was depressed, and he was even more proud in his heart. He looked at Felicity provocatively.

Felicity was angry, but Sun Tianyu had already told him what had happened, and he couldn't do anything to him.

After all, justice was within the heart of the people. How to judge and look at this matter was everyone's own business.

"I can't control the thoughts of these people, can I?"

At the thought of this, Felicity and the others were even more depressed.

Recently, everything was not going well.

As soon as the meeting was over, Sun Dayu went back to his office and made a pot of tea leisurely. He invited those vice-presidents to enjoy tea and talk with each other.

He looked like everything had been smoothed out.

He was not worried about his face at all.

Because Sun Dayu was very satisfied with today's performance.

Just as they were drinking tea and chatting, Sun Richard, who had been waiting bitterly at home, received a call from the guy.

Because Sun Richard had told her to do so, the guy did not dare to go to the medicine association in order to avoid suspicion.

After he had invited someone to secretly send the video to him, he did not even look at it and immediately called Sun Richard.

"Brother, according to your instructions, the video has been recorded. I will give you a call the first time. I want to ask you, do you want to close it or artificial it?" The guy said to Sun Richard flatteringly.

Sun Richard opened her mouth happily when she heard that. "Make a mess! Make a mess! Don't you know that time is a life of new/2012/3! Of course, it's the first time, and the original smell is released. This way, others won't think that we are making up lies and slandering others. This is more convincing."

Hearing this, the buddy patted his head and said, "Brother Sun is awesome! He even knows about new media!"

Sun Richard thought for a moment and said, "I'll give you another 100,000 dollars. Help me set up a spot and you have to spread it as soon as possible. Then, you have to spread it widely. You have to have sharp words and cut your heart with knives! Do you understand the title? Do whatever you're going to do!"

The guy quickly nodded his head in agreement.

After Sun Richard hung up the phone, she transferred the money out.

This time, in order to kill Felicity and William, he also proved his ability in front of his father, and he had paid a huge price!

At this moment, he had been complacently imagining that how happy he would be if his father just went to manage the media propaganda, but found that he had finished it first.

"Shouldn't I raise my pocket money once again?"

On the other side, after Felicity returned home, he saw that William was also at home.

William saw that her face was not good, so she asked what would happen if she apologized in the morning.

Just like that, Felicity told William exactly what had happened.

After hearing this, William just nodded lightly and said, "Those vice presidents, it seems that they are rotten to the roots."

Felicity nodded in agreement and said, "Yes, a nest is a nest of snakes and rats. It's not indiscriminately."

"It doesn't matter. This kind of wicked person has done all kinds of evil things. Naturally, God will punish him." William casually comforted Felicity.

Felicity nodded helplessly. He had wanted to humiliate Sun Tianyu, but now there was nothing.

It was hard to say if a good person's life was too short, or if he had lived for a thousand years.

Forget it, let that guy be pleased with himself for a while longer.

As she thought of this, she swiped her phone casually.

At this time, her eyes were fierce and she jumped up from the sofa. She shouted at William with a face full of excitement, "William, you are really amazing! You've opened your mouth before!"

Chapter 393

William looked at Felicity in surprise.

Felicity was so excited that his face turned red, and his hand holding the phone was shaking slightly.

What could make her so excited?

William put his head close to Felicity's mobile phone and looked at it. Suddenly, he was speechless.

He really did what he said. If he did evil things, God would take care of him.

Felicity's phone stopped on a news app. The top page of the app said, "Animal is worse than beast! The assistant director of the Qena City Medicine Association actually did such a thing to Felicity, the great beauty of Qena City!"

Then, as the title holder went in, there was a long video, in which it showed the scene of Sun Dayu apologizing to Felicity.

Moreover, he could clearly hear from the video that Sun Tianyu admitted his crimes one by one.

Behind him, there was another sentence that was extremely intense. The meaning of this attack was extremely clear and soft.

This soft text was being criticized for Sun Dayu's shamelessness and despicableness.

Along the way, Felicity received the notification for the suffering he had been suffering.

With such a comparison, one would feel that Sun Dayu was truly a scumbag.

He had an extremely strong sense of what was coming.

However, William said gloomily, "Who the hell wrote this? I'll find someone to get even with this title."

However, Felicity said happily, "They are all title-winners. It's okay to see it, but the key is the contents inside. Haha, I don't know who secretly recorded this video and spread it."

After that, Felicity suddenly looked at William strangely. "Tell me, did you do it again?"

Felicity thought so because William had done too many bad things that didn't leave a name for her.

However, William waved her hand and said, "I can say it clearly this time that I didn't do it."

Felicity was stunned for a moment and immediately relieved. "It seems that Sun Tianyu has offended too many people. It must be done by someone who hates him very much. Well done!"

William didn't take it seriously in his heart. After all, it was just a mess of a small potato. For him, it was just a farce.

On the other side, Sun Richard was browsing the news happily, looking forward to the first moment when Felicity's evil deeds were announced to the world.

As he was browsing, a piece of news suddenly jumped out, and the name of his father Sun Dayu was written on it.

At first, he didn't take it seriously. After all, his father was a little famous in Qena City, so it was normal for him to be on the news.

He clicked it on the spur of the moment.

Upon hearing this, he was totally stunned.

"What's going on?"

The video was a video of an apology meeting.

But it was not Felicity's apology to his father.

Instead, it was his father who apologized to Felicity.

And the reason for the apology was one after another, and the logic was very clear.

He deeply analyzed his own father's crimes.

While he was in a daze, the news began to comment wildly.

"Sun Dayu? This name is so familiar, but I've heard that he has a good reputation. I didn't expect him to be someone who is worse than animals. I've misjudged him."

"I've known for a long time that that guy is not a good person. He has a fat head and big ears, which is probably just the tip of the iceberg. I suggest we continue to dig deeper."

"Humph, a wicked man should be rewarded with evil. Felicity is so poor to be bullied by this pig. I'm the first one to disagree and drive this pig out of Qena City!"

If at ordinary times, Sun Dayu was well-known in Qena City, and someone would definitely give him some good comments.

But now, those new media talents who had paid Sun Richard to help them did their best to leave messages to fight against them.

As a result, the public opinion appeared to be one-sided.

There were even some who came out of nothing and fabricated a few crimes of Sun Dayu out of thin air. All of them spoke more seriously than they had ever thought.

"Well, I know this guy. Three years ago, I took my newly graduated cousin to a hotel and said that he wanted to teach me to talk business. As a result, we talked about sex. After the incident, my cousin committed suicide. It was he who used force to suppress this matter. Today, I dare to say it straightforwardly! Such a person, death is not worthy of pity!"

"Yes, I also know one thing. The year before last year, there was a project in the Medicine Association. He embezzled tens of millions of yuan and then blamed it on his subordinate. The subordinate's family was originally not good. Now he is living a miserable life. Don't ask me how I know, the poor subordinate is the subordinate!"

One by one, the fabricated facts pushed Sun Dayu to the edge of hell.

Sun Richard was completely stunned by what she saw.

By the time he reacted, it was already too late.

The public opinion had rapidly developed in a few minutes, and the post was constantly reposted.

The number of reposts would exceed 10,000 in a few minutes.

And not only that, Sun Richard had also seen the video of an apology and messages on the video of shaking hands.

His hands were shaking, and he was completely at a loss.

Why did things turn out like this?

Why wasn't Felicity apologizing to his father?
"Where did it go wrong?"

"Father, do you know that something has happened to me?"

Moreover, the most important thing was that the rapid spread of public opinion seemed to have been created by himself.

Originally, Sun Richard had planned to use the public opinion to kill Felicity. However, he did not expect it to end up with his own father!

If his father knew about the incident, and the main culprit was his son, then how would he deal with them?

"This one hundred thousand yuan is really enough to make me collapse!"

Sun Richard was completely dazed when she thought of that.

At this moment, his phone rang.

His heart almost jumped out of his throat. Could it be that his father had discovered the secret inside and called him to question him?

"I'm done! I'm done!"

He trembled and picked up the phone. When he found that it was not his father, he breathed a sigh of relief.

The call was from his buddy.

The man was very proud on the phone. "Brother Sun, I have done everything you asked me to do! Did you see it on the Internet? It's all news, and it's constantly reposted in the replies. Just tell me whether 100,000 yuan is worth it or not! In order to help you do this, I personally took 20,000 yuan to weigh it. It's very effective. Do you think that these 20,000 yuan is for me..."

"F*ck you! You are fucking brain-dead, aren't you? Have you seen the news! Those news were all against my father! Do you eat shit? And you asked me for twenty thousand yuan! I can't kill you!" Sun Richard collapsed in an instant when he heard the brother's smug voice.

"This matter has already become very serious, and this guy still fu*king spent his own money to promote it!"

"He's really up to something bad with good intentions!"

The buddy was stunned by Sun Richard's roar.

He felt that he had done it very quickly and the effect was also very good. How could Brother Sun be so angry?

The buddy asked in a weak voice, "I know that your father is the main character, but that's it. Did I ask you before whether you need to personally check it out? You said you don't want it. It's my fault, isn't it?"
