

Wang Yunqian made his way to Lin Wenjing's office. After a thorough consideration, he decided to knock on the door. Soon, Lin Wenjing's voice could be heard. "Come in."

At the sight of Wang Yunqian's bleak face as he walked in, Lin Wenjing asked with a smile, "Are you here to doubt my decisions too?"

Wang Yunqian answered honestly with a forced smile, "I'm not being doubtful. It's just that I am too dumb to understand the reasons behind your two decisions."

Lin Wenjing stopped what he was doing and stared at Wang Yunqian as he said, "When you have a boom, you will have a bust. I'm sure you know this principle well. Currently, Purple Jade Studios is indeed making impressive progress. On the surface, the company has no competitors and expansion seems like the right thing to do. However, everything has a limit, and once the limit has been breached, mishaps are bound to happen. For the past year, the company has been developing at a very rapid rate and the scale of our business has indeed expanded substantially, but at the same time, blunders and mistakes have followed. We are not made of metal, and even a small leak will sink a great ship as the internal structure of the company is getting vulnerable. The company could be destroyed easily by any means deployed by our competitors.”

Wang Yunqian was deeply shaken upon listening to his analysis and it all started making sense. However, he did not find any oversight in the current system that would lead to the destruction of the company by the competitors after giving it a thought.

“Chairman, I’m still puzzled. Please do explain it further to me,” asked Wang Yunqian humbly.

With a subtle grin, Lin Wenjing explained to Wang Yunqian with great patience and pinpointed all the omissions that currently existed in the company. He had thought of all the possible moves that their competitors would make and how much harm it would bring to the company correspondingly. By the time the risk materialized, it would be too late for the company to do anything to stop them.

As a smart guy and an experienced staff in the industry, a hint was all that was needed for him to understand everything. After he finished listening to Lin Wenjing, cold sweat broke out on his entire body as he gaped at Lin Wenjing with eyes filled with awe.

“Chairman, that’s brilliant! If we do not stop the expansion and sell off our shares within the following week, a great disaster will befall the company!”

With that, Wang Yunqian looked at Lin Wenjing with even more admiration and reverence.

A moment earlier, he had even gotten the wrong idea that Lin Wenjing was getting full of himself and just wanted everything to be done his way. He finally realized that Lin Wenjing had actually seen through everything and was just too lazy to explain to them.

Lin Wenjing let out a chuckle. With his Innate Realm ability, operating a company was as easy as shooting a fish in a barrel.

Thereafter, Wang Yunqian had an even more detailed discussion with him and could finally see all the problems Purple Jade Studios was facing. Cold sweat broke out on his body once again as his admiration and gratitude toward Lin Wenjing grew even more intense. Without Lin Wenjing’s decision made during the conference earlier, Purple Jade Studios would really face great trouble !

Although the company might not get wound up, it would still be substantially affected. He would suffer a great financial loss personally too.

“Chairman, there’s another thing that I can’t understand,” said Wang Yunqian.

Lin Wenjing was not surprised to hear that. “Are you referring to my intention to establish a security company?”

“That’s right.” Wang Yunqian nodded. He continued, “Security companies are very unpredictable and complicated. Even with enough capital, it’s hard to make a prosperous business out of it without at least eight to ten years’ time. It might not be the case for small-scale security companies which train security guards specifically. However, I believe that since you intend to establish a security company, it would not be a small-scaled one.”

Indeed, operating a security company was a challenging business in which the rest of the enterprises would not be bold enough to get involved in. Firstly, the business was unpredictable and required a large capital. Secondly, the competition was stiff. Last but not least, the business would have a hard time trying to prosper without a professional team. The professional team mentioned here was not referring to merely management and administrative staff, but professional trainers and security guards.

With what Lin Wenjing had now, he was just a layman who had nothing other than money.

To be a prominent security company, the company would have to be equipped with a team of highly-competent bodyguards who were specially in charge of the safety of rich tycoons and celebrities. As time went by, they would slowly get more involved in the lives of their clients and gradually get their hands on private and crucial information.

In other words, bodyguards were just spies who could get the job done in a legalized way.

Due to this feature of the business, not everyone could operate a security company. This was what bothered Wang Yunqian the most.

Naturally, Lin Wenjing knew that too. He then said with a smile, "I don't plan to start big. During the early stage, I will first organize a training to produce a team of highly-competent bodyguards to keep the people close to me well protected. Later on, I will increase my investment and slowly bring the business to a higher level."

Wang Yunqian nodded after listening to him. In that case, there would be no harm in trying. However, there was yet another problem...

He voiced out his concern, "Chairman, according to what I know, you have to first seek the approval of the most influential people who are in charge of this area before establishing a security company..."

"Seek approval?" Lin Wenjing was taken aback upon listening to his words. Why would such a custom still exist in this era?

Solemnly, Wang Yunqian nodded before continuing, "Yes. Almost all the security companies in the southern area are monopolized by Bei Tian Society. If you want to set up a new security company, you have to seek their approval beforehand in order to have the right to operate one. Otherwise, your company will not be able to survive.”

Bei Tian Society. It was Bei Tian Society again. Lin Wenjing revealed a distorted expression on his face. It seemed like a clash between himself and the Bei Tian Society was looming ahead.

Lin Wenjing gave it a thought before asking with a smile, “What would happen if I skipped the process of getting the approval?”

Shaking his head, Wang Yunqian said, “Chairman, it’s best not to harbor such a thought. Bei Tian Society is a very powerful force in the southern area. If we were to open up a new security company on our own without seeking their approval, it would be deemed as an act of disrespect toward them and they would surely look for our trouble. If such an event was not handled well, it could implicate Purple Jade Studios as well as Leap Advertising.”

“In that case, let’s seek their approval then,” said Lin Wenjing in a relaxed tone.

Seeing how at ease Lin Wenjing was, Wang Yunqian could not help but remind, “Chairman, it’s not that I don’t trust you, but I have to say that Bei Tian Society is a tough nut to crack as it's made up of a bunch of boors. Their approval cannot be obtained by just offering them money. One has to be skillful in martial arts, and only when they acknowledge your skill will you be qualified to open a security company. After establishing the company, you have to offer some monetary contribution to them every month. They are just a bunch of unreasonable people, which is why I am against the idea of you starting a security business. If you would like to hire some bodyguards, you could just hire one from Bei Tian Society. Although the rate they charge is higher, at least your safety is guaranteed.”

To his surprise, Lin Wenjing let out a hearty laugh after listening to his words. It was impossible for him to hire bodyguards from Bei Tian Society as the very reason he wanted to hire them was to protect his close ones from Bei Tian Society.

Bewildered, Wang Yunqian failed to understand why Lin Wenjing was laughing out loud.

Lin Wenjing continued, “I would never collaborate with Bei Tian Society. To be honest, I am having a feud with the vice president of Bei Tian Society. I'm establishing a security company just to antagonize them."

"What?!" Wang Yunqian was in great astonishment. It never occurred to him that Lin Wenjing would have an enmity with Bei Tian Society. Immediately, a gust of fear seized him and his limbs turned numb and cold.

Squinting his eyes, Lin Wenjing stared at him meaningfully. "What's going on? Are you afraid of them?"

Laboriously, Wang Yunqian swallowed some saliva as he was indeed consumed by fear. Bei Tian Society was a very powerful force. Although it seemed like he was having a glorious and splendid career as the General Manager of Purple Jade Studios, he was just a nobody compared to the people from Bei Tian Society.

"Chairman, how did you end up offending the Bei Tian Society? They are not a bunch of people to be trifled with..." Wang Yunqian trailed off with his face slightly pale. Contrary to his terror-stricken state, Lin Wenjing appeared to be much more at ease. In a relaxed state, he leaned back against his executive chair and said somewhat insouciantly, "You don't have to worry about that. I'm not changing my mind about setting up a security company, and I will handle everything relating to Bei Tian Society. As for your task, please help me gather the contacts of retired members of the special forces who can work hard, or just members of the public who are physically trained. Send them all here, pick a time and I will pay a visit to Bei Tian Society and seek the approval myself."

At first, Wang Yunqian tried to dissuade him. However, he did not comment further after seeing that Lin Wenjing was adamant. As a subordinate, he had already fulfilled his responsibility with dedication, and he knew when to advance and when to retreat.

“Bei Tian Society, I hope you guys will not turn out to be a disappointment.” After Wang Yunqian left, Lin Wenjing mumbled to himself while reading some documents containing information about Bei Tian Society, and a brilliance flashed through his eyes.

Recently, Qin Nan was very moody and she did everything listlessly.

Although she had joined Purple Jade Studios for half a year, the amount of times she saw Lin Wenjing was less than five. With her good looks and capability, she was promoted and given a salary increment twice within the span of half a year. However, this was not what she wanted at all because the reason she joined the company was to seduce Lin Wenjing!

In the end, ever since she joined the company, she didn't get to see much of Lin Wenjing at all, not to mention seduce him.

On top of that, she became even more upset when she got to know that Chu Ling had been appointed as the chairman of Sheng Ke Lighting Company. How was Chu Ling deserving of this? Qin Nan was the one who found out about Lin Wenjing's true identity in the first place. Why was Chu Ling the one who received all the love and affection from Lin Wenjing? This was so unfair!

Reluctant to accept everything, she was desperate to meet Lin Wenjing at least once more. She was sure he would succumb to her beauty and attractive figure as she already had almost a hundred male colleagues interested in her after joining the company for only two weeks.

When she walked out of Purple Jade Building, she was greeted by the sight of a man sitting at the staircase who was dressed in an old-fashioned way. He was munching on a bun, looking like a country bumpkin.

The man immediately got to his feet when he saw Qin Nan. Excitedly, he dashed toward her, looking overjoyed. "Qin Nan, you've finished work. I'm here to pick you up."

Qin Nan's expression took a drastic change at the sight of the man. With a frown, she rebuked, "Why are you here again? Didn't I already ask you not to pick me up? Have you just turned a deaf ear to what I said?"

The man who looked like a country bumpkin scratched his head and countered, "Qin Nan, please don't be mad. I'm just concerned about your safety. Before you went into town, your mother instructed me to keep you well-protected. There are plenty of perverts out there and I'm worried that you might be bullied."

Four female colleagues who stood beside Qin Nan immediately let out a chuckle upon listening to his words. In between laughs, they said sarcastically, "Qin Nan, just look at how much your cousin cares about you. He's worried that you might be bullied by perverts!"

"Exactly. What a moving tale. He's perfect boyfriend material!"

"Qin Nan, you have a really nice cousin. It's just that the way he dresses himself is rather bizarre. He looks just like a country bumpkin.”

“Please mind your words. Her cousin is a powerful fighter who is very good at martial arts. He might beat all of you up!”

As the girls were cracking jokes, Qin Nan’s face turned darker and darker as her distaste toward her cousin, Xu Hua, grew even more intense. Embarrassment crossed her face as she chastised, “I’ve told you many times not to follow me but you just don’t listen! You’re so annoying!”

At that moment, Xu Hua was stupefied and his face was filled with disbelief. “Qin Nan, you’ve never been so harsh to me before. Are you annoyed by my presence because you already have a lover outside?”

Being extremely disappointed and angry, Xu Hua clenched his fists and the sound of bone cracking could be heard. He looked so terrifying that the girls immediately took a few steps back in fear of being beaten up by him. Just two days ago, a male colleague was beaten up by Xu Hua after having a meal together with Qin Nan.

Qin Nan’s resentment toward him grew even more overwhelming upon the sight of his attitude. "Indeed, I already have a man that I fancy. I will never ever fall in love with you. Just drop the idea!"

Xu Hua's eyes became red as he started clenching his fists even tighter. He fixed his gaze on Qin Nan and he looked like he was on the verge of having an emotional outburst. Looking scary, he demanded word by word, "What's his name? Tell me!"

Ignoring him, Qin Nan cursed him as being out of his mind and was ready to walk past him to leave. At that juncture, she caught sight of a bunch of people who were walking out of the building. Her eyes immediately widened and she became really excited. At a brisk pace, she walked over to them and yelled, "Lin Wenjing, I've finally found you!"

Lin Wenjing was stunned when he heard her voice as he was walking out of the building together with Wang Yunqian and several other directors. He had nearly forgotten about the existence of such a person.

It was that time of the day when most of the staff were heading back home. Outside of the building, many of them heard Qin Nan's voice and their attention were drawn to her. They were even more startled by the sight of Wang Yunqian and the rest of the directors.

Qin Nan's mood became buoyant as soon as her eyes fell on Lin Wenjing. Her earlier frustration due to her interaction with Xu Hua had dissipated completely as well. At the fastest speed she could manage, she approached Lin Wenjing, but she was suddenly speechless when she saw him looking straight at her. Her heart was racing at a crazy rate and she was panic-stricken.

Immediately, a furrow formed in between Wang Yunqian's brows and he criticized with annoyance, "Which department is this girl from? How rude and ill-behaved she is."

"General Manager Wang, I'm so sorry. She is one of my subordinates. I shall teach her a lesson now!" a middle-aged man who stood beside him immediately said angrily. "Qin Nan! Why are you here? Who allowed you to block the Chairman's way? Get out of our way now!"

"Manager, I..." Qin Nan was a nervous wreck. Only then did she realize she had acted recklessly and made a huge blunder.

Many of the people around them knew Qin Nan and all of them believed she must have gone out of her mind as she was actually bold enough to block the chairman's way. These people were the directors of the company, and just Wang Yunqian alone was an intimidating enough presence.

"Get out of our way, now!" Qin Nan's manager glared at her viciously and menacingly.

Qin Nan bit her lips. As she finally had the chance to encounter Lin Wenjing, she felt reluctant to leave. If she let this opportunity slip, she might never ever have the chance to meet him again!

Nonetheless, if she were not to leave, she might even lose her job. All at once, she felt aggrieved. A lump formed in her throat and tears started to well up in her eyes.

Suddenly, a loud and clear voice imbued with intense fury was heard from behind. "No one is allowed to bully my cousin!"

Right after, a tall and beefy man lunged out and pulled Qin Nan behind him. He struck a pose of the Eight Extremities Fist and shot Lin Wenjing and the rest of them a very hostile glare.

Wang Yunqian and the rest of the directors were deeply shaken by the murderous air exuded by him. All of them took several steps back to maintain a distance from him. Only Lin Wenjing didn't budge. He stood rooted to the ground as he sized Xu Hua up with interest.

In fact, Lin Wenjing had already noticed Xu Hua's presence moments earlier. He knew that Xu Hua was physically trained and a highly-skilled fighter. Bodyguards of the normal sorts had no means to fight him. Coincidentally, Lin Wenjing was going to open a new security company, and he harbored the intention to recruit Xu Hua.

Wang Yunqian and the other directors were livid. This was Purple Jade Studios' turf and all of them were big shots who had a net worth of several million or hundreds of million each, but they were actually threatened by a country bumpkin. They were gravely offended.

"This is ridiculous! Who the h*ll is this gangster? How dare you create a mess at Purple Jade? Where are all the godd*mn security guards? Tie this gangster up and send him to the police station!" chastised Wang Yunqian at the top of his lungs.

Qin Nan panicked at once when she heard Wang Yunqian. She nodded hurriedly and bowed at him to offer her apology. "So sorry, directors. It's all my fault. He is my cousin who comes from the countryside and there's something wrong with his mind. Please forgive him for his behavior. I'm begging you."

"Humph. I think you should offer that explanation to the cops!" Wang Yunqian was furious as the incident had unfolded right in front of Lin Wenjing, which was rather humiliating for him.

Qin Nan was so anxious that she was on the verge of crying.

At that moment, Lin Wenjing held his hand up and uttered nonchalantly, "Hold on."

"Chairman..." said Wang Yunqian immediately.

Ignoring him, Lin Wenjing made his way to Xu Hua and said with a subtle grin, "I can see you're quite skillful in Eight Extremities Fist. Would you be interested to work with me? I could offer you a contract whereby your annual wage would not be lower than two hundred thousand."

As soon as Lin Wenjing's offer was heard, the scene immediately became uproarious.

An annual wage of two hundred thousand? Most of the white-collars who worked in Hua City did not even have that kind of salary. Was Qin Nan's country bumpkin cousin really worth the money?

Everyone, including Qin Nan, had their mouths widely agape and their eyes widely opened in surprise.

She even thought everything was just a figment of her imagination. Would Lin Wenjing really be willing to offer an annual salary of two hundred thousand to someone like Xu Hua? Not even herself had that kind of salary. On top of that, what work would Lin Wenjing recruit Xu Hua for? Was he hiring him to be his assassin? Other than fighting, Xu Hua was not good at anything else.

Wang Yunqian was the fastest to come to his senses. He was stunned for a brief moment before realizing what Lin Wenjing was trying to do.

Xu Hua, too, was in a daze at first. He then shook his head and said, "I'm here to take care of my cousin, not here to earn your filthy money... Hey! Qin Nan, why're you hitting me?"

Qin Nan felt a strong urge to give Xu Hua a kick. What a dumbass! His mind had all gone rotten after going through so much training. He was just offered a job with an annual salary of two hundred thousand. Many white-collars did not even have that kind of remuneration.

"Dumbass! Just take the offer now! He is the Chairman of Purple Jade Studios. You must have done a lot of good deeds in your previous life to have the honor of being offered a job by him!" Qu Nan scolded him angrily.

Obstinately, Xu Hua insisted, "But I have to protect you. I promised your mother."

Exasperated, Qin Nan reproached, "Protect me? I don't need your protection!"

At the sight of the two of them getting into a tussle, Lin Wenjing shook his head as he didn't want to waste his time on them. "Qin Nan, let your cousin consider it. I will give him three days' time. After that, the offer will lapse."

With that, Lin Wenjing got past the two of them and walked away. As his time was very precious, he did not want to spend it on such unimportant characters. Immediately, Wang Yunqian and the rest of the directors followed behind.

Biting her lips, Qin Nan followed them and yelled at Lin Wenjing, "Wenjing, would you be free to have a meal together with me? I have a lot of things to tell you."

Lin Wenjing turned around and met her gaze before shaking his head. "I'm not free."

As Qin Nan's eyes turned dim, Xu Hua who was standing beside her demanded furiously, "Qin Nan, is that the guy you fancy? Don't be sad. I will seek revenge for you!"

As he was talking, he started rolling up his sleeves and made his way to Lin Wenjing with his face filled with brutality as he planned to teach Lin Wenjing a lesson.

A crease formed in between Lin Wenjing's brows. He was not in the least bit afraid of Xu Hua as he could easily crush him to his defeat. However, as the highly-respected Chairman of Purple Jade Studios, it would be an outrageous sight if he got into a fight with a boor on the streets.

Watching the scene, Wang Yunqian and the rest of the directors were deeply shocked. They immediately summoned the security guards to get hold of Xu Hua.

The atmosphere tensed up at once.

“Xu Hua, if you dare to even lay a finger on him, I will ignore you for the rest of my life!” At the moment, Qin Nan’s emotions erupted and she threatened Xu Hua through gritted teeth.

At the sight of Qin Nan’s enraged look, Xu Hua was immediately panic-stricken. Quickly, he moved away from Lin Wenjing and pleaded, “Qin Nan, please don’t ignore me. I’m just trying to seek revenge for you.”

Casting a vicious glare at Xu Hua, Qin Nan then offered Lin Wenjing an apology. “So sorry for causing you so much trouble.”

Lin Wenjing was not that petty a guy. With a wave, he dismissed, “It’s alright. Your cousin just cares about you a lot.”

Qin Nan was devastated as it finally dawned on her that Lin Wenjing was really not in the least bit interested in her. She would need a long time to get over it.

She then dragged Xu Hua away together with her. No matter how thick-skinned she was, she could not make herself stay any longer as the situation was simply too embarrassing.

“Chairman, are you really going to recruit that dumbass?” asked Wang Yunqian in puzzlement when they were in the car.

Lin Wenjing nodded and said, “Yes. I see great potential in him and he can be trained to achieve greatness.”

Slightly worried, Wang Yunqian inquired, “In my opinion, he’s really unpredictable. Will he mess things up in the future?”

With firm confidence, Lin Wenjing assured, “He won’t. Once he becomes my subordinate, he won’t be able to cause a stir.”

Wang Yunqian was slightly perplexed as to why Lin Wenjing was so confident about that. In his perception, the loyalty of a simple-minded man like Xu Hua could not be bought with just money. Of course, if he had known about the fact that Lin Wenjing had reached the Innate Realm, he would not have been troubled by that.

Over the next three days, Wang Yunqian had gotten in touch with a lot of retired troops of the special force and physically-trained men from the public through his vast connections. Also, he had recruited several teams of professional bodyguards.

“Allow me to do an introduction. This is the Chairman of Purple Jade Studios, also the employer who has recruited all of you.” After Wang Yunqian had gathered all of his recruits in one place, he introduced Lin Wenjing to them while pointing at him in a loud voice.

Immediately, all eyes turned to look at Lin Wenjing. They were taken aback when they saw just how young he was. On top of that, some of them started to become doubtful as they believed Wang Yunqian was joking with them.

A middle-aged muscular man stepped forward and challenged in a deep voice, “General Manager Wang, are you kidding us? Is he really trying to establish a security company at such a young age?”

Wang Yunqian replied, "Instructor Chen, do I look like I am kidding? Our chairman is wise and smart, and it's pretty normal for him to have the intention to take a slice of market share in the business of security companies."

Instructor Chen was an exceptionally tall and burly man. He was 1.9 meters tall and he was extremely well-built. With a weight of almost a hundred kilograms, he was a heavyweight and highly-skilled fighter. At the same time, he was the leader of the team of bodyguards. He was dubious about Lin Wenjing's plan to establish a security company.

"General Manager Wang, I'm not trying to dissuade you guys. However, the business of security companies is not as simple as what you think it to be," warned Instructor Chen with a trace of disdain.

Wang Yunqian's face darkened and he countered, "Instructor Chen, if you have no confidence in us, you are allowed to withdraw from this plan. We will not force you into joining us."

Seeing that Wang Yunqian was getting genuinely angry, Instructor Chen immediately apologized. When Wang Yunqian visited him, he was offered a lucrative deal in which he would be getting the money even if the company turned out to be a flop in the end. However, if he were to withdraw now, he would not have a chance to receive the money.

Lin Wenjing stepped forward and declared, "My name is Lin Wenjing, and I'm your employer from today onward. Of course, that would be the case only if you decide to stay. Wang Yunqian is right. I'm indeed planning to establish a security company. Instead of forming a small-scale company, I am going to build a large one, which means that we will be facing a lot of challenges in the future. Also, I've planned to seek the approval of Bei Tian Society tomorrow. Any of you who are afraid can leave now."

At the mention of Bei Tian Society, the expressions of Instructor Chen and his team of bodyguards took a drastic change. Immense respect flashed through their faces but at the same time, they looked like they already harbored the intention to withdraw from the plan.

Other than the team of bodyguards, the rest of the recruits were unperturbed. A man who was physically-trained said, “Boss, if we stay, are you really going to offer us an annual salary of two hundred thousand?”

“An annual salary of two hundred thousand is a staggering amount. Are you going to hire us as your assassins? We’re not going to do anything illegal.”

Holding his hand up, Lin Wenjing exuded a domineering air with which he was born with. Subconsciously, all of them quieted down and stared at him intently.

“An annual salary of two hundred thousand is the base salary. As long as you guys can meet my requirements, your remuneration will become higher and higher. An annual salary of three hundred thousand, five hundred thousand or even a million would not be a problem,” said Lin Wenjing.

Many of them were thrilled by his words.

Lin Wenjing then continued, “Like what Instructor Chen said earlier, it’s not easy to establish a security company in this country. We have to seek the approval of Bei Tian Society beforehand, which means that we will have to get physical with them. Anyone who has the confidence and the guts to do it is welcomed to sign the contract and join me on the trip to Bei Tian Society tomorrow. If you are not confident enough and afraid, it's okay. You are allowed to leave now and I will still give you five thousand each. Please make the decision yourself.”

Lin Wenjing handed them the right to make the choice.

Chapter 304 Heading to Bei Tian Society

The men that Wang Yunqian had recruited were mostly amateurs; even with all their power combined, they were probably no match for Bei Tian Society.

But it didn't matter because Lin Wenjing would not be counting on them. Even though he was bringing so many people with him to seek approval from Bei Tian Society, the only useful person was him.

He had ordered them to come with him only as a display of power.

The men in front of him looked at each other and all of them were excited.

A few people with bad tempers who were highly confident in their own martial art skills walked up to sign the contract and shouted, "Master, I'll join you! I'll make sure to defeat all of them and beat them up so bad that they will be begging for mercy at the fight tomorrow! F*ck Bei Tian Society! I'm not afraid of them!"

This was a man who had perfected the Eight Trigram Palm and Back Fist. He was around the age of forty and had big round eyes. He had a thick neck and was very hairy. At a glance, you could tell that he was strong.

Lin Wenjing smiled and said, "Good. If you manage to defeat a skilled master of Bei Tian Society tomorrow, I'll reward you with 100,000."

When the man heard what Lin Wenjing said, his eyes glimmered with excitement!

He was from the countryside and his ancestors had passed on the Eight Trigram Palm to him. Then, he went to another village nearby and learned the Back Fist from a master. However, other than his martial art skills, he had no other talents. He worked as a contractor in the countryside and only earned a few thousand each month.

Now that he had the opportunity to work as a bodyguard in the big city with an annual income of over a hundred thousand, he was over the moon!

There were many others like him, like the ten or so physically-trained men that were here. Most of them were from the countryside, and they were poor and good at nothing but fighting.

However, there were two of them that were martial art masters from the city. They had higher salaries and better insight. They knew that people from Bei Tian Society were definitely not easy targets.

They hesitated for a moment before gritting their teeth and signing the contract because they believed that since they were living in a modern society, the most Bei Tian Society could do was beat them up. At least they would still be alive.

The remaining eight people who used to work in the special forces also signed the contract without hesitation.

Eight of them had left the special forces not because they had reached retirement age. To be exact, they had all done something wrong such as fighting and the likes and had been excused from the forces. They were also bad-tempered. However, after they returned to society, they went through many challenges and it had changed them; even if they encountered injustice, they didn't dare to hurt commoners. Now that they had the chance to demonstrate their skills, they naturally didn't hesitate to sign the contract.

Just then, there were sounds of footsteps coming from the doorway. Then, a strong and tall figure appeared in front of everyone.

It was Xu Hua.

He looked arrogant and he glanced at Lin Wenjing in contempt before he strode in and said, "I agree to work for you."

Lin Wenjing smiled lightly and said, "Good. Come and sign the contract."

Xu Hua didn't rush to sign the contract. Instead, he glared at Lin Wenjing and his expression was full of hostility and provocation. He didn't respect or look up to Lin Wenjing at all. In a frivolous tone, he said, "I want 300,000 a month. I will take 100,000 and the rest shall be transferred to my cousin's account."

Without any hesitation, Lin Wenjing shook his head and said, "No. All newbies will have an annual salary of 200,000."

"Then I'm not joining!" Xu Hua shouted fiercely as he glared at Lin Wenjing.

However, Lin Wenjing just ignored him.

Deep down, Xu Hua was furious. He had never liked Lin Wenjing, and now he was even more furious because he had ignored him.

His cousin had completely ignored him for the past three days. Ever since he found out that the man his cousin liked was the man who was in front of him, Lin Wenjing had become his rival in love! The reason Xu Hua came over here was to teach him a lesson.

From his perspective, Lin Wenjing had a skinny and weak body that probably couldn't even take a punch.

So what if he's rich? He's useless with a weak body like that.

Deep down, Xu Hua thought that Lin Wenjing was no match for him. He was a naive man who focused on martial arts and thought that money was just pieces of paper. To him, only martial arts was noble.

Xu Hua wanted to beat Lin Wenjing up but he banished the thought when he saw the martial art experts next to Lin Wenjing. No matter how arrogant he was, he wasn't cocky enough to single-handedly challenge so many experts.

He then thought of something and turned around before saying, "200,000 is too little. After all, I'm a master of Eight Extreme Punch. You have to raise my salary."

Lin Wenjing already knew what he was thinking and found it ridiculous. He said, "I will personally lead a group of people to seek approval from Bei Tian Society tomorrow. If you can defeat one person from Bei Tian Society tomorrow, I'll raise your annual salary to 300,000."

Then, he said the same thing to the others. "The same goes for all of you. I will increase your annual salary by 100,000 for every person you defeat tomorrow. If you defeat ten, you will get 1,000,000. There is no upper limit."

After Lin Wenjing said that, everybody else in the room was boiling with excitement and their eyes were all red. Even Xu Hua was so tempted he started to breathe rapidly.

They rubbed their palms together and were all geared up, eager to beat up the people from Bei Tian Society to make some money.

Lin Wenjing smiled meaningfully as he looked at their excited faces.

Under such strong temptation, Xu Hua immediately signed a one-year contract. During this time, Xu Hua would be working under Lin Wenjing and couldn't leave without his permission.

When Xu Hua heard this requirement, he expressed a look of disdain. If I really wanted to leave, what can a weakling like you do to me?

Lin Wenjing knew what he was thinking and just smiled. If Xu Hua really dared to have the thought of leaving, he would break his legs!

All the men that Wang Yunqian brought over signed the contract in the end. They were very confident that they could defeat the people from Bei Tian Society tomorrow.

Time passed quickly and the day went by.

Thanks to Wang Yunqian's connections, Lin Wenjing was now leading the bunch of people mightily to seek approval from Bei Tian Society.

This time, they didn't go to the headquarters of Bei Tian Society. Instead, they went to the other branch that was not in Hua City, but Feng City.

The person in charge of this branch was not Gu Ze. It was a middle-aged man called Yan Chuang who was fifty years old this year. He had been stuck in the Pinnacle Realm state for over ten years. During the past ten years, he had swallowed the Soul Cleansing Pill twice but he still couldn't breakthrough because his will was not strong enough.

Coincidentally, Yan Chuang was one of Gu Ze's subordinates.

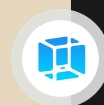

"Master Yan, there is a group of people outside seeking for approval. Do you want to meet them?"

Yan Chuang was drinking tea when his subordinate entered the room to report to him.

"Seek for approval?" Yan Chuang frowned. "Where did they come from?"

"They say that they are from Purple Jade Studios and they want to open a security company in Hua City. They came here specially to seek approval from Bei Tian Society."

When Yan Chuang heard this, he couldn't help but burst into laughter. Then, he said, "Doesn't Purple Jade Studios produce movies? Why are they trying to build a security company? They really don't know their place. Fine, let them in. I want to see what they can do."
