

Chapter 1169

One month passed, Deng Wan's month was older, and her mother cleaned at home and did rough housework.

And it's the kind without salary.

Every time Collin saw his mother's appearance, his heart was cut.

However, Deng Wan's belly is getting bigger and bigger. Collin couldn't make trouble anymore.

In October, when she was pregnant and gave birth, Deng Wan gave birth to Collin, who was another boy.

The boy's surname is Deng.

Although the boy was born, the family was very happy, but there was one person who was not very happy.

This child is a four-year-old brother.

The elder brother is very repulsive of his younger brother's arrival, and often beats his younger brother when the adults are not paying attention.

This kind of thing has been seen by Collin several times.

As a stepfather, Collin was not good at scolding his brother, so he told his wife Deng Wan about it.

However, Deng Wan embraced her elder brother and said very proudly: "Our eldest prince is brave and good at fighting. Our eldest prince will be assisted by the gods of the father and the quilt. My mother has the protection of the prince. No one will think about it in the future. Bully mother."

Collin: "..."

Deng Wan also rolled her eyes over Collin: "What are you making a fuss about! You sc*mbag! You said well before getting married that you want to see my son as your own son. As a result, you despise my eldest son so much!"

Collin was annoyed: "If your child laughs like this, you encourage her to fight and fight. When you grow up, how do you care about him? I treat him as my own son, so I don't want to indulge him!"

Deng Wan: "Wait for the youngest son, you can also discipline one and let me see!"

After that, because of her anger, Deng Wan immediately kicked her broomstick, and then looked at Collin's mother: "The ground is so dirty, what are you doing today? Are you corpse? The family cares about eating and drinking, but it's not for you. Come here for a corpse!"

Collin raised his slap and scolded angrily: "Deng Wan!"

The mother held Collin: "Collin, it is not easy for you to have a home. The child is so small, you have to pinch your nose."

Collin just pinched his nose like this.

I have been in the Deng family for fifteen years.

He graduated from a high school, a young and young migrant worker, and became an out-and-out middle-aged man with no temper and no status at home.

Not only that, the Deng's factory also closed down due to the rush.

Wait for the family to live on the wealth of the family.

After Collin went home from unemployment, he also drove a taxi.

The monthly expenses earned are only seven to eight thousand yuan.

For these expenses, he still has to hand in most of them to his wife.

The money I can keep on my own every month is only one thousand yuan. Sometimes I want to buy a new dress for my mother, but I can't.

My mother is almost 70.

The old man walks incomparably staggering, but he still has to sweep the floor in this home, carrying shit and urinating.

Sometimes Collin feels that his life is really useless.

Useless!

He had already thought it through, and tolerated for another three or four years. When his son was admitted to college, he immediately divorced Deng Wan, and then took his old mother back to his hometown in Northeast China.

In his entire life, he would just have to have a son.

The son is obedient and sensible, and his academic grades follow his father. He is very smart and takes the first place every year.

This is Collin's greatest hope.

However, this hope was soon dashed.

Chapter 1170

Collin's son has good academic performance, is obedient, sensible, and has a good temper.

This is a far cry from the eldest son.

The eldest son was three and a half years older than the younger son. After graduating from junior high school, he dropped out of school and fell into society. Collin wanted to strictly discipline him, but he was blocked by his wife every time.

Even so, the eldest son still thinks that the whole family likes the younger son.

Grandma has always regarded her youngest son as a darling.

Grandpa and grandmother also praised his brother's good academic performance when he went out.

Even the mother who has always liked his, thought that his younger brother was proud.

Eighteen or nine-year-old boys were the most difficult time to provoke. On the second day after his younger brother was admitted to Nancheng's best key high school, his elder brother raised his knife and stabbed his younger brother with more than a dozen knives.

When the doctor and the ambulance arrived, my brother had no vital signs.

The older brother was also sent directly to the police station.

My brother is eighteen and a half years old.

There is no less legal responsibility at all.

For a time, there were two boys in the Deng family, but now, none of them are gone.

While Deng's family was heartbroken, Collin and his mother passed out crying many times.

However, both his mother and Collin, who had passed out, were blasted out by the Deng family.

The father-in-law pointed to Collin's nose and cursed: "You white-eyed wolf, you are not familiar with the wolf! How did you become a stepfather to your child, and treat your child equally, but you only care about the one who loves you, if not The child has no sense of security in this home, how can he do such a thing!"

The wife also pointed to Collin's nose and cursed: "Collin, divorce! We are divorced. From then on you get out of this house for me! You ruined my two sons, two!"

The painful Collin really wanted to blow the heads of his wife and his parents-in-law.

But he has to take care of his weak mother.

He can't do impulsive things.

"Divorce!" Collin in pain unexpectedly felt relieved.

The divorce is handled very quickly.

Collin cleans himself and leaves home.

After spending nearly two decades, Collin went from a hairy boy to a 40-year-old middle-aged man. He worked hard in the Deng family in Nancheng for seventeen or eighteen years. In the end, he had nothing.

He cleaned himself out of the house.

Collin felt nothing.

My own son is gone. What use is it to ask for the property?

However, on the day she left the Civil Affairs Bureau, her mother was waiting outside the Civil Affairs Bureau.

The mother, who is over seventy years old, hunched back like a monkey, standing only half a person tall. She blocked in front of Deng Wan and Deng Wan's family members, and said hoarsely: "Your family is all evil spirits, evil spirits who drink human blood! What have you done to my son! The evil spirits... ."

Evil spirits?

Ha!

Deng Wan looked at Collin's mother frivolously: "You dead old woman! I have been a domestic helper in our house for 17 or 18 years, and I haven't taken a cent. Haha, are you crying?"

"But isn't it your own initiative, old lady?"

"What is the ba5tard! You are like this! You voluntarily come to our house to be a domestic helper, a domestic helper who doesn't need money, you voluntarily give me poop and pee, and my two sons pee and pee!"

"You old and immortal thing, you are a dead star! I have impersonated both of my sons to death!"

"Bang!" Collin raised his hand and punched Deng Wan in the face.

One punch knocked out Deng Wan's three front teeth.

This is still incomprehensible, he slapped Deng Wan on the right cheek again, bleeding Deng Wan.

It was at the door of the Civil Affairs Bureau, on the street.

Within five minutes, Collin was taken away by the police.

He is to be held criminally liable.
