

Chapter 541

These men around Suzi broke her Siu's event.

Especially Arron, see through all her tactics.

At this moment, Siu felt that she had failed in a mess, and she was almost dead.

After all, it was the Jun family, which still had weight in Arron's eyes.

However, at this moment, Siu did not know how her life was saved.

At this time, in the small banquet hall, Arron was answering a call from Kraig.

"Old Fu, my cousin is willing to trade two ships for him and even a daughter. This is a good deal. Do you know that it is his two ships? They are the two super-large ships specifically aimed at Canada."

Arron's expression was very calm: "Siu and Jun Liuye are here first. When the two ships are handed over to me, I will release her daughter suddenly, Laojun, you tell your cousin, this If you let her two daughters off at a time, it was all because of your face. If it weren't for you, both of her daughters would be dead, and his two ships were also owned by me, Arron. Sooner or later, I would take it. Come back."

On that end, Kraig smiled and said, "How do you want to blackmail my cousin, I have no problem. What I care about is, my little nephew Lenny, is he okay?"

At this time, even Kraig, who is close to Arron as a brother, is not sure whether Arron will treat Lenny. Kraig and Arron are like brothers, but because of this, he knows best. Arron is fierce, and not sloppy.

At this end, Arron said angrily: "Suzi has already interceded for them, otherwise do you think your little nephew will end well?"

"What are you talking about!" Kraig asked curiously: "Who, who pleaded with them? Suzi? Just your lifelong leader?"

"Otherwise, is there anyone else!" Arron said viciously.

"My younger sibling Suzi pleaded with you and asked you to let go of your rivals, and return them, who are they? Let me guess wildly. That kid Joan must be indispensable since I was six years ago. The younger brother and sister saved the boy's life, and the boy's temperament is reborn. Although it is still so trivial on the surface, it is not in the bones anymore.

There is also the gentle and jade-like son of the Shu family. Mr. Shu's grandson is of good conduct, and Suzi intercedes for him, as expected.

And my nephew.

Oh, there seems to be a crooked nut.

Good guys!

Old Fu, Suzi interceded with you, so you let go of all your rivals, you are a typical fear inside. "

"You want to find a fight!" Arron said very calmly.

"Haha! Hung up!"

After closing the thread, Arron looked at Siu who had crawled back from the outside with a cold expression. Siu was lying at Arron's feet. She knocked her head over and over again and again: "Thank you, thank you Fourth Master Fu for your life, thank you Mrs. Fu. Thank you. ."

Arron said, "Take your sister and get out of here!"

"Yes, it's Fourth Master." Siu immediately knelt down and came to Jun Liuye, who had already become dumb in fright. The two supported each other and were about to leave. Arron said again: "Don't leave. Nancheng, otherwise, at your own risk."

"Know... I know." Siu said shivering.

After he finished speaking, he supported his sister Jun Liuye and left the banquet hall organized by her Siu.

The purpose Siu wanted was also not achieved.

But she and her sister walked through the door.

After leaving the banquet hall and her hotel, Siu wailed loudly on the main road.

After crying, she said fiercely: "Suzi! Wait for me!"

Chapter 542

Suzi couldn't hear Siu, who was like a beggar on the road, cursing her.

At this time, Suzi, who was held by Arron with one arm in his arms, had many questions in his mind.

She thought that Arron and Siu had an extraordinary relationship.

Unexpectedly, Arron would show no mercy to Siu.

Suzi raised his eyes and looked at Arron, there was a lot to ask him, but he didn't say anything.

Arron was watching Walton who was paralyzed on the ground.

He didn't have much impression of Walton.

I just think this is a self-righteous foster girl. The foster girl itself is nothing. Suzi is also the foster girl of the Lin family, but the foster girl arrogantly goes to the sky and imagines that she is the princess of Nancheng who plays tricks all day long. In Arron's eyes, she is just a bug. It's not even counted.

Walton's face was crying and she couldn't say anything: "Four... Fourth Master, can it be for my cousin... 's sake? Rao... .."

She couldn't go on without finishing her words.

To be honest, his cousin Darius just got his life back. Moreover, Darius had to beat her just now. At this moment, even if his cousin is here, it is impossible for Walton to intercede for her.

So Walton said halfway, and stopped again.

Arron didn't bother to look at the woman, but said casually, "Christopher, let's deal with it."

"Master, dead or alive?"

"A pile of foul-smelling garbage, what do you want to do? Put it in your house to smoke you?" Arron asked lightly.

"Master Delek! I understand what you mean."

"Clean up!" Arron added.

"Yes, Fourth Master!"

After he finished speaking, Christopher picked up Walton: "Let's go, Miss Min."
"No..." At this moment, Walton felt that she was a trash.

Cleaner.

It was just three words, but it fully demonstrated that Arron had never looked at her Walton at all.

At the very least, Arron still hates Siu and the others, so when dealing with it, he specifically said how to deal with it, but when she got to Walton, Arron didn't even explain how to deal with his subordinates.

That meant that Walton was here with Arron, and she had never been a human being.

It is negligible at all.

And she, Walton, once thought that she wanted to marry Arron, and she had always believed that only her Walton in Nancheng was the most worthy of Arron.

However, she didn't realize until today that her Walton was inferior to a pile of shit in Arron's eyes.

But, it's a pile of shit, and it's better than death.

She begged desperately: "Fourth Master, Madam, you just treat me as a shit. Isn't it OK for me to stay away from you in the future? I will never show up in front of you, okay?"

At this moment, Darius suddenly rushed in from the outside to stand behind Walton, looking at Arron earnestly: "Fu brother, please, for the sake of our Shu family never embarrassed you. For the sake of helping Suzi again and again, you spare my cousin this time, I assure you that my cousin will not trouble Suzi again in this life, okay, brother?"

Walton looked at her cousin in surprise, but she didn't expect her cousin to protect her like this.

Sudden tears burst into his face.

Arron looked at Darius coldly.

Rao?

From the very beginning, Walton urged Rayna to trouble Suzi in the company. This coherent incident was all caused by Walton. Just now, Walton almost disfigured Suzi. It.

When people lose power, they long for others to spare her.

But half an hour ago, Walton was about to kill Suzi, and she never thought of forgiving Suzi.

But, Darius, Mr. Shu.
