

Chapter 783

Her blush, how can her heart be kept from others?

His father asked immediately: "You! Are you already his own?"

Rayna's face turned redder: "Dad...he will marry me."

Father Min: "... " A trace of viciousness flashed across his face. It's just that Rayna patronized shyly, and didn't see it.

Rayna blushed and said to his father: "Dad, let me call Lenny.

"Yeah." Father nodded.

Rayna took out his mobile phone and called Lenny. On the other end, Lenny just woke up, and when she woke up, she saw a small rose-red heart-shaped note on the bedside: Husband, I'll go downstairs and buy it for you. Breakfast is over. If you wake up and see this note, remember to call me if you want to eat.

Seeing such a warm message, Lenny smiled: "Little lady, it's kind of warm."

He just finished reading the note when his cell phone rang.

Pick it up and connect: "Hello."

"Lenny." Rayna was embarrassed to call her husband in front of her father.

"Call your husband!" Lenny's not Yi.

"Lenny, let me tell you..."

"Call your husband! Don't ask your husband to wait for you to come back to see how I can do you!"

Rayna felt shy and shy when he thought of his strength.

She immediately covered the receiver and shouted in a low voice: "Husband..."

"It's almost..."

"Husband, let me tell you something. I can't bring you breakfast. My mother is sick. I have to go back to see my mother."

"Oh!" On the other end, Lenny immediately asked with concern: "It turns out that the mother-in-law is sick, so you should go back quickly, but wife, husband can tell you, you can go back and tell my mother-in-law that you also have a man now You guys, your man can support you, you tell my mother-in-law, let my father-in-law and mother-in-law hurry out that Walton. Where can I die?"

That home belongs to my daughter-in-law.

In the future, the husband will be responsible for the old-age care of their two elders.

So don't be afraid, just go back straight and tell them!

I don't believe it anymore, if you find such a good husband, they still dare to yell at you! "

"Well, I know my husband." At this moment, Rayna's heart was sweet.

After closing the line, she looked at her father and said, "Dad, I will marry Mr. Jun soon, and then your daughter will also honor you. Dad, my sister is very good, and she can support you in the future. The person is still me. I have no objection to your loving my sister, but I just ask you to be nice to me. Okay?"

The father wiped Rayna's hair, and said gently: "You are a good daughter of Mom and Dad, and you have found such a high-ranking son-in-law. If you go back to see your mother, your mother's illness will definitely be cured. Most of the time, let's go and go home with Dad."

"Well, good dad." Rayna went home with his dad very happy. When she was approaching the door of her house, she saw a shop that repaired mobile phones. For some reason, she suddenly became more concerned.

"Dad, I have diarrhea, wait for me and I will go to a public toilet."

Her father glared at her. Without saying anything, Rayna ran towards the public toilet. While her father was not paying attention, she turned into a mobile phone store and bought a small mobile phone, bought a new number, and changed her mobile phone to Silent hid it, and then followed his father home. Perhaps it was because he had been defensive by his parents a few times before.

However, Rayna didn't have much guard at all.

As soon as she entered the house, a sack fell from the sky and suddenly covered her.

"Wow...what are you doing!" Rayna cried.

Chapter 784

"What!" At this moment, Rayna's mother walked out of the inner room, and she kicked Rayna with her foot: "Little hoof! You are too unscrupulous! You actually climbed on your sister's shoulders. In the upper-class circles, ah! Why are you so cheap! You want to enter the upper-class circle so much, so you want to grab your sister's resources?"

Are you still sisters?

Why are you so cheap!

So cheap! "

After scolding, Rayna's mother kicked Rayna several times again, and the kicking Rayna yelled, her head was wrapped in a sack, she could not see at all, she could only say first: "Mom. , Can you let me out of the sack first? Let me out, can't I let you beat and scold me?"

"You can let it out!" At this time, it was my father's voice: "We have to wait for us to take out your phone and all your money, and then help with your hands and feet, so that you can be released from the sack. ."

If the words were necessary, Min's father and Min's mother began to turn over Rayna's bag.

Her mobile phone, the money in her bag, and the shopping card Suzi gave her were all turned over.

Even Rayna's bag was taken away by Walton.

Walton also kicked Rayna hard: "You use such a good bag, a bag worth tens of thousands. Do you match Rayna? I ask you if you match it? Do you know what brand this bag is? A vulgar woman who doesn't even understand the brand! You use such a bag, it is a violent thing!"

Just like that, Rayna, who had just been tricked home by her father, was severely beaten by her parents and cousin, and ransacked her.

At that moment, Rayna, who was trapped in the sack, was indescribably sad.

At the same time, she was very fortunate, fortunate that she had a new look when she entered the community, she temporarily bought a small mobile phone and put it in her close-fitting pocket.

Her pain was as if she was about to fall into an ice store. At that moment, Rayna seriously suspected that she was not born by her parents. She might have picked it up. She even suspected that her cousin might be her parents.

Raw.

Rayna was so heartbroken to death in a sack of despair.

Before she knew it, her parents had helped her hands and feet, and then removed the sacks from her head.

Only then did Rayna have the opportunity to see his parents and his cousin Walton who was sitting between them.

Walton didn't say anything, she raised her hand and slapped Rayna's face with two slaps: "You bastard! You actually put Master Jun to sleep! Why are you so shameless! Your face grows to be used for dragging. Is it earthy! Ah! I ask you! You actually put Mr. Jun to sleep!

Do you know that Master Jun is mine!

It's mine, Walton!

That was the fiance assigned to me by Grandpa Shu!

How could you ruin a man with such an identity and such a noble man? "

Walton was crazy.

Rayna looked at Walton's appearance, and suddenly felt, why is she so pitiful?

Such Walton often thinks about fighting Suzi. What will she use to fight Suzi?

Rayna looked up and looked at Walton fearlessly: "You are so ugly!"

"You! Say! What! What!" Walton grabbed Rayna's hair, glared her eyes, and asked viciously.

Rayna thought about it. She was treated like this by her parents and cousins today, and she might not be able to live anymore. Since she had no chance to live, she might as well say it happily.

Rayna was originally a hot temper who was not afraid of anything.

She used to be very rough, so she didn't know what to face, and she often showed off, showed off, and bullied herself as a long-face thing.

And now, Rayna finally understood that those were all exaggerated by this family and cousin.

Now she has been playing with Suzi and Galia for a while, and she already knows what it means to have a face, what it means to be brave, and what it means to have bones.

Although Rayna's face was swollen, but her eyes looked at Rayna with contempt, and she said clearly: "I said, you are not only ugly, you are also pitiful! Do you know , You look like this now, like a poor worm?"

Walton, you are already crazy!
