

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3662

Although Abbas's meridians were completely destroyed, suicide with a knife was more than enough for him.

With this knife, he exhausted all his strength and was extremely fierce, because he only wanted to use this knife to end his life simply and quickly.

The reason why he wanted to be more crisp was because he didn't want so many people to watch him convulsively before dying tragically after a long time.

At this moment, he is already ready to die.

And many soldiers in the Wanlong Palace also understood that all of this had become a definite number, and no one was able to return to heaven.

But at the moment when Abbas's short blade pierced his filial piety, pierced the skin of Abbas's chest cavity, and almost pierced his heart, Charlie gave a light kick on his toe, and an aura surged from his toe. Enter that short blade.

Immediately afterwards, when Abbas unexpectedly pierced the short blade to his heart, the short blade suddenly turned into powder on his chest, instantly the pump burst and dissipated into the air!

At this moment, everyone was stunned, and Abbas himself couldn't believe it!

He found that the short blade in his hand disappeared, and when he looked down, only some dust-like powder remained in the palms of his hands!

His whole brain didn't react. First, he didn't know why this good short blade was kicked into powder by Charlie Void, and second, he didn't understand why Charlie suddenly rescued himself at this moment.

He raised his head subconsciously, looked at Charlie with a calm look, and asked subconsciously: "wade... Mr. wade... you are..."

Charlie said calmly: "When Salmaan killed him yesterday, my grandfather once told him about a past event."

With that, Charlie looked at Abbas and said, "You know, did my father say anything when he heard that your father committed suicide by jumping from a building?"

Abbas shook his head lightly with a blank expression, and said in a low voice, "I don't know... Mr. Wade, please elaborate!"

Charlie turned and looked in the direction of his parents' tomb in the distance, and said softly: "My father said that he would not kill Boren, but Boren died because of him. After he passed away, I still felt guilty about it. The so-called compassion for others should be someone like him."

Abbas said with shame: "Your father... he is indeed sentimental and righteous... Even though I was young, I also heard many rumors about him. Many people mentioned him very much admired..."

"Yes!" Charlie nodded, and said lightly: "Abbas, you can be regarded as very filial, but in my eyes, you are only a half-filial son. Do you know why?"

Abbas shook his head and said, "I would like to hear the details..."

Charlie said seriously: "If the word filial piety is only understood as revenge for the parents, or the end of the old age for the parents, it will be a bit one-sided, because you have overlooked the more important inheritance!"

After speaking, Charlie said again: "China's five thousand years of brilliant history, if it has to be condensed, it is actually nothing more than inheritance!"

"Inheritance, taken apart, is inheritance and transmission. In the final analysis, everyone should be a link between the past and the next, instead of letting everything go to you and no one will succeed."

"People say that they want to continue to learn for the sake of the sacred. It is to pass on the philosophy and wisdom of the ancestors;"

"Ordinary people may not be able to reach the height of sacred learning, at least they must learn from their teachers and pass on the knowledge you learn from your teachers, your parents and elders to your younger generations;"

"Even if you can't even learn from a teacher, at the very least, you must continue to pass on the blood that your parents passed on to you, instead of breaking your own family."
