

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3670

For Charlie, the opportunity was not left for Lord Banks, but since he couldn't grasp it, he wouldn't be merciful.

Although the Maldives is not economically developed, it is a global holiday destination. As for the African island country, which is one of the least developed countries in the world, such as Madagascar, the conditions are naturally more difficult than the Maldives.

When Lord Banks heard this, he was immediately anxious, and he blurted out: "You...how can you say that you change and you change...so many people listen to you clearly talking about the Maldives, why has it suddenly become Madagascar? You?Aren't you unbelievable?"

Charlie said indifferently: "Don't you understand what a floating price is? Just like stocks, the Maldives is the price just now, and the current price is Madagascar. I suggest you agree to it quickly, otherwise it may become Congo or Zimbabwe in the future. "

Lord Banks wanted to cry without tears: "Even the stocks haven't fallen that way. From the daily limit to the lower limit, at most it fluctuates by 20%, and you have shrunk by 99.99%!"

Charlie ignored him, looked at Zayne, and asked him: "Is your dad usually so poor?"

Zayne was extremely embarrassed, and said hurriedly: "Mr. Wade, my dad is not like this usually. Today must be too exciting..."

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly said to Lord Banks: "Dad! You are about to stop the ink, if you don't agree, I'm afraid I really want to go to Zimbabwe!"

Lord Banks was totally unwilling at this time, but when he thought of Wanlong Palace, he immediately persuaded him.

Charlie also said just now that he doesn't need to do it himself, and he can do it properly when he finds Wanlongdian. Then, even if someone wants to help him out, once he comes to an overseas mercenary group like Wanlongdian, he's sure. There is no way to continue.

Therefore, he also knows that Charlie is definitely not frightening himself. Right now, he is in Yeling Mountain, making every day to be unwilling and calling the ground to be unsound. Apart from accepting all his conditions, it is almost impossible to have anything else. s Choice.

Thinking of this, he always burst into tears, and said: "Okay...I accept..."

Charlie nodded and said: "If you accept it, it will be easy. Tomorrow I will let the people from Wanlong Temple take you to Madagascar. Then I will leave you a few people to protect your safety personally. That kind of local economy Underdeveloped, public security is not too good, you know."

Lord Banks choked up and asked: "Then what about my food, clothing, housing and transportation?"

"This is easy to handle." Charlie said lightly: "You honestly and happily passed the position of Patriarch to Zara banks, let Zara banks invest some money, and buy you a larger piece of land in Madagascar. , I will build a manor for you and hire dozens of nursing homes for you by the way. Then you will be your landlord in Madagascar. Although you can't come back, your family can visit you there. If you compare Handy butlers or subordinates can also be brought along, so that at least you can ensure that your quality of life in Madagascar will not drop too much."

After speaking, Charlie reminded me very solemnly: "You have to remember that this is based on your complete cooperation. If you don't cooperate, I'm sorry, and then I will build a room for you on the plains of Madagascar. Thatched hut, just be there with the monkey company."

When Lord Banks heard this, he barely hesitated to blurt out: "I cooperate! I cooperate! I absolutely cooperate!"

Charlie's words gave Lord Banks a ray of life.

Originally thought that Charlie would let him go to Madagascar to live a hard life, but he did not expect that he would even allow himself to be a landlord over there.

If that were the case, it would be another village.
