

Chapter 1319

Then, she was on the run for six years. But Sabrina was so lucky, to everyone's surprise, she got pregnant with Sebastian's child! That was why, for the sake of his child, Sebastian had no choice but to find her and marry her.

Now Jennie understood why Sean hated Sabrina so much. With a daughter-in-law like her, who would not hate her?

If she could get rid of Gloria, then not only could she make a contribution to the Shaw family, she could also make a good impression with Sean. That was why, out of nowhere, she came here early in the morning to teach these elder ladies how to dance.

It was almost too easy for her to come here as a teacher. One of the reasons was because she had returned from overseas, and also because she belonged to the Shaw family and arrived in a car driven by the bodyguard of the Shaw family. Who would dare get in her way?

Initially, Gloria was not scheduled to attend today's class, and Jennie was the one who purposely ordered the leader of the dance team to call her here.

team to call her here.

Today, in front of all the other ladies, Jennie wanted Gloria to get a taste of utter humiliation,

"Why do you allow just anyone to join your dance team? You even recruit the morally corrupt and the disgraced?" Jennie asked in a high and mighty tone.

The dance leader stammered, "Prof... Professor Gibson, you...you're referring to?"

"Mistresses who intentionally ruin other people's marriages. Do you think such people are considered morally corrupt?" Jennie asked, almost as if she was interrogating the other woman.

The dance leader answered, "Uhm... Well, they are, if such a mistress shows up in our team..."

"This woman!" Jennie interrupted the leader before she could finish speaking and pointed at Gloria. "This woman! Her mother ruined my uncle and aunt's marriage. Because of her mother, my aunt and uncle's lives turned into a living nightmare.

Do you know how my aunt and uncle lived for the past few decades? She and her mother are like superglue, sticking mother are like superglue, sticking themselves to my aunt and uncle and just refusing to leave! Judge for yourselves, a woman like her, a b*tch like her, how hateful is she!"

Everyone present was speechless. "..."

They could tell from her speech that the mistress was not Gloria but Gloria's mother. No matter what she did in the past, Gloria's mother was at least 70-years-old now, right? Even though back in the day, she did commit morally corrupt acts, so what did that have to do with Gloria? However, seeing Jennie so filled with righteous anger, they did not dare to offer any retorts.

The ugly curses just kept coming and Jennie got more and more agitated as she spoke.

"This b*tch is exactly like her mother, she keeps trying to get involved with the Shaw family. The Shaw family is so strict, how can they allow an illegitimate daughter like her into their midst?

"Because your mother is a mistress, since you were a child, she never taught you how to behave properly; that's why your behavior just got worse and worse, right?"

behavior just got worse and worse, right?

"You're already in your 50s, but yet you still try to approach my uncle; don't you know my uncle might get a heart attack if he sees you? You evil woman, what do you want?"

Jennie's words shocked everyone; they were all stunned.

She appealed more and more to everyone present, "You have all seen it, this is the woman. When my uncle saw her yesterday, she almost died of anger! She took on the Shaw family name herself. Have you seen such a shameless woman? Huh? Have you ever seen such a scheming woman?"

"My uncle just provided your mother with sperm! That's it! And yet you so shamelessly try to claim to be a part of our family?"

"Do you even have a moral bottom line? I tell you, if something happens to my uncle because of you, I want you to pay for it with your life..."

Before Jennie could finish, Gloria took a sudden step forward, and first grabbed a fistful of Jennie's hair. Then, she raised her leg and kicked her in the shins.

Bang!

"Do you even have a moral bottom line? I tell you, if something happens to my uncle because of you, I want you to pay for it with your life..."

Before Jennie could finish, Gloria took a sudden step forward, and first grabbed a fistful of Jennie's hair. Then, she raised her leg and kicked her in the shins.

Bang!

"Ouch... It hurts, my hair..."

Unsuspectingly, Gloria threw Jennie to the ground. Then Gloria sat down on her and grabbed a fistful of her hair while her other hand squeezed her neck. She hissed at her in anger. "Can I ask you, what is the relationship between your uncle and I!"
