

Chapter 1323

Suddenly, everyone in the dance club was berating Jennie.

Jennie was speechless.

Her face was swollen and painful, and the pain on her scalp caused her to grit her teeth.

At that moment, what caused her to feel the most grief was the fact that she had nowhere to run.

Jennie had not expected the dozens of dancers to be faulting her.

Jennie had always been treated exquisitely since she was young.

Twenty years ago, Jennie had been someone who could do whatever she wanted both in Kidon City and South City. No one ever retaliated against her no matter what she did.

If she wanted to cause a scene in the middle of the streets, the whole city would just think she was being playful. How could she have anything to do with a shrew?

Even right now, she still felt that no one would fight back no matter what she did.

.. . . .

No matter what she did, everyone would definitely be on her side.

After all, she was someone who returned from overseas.

After all, she was also a dance instructor.

With such a high status, she naturally would stand above all these people. Jennie never expected that the extremely humble Gloria, who had a severe inferiority complex and never even dared to show her face in public, would suddenly use such a violent method to beat her.

Not only that, Gloria's daughter was there as well.

Sabrina!

That woman had just cruelly hit her daughter three days ago.

Her daughter was almost forced to run back home without her pants because of Sabrina.

A new grudge met the old!

Jennie did not dare to look at Sabrina.

Because, Sabrina's cold gaze felt like it could kill.

"Jennie!" Sabrina said calmly. "Your daughter tried to flirt around in my husband

"Jennie!" Sabrina said calmly. "Your daughter tried to flirt around in my husband's company three days ago, and was already caught by me. Now you're trying to look for trouble where my mother comes to relax? Do the two of you not want to live anymore?"

"Or do you really think that Sebastian doesn't love me enough?"

"I doubt you haven't heard of anything regarding my husband?"

Her own husband!

When she needed to, Sabrina did not hesitate to use her husband's ruthless, coldblooded side!

Jennie was speechless.

She was so afraid she lost the ability to speak!

"Get lost!" Sabrina only said two words.

She did not want to be too excessive toward the Shaw family for Marcus' sake.

Marcus was a good person.

He was one of Sabrina's few relatives.

Gloria covered her face in an extremely pathetic manner and ran away from the dance club.

Behind them, the bodyguards looked at Gloria and Sabrina at the same time shouting, "Misses, please take care."

After that, the four bodyguards left immediately.

At that moment, Jennie ran to her car. She felt that she could not return to the Shaw family looking like that, so she took out her phone and dialed a number.

The call quickly went through. "Seany... Boohoo, your daughter-in-law..."
