

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3904

Smith didn't dare to offend Fei Kexin, so he could only hung up and rushed to the appointment immediately.

He came to the door of the presidential suite where Fei Kexin was located. Fei Kexin's personal bodyguard, was standing motionless outside the door at this time.

Smith walked to the front, Shan laughed, and said, "Hello, I'm here to see Miss Fei."

Fei Kexin's personal bodyguard just looked at him up and down, then nodded and said, "Miss is waiting for you inside, please come in."

After that, he turned around and pushed open the door.

Smith asked in surprise: "Don't you want to search or do a security check or something?"

"No." Fei Kexin's personal bodyguard said calmly: "I know you don't have any weapons on your body."

Smith shrugged: "Okay, then I'll go in."

After that, he walked in directly.

At this moment, skuna was sitting on the sofa in the living room of nearly one hundred square meters in the presidential suite, looking through the materials. Seeing Smith coming in, she hurriedly said: "Mr. Smith, please sit down for a while. Miss is changing clothes."

"Okay..." Smith nodded, sat down on a single sofa, and asked curiously: "Ms. skuna, I don't know what Ms. Fei would like to invite me to?"

skuna said: "Miss wants to ask you about someone, and you might be looking for this person too."

"Really?" Smith asked in surprise, "Who is it?"

skuna said: "Miss will naturally tell you after a while."

"Okay." Smith nodded, whispering in his heart.

At this moment, Fei Kexin, wearing a white dress and a scarf on his shoulders, walked out of the inner room. Seeing Smith sitting in the living room, he said casually: "Mr. Smith is here."

Smith stood up hurriedly and said respectfully, "Miss Fei!"

Fei Kexin nodded, and said casually: "Please sit down, don't be so polite."

Smith just sat back again.

Fei Kexin sat opposite Smith and asked with interest: "By the way, Mr. Smith, how are your affairs going?"

Smith said awkwardly: "No progress...Liam of Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical has been reluctant to see me."

Fei Kexin nodded, and asked him, "Is that magical Pill really magical?"

"Fantastic!" Smith said without hesitation: "This medicine treats cancer, just like pouring molten aluminum into an ant's nest. The ants won't leave the ants wherever the rain drops."

Fei Kexin asked him: "Can cancer be cured completely?"

Smith said: "We have not yet seen cancer patients who are actually cured by this drug, but according to the pharmacokinetic data we have now, continuing to take this drug can continue to kill cancer cells in the body, and the drug is effective. There will be no diminishment with the increase in medication, so according to the model we know now, as long as the drug is enough, the patient will be able to heal."

Speaking of this, Smith sighed: "I can say that if this drug is officially launched and is available in unlimited quantities, then all previous cancer treatments in the world will be a thing of the past, because there is no single drug or any A treatment, better than it!"

Fei Kexin was shocked, and asked, "What about the market space for this medicine? How big can it be?"

Smith thought for a while and said seriously: "The annual global cost for cancer treatment is about 600 to 800 billion US dollars, of which medicines account for more than 200 billion US dollars. If magical Pills are supplied in unlimited quantities, they will at least achieve the market. For the monopoly with more than half of the share, the remaining half should be patients who cannot afford magical Pills and can only be forced to choose the previous treatment plan."

Fei Kexin couldn't help but secretly thought: "If this is the case, then Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical's net profit may exceed 100 billion U.S. dollars a year."

"If a company whose annual profit exceeds 100 billion U.S. dollars goes public, then the market value of this company will be at least ten times its annual profit, that is, one trillion U.S. dollars..."

“Moreover, if Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical’s concept is new enough and its monopoly position is strong enough, the market value will continue to rise. Maybe Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical will surpass Apple and become the world’s most valuable company...”

Thinking of this, she was even more curious about whether Charlie was the behind-the-scenes boss of Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical.

So, she took the tablet from skuna, opened the photo of Charlie taken from the driving recorder, and passed it to Smith, and asked: “Mr. Smith, Director wade of Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical, who met you, is Not this person?”
