

Chapter 1759

Zayn was so happy that he cried uncontrollably. Of course, Hana also cried tears of joy. She had been yearning to be close to her daughter, but her daughter had always hated her. Hana had been thinking if God let her be born again, even if she had to die, she would stay by her daughter's side and die together with her. Although she did not get to be born again, it was as if she got to relive her life again.

The doctor told Zayn and Hana that Hana was pregnant at an advanced maternal age, so they had to be cautious with everything. It was fine for them to be happy, but they could not be overly excited. Zayn and Hana everything. It was time for them to be happy, but they could not be overly excited. Zayn and Hana understood that, so they tried their best to calm their emotions. This child arrived so suddenly and surprisingly. The couple extraordinarily cherished the child, so much so that at that moment when Zayn heard that Tessa was killed after being hit by a car, he immediately chose to not tell Hana. Although Hana had severed her ties with Tessa, she was still her biological daughter after all.

He looked at Hana calmly. "Dear, let the driver send you home first. I will immediately return home to accompany you after I have handled some matters at the company."

"Are there urgent matters at the

the company.

“Are there urgent matters at the company?” Hana asked.

Zayn nodded. “Yes.”

“I’m sorry, Zayn. Was I...being unreasonable? I am already a forty-year-old woman, but I still ask you to accompany me to the hospital. Hurry up and go handle your company’s matters. You don’t have to care about me.

Believe me, I can take good care of myself. I got pregnant at the age of forty, so this is the Heavens giving me a new life. I certainly will take good care of myself,” Hana told Zayn.

“Mm-hmm,” said Zayn. After that, he turned around and left. He felt a sense of deep grief. After all, the young lady was only twenty-two years old. Her life

e felt a sense of deep grief. After all, the young lady was only twenty-two years old. Her life was just gone like that. With a deeply grieving heart, Zayn arrived at the scene of the accident. Many people were gathered there. When he arrived at the place, only then did the person who was in charge of the case tell him that the deceased was fully responsible for the accident.

Zayn took a look on the floor and saw that Tessa was covered in blood as she lay on the floor. Her lips already turned black, but her expression was ghastly and terrifying. It was as if she had a crazy argument with someone before she had died. Zayn thought of the moment Tessa manically ran out of the hospital

At that moment, an eyewitness approached Zayn. "Who are you to her?"

"Uncle," Zayn said sorrowfully.

That eye witness sighed. "Uncle. That means you're her elder in the family, right?"

Zayn was confused.

"Say, was your niece insane? If she was insane, then why didn't you lock her up at home? Why did you let her run out to harm others?"

"What's wrong?" Zayn asked in others.

“What’s wrong?” Zayn asked in confusion.

“What’s wrong? This woman had been cursing others like crazy the whole way! She had been manically saying, ‘Zayn is mine! Zayn is mine! Zayn is mine! None of you can snatch him from me! Whoever dares to snatch him away from me, I will end my life!’ Tell me, if she is not insane for saying such a thing on the streets, then what is she? She kept smashing at cars when she saw one! She was even holding a stick in her hand. When someone drives their car over, she will hit the car like crazy! The windshield of that car in front was smashed up by her!”

Zayn was speechless.

Zayn was speechless.

"It was fortunate that there was nobody in this car other than the driver. The driver had just turned in and did not see her, so because the driver could not avoid in time and the driver was afraid of crashing into the people in front, the driver had no choice but to turn the steering wheel sharply towards the curb. In the end, she still would not let the driver go, and chased after it like a mad dog. She knocked into that concrete barrier after being hit by the car. After that, she died on the spot."

Zayn was speechless. He was Tessa's? She actually kept saying that? It seemed that she was truly insane
