Before Sebastian answered, Aino took the lead and said, "Good! I agree!"

Chapter 1848

Maysun was speechless

Aino looked at Maysun sweetly. "Miss Maysun, I agree for you to go out with my dad."

Maysun was speechless. She did not expect it. Could the little girl, who was still cursing her for being a mistress earlier on, suddenly have a change in her nature at that moment? She actually directly agreed for Maysun...to go out with Sebastian? Even Maysun did not nature at that moment? She actually directly agreed for Maysun...to go out with Sebastian? Even Maysun did not dare to say that she wanted to go out with Sebastian. Instead, she just said that she wanted to join Sebastian in mourning for Old Master Ford.

'What did the evil little girl have in mind? She must have a whole mind full of evil ideas! She was as vulgar and lowly as her mother! No wonder why Mister Ford and Madam Ford wanted to make this child disappear. She was indeed so vicious! Maysun sneered.

No matter how vicious she was, she was still just a six-year-old girl. Could she be more scheming than an adult woman? Oh, yes! Maysun had heard from Rose earlier on that this six-year-old little girl was originally abducted by Holden, but she came running back on her own in the end. It seemed that she had run from the place where she got out of the car and first went back to her kindergarten, then she ran back home from the kindergarten. Perhaps this little girl still had not found out that the distance between her house and the place where she got off the car to buy cotton candy was actually very close. What she did was the cleverness of someone who was full of herself. 1

Maysun remained calm and composed. "Thank you, Aino. Actually, you have misunderstood me just now. I am just a friend to your Ford family, and both our families have been friends for generations. Your great-grandpa is also like a grandpa to me. Therefore, I should be here to mourn together with you and your father. As for me going out with your father..."

Maysun stopped her words mid sentence and did not continue anymore. She secretly glanced at Sebastian, but Sebastian did not look at her at all. At that moment, Sebastian, who was bowing his head in front of Henry's casket, was deep in his thoughts. In Maysun's eyes, he was immersed in his own world. In fact, at that very moment, Sebastian was truly immersed in his own world. He heard Maysun coming to tell him that she wanted to join him in mourning for Henry. That made Sebastian recall in an instant what happened seven years ago.

Seven years ago, Sebastian had arranged his mother's funeral service by himself in this very same Ford Residence. At that time, his father, Sean, did not even show his face. Sean was abroad to keep Sebastian's stepmother, Rose, accompanied. Sebastian's mother, on the other hand, had died alone in the hospital. Before she passed away, the person who took care of his mother the best was Sabrina. When his mother was still alive, she liked Sabrina the best, and the most beloved person that Sabrina could rely on at that time was also his mother. |

Back then, Sabrina wanted to come and see his deceased mother, but Sebastian did not let her come. Sabrina did not manage to see his mother one last time before she was buried. At that time, Sabrina was truly Grace's daughter-in-law in every sense. Besides, Sabrina was carrying Sebastian's child. However, he could not mourn for his mother together with Sabrina.

Seven years later, someone in the Ford family passed away again. The deceased was the oldest person in the Ford Family, and Sebastian was his only grandson. Theoretically speaking, Sabrina should be here together with Sebastian to mourn Henry in front of his casket. However, Sabrina was not around. Instead, a woman who had almost no relations with him at all wanted to mourn with him.

Sebastian really wanted to ask this woman, "Do I know you? What is my
