

Chapter 1853

"I did not seduce Sebastian, and I did not snatch Sabrina's man like you said. You heard it yourself. It was this little who had asked me for a favor! I am Aino's friend and I am also the Ford family's friend. I was invited here by Mister Ford and Madam Ford! Sebastian is now mourning in the room where the wake was held. I am responsible for taking the little girl to Alex sneered. He was very pleased that Sabrina had such a daughter who was gifted in acting. At that moment, Alex suddenly figured something out. Ever since Sabrina had been taken away by Holden, Sebastian kept an even closer eye on Aino. If Sebastian did not agree to it, then it was not possible for Aino to follow Maysun out all by herself. When Alex thought about it, this should be a strategy that both the father and daughter had discussed. If Alex guessed it correctly, then the father and daughter were collaborating with each other to put on a show as a double act. It was a show performed to fool the other parties, who were their enemies.

"I'm sorry," Alex apologized with a deep voice.

"Mister Poole! Please don't be such a macho man in the future. Not everyone could tolerate you like Miss Lily. You hit and curse her, and you even abandoned her. I am not Miss Lily. You don't need to judge with your prejudiced view," Maysun said sadly.

Alex instantly became alert when Lily was mentioned. That was right! Maysun must have been brought over by Lily. Otherwise, how would Maysun know how he had treated Lily in the past?

"Where is Lily Parker?"

Alex asked at once.

Maysun sneered. "Why? You're already married and have a child now.

Miss Lily also did not disturb you any more. Are you still not planning to spare such a weak woman like her?"

At that moment, Aino glared at Alex as if she was fighting against the same enemy as Maysun. "Uncle Pool, you're a grown man. You can't hold a grudge. I have also seen it with my own eyes that Miss Lily no longer disturbed you anymore. She is also here, and she even helped my grandma to greet the guests who came. I think Miss Lily is now very well-behaved. Uncle Poole, you can't hit Miss Lily again anymore"

Although what Aino said sounded like she was criticizing Alex, he could clearly tell that the little girl was passing information onto him.

What she meant was that Lily was also at the Ford Residence.

'Great!' Alex laughed coldly in his heart. That woman's ability to survive was truly strong. She was already beaten up into a pulp by Alex and was tortured half to death by Holden after she got to his side. Still, she was actually able to return alive. Also, she could even join hands with Holden to create such a huge commotion. She truly was admirable! At that moment, Alex suddenly really wanted to see how big of a ruckus could Lily create!

"I will obey the teachings of the little child named Aino Scott. As long as Miss Lily is well-behaved, I will definitely be polite to her. Besides, she is my childhood friend. I only treated her that way because I was just utterly exasperated back then."

Aino smiled. "That's right!"

However, she continued, "Uncle Poole, you should go in first. My dad would then have someone to accompany him. I am going out with Miss Maysun to play."

Alex nodded. "Alright."

After that, he asked curiously, "Where are the two of you going to play?"

He was still concerned about the little girl's whereabouts. After all, she was only six years old.
