Hmph! I'm not telling you!

Chapter 1854

Alex was speechless. 'This little brat!'

Maysun, who was at the side, covered her own mouth. She wanted to laugh, but she did not dare to do it. After all, she was terrified of Alex. In fact, the entire Kemp family were very afraid of Alex. Therefore, Maysun was even more eager to take advantage of this chance to get Sebastian into bed and become Sebastian's next wife.

This was because in both South City and Kidon City, only Sebastian was able to contend with Alex. If Maysun could truly marry Sebastian one day, then the first person she wanted to bring down was Alex!

'Hmph!' Maysun had thought about that in her heart, but on the surface, she did not even dare to laugh. She watched gently as Alex went through the entrance of the Ford Residence. After that, she said to Aino, "Aino, where do you think we should go now? Do you want the Ford family to send us a car or...?"

She had a car, and it was a very extravagant sports car that was in bright red. It was just parked right outside the Ford Residence. She wanted to take Aino out to play in her own car very badly. Maybe if she got upset, she could just throw Aino at some place that she could not return home. Aino was very willful anyway. This was something Mister Ford and Madam Ford had already seen. However, even though she wanted to take Aino out in her own car very badly, Maysun was also smart enough to not say anything explicitly.

Instead, it was Aino who said, "Miss Maysun, I want to sit in your car. Can I?"

There was a pause before Aino pointed at a car parked outside the Ford Residence that has the most dazzling red color. "I'm guessing that the most expensive-looking car must be yours, right?"

Maysun immediately smiled. Her vanity was greatly satisfied. "You're right."

"Woo-hoo! I am going to be taking a ride in Miss Maysun's sports car!"

Aino danced in joy.

Maysun smiled. "Let's go. I'll take you to collect the car."

"Alright." The little girl was very happy. She skipped as she followed Maysun. From time to time, she would even make gestures on top of her head with her little hands. At a glance, she truly looked like a rabbit. Nobody would have noticed that the way Aino looked as she skipped and jumped like a rabbit was actually a signal she was sending to her Uncle Kingston, who was sitting in a car in a corner.

Kingston was bent over with laughter when he saw the way Aino was behaving. After he was done laughing, Kingston suddenly felt heartbroken. That was a child who had Kingston had to secretly follow them from behind. On the other hand, Maysun who was driving in front of Kingston did not notice that there was a car tailing her back at an appropriate speed. At that moment, Maysun was still immersed in excitement. She even took her phone out to text Lily when the car happened to be at the stoplight because it was inconvenient for her to make a call in front of Aino.

[Lily, let me tell you some good news!]

Lily, who was on the other end, also replied particularly quickly. [What good news? Dont tell me that you've already climbed into bed with Sebastian now? If it's this news, then I truly am very jealous! But, I'm still happy for you! But, Maysun, if you are in bed with Sebastian, then you must show me pictures of both of you doing the nasty! Well, if it's convenient, you can record a video for me to watch! That's most enjoyable!]

Maysun was speechless. She truly did not expect Lily would send such a text. She blushed for a moment, and then she sent another text to Lily. [Lilly, what are you saying? How could you say it...so explicitly?]

On the other end, Lilly still replied quickly. [Ha! Was it explicit? You're
