

TPOL chapter 1456 - 1460

Xyla smiled and turned to Shamus. "So how's that, Mr. Wilson? You believe us, right? Now that the contract is signed don't try to pull any tricks on us! I'll bring someone along to take over Mercy Hospital in a week." Shamus looked as if he had lost his entire family, an exceedingly sorrowful look now adorning his face. However, he didn't want to admit defeat this soon. "We're not even sure if the cancer cells in her body have descended to the normal rate! You can't see that with the naked eye, so she must go through a checkup first."

"Looks like you're not satisfied with the outcome, huh? Go ahead and check then!"

There were many hospitals in Michigan that could check the density of cancer cells in one's body. Hence, the results were out within two hours. It would seem that everything was normal.

This indicated that Alice's cancer was completely cured.

Thud!

Shamus fell on his butt. He just couldn't believe it.

"That's not possible. How is that possible? How could such a miracle pill exist? No man has ever found a special cure for cancer in this day and age!" Xyla replied. "Nothing's impossible. If you do think that some things are, you simply lack knowledge." After pausing for a brief while, she continued. "You have one week! If you don't cooperate with us, I will let you taste the Stoermer family's hidden power. I'm sure you wouldn't want to see that, right?"

The color drained from Shamus' face.

He was sad that his precious hospital would now be in someone's hands, especially after all the time and effort that he'd put into managing it.

However, he knew that he didn't stand a chance against the Stoermers of Michigan, hence all he could do was accept their terms. Just as Alex and the others were planning on leaving, Shamus called out to them. "Wait, that pill. The rejuvenation pill, I mean. Can you please give me one?"

Alex shook his head. "A rejuvenation pill can help prolong one's life for ten years. It can even make one's body turn ten years younger, and it can cure hundreds of diseases. Do you really think I'd just give it to you like it's some dollar store candy?"

Shamus froze.

"Right... Why would he give such a miracle pill away that easily?"

"If this were put up for auction to the international market, this would most definitely cause an uproar for being able to cure stage four cancer alone. The rich of this world would definitely try to get their hands on it.

When that happens, it would be auctioned at an unimaginably high price.'

"Then, can I ask what you'd be doing to the hospital once you've taken it?"

Upon receiving Shamus' question, Alex pondered and said, "I'd give it to someone else, someone who would actually put it to good use. The hospital would then be renamed as Ganoderma, managed by the one and only Immortal Doctor so everyone in America shall receive proper treatment."

At first, he didn't really put much thought into this. All Alex wanted to do was crush Shamus.

Now that he thought about it, this was a very suitable gift for Cheryl. As a doctor herself and a descendant of the Immortal Doctor, it was a waste for her to stay cooped up in the current Ganoderma. Moreover, with the help of both Guilherme Extraordinaire and the miracle doctor of California, she should manage a much more advanced hospital that would suit her current status. “Immortal Doctor?” Shamus was shocked to his core. “Is... Is it really the actual Immortal Doctor? The lord of all medical clans... Could it be that the Immortal Doctor was reborn?”

Alex took a glance at him. “Looks like you know quite a lot, huh?”

Shamus replied. “If it really is the actual Immortal Doctor, then feel free to manage my hospital. I would be willing to hand it over with no questions asked.”

Xyla smiled coldly. “We’re not managing your hospital. You lost it, remember? This is Alex’s hospital now.”

Upon hearing that, Shamus’ face flushed from embarrassment.

He was really willing to work under the Immortal Doctor, which would help him build his reputation as an oncologist. However, due to the lost bet, none of this would be relevant to him. His name would be tattered. “I... May I stay at the hospital? I can be a normal doctor. All I ask is to be able to work in the same hospital as the almighty Immortal Doctor.

I’m

also more than willing to share my oncology research with the hospital.”

Seeing just how genuine Shamus’ eyes were, Alex could sense his passion for medicine. He nodded. “Fine, but ask her yourself later on!”

With this, the situation was settled.

Alex called Cheryl. “Cherry, I got a hospital for you. How does becoming dean sound like to you?” However, he didn’t expect Cheryl to cry for help. “Alex, me, and Phoebe are in trouble! Can you come over? We're at Seven Mile Springs right now."

Chapter 1457

After being freed from the suffering of her illness, Alice regained her health. She even looked younger than she was before she was diagnosed.

This was because half of the pill's effects were used to cure her cancer, which was why she only ended up looking five years younger. However, Alice was already grateful enough that she was alive, let alone this.

Kenneth also knew that the rejuvenation pill that Alex gave his wife was priceless. One couldn't possibly measure its worth using money.

Such a miracle pill was limited, the one and only.

A while ago, an extremely wealthy European man was diagnosed with cancer. He had announced that he was willing to hand over half of his wealth to anyone who could cure his cancer. In the meantime, some patient media workers helped him tally up his net worth. In the end, they found out that half of his wealth was worth hundreds of billions of euros.

It was a pity that he still died in the end.

Kenneth immediately showed his gratitude. "Thank you, Mr. Rockefeller. Don't worry. I will not break my promise. Even if I have to walk through hell and back, I won't dare to hesitate."

"Good!"

"Mr. Rockefeller, would you like to have lunch with us?" Kenneth asked again.

However, Alex put his phone away and bid his goodbyes instead.

He turned to Xyla. "Help me follow up on the matters regarding Mercy Hospital. Something urgent cropped up, so I have to go now!"

Without letting Xyla reply, Alex activated his spiritual power and rushed out of the room as if he had turned into light, disappearing from everyone's view.

Kenneth widened his eyes. "I didn't expect Mr. Rockefeller to be so good in Feather Walk! My skills are nothing compared to his!"

As for Shamus and the others, their mouths were agape, unable to swallow the shock they experienced on this day.

"How could someone move with such great speed? I can't believe it!"

said one of the experts. "If he were to participate in the Olympics, he will win every competition!"

Kenneth buffed. "With Mr. Rockefeller's power, participating in the Olympics will be bullying those kids. Even I wouldn't attend such competitions. Those are for normies."

In other words, it just meant that they were far from ordinary.

At that moment, the door to a private room at Seven Mile Springs got kicked down. Cheryl and Phoebe currently had a staredown with a group of men.

"Don't you dare do anything to us!" Cheryl growled. "My friend is on his way, and he's very powerful. None of you stand a chance against him. Hence, don't make such a mistake."

Earlier today, Cheryl and Phoebe were in the mood for a hot spring bath, which was why they came by. Since they have booked a private room, the two were very revealing bikinis. Cheryl was wearing a white one, whereas Phoebe was in black.

With entirely opposite colors, the two looked even more alluring than usual.

However, when a waiter walked in with a bowl of fruits, a man who happened to pass by noticed the two. He felt as if his breath had been sucked out of his chest. After that, he even barged into the room to "befriend" them just because he was drunk.

Seeing this, Cheryl slapped his face, dislocating his jaw. To her demise, this only made the situation worse.

The man’s friends barged into the room as well, extremely furious. They demanded that the two sleep with them if they wanted them to leave.

“Powerful? How powerful?”

A half-naked man with only a towel wrapped around his waist started making extremely lewd gestures to Cheryl, eyes fixated on her lower half. He chuckled, “Is he as powerful as I am? Why don’t you come and see for yourself? Then you’ll see who’s more powerful.”

Chapter 1458

Cheryl was so angry that her face turned pale. She wanted to call Guilherme out for help, yet she didn’t like the old man to see the two of them in bikinis. On the other hand, Phoebe started yelling.

“Waiter! Waiter!!!”

However, one of the chubby men smiled and said, “You can stop yelling. No one will come, no matter how much you yell. That’s because I own this place. You hurt my precious customer, so we’re just here to negotiate. It’s useless calling for the waiters.” “You’re the boss? And you’re letting these people do anything as they please? Are you trying to close this business down?” “Ah, how spiteful! But I’m not doing anything of that sort. Aren’t we negotiating here, huh? You hurt someone in their group, so they’re suggesting you compensate. I think that’s fair, isn’t it? It’s another matter if you agree to those terms or not, though... You can negotiate further, like how long you’d have to sleep with them per session,” the chubby boss said with a sly chuckle.

Cheryl was so furious that she had no words to say. ‘How does such a shameless boss exist?!’

Phoebe said coldly, "Fine, so be it, then. You'll be taking responsibility for what you just said. I'll make sure that I'll have your business closed by tomorrow."

Despite that, the chubby man replied nonchalantly, "Alright, I'll wait!"

He then turned to the topless man and said, "Mr. Xenos, these two women are too hot tempered, so I can't do much as a middleman. You guys would have to negotiate on your own now! Don't worry. I will ensure absolute privacy. No one would be able to interrupt the negotiation."

After that, he backed out of the room.

It was evident that the chubby boss was implying that the private room would be closed out, so these men could do anything they wanted there without getting caught.

The topless man chuckled. "Alright. We'll be going deep into this negotiation, else we wouldn't really know how deep we can go. So... Which one of you would like to go first?"

He stared at Cheryl. "I think I'll start with you. I think you should be pretty "deep", eh?"

Then, he ordered his bodyguards to pin Cheryl down. Since his bodyguard was a strong fighter, Cheryl knew that she couldn't fight him with her current strength and skills.

"Stop!!!" Phoebe screamed. "I'm warning you. If you dare to lay even a finger on her, you'll regret it! Do you even know who her boyfriend is? He's a Divine Constabulary elder! None of you here could defeat him even if you went at him all at once!"

"An elder of Divine Constabulary? Oh my, I'm so scared!" the topless man cackled. He couldn't care less. "It's best if he doesn't come today,

'cause I'm taking his girlfriend right now. If he comes, all he can do is watch me toy with his girlfriend. That's too cruel now, isn't it? But I just... I really can't help it!"

Another guy said, "So what if he's an elder? Do you know who he is? He's Lord Commander's grandnephew! Do you even know who Lord Commander of Department Six is? Alright, you peasants are oblivious to the world, so it's normal if you don't know who I'm talking about. So let me have you know that governors in Michigan would have to grovel before him! Do you believe me?"

"Nope!" A man's voice chimed from behind them.

When Cheryl and Phoebe heard the voice, they were overjoyed.

"Alex!"

"Rockie!"

Suddenly, Phoebe realized that her voice sounded slightly whiny, as though she was Alex's girlfriend instead of Cheryl.

Hence, she immediately added. "That guy wants your girlfriend to sleep with him! Beat him up right now!"

"Sleep with him?" Alex raised an eyebrow and patted the topless man on the shoulder. "Really?"

The topless man frowned angrily. "What's it to you?! Are you that elder from Divine Constabulary? Do you know who I am? Lord Commander of Department Six is my granduncle! Don't tell me that you don't know him. Not only did your girlfriend offend me, she even hurt my friend! That's why I'm demanding them to sleep with us. Any opinions on that?"

Alex shook his head. "It doesn't matter if I have any opinions. I just think that your little brother has something to say. Your little brother has probably stopped working in general. There's no way for it to recover to how it was before."

Chapter 1459

“What little brother?”

“What do you mean by stopped working?”

The topless man was Gill Xenos, Grant’s grand nephew. He had been extremely arrogant just because he had such a powerful relative. He would do whatever he pleased, no matter when or where he was.

Since Department Six was such a powerful organization, he indeed had the backbone to behave so cockily, not to mention that his granduncle was the head of this organization as well. Moreover, even if he did mess up, his granduncle wouldn’t need to help him out one bit. Others would be willing to help him handle the situation without hesitation.

Hence, this caused him to think that he ruled the world. Thus he thought he had the right to barge into someone’s private room at the hot springs and demand them to sleep with him.

“Gill, he... He’s talking about your... Which is like...” One of Gill’s friends whispered while pointing at his lower half. Gill was enraged. “You f*cker! Yours is the one that stopped working!

How dare you curse me? I’ll just have to break yours so you’ll no longer be a man... Oh no, you’d have to wait, though. Watch me as I toy with your girlfriend. Let’s see if yours has any reaction to that.” Alex chuckled. “I don’t care. You’re not going to have a reaction in the first place.”

That was because Alex had used his spiritual power to destroy the nerves around Gill’s crotch when he patted him on the shoulder.

Since it was silent and didn’t cause any pain, Gill himself hadn’t noticed anything wrong with his body.

“Bullsh*t!”

“I’ll let you watch right now! I’ll make sure you know what it feels like to be self-conscious!”

Since Gill was extremely arrogant, he really didn’t care about any consequences at this moment. However, he suddenly realized that something was wrong. He couldn’t feel anything down there. He couldn’t even tell if it was still there, let alone a reaction. It felt as if all senses around that area had disappeared into thin air.

“What... What’s happening?” Gill was starting to panic, and he frantically grabbed his groin.

To his demise, it felt like he was just grabbing a ball of dough. More importantly, he didn’t feel anything when he touched it as well, as if it wasn’t attached to him. Alex asked, “So? I was right, huh? Did it stop working? Hmm, I wonder how you can go around toying with women in this state? Women would probably be disgusted by you, huh?”

Gill was still panicking. He continued to stare at Cheryl’s back, fantasizing about every racy scenario he could, hoping to promote blood flow to that area. However, he was left absolutely disappointed. He didn’t feel anything down there at all.

“Xenos, are you okay? What’s wrong with you?” one of his underlings asked. “I... I don’t feel anything. I can’t even feel if it’s attached to me or not!

What do I do? How could this happen to me? I wasn’t like this before!”

Gill’s underlings froze.

One of them asked, “Xenos, are you sure that it was working fine before?”

“What the f*ck is that supposed to mean?”

Alex replied for the underling, “He’s asking if you’ve had this problem since you were young. Were you born impotent?”

Gill raged. “Of course not! I’ve been pretty normal up till now!”

Alex smiled. "Then you should be careful. If it just stopped working out of nowhere, that means something in your body has changed. You should head to the hospital for a check-up and cure this if you can. Don't waste any more time, else all there's left to do is chop it off and become a woman instead."

Gill was terrified. Goosebumps sprouted all over his body when he thought about such serious consequences. His mood to stay longer had disappeared completely. He then immediately ordered someone to send him to the hospital for a checkup.

The remaining people left as quickly as they could too. Gill might not fear the Divine Constabulary, but his friends still did.

In a matter of minutes, Alex, Cheryl, and Phoebe were the only ones left in the room.

Chapter 1460

Cheryl hugged Alex tightly. "If I knew that we'd be bumping into such people, we definitely wouldn't have come here! The owner of this place is such a jerk too! He let those people do whatever they wanted! If you didn't come in time, I would've been..."

Alex then slapped her back, causing her to yelp in pain.

"Hey, why did you slap me?"

Alex replied. "As punishment! You literally have the Immortal Doctor at your disposal, yet you don't use him when it's needed! With your current power and skills, along with the Galactic Protection Amulet, why were you even scared of those bodyguards?"

"I... I... I'm just not used to it!"

Phoebe spoke up, "Yeah! Cheryl's a girl, you know? It's only natural for her to be anxious. How could you slap her? And you didn't even hesitate!

I'm going to make you pay for this! I'm going to slap you."

“Yeah! Phoebe, slap him for me,” Cheryl echoed.
Phoebe smiled and placed her hand on Alex’s face. “I’m really going to slap him, alright?” “Mmhmm! He was the one who slapped me first!” Cheryl didn’t even turn around as she continued hugging Alex tightly.
Just then, Alex froze when he saw Phoebe lean in and kiss him on the lips. The kiss lasted at least ten seconds as well. Although Alex’s mind was in a blur, he still felt oddly excited. Cheryl asked, “Did you slap him?”
Phoebe smiled. “Mhm! Your boyfriend has tough skin, so I was worried a slap wouldn’t work. If anything, my hand might end up hurt! That’s why I pinched him hard instead.” As she said this, she pinched Alex’s lips harshly and winked at him. ‘This woman... is playing with fire!’
A few minutes later, Alex stood at the side, watching the two gorgeous beauties in their black and white bikinis. Their bikinis perfectly accentuated their curves, making them look as if they were succubus. Noticing Alex’s flustered and excited expression, Phoebe suggested. “Cherry, we haven’t really had a good time here. It’s not like we came all the way here just to be interrupted by some b*stards. It’s not worth all the trouble! So why don’t we go back into the hot spring? This place is closing tomorrow anyway.” Phoebe was a woman of her word.
Moreover, that chubby man was inhumane, so she definitely wouldn’t let him off the hook this easily. “But if those people come back...”

“Why are you even scared? Isn’t your boyfriend here? We don’t have to worry about a thing if he’s here, right?” “Alright, then!”

After that, Phoebe headed into the hot springs first. As Cherry walked in slowly, she turned around and asked Alex, “Do you want to come in too?”

“I... can I?” Alex could feel his heart beating out of his chest. “I don’t mind,” said Phoebe. “The spring is pretty big anyway. It’s not like it won’t fit one more person. Just pretend you’re swimming at the beach or something... Or could it be that you can’t resist yourself after seeing my beautiful self in a bikini? Am I the pretty one, or is your girlfriend the pretty one, huh?”

Alex raised an eyebrow. “Of course it’s Cheryl. You’re far behind in comparison.”

After saying that, he took his clothes off and hopped into the hot spring as well. He never had the time to come to such places, hence he figured that it was an excellent time to relax and enjoy himself.

More importantly, he had such beauties by his side right now.

Although the hot spring wasn’t exactly large, a square shaped pool measuring a mere five by five meters, the water was milky white since they had added something into it. Hence one wouldn’t be able to see what was happening underwater.

This went directly in Alex’s favor. In just moments, Alex placed his hand on Cheryl’s thigh. The woman was flustered, yet she didn’t stop him. After quite a while,

Alex could feel a foot sliding up and down his leg.

Initially, he thought that Cheryl was finally making a move on him; hence he grabbed her leg calmly and pressed it onto his body...

Unexpectedly, Cheryl suddenly stood up and said she wanted to get some fruit for herself, walking to the side instead.'Then... Whose foot is on me now?'
