

Chapter 29

Arielle responded with a shocked expression. "Oh, really? You actually have the concept of limits?"

"You!"

"I'm surprised that someone who has resorted to using a venomous snake to attack others understands what the word 'limit' truly means," Arielle said with a smirk. "I'm so sorry, Shandie. I'll be more careful next time, okay?"

Just when Shandie was about to explode with rage, she somehow managed to read between the lines. She took a few steps back and asked, "You knew it? So it was you who put the snake in my room?"

Arielle responded with a grin. "Oh, calm down. I had to send it back to where it belongs. It's yours, isn't it?"

Shandie widened her eyes and threatened, "That's enough! I'm going to tell Dad!"

Arielle nonchalantly nodded. "Sure. Go ahead and tell Dad about the snake. You're the one who released it in my room first, remember?"

Shandie, who was about to dial Henrick's number, froze instantly.

Damn it, she's right. If I were to report her to Dad, then he'll know what I did to her!

Chapter 29

No. I can't tell Dad about this.

Shandie's eyes glowed with a towering rage. "Go to hell, b*tch!" She charged at Arielle and tried to scratch her face.

She had been wanting to disfigure Arielle's face for a long time!

Yet unexpectedly, just when Shandie's hand was about to reach her face, Arielle grabbed her wrist and twisted it hard. In a snap of a finger, Arielle dislocated Shandie's wrist.

Shandie's wrist was so weak that Arielle broke it with just a minimal force.

Arielle looked at her icily. She did not sympathize with Shandie at all.

Cindy has slapped me once, and I swore I'll not allow her and her daughter to do that to me anymore.

Shandie was in so much pain that she almost fainted. She could not even move her wrist at all.

Shandie took a deep breath and was still in shock. She could not feel a thing with her hand at all.

Did she just snap my wrist?

Shandie gave Arielle a terrified look. She's much petite than I am. Where did she find the strength to do that?

Don't tell me she knows martial arts?

Shandie instantly stay away from Arielle. She turned around and shouted for help. "Mom! Arielle broke my wrist!"

"What?" Cindy was stunned. She did not know what happened between them as she was busy looking after the luggage.

The moment she saw how pallid Shandie's face was, she shoved the luggage aside and ran toward her daughter.

"What happened?"

Tears rolled down Shandie's cheeks. She pointed at Arielle with another hand and wailed, "She broke my wrist!"

"What?" Cindy could not believe what she heard, and she did not think Arielle had the strength to do that.

She then went up and touched Shandie's hand gently, causing the latter to scream in excruciating pain.

Upon seeing that reaction, Cindy finally believed Arielle had broken Shandie's hand.

She instantly picked up her phone and was ready to report Arielle to the cops.

I'm calling the cops. There's no point telling Henrick about this. He'll side with Arielle because of all the benefits he got from her.

Chapter 30

Arielle acted as if she was not aware that Cindy was reporting her to the cops.

Soon, a cop stationed at the airport arrived alongside the medical team.

Arielle seized the opportunity and walked up to Shandie, then grabbed her by the arm when the latter was not paying attention.

Once again, Shandie roared in pain. She pushed Arielle away and screamed, "Mom! She did it again!"

When Cindy was about to give Arielle a slap on the face, the cops arrived. Cindy had no choice but to stop. "Get her! She broke my daughter's hand!"

The cop took a glance at the innocent-looking Arielle and wondered if she was capable of doing that.

"Doctor! Please examine this lady to see if she's all right," the cop turned to the medical team and said.

Shandie pointed at her injured hand and said, "Take a look at my hand. It hurts so badly when I move."

The doctor got up and did a thorough examination. After some time, the doctor knitted his brows and took several glances at Shandie and Arielle.

"What's wrong, doctor?" Shandie asked, "Is there something wrong with my hand?"

Cindy gasped and exploded. "Nab this woman right now!"

With a deadpan expression, Arielle said, "Can you please show me some respect, Aunt Cindy? You are aware that I can sue you for defamation, right?"

"Defamation?" Cindy pointed at her and raised her voice. "How did I defame you? You broke Shandie's wrist!"

Arielle raised her brows. "Please watch your words. Let's see what the doctor has to say."

Cindy panicked upon seeing how calm Arielle was.

But with all the evidence pointed against Arielle, Cindy believed there was no way she could deny what she had done.

You are going to jail, Arielle!

Cindy immediately asked the doctor, "So how is her hand?"

The doctor gave Cindy a disdainful look and answered icily, "Is this a joke? You think we have nothing better to do but to solve your family dispute?"

Chapter 30

Cindy froze for a moment. "What do you mean?"

The doctor ignored her and turned to the cop. "There's nothing wrong with her hand. I have to go and attend to the other patients now."

Both Cindy and Shandie were stunned.

What? How is that possible?

Shandie tried moving her hand, and oddly enough, her wrist did not hurt anymore.

She exerted more force on her hand and realized she could move it freely again.

"How... how come?" Shandie looked at Cindy in disbelief. "Mom, I think there's nothing wrong with my hand now..."

Cindy touched her hand, and Shandie did not scream like how she did earlier anymore.

Cindy heaved a sigh of relief at first before rage seared through her again. She gave Arielle a sullen glare and asked, "What on earth have you done to my daughter?"

Arielle said in an aloof voice, "I should be asking you this question. How could you file a false police report? I feel like you're doing this to air our dirty laundry in public."

Shandie roared furiously, "I didn't file a false report! You broke my wrist! Stop acting like you're innocent!" She then turned to Cindy. "Mom! Look at her!"
