"Guess we are even.." I said turning on the shower whilst laughing. He joined me in the shower and once we were done and dressed up in matching long-sleeved shirts and sweat pants

"Come on Mrs. Black let's go tell everyone the good news.." I smiled at him as we intertwined our hands.

"Good news family.." Zane began to say once we were done eating breakfast, "Scarlet and I—" he held out his hand helping me up so that I was standing next to him.

"We are getting married.." Everyone gasped while I showed off my ring.

"Wow, that is wonderful congratulations!!" Mom was the first to get out of her seat and hug us.

"Congratulations son I am proud of you.." Dad said

Everyone else congratulated us and they all seemed happy but Mom was the happiest.

"Oh my gosh, when will the wedding be? We have to arrange a wedding dress, the venue, print out the cards, invite guests and—"

"Mom relax.." Zane chuckled.

"When will the wedding be?" aunt Melissa asked.

Zane looked at me. I didn't say it but I didn't want the wedding to be anytime soon I wanted it to be after all things with Ceros ended but I wasn't going to say it if he wanted it now then I won't object.

"We haven't discussed yet but I am sure Scarlet will prefer after the whole thing with the war is over right.." Zane said looking at me I am glad he understood me without me saying a word.

"Thank you.." I said hugging him.

"You are welcome. I want our wedding to be perfect not where we are standing on the alter but your mind is somewhere else. I know just how worried you are about this war.." he said cupping my cheeks.

"You really are amazing I love you.." I said kissing him as the others awed.

"I love you too.." he said after we pulled apart.

" so now since you both are now fully mated and planning a family I guess it's time to hand over the pack. What do you think Dean?" Dad said.

" yeah I think it's time that we retired.." uncle Dean said.

"So you guys ready to take over?" Dad asked looking between Zane and me and Aaron and Bloom.

" yeah, why not. Brook and I are ready what about you guys?" Aaron asked. I kept on looking at Zane waiting for him to make a decision.

" yeah I am ready are you cupcake?.." he asked me.

" yeah I am ready too but I think the official ceremony should take place after you know the war and everything if that's okay with you.." I said.

" yeah, it's okay. It's fine as long as you guys take over I am happy.." Dad grinned.

 one month later ***

It's been a month since Zane came back! one hell of a month!. I haven't had any peace because at night it's always me and Zane making a baby in the morning Mom pampering me with lots of food and asking if I was feeling okay or anything.

Zane had even bought me a pregnancy test numerous times but it always came back negative.

Every time it did I smiled internally truth be told I didn't want a baby not yet we still had a war coming and I was a little bit scared that if my baby came into this world he would be in danger and would leave early. I guess fate was on my side. I have tried to explain this to Zane and Mom but I have become the bad person. They even think that I am on the pill but luckily I assured them and even went to the doctor for a check-up.

Zane would get disappointed each time the test came out negative especially since he so badly wanted to be a Dad. He used to admire Aaron a lot when he saw him lovingly caress Bloom's baby bump or when he was playing with Aaron Jr.

It's also been a month since aunt Melissa, uncle Dean, Aaron, Bloom, and BeBe went to Africa to visit aunt Melissa's Mom and her sister now it's only me, Mom, Luka, Zane, and Dad.

I was in my office trying to find a lead on where I can find Zane's sisters. Just in case I become pregnant we have to be prepared. But every time my research always comes blank.

Who am I kidding how can I find someone I know nothing about?

ADVERTISEMENT

I have tried to ask Zane what happened to his sisters and why nobody ever talks about them but I always get the same response "I don't want to talk about it" and every time I asked he always ends up waking up in the middle of the night from a nightmare and then muttering an "I couldn't protect her, I couldn't save her."

I sighed how will I find them? Maybe the reason I wasn't even getting pregnant was because of worrying too much. I think I need a time-out.

"Asuncion.." I said to my secretary after she came into my office.

"I am out for the day if there is any paperwork send it to me via email.." I added grabbing my bag

"What about sir, what should I tell him?" she asked.

"Tell him that I am at home okay I need to rest.."

"Yes ma'am.." she said

I went out of the building to go to my car when I saw Luka roaming around.

"Luka.." I called he smiled at me coming over. Maybe I will just ask him about Zoey and Zara.

"Hey, Angel how are you? Did something happen? Why are you leaving early? Is it the baby?" he asked and I sighed always asking about a nonexistent baby this was really getting on my nerves.

"Am fine can we talk.." I said motioning for him to get into the car.

"Okay?" he said unsure he got in and I got in as well.

"What happened to Zoey and Zara?" I asked. He stiffed.

"I need to go talk later.."

"No!" I said, "you are not leaving until you tell me! A war is coming up and I want to know where they are so that I can find them and bring them back.."

ADVERTISEMENT

"That won't be possible.." he sighed, "I don't know where they are.."

"Tell me what happened to them maybe I can help find them.." I said softly I could tell he was on the verge of crying.

"It happened nine years ago in Italy. I didn't even know they were my and Zane's sisters till on the day before their sixteenth birthday where Aunt Raima revealed that they both were my sisters.

I was really happy. The only reason I liked staying in Italy instead of here was that I wanted to be with them both and the thought of knowing they were my sisters was beyond amazing. Until of course when nighttime came.

I kept on moving on my bed unable to sleep I was only 12 by then all I wanted was to sleep in Zoey's room and so I got up.

I knocked on her door but no response though I could hear some sound come from the room.

I asked if she was okay whilst opening the door only to see her crying and naked covered in blood. I grabbed the blanket covering her up and asking what happened but she didn't say it was like she was mute.

I got up going to my aunt and uncle's room where I banged on the door telling them what I just saw they both came out and went to her room. After they saw her aunt began crying while uncle called my parents. Zara woke up too and they were all crying

They told me to go to bed I tried to protest but it was no use.

The following morning Mom and Dad came they were furious with Aunt and Uncle Dad even told Aunt that they were no longer family because she allowed it to happen to Zoey even after Aunt begged for forgiveness Mom and Dad just took us and brought us here..." He sniffed tears falling freely while mine did too Zoey was rd that's terrible.

I got the box of tissues handing it to him so he could wipe away the tears

"After we came here Mom tried so hard to make Zoey talk or even eat but it was no use she was always locked up in her room until one day a month later Mom found her laying in her room naked and paed out with her wrist sliced.

They rushed her to the hospital but luckily she survived and we learned that she was pregnant.

Mom and Dad were devastated. When she woke up realizing that she survived she cried then wrote on a piece of paper that she wanted to see Aunt Raima. Dad called her and the following day both my Aunt and Uncle came.

Aunt went into Zoey's room I don't know what happened since none of us were allowed but when she came out she was fuming in anger and started yelling at

Dad telling him how he failed to protect her because apparently, the man who rd her back in Italy followed her..”

His Scarlet Queen Luna Chapter 52

/ His Scarlet Queen Luna by Milagros Faiyth

apparently, the man who rd her back in Italy followed her even here and he did it ten more times! Dad was broken and devastated that he failed to protect her..” oh my goodness I can’t believe this! she was abused ten times and no one knew about it that was terrible.

“After Aunt Raima left the weeks flew by with Mom sleeping in her room and trying to get her to talk or even eat but her attempts were infertile.

Zara hated them both Mom and Dad, she hated them with a paion, she would always eat in Zoey’s room and whenever she saw Mom and Dad she would go the other way. Until one day two months later where finally Zoey agreed to get out of her room. Her baby bump was now big..” He sniffed wiping away his tears.

“We all sat down having breakfast but she wasn’t eating instead she began crying,

Zane asked if she was okay but she shook her head running up to her room he was about to run after her when Mom told him to let her be but he insisted and after a few minutes Dad got up telling us that she was in trouble. We all went into her room and as usual, she was crying sitting on her bed with only a comforter covering her. Zane was furiously pacing around the room with his knuckles bloody.

He told us everything about how he found the man about to r her again and how he beat him up but the man disappeared into thin air.

Zoey took a razor and slit her wrist again but Zane was quickly by her side healing her..” oh no she really did go through a lot.

” once Zoey saw that her wrist was better she furiously got up from bed naked might I add then went into the bathroom while we all stood there wondering whether to go in or not.

After thirty minutes she came out with her beautiful red hair cut really short. Shorter than mine such that you can’t even comb it. She was wearing a towel and her skin was red. She went into her closet wore appropriate clothes then came out and wrote on a paper telling us that she wanted everyone to gather around for a family meeting.

Once everyone had gathered she wrote again on the paper that she knew who it was that did it to her. Dad asked her who but instead, she removed her shirt revealing some kind of a tattoo that was covering most of her back and stomach. And one word made us all angry.

Mate.." I gasped!

"You mean her mate did it to her?" I asked in disbelief.

"Yes, that bastd.." he spat, "Dad was about to arrange a search party for him but Zoey stopped him writing down telling him that he wasn't human and even if they tried to catch him they would never find him.

She left the meeting while everyone just sat there wondering what to do with her mate.." Zoey did go through a lot finding out that your mate was the one r you no wonder she tried to kill herself despite being pregnant.

" Months paed by again and she gave birth to a beautiful red-haired little girl who she name Charlene.."

"Where is the baby?" I asked.

" I am getting to that.." he said,

"After the baby turned a month The following morning we heard a scream coming from her room I rushed in to find her wide awake frantically looking around checking Herself.

I asked her what was wrong but instead, she said my name pulling me into a hug as I cried it was the first time in months that I heard her voice.

She kept on mumbling a "You are okay" while kissing my cheeks. moments later Mom, Dad, Zane, Zara, and everyone else walked in

"Mom dad.." she said hugging them both while Mom cried hearing her call Mom.

She told them she was sorry and she had to leave.

We asked her where she was going but she didn't say instead all she said was that war was coming and she needed to prepare if we were going to win.." Zoey knew about the war???

"She left the room going outside to the garden where a mysterious door was planted there no one knew where the door came from but it seemed that Zoey knew.

She told us that she was going to find her mate and when the time comes she will come back and help in the war.

Dad told her that if she decides to leave he will never accept her as his own and she agreed to tell Zara to take care of her baby and to keep the family together with that said she opened the mysterious door then vanished door disappearing too. Zara went back inside packed all her belongings picked up Charlene then left breaking all ties with us since then I have never seen them. After they both left I asked Mom and Dad to take me to a boarding school in Italy that is why I never lived here. I only came back when I heard that Zane had left and I also felt that it was time to let the past go though I miss my sisters very much.." he sobbed.

I pulled him into a hug dating his back.

"Life is so unfair sometimes.." I mumbled while I just held on to him letting him pour out all his emotions and pain.

"Bang! bang! bang!.." the banging on my window broke us apart I quickly wiped away my tears Luka doing the same turning around to see a furious Zane standing there. Was he angry because I was hugging Luka?

"I hope you got the information you needed to find my sisters I will just leave.." Luka said getting out of the car I watched as he disappeared into the building.

I looked at Zane who was still furious.

He opened the door to my car pulling me out then hugging me really close saying mine mine mine.

"What were you both talking about?" he asked breaking the hug.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Just some stuff don't worry about it.." I brushed him off.

"Scarlet Lynn Reyes no secrets remember you are going to be my future wife at least let me know what is going on.." he said

"It's nothing really he was just telling me about your sisters.." I said he nodded his head.

"By the way, I went to your office and Asuncion told me that you are going home are you okay Is something wrong? is it the baby.?" he frantically asked making me giggle.

"Zane we've talked about this remember there is no baby yet. I just feel a little headache and tired.." he sighed opening the car door and I got in.

"I will take you home.." he said driving away.

once we reached home—

"You guys are back early is something wrong? is Angel sick? Is it the baby?" Mom asked checking me up. I sighed

"Mom there is no baby yet I am fine.." I said going up the stairs. This baby drama was now getting out of hand they expect me to get pregnant as if I am some God who will immediately pop out a baby when they asked for it. Plus I have plenty to deal with especially the fact that a war is coming and I have to find Zara.

I removed my shoes laying on the bed the headache intensifying

"Cupcake are you sure you are okay?" Zane asked sitting beside me I didn't even realize he had entered the room.

"Yeah, I am fine don't worry about it.." He lay next to me pulling me to him his scent engulfing me and I was out like a light.

My phone ringing woke me up I yawned grabbing it from the nightstand.

I looked over at Zane's side of the bed and it was empty.

"Hello.." I answered the call.

"Hi, Mrs black I have some lead on where Zara might be just like you ask.." Mr. Nuñez said and I smiled

"Great I will be there in a few minutes just texted me the address.." I said hanging up a few minutes later he texted.

Mr. Nuñez: Room twenty-seven hotel Elizabeth.

I got dressed in more comfortable clothes then grabbed my phone and purse.

"Where are you going.?" Zane stopped me.

"I am just going to get something in town I will be back later.."

"In town? Cupcake this is like 7 pm I am going with you.." he said.

"No no it's fine Zane really I will be fine.." I kissed his cheek going out to my car. I know I know I shouldn't have lied to him but I wanted to do this alone.

After twenty minutes I finally arrived at the hotel.

"What are you doing here?" I turned around to see Luka coming out of a room with some girl I narrowed my eyes at him

"Bye handsome hope to do this again later.." she kissed his cheek and left

"Really Luka?" I asked in disbelief.

"Well a guy gotta have some fun plus it's not like I have a mate or anything so tell me why are you at a hotel and alone without my brother?" He asked his turn narrowing his eyes

"It's nothing I just came to see someone.."

"Is that someone by any chance a guy?" he asked.

"Hey does everyone know you sleep around.." I asked trying to change the subject...

"Hey does everyone know you sleep around.." I asked trying to change the subject

"No one knows and I plan it staying that way and don't even think about changing the subject.."

"Mrs. Black you are here.." Mr. Nuñez came out of nowhere.

"He is the one you came to meet?" Luka growled making him flinch

"relax Luka it's not like I am cheating on your brother or anything you know me better than that.."

"Right this way ma'am.." Mr. Nuñez said leading me to the room Both me and Luka entered the hotel room.

After some more discussions and him giving me information that she was in London, I was finally relaxed. Since Zoey already knows about the war she will come on her own no need to pursue her.

"Thank you so much, Mr. Nuñez.." I said shaking his hand.

"It was my pleasure working with you Mrs. Black.." We shook hands and he lead us to the door when I suddenly felt dizzy and light-headed.

"Hey, are you okay?" Luka asked holding on to me.

"Yeah I am fine I just felt dizzy that's all.." He opened the door and we both walked out with him still holding me when a loud thunderous growl stopped us dead in our tracks.

Zane was standing there looking furious I quickly removed Luka's hand from my waist.

"Zane it's not what it looks like—" I tried to say but he just shook his head now

Giving me a look of betrayal.

He turned around walking away real quick

"Zane wait.." I said running after him ignoring the dizziness

"What!" he asked once we were both outside the hotel Luka following behind. I was breathing heavily I never got tired this easily don't know what is wrong with me.

"It's not what it looks like..." I said whilst trying to catch my breath. He forcefully grabbed my hand shoving me into his car then went to the other side got in and drove off home.

"Please list--"

"Don't!" he growled, "I have had enough first you lied and now this.."

"But I--"

"Enough just don't.." he silenced me.

As soon as we reached home, He opened my car door holding my wrist really tight dragging me inside the house.

"Zane you are hurting me.." I winced in pain.

"Zane what's going on you are hurting her.." Dad said he forcefully let go of me and I was about to fall on the floor when Dad caught me.

"Are you okay?." he asked.

"Yeah.." I nodded my head.

"What's going on Zane what happened.?" before Zane could respond the front door opened and Luka came in

"You," Zane growled he was about to punch him but I quickly got between them.

"Zane stop please.." I said

"So now you are defending him?" he scoffed

"WILL YOU PLEASE TELL ME WHAT'S GOING ON?" Mom ended up yelling.

"Yes, Mom I want to know too please ask your son and your favorite little Angel what they were doing in a hotel room.."

Mom and Dad Gasp!

"Angel is this true? Where you and Lucas in a hotel room?"

"Yes, Mom but--"

"See she accepts I can't believe you cheated on me with my own freaking brother how long have you been doing it huh TELL ME DANG IT!! " He yelled making me flinch.

"Zane Luka and I have--"

He growled going up the stairs

"Zane listen to me.." I said wanting to go after him but Luka stopped me.

"Let him be for a while he will come around.." he said and I sighed.

"Angel, what's going on between you and Lucas?" Dad asked, " And why were you both in a hotel room.?"

"Dad I have nothing to do with Luka. I consider him as my brother and I have no intention of cheating on Zane with him or any other man. I was just doing some investigations and the person I hired to work for me texted me telling me that he had found some information. I went there to meet him and that's when I bumped into Luka who offered to stay with me. I promise I have nothing to do with him except being siblings of course.." I wanted to say more but the dizziness returned.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Are you okay?" Dad asked

"Yeah I am fine just feeling dizzy that's all I think I will go lay down good night.."

"Wait have your dinner first.." Mom said.

"No Mom I don't feel like eating.." I said holding my head.

"Angel you are not okay. Should we call the doctor?" Dad said.

"No, it's probably just stress Dad I am fine good night.." I said dragging myself to my and Zane's room.

"Zane.." I said as he was pacing around the room angrily. He didn't even spare me a glance instead he went and sat on the balcony I sighed removed my clothes and laying in bed with only my underwear.

The headache and dizziness were intense until I fell asleep.

I woke up feeling nauseous. I quickly got up going over to the bathroom puking all of the food I never ate. After I was done an intense wave of hunger hit me like I haven't eaten in a week. I groaned feeling all the strength run out.

I splashed some water on my face then went back to the bedroom only to find the bed empty Zane was nowhere in sight. I sighed he is still angry. I checked the time and it was 1 a.m

I dragged myself downstairs straight to the fridge checking to see if there was anything that I could eat. I found some leftover dinner from last night ate it but still feeling hungry

I salvaged the food pantry until I found a box of corn flakes "this will do.." I said warming up the milk and making a bowl for myself and eating the whole thing but still hungry. I have no idea why all of a sudden.

I ended up grabbing a bowl of banana ice cream and after eating halfway—

"Angel?" I heard Mom's voice

"Hmm.." I responded Looking at her. She had a worried look on her face.

"Why are you eating ice cream at 1 a.m?"

"Because I am hungry.." She looked around seeing the box of cornflakes, the empty plates that had the leftover food from last night's dinner. She came closer to me placing her ear on my belly while I wondered why. A smile broke from her lips.

"You are pregnant."

"Mom I'm not pregnant.."

"No Angel you are! I can hear a heartbeat."

"Please Mom just let this baby thing go okay! I'm not pregnant now if you excuse me I would like to finish this thank you.." I said stuffing myself with more ice cream making her sigh. After I was done I went back to bed.

Morning came and I woke up feeling like I just got hit by a truck. I was feeling dizzy and the nausea was getting worse.

I quickly went to the bathroom and after emptying all the food I ate, I looked in the mirror only to see myself all pale and terrible with my hair all over the place

I took a shower wore comfortable clothes then went downstairs for breakfast.

I opened the fridge only to see the delicious bowl of banana ice cream looking at me begging me to eat it.

I smiled grabbing the bowl and sitting on the island then eating the ice cream.

"Damn this is so good.." I muttered to myself as the creamy banana goodness melted on my tongue.

"Good morning Angel.." I heard Mom's voice. I looked up to see her grinning at me.

"You want me to get you some more food? How are you feeling? I hope the baby isn't giving you trouble.." she said.

"Mom no baby yet remember.." I said to her. I looked around to see Dad was also smiling standing next to me and so was Luka but Zane was in his own bubble.

"Zane.?" I got up leaving my bowl of ice cream. He ignored me getting up

"stop!" I said to hold his hand.

"Don't touch me.." He said through gritted teeth

"Why are you doing this to me?" I said my tears threatening to spill don't know why I have become a cry baby.

"I'm not doing anything to you miss Scarlet Reyes this is all your doing.."

"I didn't--"

"Stop you already confessed about being with my brother yesterday so no need to say more. just leave me alone okay.." He was about to walk away but I held him.

"Zane please listen I have nothing to do with Luka I only love you.."

"That's a lie Scarlet we both know it. I saw you! his arm around your waist coming out of that hotel room. First, you lied to me about going to get something but it turns out you were going to see my brother.."

"No!" I shook my head, "I admit I lied but I have nothing to do with Luka I promise.."

"Sorry but I don't trust you.."

His Scarlet Queen Luna Chapter 54

/ His Scarlet Queen Luna by Milagros Faiyth

"You know what?" I said sniffing, "This is the problem you don't trust me. You've never trusted me even way back.."

"That's because you've never given me a reason to trust you. You always lie to me and we can never work if all you ever do is lie.."

"Don't act as you've never lied to me before.." I interrupted, "You never told me you had a brother much less two sisters all you've done is lie to me too Zane.."

"Is this all the reason why you cheated on me? Because I lied?"

"I didn't cheat on you don't you get that!" I yelled, "if I did then you would have felt it but you know what? you are just impossible to deal with and you are right we are never going to work if we keep things from each other.." I removed the ring giving it back to him.

"No Scarlet don't.." Mom said, "please you can't do this.."

"No Mom.." Zane said, "it's for the best she doesn't trust me, I don't trust her either I want a relationship that is really where trust exists.." he said my heartbreaking as tears began spilling out I turned around to look at him as he looked me in the eye. His eyes held so many emotions but only two stood out the most love and betrayal.

"I Zane Micheal Black reject you—."

" stop!" Mom yelled pulling me away.

"You both can't do this you can't throw away your relationship like that. If you reject each other you both will die and what about the baby.?"

"There is no baby mom.." I sniffed, "because the only person who is supposed to make me pregnant doesn't trust me! It's for the best if I can't be with him then I am good as being dead.." I turned and looked at him, " please continue.." I said

"ENOUGH!!" Dad's voice thundered through the house,

ADVERTISEMENT

"You both are making a mistake! you are acting like three-year-olds! the mate bond isn't something that you get to serve each time you argue. You both need to talk and sort things out.."

"No!" I shook my head, "it's over between us Dad. I have always loved him he should realize that fact by now but I am tired I can't deal with this anymore. He will never love me back. No matter how much I try..." I said running upstairs straight to my room. I lay on my bed crying my eyes out. It was hurting so much. After everything after loving him all my life, I get nothing out of it only hurt. This is so unfair I sobbed hugging my pillow. After crying for I don't know how long I felt sleep catch up to me but Another wave of nausea hit me and I quickly ran to the bathroom puking out all the ice cream I just ate.

I felt someone hold my hair back and rubbing my back.

"It's okay.." I heard Mom's voice

After I was done I splashed some water on my face then grabbed the toothbrush brushing my teeth while she stood there neither of us saying anything.

"Angel we have to talk.." she began.

"Mom if this is about Zane then I don't want to hear it.." I said going to my room and sitting on the bed

"No, you will have to whether you like it or not.." She said in a matter of fact tone

"Mom—."

"No Angel.." she cut me off, " "you and Zane have lost your minds." She said exasperated.

"Do you think the mate Bond is just some toy that you break whenever you like? You should be more reasonable and sensible you could have ended the life of a child who barely can breathe or think on their own. Did you think about what would happen to your baby if you both rejected each other?"

"Mom—"

ADVERTISEMENT

"No.." she growled making me flinch, "I can hear the heartbeat whether you wanna accept it or not you are very damn pregnant and this drama between you and Zane has to stop. You need to stop lying and starting trusting and telling him things.." She said her voice rising a bit. Mom has never talked to me like this before and it was making me tear up.

"Please stop yelling.." I said my voice in a small whisper while I wiped away a few tears. I heard her sigh.

"I'm sorry I didn't mean to yell but you have to understand, your relationship will never blossom if you lie to him. I am not taking sides or anything because I know that he lied to you as well. If there is only love and not trust in a relationship then it can never work." This time her voice came out soft.

"I know that it will be difficult for you to start trusting or telling him things because you have gotten used to doing things alone but you have to try. You are no longer alone now you have your mate by your side and a baby on the way. You both will have a family of your own very soon but for that family to grow in love and care it will need to start by you both trusting each other.

Angel a baby needs both parents I know they are some who don't but don't deprive your baby of experiencing a father's love I know how it feels not to grow up with a father because I lost mine when I was seven though my mom died when I was four and I know you know that kind of feeling too. There is always this emptiness where you even wish that your father was there for you.." I sniffed she was right I always wished to have a father before I even found out that I was a half Angel half goddess, I always wished that my Mom would get married so that I can have a father figure in my life. If she's right about me being pregnant then I won't allow my baby to grow up without its father.

"You and Zane have to fix things it won't be easy I know that because your Dad and I have been through a lot in our lives we have been through countless battles but our love for each other kept us strong. A relationship is never perfect there are always ups and downs but what will help you both stay together is not the mate bond or love but your ability to trust that your other half has your back and will be there for you even when things go West.." She kissed my forehead wiping away some of the tears. A knock on the door had our attention

"Come in.." Mom, she said smiling at me.

"Are you done?" I heard Dad's voice both Mom and I got up from the Bed our eyes snapping towards him as he came in with Zane behind him.

He looked at me as I looked at him our eyes momentarily locking.

"Remember what I told you.." Mom said breaking me from the eye lock.

"You both need to fix things.." she said looking at us, "And no rejecting each other! if I find out I will smack you in the head.."

"Yes, mother dearest.." I said hugging her as she hugged me back. My eyes found Zane's again as he bore into mine. We both stood there looking at each other until I decided to break away only to realize that Mom and Dad had left the room. Before long Zane was standing in front of me. I looked up to see him staring at my lips then my eyes.

ZANE pov

I watched as she disappeared up the stairs. It broke me but I knew it was for the best it was bound to happen sooner or later. Scarlet and I were probably never meant to be I sighed placing the ring in my pocket and then running my hands through my hair.

"You are crazy and foolish you know that.." Dad scolded while Mom followed after Scarlet

"Dad please.."

"No.." he growled at me, " don't Dad me! someone has to knock some sense into you. What were you thinking? Was rejecting her the only solution because she lied and cheated on you? Zane like she said if she cheated you would have felt it you are a werewolf you would have felt pain if she did.."

"Well, what was I suppose to do Dad I saw them both together with his arm around her waist coming out of a hotel room, and Dad we both know that a girl and a boy can never just book a hotel room only to talk.." I said glaring at Lucas.

"Dad you are right he is crazy.." he said making me growl

"Don't growl at me big brother. If I were to touch Scarlet I would have done it the moment she walked into this house but I didn't you know why? because I respected you I would never betray you like that I consider her as my sister and she considers me as a brother. I can never touch something that belongs to you and to tell you the truth the reason why I went into that hotel room was because of you.."

" me??" I asked

" Yes, you. She went to meet a guy and when I saw him I decided to follow to make sure she was safe and not being touched by another man."

"What was she doing with him?" I asked, "And how did you end up at a hotel?"

"What was she doing with him?" I asked, "And how did you end up at a hotel?" Lucas didn't say anything he looked nervous...

"Don't lie to us Lucas tell the truth.." Dad said sternly.

" Okay fine.." he said, "I went there with a girl.." He whispered the last part but we heard it anyway.

"You what?" Dad growled at him.

"Well I am a guy and I have needs plus I am unmated anyway after I came out of the hotel room with my 'date' I saw Angel in the same hallway and that's when the guy showed up and I accompany her. The man had no intention of touching her I could tell because as soon as we walked in, he started telling her about what he found out and that Zara was in London.."

"Zara?" Dad mumbled.

"Yeah she has been worried about this war and so she wanted to find her just in case she became pregnant and didn't want to fight.."

"So you have nothing to do with her?" I question.

"No bro nothing. I would never touch what's yours unless your car and other things of course but not a mate.." I sighed I was truly being a fool.

"Yeah about time you realized.." Juan sneered.

"Well look who's talking?" I mumbled while he just blocked me off.

"You need to fix things with her and start trusting each other.." Dad said and I sighed.

"yeah you are right Dad but I think it's too late.."

"Too late? So what? You will just give up and let your baby grow up without a father.?" He question while I looked at him confused.

"You really are stupid.." he mumbled, "seriously you've been staying in the same room and you haven't noticed a change or the fact that there is a heartbeat.."

"I was a little carried away I guess didn't notice.." I said sheepishly but then widened my eyes.

"I am going to be a Dad?" I asked

"Oh great, he has now realized it.." Lucas said.

"I am going to be a Dad!!" I said again as the information sunk in. Dang, it , I can't believe I was going to reject her especially now that she is pregnant! I need to make it up to her I need to apologize hell I need her in my life.

"Come on you need to fix things.." Dad said dragging me upstairs. Once we were in her room My eyes never left her all I wanted at this point was to kiss her and just tell her how much I love and don't wanna lose her!

We both stood there neither of us making a move I was so needy I wanted him and judging by the way his eyes kept changing color he wanted me to. But was I ready?

Was I ready to just forget about the fact that he almost rejected me?

Was I ready to forgive him and fix our broken relationship? And most importantly was I ready to let him be a part of our baby's life?

He took two steps closer to me now his breath fanning my face as his eyes kept on darting from my lips to my eyes.

My body was aching for him and I was fighting to keep control but it was a losing fight as I found myself closing the distance between us and kissing him hungrily he didn't waste a second as he kissed me back the same way. He placed his hand behind my thighs lifting me while mine was busy tugging his hair.

I felt him softly lay me on the bed his hands ripping down my shirt but he suddenly stopped getting off of me both breathing heavily.

I wanted to cry as I saw him quickly walk towards the door. He probably didn't want me.

I sat up my eyes downcast fighting the urge to cry but when I heard the click of the door locking my eyes shot up as in only seconds he was on me finishing off ripping my clothes.

He made love to me all the while whispering how much he loved me and didn't want to lose me. How he wanted to spend his entire life with me and how he wanted to be a part of our baby's life.

After that magical moment and he pulled away I found myself sleep catching up to me.

"I am sorry I love you!" I heard him whisper as I got pulled into the dreamland.

I woke up feeling blissful this is the most beautiful sleep I have had in a long time.

I fluttered open my eyes only to find myself alone in bed. I sighed sitting up as the door opened to reveal Zane coming in with a tray of food.

"Glad to see you awake. I was actually coming to wake you up.." He said and I smiled as he placed the tray of food on the table sitting beside me.

"You look really beautiful.." He said making me laugh.

"Really that's so cheesy

Who looks beautiful when they just wake up?"

" You..." He said a smile on his face making me blush.

"Anyway—" He took the tray of food then placed it on his lap.

" I talked with Dad.." He began, grabbing a fork full of pasta bringing it closer to my mouth feeding me. I looked into his eyes. They held so much love and regret, "He made me realize that I love you and you are too important to let go.." he grabbed another fork full feeding me.

" You and our baby are important and I want you to always be a part of my life and I just want to say I am sorry I accused you of cheating on me. Sorry I almost rejected you! I'm sorry I didn't listen to you please forgive me.." He said his eyes holding the truth. I placed my hand on his.

" I am sorry I lied to you too..." I said

" I should have trusted you I am sorry.."

"No, I should have given you a reason to trust me. I have lied to you so many times and I am really sorry.." I said tears spilling out again.

"Hey don't cry.." he placed the tray on the table, pulling me into a hug.

"I lied to you as well and I am sorry to let's start over yeah.?"

He pulled away handing me the ring.

"No secrets and no lying.." he said and I nodded my head.

"No secrets no lying.." I repeated.

"I love you.." he said pulling me into a hug as I sniffed hugging him back

" I love you too.."

"Come on eat up now Both you and the baby needs to be healthy.." I smiled placing my hand on the nonexistent baby bump.

"Yeah.." the thought of becoming a Mom was absolutely amazing.

" Thank you for giving me a chance and thank you for the pup.." He said grinning at me.

But my face faltered, If I am pregnant then how will I fight and I have no idea where Zara is.

" what's wrong?." Zane asked.

" I am just worried. Now that I am pregnant I won't be able to fight and I don't know where your sister is and the war—"

"Shhh.." he stopped me by placing his finger on my lips.

"Do you trust me.." He asked I nodded my head.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Then trust that I will bring my sister here. I have been looking for her aswel and I know where she is.."

"Really? and you never told me?" I asked.

"That was before when we were keeping things from each other you also never told me you were looking for her.."

"That makes sense.." I mumbled

"no wonder you were so adamant about us having a baby because you knew where Zara was.." He smiled nodding his head.

" I can't believe we are going to be parents.." I said looking at my flat stomach lovingly.

"Yes, cupcake. We are going to be parents.." He placed his hand there and I placed mine on top of his enjoying the warmth.

"Now eat your food.."

"No." I shook my head getting on his lap then kissing him whilst my hands trailed over his chest trying to find the bons.

"Baby.." he stopped me, "Not now you have to eat first.."

"No, I don't want to.." I said kissing him again pushing him so that his back was on the bed and I was on top of him I started kissing his neck while trailing my hand on his chest.

"Baby stop.." He said breathlessly. But I didn't stop until he flipped us over so that he was now laying on top of me.

"I want you to please.." I said pulling him closer.

"Baby you have to eat first it won't be good for the baby if you don't eat.." He said out of breath I could tell he wanted me to.

"Fine.." I mumbled pushing him away then laying on the bed covering myself with the comforter from head to toe.

"Baby.." he said removing the comforter

"Go away.." I said burying my face in the pillow.

"Don't be like this sweetheart, my love, my cupcake.." he pushed my hair on one side then kissed my neck.

"I promise I will give you what you want but you need to eat first you need to have some energy.." He said moving me so that I was facing him, "Eat first then I am all yours okay.?" He nuzzled his nose on my mark making me moan.

"Okay.." I said. He picked up the tray of food feeding me.

 ZANE POV **

"Zane.." I heard her whimper

"what's wrong?" I asked looking at her. Checking to see if she was hurt.

"I need you.." she whimpered out then I remember what Aaron told me about pregnant women being needy.

She pulled me kissing me hungry and I had no choice but to give what she wanted because a happy mama means a happy pup.

After we were done and showered we both went downstairs when-

"Bloom.." She squeaked practically running.

"Angel.." I heard Brook say and soon she was running too.

"Cupcake; sweetheart careful.." me and Aaron said at the same time running after them. They both met halfway giggling and hugging each other after giving me a mini heart attack these girls are too much.

"Oh my gosh, I heard everything that happened congratulations you are finally going to be a mommy.." Brook said.

"Yeah Bloom I'm so happy.." my Cupcake said happiness and excitement clear in her voice.

'Wait..' she said, "where is BeBe I can't see her?"

"She found her mate.." Brook said.

"She found her mate?" I asked, "and she remained in Africa..?"

" no we came with her but her mate came to pick her up from the airport probably to spend some time with each other.."

"Ohhh.." I said leaving the girls to talk going over to say hi to uncle and aunt then Aaron. After I was done I sat down my eyes on my mate who went into the kitchen with Brook telling each other stories while eating ice cream.

"I heard what happened to you both this morning.." Aaron said snapping me out of my stare.

"You love her so much I am glad you didn't reject her otherwise it would have crushed you both.." He said and I smiled.

"Yeah I was just being foolish I can't believe I was going to just push her out of my life but I am glad I didn't do it either because I would have never been this happy knowing that my mate was pregnant with my pup.." I said.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Yeah, congrats man.."

"Zane!" I heard Brook yell I quickly got up to find cupcake paed out on the floor with blood coming out of her nose.

"What happened to her.." I asked patting her cheeks trying to wake her up. Brook was a crying mess while I was wondering what was wrong with her all of a sudden.

"We were just talking and then she just fell.." Brook cried in Aaron's shirt.

"Aah.." I heard her groan.

"Cupcake are you okay?" I asked helping her up.

"Yeah kinder.." she said.

"I was so worried thank goodness you are okay.." Brook said while I lifted her (Scarlet) up bridal style.

"Where are you taking me?" She asked

"To the pack hospital.." I said in a duh tone.

"Why? I'm not sick.."

"Baby I want to know what happened and why you fainted all of a sudden I'm worried about you.." I said to her as we entered the VIP wing. The doctor was already there just like I told her to.

I placed her on the bed and soon after the doctor began checking on her.

"what's wrong with her? Is she okay and what about the baby?." I frantically asked the doctor.

"both of them are fine although the baby is not growing at a normal pace.."

"What do you mean doctor?" I asked going over to my mate holding her hand.

"You see she is actually three weeks pregnant but it seems she was going through depression or stress that made the baby grow at a slow pace but don't worry she will be fine as long as she is happy and well taken care of.."

" Is that why she fainted and blood coming out of her nose.?" I asked.

" that I don't know alpha but I have to take some of her blood to run tests. Make sure she gets enough rest, eats healthy foods. Once she is happy and well taken care of then the baby will start growing at a normal pace. Now excuse me I have to go run some tests.." she said bowing her head then going away while I just sat beside my mate.

Three weeks pregnant and I am finding out today?

Depressed? stressed? this is too much.

"Are you okay? What are you thinking about?" She asked me.

" you are three weeks pregnant," I said.

" I guess so. How is it that we didn't notice? Is our baby not okay Zane.?" she asked holding my hand her eyes glay, "I don't want to lose him. I don't want to lose our baby Zane.." she sobbed while I hugged her. The thought of losing my pup was scary.

"No baby we won't lose him our baby is strong just like you. He will survive okay.." I said kissing her forehead, "Don't cry cupcake it's not good for the baby.." I said as she sniffed hugging me tightly.

"I love you okay and we will get through this come on let's go home.." she nodded her head and I lifted her bridal style. Going out of the room.

"I can walk you know.." she giggled.

"I know love but you look tired might as well put these muscles to good use.." I said followed by a chuckle while she laughed.

"I am hungry.." she mumbled.

"What's wrong with her is she okay and what about the baby?" Mom asked.

"She is okay just stressed but some rest will do and the baby is okay just growing at a slow pace but as long as we take good care of her the baby will be fine.." I said as we all went back to the house but the surprise waiting for us there was one I wasn't expecting.

* SCARLET POV*

I don't know what happened to me. I was talking to Bloom then all of a sudden I felt light-headed and dizzy but luckily I didn't hurt myself or the baby. But when I found out that the baby wasn't growing at a normal pace I was extremely worried and scared I didn't want to lose him that's why I made a mental note to make sure I don't stress or worry myself. It's going to be hard but for the baby, I am willing to try.

We were walking more like Zane was walking when suddenly everyone came to a halt staring at a beautiful brown-haired girl standing on the front door with two little girls and one boy and an older man.

"Zara!!" I heard Mom, Dad, Zane, and Luka say at the same time.

"What?" I asked looking towards the front door. I can't believe Zara was actually here!!

"Put me down.." I said to Zane who gladly listening while I looked at the lady.

From the corner of my eye, I could see Mom, Dad, and Luka fighting the urge to run to her and hug her probably because she hated them but Zane just stood shocked.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Sister.." He said going closer to her.

"I am so glad you came to thank you.." He said pulling her into a hug which she gladly accepted.

"Let me introduce you to my mate.." Zane said motioning me to go to him.

I went there unsure because the lady Zara didn't look friendly at all. Her face was fiery like she wanted to be anywhere else but here. But the kids and the man she was with weren't as fiery looking as she was.

"This is Scarlet, my mate.." Zane smiled pulling me closer to him.

"Hi.." I shyly said I didn't know whether to shake her hand or hug her.

"Hi Scarlet nice to meet you.." she said in a voice that clearly stated that she didn't like me at all and Zane noticed it too.

"Won't you say hi to Mom and Dad.?" Zane asked.

Zara looked at them with anger clear on her face.

"I didn't come for chit-chat Zane you know that.." she said in a bored tone, "I only came here because you requested for me and because I care about you.." The tension was thought in the air. I was so not liking Zara at all she seemed to mean but anyway you can't judge a book by its cover right?

"At least say hi to Lucas then or try to be a little friendly these people have nothing to do with what happened.." Zane said like she was scolding her,

"Come on Lucas.." he called. In seconds Luka was standing in front of Zara hugging the life out of her and a smile broke from her lips I can't believe she can actually smile.

"Hi baby brother.." Zara said in a much nicer tone.

"Hi, big sis I missed you.." Luka said. I felt something tug on my shirt. Looking down it was a girl with red hair probably about eight or nine years old. She had greenish eyes and totally adorable.

"Hi.." she shyly said to me.

"Hi, Princess what's your name?" I asked her squatting to her level.

"My name is Charlene. Are you my real Mom?" she asked me

"Charlene what did I tell you about talking to strangers come back here.." Zara scolded and I felt pain in my heart. Stranger, she literally called me a stranger!! That's it I totally don't like her.

His Scarlet Queen Luna Chapter 57

/ His Scarlet Queen Luna by Milagros Faiyth

."But mommy.."

"Charlene.." she said sternly making the little kid sigh.

"It's okay princess listen to your mommy.." I said to her and she went back standing near Zara

"Zara please at least be a little nice—" Zane began but she cut him off.

"Are you going to invite me inside or not.?" she asked impatiently. I turned to look at Mom who had tears in her eyes. I can't let her make my Mom cry I have to do something about this.

"Right this way Mrs. Cross.." Zane said not referring to her as sister or Zara. Things were getting pretty awkward. We all went into the house and sat down no one saying anything, not even Aaron Jr was making baby noises. It was dead uncomfortable silence until Zane decided to speak up.

"Is he your mate?" He asked looking at the man.

"Yeah Francisco that's my brother Zane.." she mumbled while Francisco gave Zane a small smile.

"Zane when is the war going to start I can't stay here any longer I hate this place. Especially them.." she spat pointing at Mom and Dad. My anger was boiling how dare she talk to them like that! They are her parents it wasn't their fault.

"Zara doesn't talk to my parents like that.." Zane said angrily

"I can talk to them however I want you don't get to control me it's because of them that Zoey's life was ruined.."

"Don't blame them Zara we both know it wasn't their fault. It was beyond them too.."

"Beyond them?" she scoffed, "you are siding with them because they raised you but they didn't raise me they abandoned me made me feel like I didn't have parents well in reality they were here happily and having fun while I was there in Italy wishing to see my real parents.."

"Zara stop Zane growled lowly at her making the kids flinch

ADVERTISEMENT

"You very well know the reason why they made the sacrifice it was to protect you and Zoey if we stayed in the same place you know what would have happened.."

"Well I don't care and you know what it was a mistake for me coming here! I SHOULD HAVE JUST STAYED IN LONDON AWAY FROM YOU ALL!!" she yelled.

"Don't yell at me Zara I'm Your elder brother.."

"Well brother my foot I don't consider you one.." she said and we all gasped.

"Oh really.." I could hear the hurt in his voice.

"Okay.." he said leaving the living room going upstairs.

"That's it!" I said getting from my sit staring daggers at her.

"You are the most selfish and terrible person in this whole world!!!" I yelled at her

"Angel don't.." I heard Mom's voice.

"No Mom she needs to hear me out.." I said looking at Zara giving her the best glare I could muster.

"What's is your problem huh? do you know how much it hurt these people when they gave you up? They did it to protect you and all you are doing is blame them for something they had no control of.

I have seen Mom she has been sad beating herself up for everything that happen to Zoey and here you are rubbing salt in her wound. It was fated to happen it had to happen to her otherwise you wouldn't even be here alive you hear me!! And that man you just said mean stuff to all he ever did was think about you and try to bring you back home but you just had to be so selfish and childish that you couldn't see things clearly and Zoey? She chose the life she got. She had been given a choice to choose the life she wanted but she chose that one because she wanted to keep you safe and here you are blaming Mom and Dad who had nothing to do with the choices she made and if she were here do you think she would be proud of you know that you were holding on to a grudge? When she left she told you to keep this family together but what did you do you left too. Zoey knew what sacrifice she had to make. To keep you, your brother, and your family safe.

You know what you don't deserve every single prayer mom prayed for your safety you don't deserve this family either. You say they were here happy while you were suffering in Italy well you are wrong! They were never happy they spent their time looking for ways to stop whatever was hunting you down so that you can live here with them and you are talking about suffering? When did you ever suffer in Italy tell me?" I question while she just sat quietly listening.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Aunt Raima treated you like a princess! gave you the love a mother can give! she provide everything you ever wanted but it was still not enough, right? you wanted more. Do you even know what suffering is? No, you don't because if you did you would be thanking these two people for taking you someplace where you would be loved not just dumb you in a dumpster like other parents do.." at this point, I was breathing heavily feeling like energy was draining from me.

"Angel just leave it okay.." I heard Dad say.

" No Dad you and Mom are the nicest people in the world who took me in, cared for me when my mom left me, and here she is blaming you. I am sorry but I had to say I couldn't allow her to be mean to you despite your efforts to keep her safe. I have seen many kids suffer licking the floor but not once did she wear rugs or eat dirt but she is busy complaining about suffering.." Dad sighed.

"Don't stress yourself, sweetheart.." Mom stood up pulling me into a hug.

" it's not good for the baby to come on you have to breathe and relax.." she said.

"No mom I can't just stand by and watch her be mean to you after everything you did for her.."

"It's okay Angel just calm down okay. You are stressing yourself remember what the doctor said we don't want you to lose the baby now do we?" she asked and I sighed shaking my head in denial.

"Then relax okay just calm down. This isn't worth it. It's not worth you losing the baby come on let's get you to bed.." she said leading me towards the stairs.

"But I can't go to bed now I'm hungry.." I said and she let out a small giggle.

"I will bring you dinner okay.." she said. We entered the room and Zane was sitting on the balcony staring into space.

"Thank you Mom I will be fine.." I said to her she nodded then left.

* KAIRA POV*

I was happy to see my daughter after so long but the feeling wasn't mutual since she hated me.

ADVERTISEMENT

After hearing Angel say those things to her I decided to stop her since I could sense she was getting tired and stressed.

I took her to her room but when coming back down Zara was standing at the foot of the stairs crying. My heart broke seeing my girl cry but I couldn't console her since she hated me.

"I'm sorry Mom.." she said pulling me into a hug I was taken aback as a few tears of my own escaped. Mom, she just called me Mom.!

I hesitantly wrapped my arms around her but seeing that she wasn't pushing me away I wrapped them tightly pulling her closer.

"Sorry, Mom I am sorry for everything I shouldn't have said or done what I did. Zane's mate was right I am a terrible person I should have realized that I wasn't the only one hurting but you were too I am sorry she was right I am selfish.."

"No baby, Angel didn't mean it.." I said to her, "she only said it because she was angry. You are not selfish at all you only did what you thought was right. Their child doesn't cry.." I said patting her back.

"I'm so sorry Mom! I am sorry please forgive me.." She sobbed.

" Don't cry baby it wasn't your fault it's okay I already forgave you long ago.."

She didn't say anything as she kept on sobbing on my shoulder, before long Kaden joined in the hug too and so did Lucas.

After a few minutes of crying, she broke away sniffing and I wiped away the last tears giving her a smile which she returned.

"Everything is going to be okay I love you.." I kissed her forehead and she smiled.

"I will just go apologies to Zane too he didn't deserve my cold shoulder and neither did his mate.."

His Scarlet Queen Luna Chapter 58

"Okay baby in the meantime I will prepare dinner for you.." I said she gave me one last hug then went upstairs.

"We have our daughter back Kaden.." I said hugging him while a few tears fell.

"Yes our princess is here.." he said pulling me closer. The front door opening broke us from our little bubble.

"Aunt why are you crying..?" I heard Brea's voice. I looked over to see her standing there with a confused expression.

"Oh my gosh where is Angel..?" she said throwing away her purse and coming closer, "Did something happen to her is it the baby? Aunt tells me why are you crying and where is Angel..?"

"Brea.." I said chuckling, " Angel is fine she is resting In her room and these are happy tears.."

"Phew.." she let out a sigh of relief.

"Who are they?" she asked pointing at Zara's mate and the kids probably hers.

"That's Zara's mate and her kids.."

"Ohh.." she said enthusiastically, "Hi I'm Breana nice to meet you.." she grinned at Zara's mate stretching her hand.

"Francisco nice to meet you too Breana.." he smiled shaking her hand.

"Aww I love kids what's your name prince.." she asked a little boy that looked like a mini version of Francisco.

"I am Nicholas.." the boy shyly said.

"Nice to meet you Nico and you what's your name.?" She asked the little girl who looked to be maybe three years of age.

"Cindy.." the little girl said and I smiled.

"Wow nice name and oh you must be Charlene I have heard so much about you.." she said to Charlene

"Come on let me show you all the toys your Mommy used to play with.." she said taking the kids away lightening up the atmosphere.

"BeBe.." we heard Aaron jnr's voice as he lifted his hands wanting Breana

"Hey, Ronnie you wanna play too come on.." Breana said lifting him and going to the playroom.

SCARLET POV

After mom left—

"Zane.." I went closer to him wrapping my arms around him.

"I am sorry.." I murmured

"It wasn't your fault love I should be the one saying sorry for the way she acted towards you she was being rude and— why are you sweating?" he asked placing his hand on my forehead well I didn't want to tell him just what I told Zara he would be angry.

"Scarlet.." he said sternly he only ever uses my name when I am in trouble

ADVERTISEMENT

"I am just tired don't worry.."

"Tired of you are sweating like this just by walking a few stairs then there is something wrong I need to take you to the doctor.." he said getting up.

"I am fine Zane.." I chuckled at his protectiveness.

"Cupcake you are important to me and all I want is to make sure you are okay please tell me if you feel any pain.." I sighed.

"I don't feel pain my love just tired.." I said placing my hands around his neck burying my face there.

"I was talking to Zara.." he stiffened pushing me away.

"What did you guys talk about?" He asked

"More like what did I say to her?" I mumble lowly but he heard me anyway.

"Please tell me you didn't do anything stupid.."

"Well, I may or may not have insulted her.."

"You what!" he yelled.

"Sorry she was just being mean and I got angry then gave her a piece of my mind you know I couldn't handle someone hurting you plus it was the pregnancy hormones.." yep blame it on an innocent baby typical Scarlet very typical.

He sighed rubbing his forehead

"I am sorry Zane you know I love you.." I pulled him into a kiss so that he can forget all about what I just told him but a throat clearing made us break apart we both looked towards the door to find Zara awkwardly standing there averting her gaze. I didn't want to be anywhere near her she was giving me bad vibes.

"I am sorry.." she mumbled while I stood in shock did she just say sorry?

"I will just go.." I said but before I could walk out she stopped me.

"You were right.." she breathed, "I shouldn't have done what I did. It wasn't their fault and I sorta said all those things to release the pain and sadness.." she said giving me a sad smile, "I am sorry and thank you for making me realize the truth although your words were a little harsh I am glad you said it at least it knocked some sense into me.."

"No, I should be the one to apologize I said some mean things to you which I shouldn't have. You are older than me and I should have shown you respect I am really sorry I just got angry after seeing Zane sad. Hope you can forgive me it wasn't my intention to say it all I'm really sorry.." I said to her my eyes downcast. Even though she was wrong I should have known my place and be a little nicer to her.

"It's okay I was being a jerk we were all hurting and I couldn't see it. I only saw my pain. But anyway I'm glad I met you, but I have one question, how did you know what Zoey told me? Because as far as I know only her and I were in the room and what did you mean by she had a choice and she got what she chose..?" She questioned.

"well I uh I don't know I guess it just popped up in my head??" I said more like asked.

"I don't believe you I know you know something about what happened to Zoey. What I can't figure out is how you knew.."

"She is a goddess half goddess.." I heard Zane's voice. I looked at him as he smiled coming closer and hugging me from behind.

"no wonder she knew. This means she also knows where my sister is right? Please tell me what happened to her and why she chose to live a miserable life.." I looked at Zane who rose a questioning brow at me.

"I know that look. You definitely know something.." He said and I nodded my head.

ADVERTISEMENT

"I had a dream about her last night. I saw everything and why her mate did it. He thought it was the right way to save her but he was wrong.

Ceros was meant to come long ago but her(Zoey's) mate stole her powers and helped Mom lock him (Ceros) up.

That day she left. Was the day she was given a choice. Her mate realized his wrong and gave her a choice to change her fate. Everything that happened to her was going to be erased and she would have a life she always wanted but it also meant that Ceros would be free and would manage to get your powers.." I said pointing at Zane and Zara.

"That's why she decided to let it be and follow her mate to kill Ceros but it's impossible without you two.." I said yawning.

"She did it for us?" Zara questioned. I nodded my head feeling sleepy all of a sudden like someone was forcing me to close my eyes. I lay my head on Zane's chest struggling to stay awake.

"Baby I think you are tired lay down for a bit."

"No.." I shook my head, "I am.." I yawned, "fine.." I said.

Zane didn't say anything instead he helped me lay in bed and as soon as I lay my head on the pillow my eyes automatically closed.

"Scarlet.." I heard a voice I know too well. I opened my eyes to see Mom my Mom Serene standing next to me with a smile on her face.

"Mom.." I said pulling her into a born crushing hug, "Mom it's been 4 years I missed you so much.." I sobbed hugging her close.

"It's the okay baby I am here now don't cry.." she said pulling away then wiping my tears.

"I missed you so much.." I said as she smiled.

"I missed you too baby and you have grown wow.." she said holding my hand and twirling me.

"And pregnant too.." she grinned while I did too.

"Yeah but there was a problem with the baby he wasn't growing normally because I was stressed.." I said my face faltering

"Oh don't worry baby by the time you will be waking up your baby bump will be as it should be.." she smiled at me.

"Wait this is a dream.." I asked

"Yes kinder your body is back home resting while your soul is here.." I nodded my head looking around the place it's beautiful taking my breath away. We were in a beautiful garden that was filled with all types of flowers and roses. It looked so well taken care of and magnificent.

"Wow.." I whispered, "this place is amazing. Where are we anyway?.." I asked looking at her.

"This is my home it's beautiful, isn't it? But I must warn you things here are a little different.."

" Different how?" I asked. She just smiled.

"You will know when you wake up Anyway I will just cut to the chase.." she said her face becoming serious.

"What's wrong mom what happened?.." I asked her getting worried.

"Ceros has escaped.." she dropped the bomb and I looked on shocked.

"Escaped? what do you mean by Escaped.."

"I don't know how he got a hold of your blood but he is free and he left with your Dad.."

"My Dad? You mean my Dad is working for him?.." I asked in disbelief.

"No he isn't in his right mind Ceros turned him into his dragon puppet. I brought you here to warn you he might come any day even right now.

You have to warn everyone.."

"Cupcake please wake up.." I heard Zane's voice.

"Mom, what are we going to do?" I said ignoring the voice.

"Just warn the pack and get everything ready I will come soon okay baby.." she said her voice fading away. I gasped breathing in heavily like I just stayed an hour without air.

"She's awake!!" I heard mom exclaim.

"Thank goodness I was so worried about you never scare me like that again.." Zane said. He looked a mess like he hasn't gotten enough sleep.

"Hey, why do you look like death what happened?" I asked sitting up. I looked down noticing my baby bump was visible too.

"How long have I been sleeping?" I asked him

' three days.."

"What!!" My time to exclaim

I have been sleeping for three days this is bad. "That's not possible I was only asleep for like two minutes.." I said my voice coming out raspy

"Here drink some water.." Zara said handing me a cup of water. I took it and was about to drink when I noticed something strange. Dark magic!!

I looked at Zara who smirked but quickly masked it

"What's wrong cupcake your eyes are purple it only happens when—" With inhumane speed, I was holding Zara by the throat choking her.

"Who are you?" I growled at her while her face turned pale due to lack of air.

"Angel calm down you are going to kill her.." mom said.

"Mom this isn't Zara.." I said putting pressure.

"What's going on— oh my gosh why does she look like me.." Zara burst through the door

"REVEAL YOURSELF NOW!!" I commanded Zara 2.0. she had no choice but to obey because in a matter of seconds she was the person I wasn't expecting to see...

"Jenna.." Zane growled.

I let go of her stepping away while she fell on the ground coughing

"It's over!!" She smirked.

" you are the one who freed him didn't you.." I said glaring at her.

" Yes! you all lose you are all going to—" A sickening snap echoed as I turned my head away from the scene. Zane just bent her head in the wrong way instantly killing her.

"Sorry I got angry, are you okay?" he asked checking me up.

"He is free the war comes anytime soon.." I said slightly panicked.

"I will go call the other alphas for a meeting.." Aaron said going out of the room

" And I will make sure there are enough supplies in the safe house..." Bloom said also following after Aaron.

Mom and Dad left too with aunt Melissa and uncle Dean Zara.

"Please get me out of here.." I said now only noticing that I was in the pack hospital and Jenna's remains were still laying there.

"Right. I will get someone to clean up.." Zane said holding my hand as we walked out of the hospital room.

"Were is Luka and BeBe I didn't see them.."

"Brea went to live with her mate and Lucas I have no idea.."

"BeBe left without saying goodbye?"

"She did you were just asleep. I am glad you are awake.." he said pulling me to his side. I sighed placing my hand on my now visible baby bump trying to calm myself down but Zane pulled me into a hug.

" don't worry baby we will get through this.." He let go of me and we entered the house straight to the kitchen.

"You know me too well.." I giggled.

"Yeah you haven't eaten in three days I'm even wondering how it so happened that the baby is now growing at a normal pace.." I giggled again.

"It was Mom my Mom I saw her she told me that the baby will grow as it should.." I smiled while he stopped making me food looking at me.

"You saw your Mom? what did she tell you?" he asked.

"Dude I'm hungry hurry up.." I whined.

"Or right!" he went back to cooking while I grabbed a banana from the fruit basket eating it. huh, guess I am obsessed with bananas.

I told him everything Mom told me as he placed a chicken breast sandwich on my plate with a gla of orange juice.

After hearing the part where Ceros got a hold of my blood he was furious.

I haven't hurt myself in the last month the only time I saw blood was when.

"Doctor Faith said she was doing a blood test.." Zane growled clenching his fists, "I'm going to kill her how dare she.."

"Zane wait.." I said getting up from my sit and hugging him well as best as I can with the baby bump.

"She is clean I know it's probably Jenna who disguised herself and stole the blood sample don't go killing because you suspect her.." I scolded.

"Fine sorry mama.." he grinned as I playfully slapped his arm well it was kinder amazing hearing him call me mama.

We were all gathered in the meeting room.

Me and Zane, Auntie and Uncle Mom and Dad, Aaron and Bloom, BeBe and her mate Nathan. (She came back today after Aunt told her about the war and good thing with backup), Luka and other high-ranked people in the pack which includes Juanita and her mate Nathan (we had two Nathan's in the room Alpha Nathan BeBe's mate and the other one our top warrior Juanita's mate) We were discussing strategies on how we will deal with this war.

"Okay, so we all know how powerful this threat is and how he can finish the whole werewolf race.." Zane said.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Nathan and William I want you to gather all the warriors and make sure they are all trained and ready to fight. Lucas, you with about 10 trackers and 100 warriors will go North to defend the border we don't know where they will come from .."

"That's not necessary.." I objected, "I know the exact spot they will pop up at.." everyone looked at me in confusion probably wondering how I knew.

"I have been talking to my Mom lately she's been telling me everything even how far along he is from coming here.."

I stood up going over to stand near Zane who had the map.

"Right here.." I pointed at the center of the woods, "The door will likely open from here so we need to station more warriors on this spot that way we will be ready to attack the first thing that will pop out.." Everyone nodded their heads in agreement.

"Okay, then that is where me, Aaron, and our parents will be stationed with about five hundred warriors. Lucas will still maintain the spot since there might also be rogue problems. So Lucas this will be your position.."

"Yes alpha.." he said while Zane gave him a look.

"Since Mom and Aunt are old—"

"I object!!" Mom stood up, "who are you calling old? Just so you know I am young and youthful.." she glared. Zane gulped.

"What I meant was since you both are old and have more experience in fighting, you will be in charge of guarding the safe house door so that none of the enemy troops reach there and kill the women who can't defend themselves. You both will have about fifty warriors with you. It's an important job because we will fight with the assurance that you both are doing a great job by guarding the safe house entrance.." Mom gave him a look that said "I am watching you."

"Since Brook and Scarlet won't be fighting because of their situation—"

"Situation? just so you know I am capable of fighting and I won't hide while you all risk your lives to keep us safe.." I said.

"Yeah, I won't be hiding either.." Bloom added.

"I didn't say you will be hiding.." Zane sighed, "You both won't be fighting but you will be making sure the kids and women who can't fight are well and not panicking. It's an important job too because when those people see that their luna is there with them they will be at ease.." I gave him the look. Important job? I know he only did it so that I won't be anywhere near the war. Well, I am capable of fighting so hiding won't be my job.

"Aaron.." Zane said to Aaron.

"So just like Zane said I will just add a few things. Since both Brook and Scarlet are pregnant, Brea.." Aaron said looking at BeBe, "you and Juanita will be gathering all the women who can't fight and lead them to the safe house while Scarlet and Brook will be handing out supplies and making sure they are okay. But once you are done you both will stay there with them.."

"What?" BeBe objected, "I am a luna I can't be in hiding I should be fighting.."

ADVERTISEMENT

"Brea understands. just look at Brook she can't even stay awake Scarlet too. There are a lot of women and kids who can't fight in this pack. They won't be able to handle it alone especially in their state.." We all looked at Bloom who was fighting the urge to stay awake her baby bump was big too just one more month and the baby will be here.

"But I--"

"baby.." Alpha Nathan stopped BeBe, "Your brother is right it's not hiding if you will be taking care of pack members. Plus that's a duty of a luna she is the heart of a pack. Those people will feel safe and at ease knowing that they are with lunas they won't panic or think that they will get attacked because the lunas will be there to protect them.." She sighed nodding her head.

"And lastly just like Zane said me, him, Alpha Nathan, Uncle, and Dad Will be in the front line leading the battle once it begins. That's all I had to say.." Aaron said sitting down.

"Anyone wants to add something?" Zane asked.

"I have a question.." Alpha Nathan said.

"This man Ceros. I want to know who its main Target is because that person needs to be the one with the most protection.."

"It's actually after the whole family.." Dad said and we all looked at him, "We are the first royals as you all know and the only way to end the entire werewolf race is by whipping us away and not only that But Scarlet there isn't just ordinary and neither is Zane and his sisters. If Ceros gets a hold of their powers he will be undefeatable that's is why we must eliminate him first before he does us. If he manages to wipe us out.." I heard Mom growl, "which won't happen.." Dad added looking at her, "Then the entire werewolf community will suffer greatly.."

"Then putting fifty warriors over the safe house won't be a good thing. I am sure he will want to start by taking away Scarlet's powers first since she is the only defenseless one.." Alpha Nathan said.

"hey!" I said.

"No offense but you are pregnant and it's easy to threaten a pregnant woman. They are always emotional.." I scoffed

" I am not emotional at all and I am powerful enough.."

"Actually Nathan is right. " Dad said

"Ceros can only take Zane's powers if he and his sisters are in the same place. But he can easily take yours. So I and Dean will also be stationed there. With fifty more warriors.."

"Yes, you are right uncle.." Aaron said, "some Zane and alpha Nathan will be the ones on the front line.."

Everyone nodded their heads in agreement and after some more discussions about weapons just in case the enemy troops ain't wolves and can only be killed by knives, daggers, and Bullets we wrapped up the meeting. All the men went to see if everything to do with fighting was prepared and to see the other alphas who will be joining the fight too and bringing back up while we women went to make sure everything was all set and the supplies were all in the safe house.

His Scarlet Queen Luna Chapter 60

/ His Scarlet Queen Luna by Milagros Faiyth

We were all having breakfast together as a family when I noticed the air suddenly change, I could sense something powerful and I knew right there and then that Ceros was here he was near.

"What's the wrong cupcake.?" Zane asked.

"I sense him the war is about to start he is here.." I said slightly panicked. Everyone got up from there sits Zane and Aaron calling for an emergency pack meeting.

"How long till he gets here?" Dad asked me.

" Judging by the way the atmosphere is changing in less than an hour.." I said as we all walked out to the hall where we usually had our meetings. All of us went and stood on the stage as we watched the pack members walk in with worried faces. Murmurs filled the room and we all stood more like they stood while I and Bloom sat down waiting for the entire pack to gather. After they had all gathered—

"Greetings everyone.." Zane's voice boomed silencing everyone, "As you all know we have been preparing for a war for the past two months now. I wanted to inform you all that the war will start in less than thirty minutes.."

"So you all have been given ten minutes to say goodbye to your loved ones and once the ten minutes are done—" Aaron added, I and Brook got up from our sits going to stand next to our mates.

"All the women and kids who won't fight will have to follow me and Beta Female Brooks to the safe house.." I said.

"While all the warriors will take their positions. You are all dismissed.." Zane added the last part everyone began dispersing looking for their loved ones amidst the crowd. I watched as my mates said goodbye to each other. Soon many of these people won't be here and—

"cupcake.." Zane hugged me as tight as he can while of course making sure he wasn't squishing my baby bump.

"I love you okay and stay safe.." He added looking into my eyes.

"I should be the one telling you that Zane please be safe I love you a lot.." I said. He pulled me into a kiss small passionate kiss. He pulled away hugging me for dear life until after a few minutes I pulled away

"He's here.." I said. I wasn't panicking. I knew that once this war starts I will have to be the Luna Queen I was destiny to be. A confident one who is the strength of the pack.

"I love you and see you.." I said we hugged each other one last time then we both went our separate ways.

Bloom BeBe and Juanita were on my side as we gathered all the women and children leading them to the safe house.

The skies began to darken (not too dark that you can't see) and a loud thunderous growl echoed while only a few kids and women had entered the safe house.

Murmurs began to echo as the remaining women began to panic.

"Calmed down everyone.." I said aloud and they all stilled.

"Don't panic, you all will be safe. We are here, now make two lines with kids and women separate and start heading inside.." I said they nodded their heads as told and they began going in.

"Aaaah!!! it's a dragon.." I heard a kid yell and soon everyone was practically running inside the safe house.

I looked up to see a giant dragon with brownish dark skin and silver eyes. Dad! that's the first thought that came into my mind.

Another growl erupted and soon it breathed fire but luckily I acted fast enough forming an invisible shield around me and the women while they ran inside.

The dragon I mean my Dad kept on breathing fire at us and I was slowly losing my strength but I was adamant about keeping the shield up until every single woman and kid was safe inside.

The group that was with Mom, Dad, Uncle, and Aunt began to get shot with poisoned arrows but a loud growl echoed causing an earthquake. It was so intense that I lost concentration and ended up losing my balance, I was about to fall face flat on the ground but someone held me.

I looked to see it was a very handsome godlike man with red hair and silver eyes just like mine.

"Are you okay?" he asked worry marring his face as he helped me get back on my feet then started looking me over to see if I was hurt. That's when I remembered I wasn't concentrating on the shield.

I looked up and the dragon was there breathing fire but somehow there was a shield and a lady with dark hair was helping the women into the safe house, I looked around and could see everyone fighting but no one holding up the shield.

"Who is?" I couldn't even finish my sentence as the man who just helped me pointed to the red-haired man who was fighting off weird-looking creatures.

"He is the one who formed it.."

" Ohh.." I managed to say

"are you okay? please tell me you are okay.." the man frantically asked, "Is the baby okay? do you feel any pain? How many fingers am I holding? two? three? one scarlet please tell me if you are okay.."

"Who are you?" I asked wondering how he knew my name and why he was so worried.

"Well, I will introduce myself later come on let's get you to safety.." He said leading me to the safe house.

"Take care okay be safe.." he said once I was inside then closed the door while I looked on wondering who he was.

I shrugged it off going over to the big hall.

the safe house was a very huge underground house that could hold over one thousand people. It was built in such a way that even if there was a massive earthquake it would never crumble.

It had three separate rooms (with two double beds and a bathroom each), five bathrooms, and a huge kitchen.

the main hall was filled up with over five hundred single beds luckily our pack had about 1500 members and only less than five hundred of those(defenseless pregnant women, kids, and elderly men and women who couldn't fight inclusive) were in the safe house.

I could feel panics all around me as some kids and women were crying. Brook looked tired and in pain, Juanita and shaira were trying so hard to calm them down. Bebe was trying to calm Zara's kids whilst holding Aaron junior who was also crying.

"Everyone calm down.." I said out loud.

"Luna! are we going to be okay? Is this place safe enough? What if that dragon worms its way here?" I heard different panicked voices giving me a headache.

"Calm down.." I said again and they stopped talking, "This place is safe the dragon won't be able to come in here. You are all safe. You need to relax and stay calm—"

"Aah.." a scream stopped me mid-sentence my eyes snapping towards Bloom.

"Bloom are you okay?" I ask

"It's the baby she's coming.." she said panting like she just ran two miles.

"What? now? but it's too early.." I said slightly panicking. Okay, wait it's not time to panic! think.

"Uh BeBe, Juanita take her to one of the rooms.." I said they nodded their heads helping her.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Shaira take care of them.." I said pointing to Zara's kids and Aaron junior.

" Is there anyone here who knows how to deliver a baby?" I asked the crowd.

"I do Luna.." an elderly lady said she looked to be maybe about in her late fifties.

"What's your name ma'am.." I asked.

"My name is Sarah Luna.." she said slightly bowing.

"Thank you please come forward.." she came over and I led her to the room.

Bloom was screaming in pain as she lay on one of the beds.

"Please get me some water and a cloth.." Sara ma'am said Juanita nodded leaving the room. Bebe was wiping away the sweat that was trickling down Bloom's forehead.

"Luna I mean Scarlet.." I heard Shaira's voice I turned to see her.

"Please come you are needed.. "

"Okay, I will be there.." I looked at Bloom who looked to be even in more pain.

"Go I will take care of her.." BeBe said I looked at Bloom one more time then left I hope she will be okay.

I went back to the hall and all the women looked to be in deep distress.

"Calm down everyone everything will be okay.." I said aloud but it wasn't helping as others were crying probably felt the connection with one of their family members break which only meant that they died.

"Hey, everything will be okay.." I said reassuringly to a woman who sat on one of the beds in the hallway.

She nodded her head wiping away her tears.

After doing it to like I don't know how many women and kids I felt tired.

"Angel.." I heard BeBe's voice I looked over to see her running towards me.

"Angel it's Brook she's dying Angel Brook is dying.."

"What!?" I asked in Shock."What do you mean by dying? what happened to her.?"

we both went over to the room. she was laying there breathing heavily.

It's been over 4 hours now and she still hasn't given birth I don't even know if the war is over or not.

"I will just mindlink Aaron.." BeBe said tears falling from her eyes.

ADVERTISEMENT

"No.." I stopped her as I went over to Bloom, "If you tell him, he will be worried and end up coming here which will only lead the enemy here.." I said to her.

"Bloom.." I said wiping away her sweat.

"I can't do it, Angel it hurts I can't.." she said her voice barely above a whisper.

"No Bloom you can do it you will be okay. What's wrong with her?" I asked Sara, ma'am

"She doesn't have enough strength to push out the baby I am afraid if this continues we will lose both of them.." she said slightly bowing.

No, I can't let the baby die I can't let Bloom die either.

I looked down at my baby bump.

"What are you thinking what are you going to do?" BeBe asked wiping her tears.

"I am going to save her.." I said my hand still on my baby bump.

"Please tell me you are not going to do anything stupid that will endanger your baby and yourself.."

"I can't let her die BeBe it will crush Aaron and what about Aaron junior I can't let him grow without a mother.."

"What will you do?" she asked.

"I will take away her weakness and give her my strength.."

"Angel you look tired you don't even have any strength to give.."

"But I have just enough to help her.." I said.

"Luna she is getting worse.." Sara ma'am said. In only seconds I was by Bloom's side channeling all my energy to her

"You are going to be okay.." I said giving her all the strength I had left. I only stopped when I saw her look much better while I was barely able to even stand Juanita was quickly by my side holding me.

"Will you be able to do it now.?" I asked feeling weak and lightheaded. feeling drained.

"Yes!" Bloom said her voice coming out with power. I smiled as I felt like jelly barely able to stand or even lift my hand. Juanita led me to the other bed helping me lay down.

"Okay, you have to give me one big push.." I heard Sara ma'am say. And after a few minutes, crying filled the room and I smiled knowing that the baby is safe.

"Brook.." I heard Aaron's voice I slightly opened my eyes to see Mom and a man sitting near the bed.

"Mom is that you.." I said my voice barely audible.

“Get some rest baby you will be better in no time..” was the last thing I heard and I was pulled into a dreamless sleep.
