

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Boss Chapter 1719

Chapter 1719 Too Disappointed

The blood instantly drained from Clayton's face.

Nicole also stood there in shock, not expecting that her confession would make things even more unmanageable.

"Dad..."

"Shut up!"

Daily new chapters in Floyd shouted. His face was livid as he pointed at Kai on the side and ordered him.

"What are you still standing there for? Get him out of my room!"

Kai paused and did not dare to speak for Clayton. Instead, Kai went up and patted Clayton's shoulder. "Let's go out and wait."

Clayton had underestimated the Stanton family's desire to protect Nicole and had overestimated his standing in Floyd's heart. To Floyd, what Clayton did was the same as a scumbag.

The good image that Clayton had built in the past collapsed in an instant. Clayton pursed his lips, glanced at Floyd, and wanted to say something, but he shut up and finally glanced at Nicole worriedly and regretfully. If this matter brought Nicole any harm, then he would feel guilty forever.

Nicole smiled at Clayton reassuringly to show him that said she was fine.

Clayton's heart felt even worse.

He wanted to stay back and face Floyd's wrath with her, but staying would anger Floyd even more, which would kill all his chances.

Clayton felt like he was at the end of his rope. Daily new chapters in Kai thoughtfully closed the door.

Nicole stood there with a pale face. "Dad, why did you lose your temper?"

Floyd took a deep breath and covered his chest. His face was pale.

Nicole went over and soothed Floyd's chest. Her voice choked a little.

"Dad, you just got out of surgery, so don't get mad. If you disagree, I'll just abort the baby. It's okay."

Floyd abruptly turned his head to look at his daughter. The kind of love and heartache in his eyes could not be concealed.

He clenched his fist and took a few deep breaths to calm himself down. His face eased a little before he spoke. "Do you like him that much?"

Nicole nodded her head.

Floyd looked at her for a few seconds, sighed, and reached out to touch her hair.

"Since you like him so much, don't say things like aborting the baby again. Although your brothers and I aren't ready for you to get married, it's just a matter of time. I've observed Clayton during this time and think that he's a good man. If it weren't for him, we wouldn't have known if you were alive or dead in Southeast Asia. I also know that he's very attentive to you."

Nicole's eye turned red as she pouted. "Then why did you get so angry just now? Were you just scaring him?"

Floyd's face sank slightly.

"How am I scaring him? I've never opposed your relationship, but everything must go according to the process. That way, there won't be any rumors about you."

Nicole was silent. She bowed her head and lowered her voice.

"I know that my last marriage exhausted everyone, so you're extra concerned about my relationships. Even if I don't get married forever, you guys will also agree to it, right?" "It's good that you know. Having flings to keep yourself happy is fine, but marriage is different."

Floyd said in a serious tone. His eyes were sad. Daily new chapters in

"I'm not worried that you and Clayton's relationship will reach the same point as your marriage with Eric, but I just hope that you can be happy. I want you to fall in love, get engaged, get married, have children, and go step by step. You should have everything that other people have, and you shouldn't just make do just because you're pregnant."

Floyd's voice choked a little at this point. He sighed, and his eyes had some exasperation.

"Clayton is still not stable enough. I even thought that he was the most suitable person for you before this. He's so frivolous, and I'm too disappointed in him!"

Chapter 1720 You Really Deserve a Beating

Nicole could tell from Floyd's words that Floyd was actually not dissatisfied with Clayton. He was just unable to accept this unexpected pregnancy.

In the end, Floyd was just afraid that his daughter would be aggrieved.

Nicole's heart was warm. She held Floyd's arm and smiled.

"Dad, he doesn't dare to. This is just an accident. When we came to the hospital, he even thought that I didn't want the baby. On the way here, he looked so sad, but he didn't say anything. He respects me fully. Since we'll get married sooner or later anyway, why not agree to it?"

Floyd raised his eyebrows. His eyes were full of doubt.

"Really?"

Nicole nodded. Floyd sighed. "But I still think that you're too good for him and he got a huge deal!"

Nicole said, "Dad, Clayton doesn't have any relatives anymore. Everything is decided by our family. I listen to you so much, so you shouldn't scare him so easily. He's already so pitiful..." Daily new chapters in Floyd froze for a moment and suddenly understood what Nicole meant.

The two of them fell silent.

Indeed. Although Clayton was rich and very capable, no one in the Sloan family recognized his existence.

For Nicole's sake, Clayton had already offended the entire Sloan family, so he did not have anyone to back him up.

If the Stanton family also bullied him, then Clayton must be very pitiful.

Clayton stayed in Mediania for Nicole and almost broke off all his previous contacts in Liberty. Nicole could not think of anyone else who loved her more than he did.

Floyd's expression eased slightly.

"Well, since you've decided, I have no opinion on this. But your wedding should be pushed up right away. I'll get Mr. Anderson to arrange these things for you."

Nicole smiled and nodded. "Okay! Thanks, Dad!"

Floyd looked at her dotingly and really could not do anything about her.

Although Floyd preferred to let Nicole live a simple and easy life, since she had chosen this path herself, it was better to go all the way.

If this marriage did not work, Nicole could always come back to the Stanton family anyway.

Outside.

Clayton stood there with a glum face and was motionless. His eyes seemed to be boring a hole through the door.

He did not expect Floyd's reaction to this matter to be so drastic. Clayton should have thought about it sooner.

Daily new chapters in Clayton had stolen Floyd's baby daughter and even got her pregnant before he proposed. He had nothing prepared, so how could Floyd be happy about this?

However, Clayton was more worried about Nicole getting reprimanded because of him.

If he had known earlier, he would have made enough preparations before coming over.

On the side, Kai looked at Clayton's listless face and smiled wantonly.

However, Kai did not look as friendly as he was back then. He looked at Clayton with a somewhat cold gaze.

Kai sat on the side. His gaze was scattered. "Sit down, Mr. Sloan. It's pointless for you to stand there. The last person my father wants to see now is you."

Clayton's face was tense. His eyes were a bit dark, and his voice was low and hoarse as he asked Kai. He seemed quite flustered.

"Was I too much?"

The good image Clayton had built during this period was just ruined. Kai let out a reckless laugh and gave him a sidelong glance.

Daily new chapters in “You’re not too much. You just deserve a beating. No man who respects women will get her pregnant before marriage. You brought those tricks in Liberty here and didn’t think about the consequences? Or do you think that our family will compromise just because she’s pregnant? Do you think that we’ll scramble to marry our baby sister to you?”

Kai’s tone carried a hint of displeasure and even annoyance.

Chapter 1721 Trying to Piss Me Off

Clayton naturally heard it.

His gaze sank slightly, and his handsome face was somewhat dull.

“Of course not. I never thought so, really... It was just an accident.”

Kai let out a cold laugh.

“Our family isn’t conservative, and we approve of you two living together since you’re both young. But once you have a child, can you still maintain the status quo? An accident? Who are you trying to fool?”

Anyway, Kai did not believe it. He was also a man, so he understood a man’s dark thoughts very well.

Kai had also thought about using a child to tie down a woman, but he only thought about it and did not act on it.

He felt that the arrival of a child should be the natural result of two people’s love for each other, not a compromise with some motive.

Thus, his impression of Clayton instantly dropped.

Clayton stood there looking very lonely. He could not even think properly.

At that time, Nicole pushed the door open.

Nicole saw that Clayton was standing in the doorway. The moment he saw her, his dull eyes instantly lit up.

Nicole smiled, walked over, and took his hand. “Dad asked you to go in.”

Clayton froze and instantly became tense again.

He felt like he had never been this nervous before.

Clayton's whole body was tense and stiff, as if he was meeting Nicole's father for the first time.

He reached out to straighten his clothes for fear that there was a hint of imperfection.

Nicole smiled and held his hand. "Don't be nervous. My father has a good temper."

Clayton was silent for a few seconds and nodded his head.

Kai was speechless.

He must have misheard.

Clayton's eyes darkened when he glanced at her, then pushed the door open and walked in.

Nicole closed the door and turned to look at Kai.

"Did you just bully him?"

Kai was stunned. "Why would I?"

"He wasn't that scared before this. You must've said something to make him even more nervous."

Nicole spoke with certainty.

Kai gritted his teeth and rolled his eyes.

"He deserves it. Don't side with an outsider. Even if I don't scold him, Dad won't let him off the hook. I just gave him a warning so that he can be mentally prepared."

Nicole paused. She knew that Kai meant well for her, so she could not lose her temper with him.

At once, her attitude softened.

"Third Brother, you can't mess this up for me! If Clayton leaves, I will never forgive you!"

Kai snorted in anger. "You little ingrate!"

Nicole raised her eyebrows. "Oh, right... You'll be an uncle to two babies soon, so remember to prepare more gifts."

Kai's face turned red with anger. He felt speechless for a moment.

"Are you trying to piss me off?"

Nicole laughed. Kai speechlessly rolled his eyes. Seeing that Nicole did not mind this pregnancy, Kai did not feel so angry anymore.

Not long after, Clayton came out from the ward. His expression looked a little better than expected.

Although Floyd reprimanded him, at least Floyd finally agreed for Clayton and Nicole to get married.

However, the prerequisite was that Clayton could not take Nicole and the child back to Liberty.

Clayton quickly agreed.

He did not want to go back at all and felt that it was nice in Mediania.

Since Clayton agreed too quickly, Floyd also doubted whether the conditions he mentioned were just as Clayton wanted.

For a while, Floyd was a little frustrated.

Kai, who was on the side, looked at Clayton incredulously. He then questioned Clayton with a contemptuous tone.

"My father didn't beat you to death?"

Nicole rolled her eyes at Kai, who immediately looked at Clayton with a straight face. His tone eased up a lot. "That shouldn't be the case..."

Clayton laughed. His gaze moved slightly, and he smiled when he saw Nicole.

"Uncle Floyd has a good temper. He asked me to take good care of Nicole, so of course, I'll do it."

Chapter 1722 Let's Go Get Married

To be honest, Clayton felt so much pressure when facing Floyd. Even when Floyd did not speak, Clayton had a feeling that death was not worth mentioning.

Once Floyd spoke, it was not so bad.

Floyd's every word was for Nicole's sake. It was only natural that Floyd wanted the best for his daughter.

Kai watched them leave happily. He then went to Director Sven to register and do a medical examination.

It was really unbelievable that Floyd would love Nicole so much that he extended his love to Clayton.

After leaving the hospital, Nicole told everyone the good news that she was pregnant.

Although her identity was still the same, Nicole felt that having a little baby in her womb was really wonderful.

Nicole touched her belly and looked at Clayton, who was driving.

She said with a smile, "Let's go get married..."

Clayton slammed on the brakes. His face changed dramatically, and his eyes surged with emotions.

Nicole was startled. Fortunately, she wore a seat belt.

She patted her chest, but Clayton suddenly leaned over and held her tightly in his arms.

For a moment, Nicole felt like she was out of breath.

Then, Clayton let go of Nicole and looked at her with a deep gaze. The surging emotions in his eyes were suppressed.

"There's no rush," Clayton said.

Nicole wrinkled her eyebrows in thought, 'Is this what Clayton would say? Hasn't he always wanted to marry her? What does he mean by that?'

She blinked. "You don't want to? Is it because my father said something to you?"

Although Nicole thought that Floyd would not say anything excessive, what if Clayton took what Floyd said in a fit of anger to heart?

Clayton smiled and held her hand. His voice was warm and low. "Of course not. I haven't changed my nationality yet, so it'll be troublesome with the marriage formalities. I'll have someone start the procedures right away."

Nicole breathed a sigh of relief, settled her heart, and looked at him with a smile.

This was more like it.

Before this. Nicole had been very repulsive and resistant toward marriage, but now, she vaguely had some sense of anticipation.

Nicole looked at her phone. Logan sent her a few messages that she missed. It looked like there was something urgent.

"Send me to the office. There are some things I need to take care of."

Clayton pursed his lips and hesitantly spoke.

"Is it convenient for you to go to the office now? I'm afraid your body can't take it."

Nicole laughed. "I don't feel anything at all now. Everything's normal. I'm just a bit picky about what I eat. It's okay. We even have employees who are 9 months pregnant working at the office! I'm nowhere close..."

Clayton sighed. "Okay. I know I can't persuade you, but you have to promise that if you feel unwell, you must call me first, okay?"

Nicole nodded, then looked away from him.

"Are you doing it for me or the baby?"

Clayton was stunned by this sudden question.

Nicole just found it funny and wanted to see how he answered.

Clayton hesitated for a few seconds before looking at her and responding.

"If you're not pregnant, wouldn't you call me when you're feeling unwell?"

Nicole was stunned and did not expect him to put her on the spot.

The difficulty of this question was close to hers.

Fine!

He won.

“Of course, I will. I just don’t want you to be so nice to me because of the baby. Otherwise, I’ll get my hopes up.”

Nicole replied bluntly.

Clayton paused for a second. He looked so gentle when he laughed.

“Babe, don’t you know by now who I’m being nice to?”

Originally, Clayton had no hope for the arrival of this child. How could the child compare to Nicole?

Nicole bowed her head and smiled without making a sound.

In her heart, she already heard his answer.
