

The Man's Decree Chapter 264 (The Man like none Othere chapter 264)

"F*ck, who drank the liquor that I gave Mr. Chance? Step forward and identify yourself!"

Tommy roared as he glared at Benedict and his family.

His ferocious glare scared everyone out of their wits as the blood drained from their faces. Collectively, they looked toward Simon.

"D-Don't look at me! I didn't do anything. It's just everyone's assumption. The theft has nothing to do with me at all!" Utterly terrified, Simon's legs nearly gave away.

After all, Tommy was a man with a feared reputation. Provoking him was like poking the bear with a stick.

"So you were the one behind this! Who told you to drink the wine?" In two large steps, Tommy lunged at Simon and grabbed him by the collar. "Spit out the wine you drank right now!"

Bam!

Without warning, Tommy slammed his fist against Simon's abdomen. The sudden impact caused the latter to shriek in agony.

"M-Mr. Lewis, please stop hitting him! He's my son. For my sake, please stop!" In a haze of panic, Devin rushed forward and tried to stop Tommy.

"F*ck you! You should know your place! You are nothing more but a health minister. The audacity of you to try and stop me!" Tommy kicked Devin aside and continued to beat Simon up.

As Simon's anguished wails filled the air, the Chance family cowered fearfully in the corner.

"Mr. Lewis, how much is the wine? I'll pay for it," Devin blurted out.

He was afraid that his own son would be beaten to death.

"The liquors were limited editions of Sauvignon Blanc. One bottle costs five hundred thousand. Altogether, both bottles cost one million!" Tommy snarled in reply.

"O-One million?" Devin was utterly dumbfounded.

Since Devin merely worked as a health minister, one million was not a small amount of money to him.

Although he managed to save quite a sum of money, Devin was reluctant to spend it.

"In that case, I'll make your son spit out the wine he drank." Seeing Devin's hesitance, Tommy continued to rain a bunch of blows on Simon's abdomen, causing him to cry out in pain.

"Mr. Lewis, please stop hitting him. I'll send you the money right now." Devin quickly fished his phone out and transferred one million.

When Tommy received the transaction, he finally released Simon from his grasp. He made his way over to Kai and said, "Mr. Chance, this incident happened due to my lack of preparation. I'll send someone to get the liquor now."

Promptly, Tommy ordered his men to retrieve the Sauvignon Blanc liquor. On the other hand, Kai shot a cold smile at Benedict and his family.

"Earlier, who was the one who claimed that Tommy would punish me if I didn't pay up?" Kai rose to his feet and strolled toward them.

Javier was so scared that he'd collapsed to the floor. Frantically, he curled into the corner and hid behind Benedict and Stella.

"Kai, it's all my fault. Please don't take your anger out on Javier. He's just a child! I'll pay for everything," Benedict begged desperately.

"Tommy, count the bill," Kai ordered.

Tommy nodded in response. "The final total amounts to two hundred thousand!"

When Stella heard that, she cried out in shock, "Two hundred thousand? What on earth did we eat to owe two hundred thousand?"

"Shut up!" Benedict snapped at her.

Tommy narrowed his eyes. "What's the matter? Are you implying that it's too much? Do you want me to count it out in detail for you?"

"Not at all; we'll pay for it right now." Benedict shook his head frantically. In haste, he pulled his phone out to pay the bill.

As Benedict sent the money, he felt a stab of regret. If I knew that such a thing would happen, I wouldn't have ordered so much food. I only wanted to humiliate Kai. Hence, I placed my orders without hesitation. I practically shot myself in the foot!

"Mr. Lowe, it seems like Horington has quite a high paycheck. Even a lowly health minister and office administrator like the two of them are capable of forking out a few hundred thousand without even batting an eye," Kai remarked as he whirled around to look at Glen.
