

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence

Chapter 1023

The mother and son sat on the bench and sat quietly.

About half an hour later, Hayden's voice was dull: "Mom, go home."

Avery was stunned for a moment, then got up immediately and held his little hand tightly.

The conflict that happened tonight was caused by Elliot, and he didn't know it.

Avery asked Mrs. Cooper not to tell him about it.

He had already worked hard enough about the wedding and Nathan, and she didn't want to let these trivial matters bother him anymore.

At 10 o'clock in the evening, Avery came out of the shower and looked at the empty big bed, but she was not sleepy.

She suddenly missed Elliot very much.

When Elliot was here, he would chat with her about what happened during the day, discuss the education of his two children with her, and look forward to the future with her.

The two have been together for a long time, but they still have endless things to say.

She sighed silently.

She didn't know what Elliot is doing now.

After a brief struggle, she decided to go to him now.

Half an hour later, she appeared at the gate of Foster's villa courtyard.

When the bodyguard opened the door for her, she said, "Don't tell him." The bodyguard understood in seconds.

surprise!

Avery must have wanted to surprise Elliot.

Avery entered the villa smoothly.

When Mrs. Scarlet saw her coming, she didn't ask her why she came, but let her go upstairs.

"Mr. Foster hasn't slept yet, he is probably busy with the details of the wedding."

"Well, you can go to rest! I won't be leaving tonight." Avery said sternly.

Mrs. Scarlet blushed, and immediately retired.

Second floor, study room.

Elliot frowned slightly, thinking about the past with Avery in his mind, his slender fingers jumped on the keyboard.

He was writing their wedding vows. He had already written his own oath, and now he is stuck on Avery's oath.

He asked Avery to write one, and Avery also wrote it.

It's just that he was not satisfied with what she wrote.

For example, he, a science student, wrote nearly a thousand words in his oath, while she, a liberal arts student, only bluntly stammered out a hundred words.

When the time comes to read on stage, he don't know if it's her or him who should be embarrassed.

So he planned to expand her oath well.

Elliot put all his energy into this wedding. Because in this life, he only intends to get married this time.

There was a knock on the door, and his thoughts were interrupted.

"Before going upstairs, Elliot told Mrs. Scarlet no to disturb me. Did something happen?" Elliot thought.

At this time, the study door was pushed open, and Avery's smiling face appeared in front of him.

The world in front of him suddenly became brighter.

Elliot brows stretched out, and the corners of his mouth rose: "Why are you here? Did you call me? Oh, my phone is on mute, I didn't hear it."

As he spoke, he strode up in front of her and held her hand on top of her palm.

She glanced at his desk, "I didn't call you. It's so late, what are you doing?"
