Simple Silence

Chapter 956

Elliot stared at the middle-aged man in the picture for a while, but still had no clue. He hadn't seen this man.

Maybe this person is really mentally ill, that's why he showed up at his neighborhood and smirked at him last night.

Elliot crumpled the paper, threw it in the trash, and strode into the bathroom and closed the bathroom door.

In the kitchen, after seeing Elliot going upstairs, Mrs. Scarlet quickly called Mrs. Cooper.

Mrs. Cooper said, "I heard that Elliot and Eric had a quarrel. But it wasn't Elliot who picked it up. They both left after the quarrel."

Mrs. Scarlet said, "Oh, why did I come back so early?"

"How is your mood?" Mrs. Cooper asked with concern.

"I'm not very happy, but it's okay."

Mrs. Scarlet continued to ask, "How is he getting along with the child today?"

Over the phone, Mrs. Cooper laughed: "Sir didn't get along with the child today. He stayed with him for a day. Avery asked him to accompany him."

Mrs. Scarlet blushed: "It seems that the two of them have a very close relationship."

“Yes! They look better than before. I hope they will not have conflicts in the future. Otherwise, the three children are too pitiful,” She said distressedly.

Elliot took a shower and went upstairs in his household clothes.

Mrs. Scarlet took the prepared dishes and put them on the table. “Dinner is ready.”

Elliot walked towards the dining room and sat down on the dining chair, “I’m going on a business trip tomorrow. I’ll go out for about a week. You can go back to your hometown on vacation.”

Mrs. Scarlet was dejected: “Sir, after my parents passed away, I have no home.”

Elliot was slightly startled: “Then do you want to travel?”

Mrs. Scarlet shook her head: “Sir, don’t worry about me. I’ll be happy staying at home.”

Elliot no longer insisted. After dinner, he went into the study. After about an hour, he came out of the study.

It was getting dark outside, and he turned on his phone to see if Avery had contacted him.

As a result, no calls.

His eyes dimmed a little, and he couldn’t help but feel lost.

Back in the bedroom, Elliot put the phone on the cabinet, turned to open the wardrobe, changed into a sports vest and shorts and walked towards the gym.

He would never admit that he was angry with Eric's words. He has a habit of exercising himself.

Moreover, he never believed that he would fail in a few years.

He had read a story before that a 70-year-old man made the headlines when his 40-year-old wife was pregnant.

A 70-year-old man can do it, but why can't he be in his thirties?

The sky soon became thick as ink.

The villa was as quiet and deserted as every day in the past.

In the monitoring room, two bodyguards stared at the monitoring screen, observing the dynamics outside the wall at any time.

That strange middle-aged man last night had better come here by accident, or if he comes again today, the bodyguards will definitely not let him go!

After working in the Foster family for so many years, this was the first time that the bodyguard had met such a strange and bold person.

At 8 p.m., A black figure, like the wind blowing the shadow of a tree, slowly approached the Foster family's villa.

After the shadow appeared in the surveillance area, the bodyguard immediately confirmed that this person was the one who offended Elliot last night!

The bodyguard picked up the walkie-talkie and said to the colleague on duty: “The target person has appeared! He is outside the fence! Alone, visually without a weapon!”

Chapter 957

Colleagues received the news and immediately replied:

“Received! Act now!”

About 5 minutes later, there was a burst of punches and kicks from outside the villa, accompanied by the man’s gruff screams!

Mrs. Scarlet heard the movement and immediately ran out to check the situation.

She saw two bodyguards beating a man, so she asked, “What’s the matter, Who is this person?”

A bodyguard stopped and explained to Mrs. Scarlet, “Mrs. Scarlet, this person is the man from last night! He was sneaking around the courtyard wall, Even if he doesn’t want to do bad things, he must beat him up! Otherwise, if he comes every day in the future, the boss will definitely be angry.”

“Oh...” Mrs. Scarlet Look carefully at the middle-aged man curled up on the ground.

“Mrs. Scarlet, do you still remember me?” The middle-aged man raised his head, brushed the hair from his forehead, and stared straight at Mrs. Scarlet with his shrewd and scarlet eyes.

The bodyguard heard the middle-aged man talking to Mrs. Scarlet, and immediately stopped beating him.

This person actually knew Mrs. Scarlet. Since he knew Mrs. Scarlet, why didn't he tell me earlier?

"You are..." Mrs. Scarlet looked at his face and didn't recognize him for a while.

"Maybe you don't remember me. I used to work with you in the old house." Nathan White got up from the ground with a smile.

Nathan was fat and his face was full of flesh, so before he reported his name and previous position, Mrs. Scarlet didn't recognize him. "Since we worked together in the old house before, then come in and tell me!"

Mrs. Scarlet invited him into the house, "By the way, what's your name? Why are you here?"

A non-smiling arc.

"My name is Nathan White. I used to be a driver at the old house for a while."

Mrs. Scarlet had a little impression of this name.

She froze, thinking carefully.

After a while, Mrs. Scarlet whispered, "I remember! There was indeed a driver named Nate in the old house! It's you!"

“Yes! I am Nate!” Nathan showed a wild look at Mrs. Scarlet. He smiled, “Mrs. Scarlet, you’ve taken good care of yourself, and it’s not the same as when you were young!”

“Nathan! I remember you were fired! You stole things, and you messed with the nanny!”

Mrs. Scarlet said this, her face was red and her ears were red, and her emotions were intense!

How could she invite such a corrupt person into the house?

Just when she was about to let the bodyguards drive him out, Elliot heard the movement and walked down the stairs.

“What’s the matter?” Elliot, dressed in home clothes, strode to Mrs. Scarlet’s side.

After his eyes fell on Nathan’s face, his doubts were resolved.

“Who are you?” Elliot looked directly at Nathan with a cold voice, “Who are you looking for?”

“I’m looking for you!” Nathan grinned at Elliot.

Elliot looked at his ugly smile and clenched his fists tightly.

This middle-aged man, greasy and evil, intuitively told Elliot that he was not good.

“Sir! He was the driver of the old house! He was fired by your father because of his behavior!” Mrs. Scarlet immediately explained to Elliot, “Just let the bodyguard drive him out! You don’t need to waste time with him!

“Mrs. Scarlet, you are just the nanny of the Foster family. Do you really think you are the master of the Foster family?” Nathan mocked and sat down on the sofa.

Elliot’s bottom line was easily broken by Nathan!

Elliot pulled Mrs. Scarlet behind him, then strode forward, pulled Nathan up from the sofa, and punched Nathan’s face crookedly!

“Who allowed you to rant on my site?!” After Elliot finished speaking, he raised his fist again!

“You beat me! You’d better beat me to death!” Nathan’s eyes bulged like copper bells, and after spitting out a mouthful of blood, he gritted his teeth, “You stinky brat! Don’t you ask me why I came to see you?”

Elliot’s fist stopped in the air, tightened tightly, and finally restrained and let it go.

Just when Nathan breathed a sigh of relief and planned to continue sitting on the sofa, Elliot kicked him to the ground!

“The last person who was so arrogant in front of me has been dead for several years.” Elliot’s voice was as cold as ice.

Chapter 958

Nathan has been muddled all his life and has never been afraid of anything. But now, when he looked at Elliot's cold and arrogant face, he felt scared for the first time!

He felt that if he continued to anger Elliot, he would definitely be beaten to death here.

When he rolled to his mouth, he swallowed it back into his stomach. He has failed! He miscalculated Elliot's temper! He shouldn't be so reckless here.

He just wanted to leave alive now.

"Mrs. Scarlet! I have a broken rib! Hurry up and call me 120!" He dared not speak to Elliot, so he shouted at Mrs. Scarlet.

Mrs. Scarlet saw that his face was bloody and his body was paralyzed on the ground, and he couldn't stop twitching.

She was so frightened that she immediately went to her mobile phone to call an ambulance.

"Mrs. Scarlet, don't be merciful to this beast!" Elliot shouted to stop.

Mrs. Scarlet immediately woke up: "Sir, let the bodyguard throw him out! I will never let him step into the house again in the future!"

Elliot gave the bodyguard a wink.

The bodyguard immediately grabbed Nathan's arm and dragged him out.

Elliot looked at Nathan's embarrassed appearance, and coldly told the bodyguard, "Throw him away!"

In a flash, the living room returned to calm.

Mrs. Scarlet went to the bathroom to bring a basin of hot water and wiped the blood on the floor with a towel.

As she wiped the floor, she apologized to Elliot: "Sir, it was my dereliction of duty. He said he worked together in the old house before, so I invited him in, blaming me for not recognizing him..."

Elliot mood was still not calm: "Did he say what happened to him?"

Mrs. Scarlet said, "No. But I can guess. He must have come to ask for money. Either he asks me for money, or he asks you for money. He is just a scoundrel. I don't think he is afraid of death."

Mrs. Scarlet also added, "This kind of market scoundrel doesn't know how to write fear. Otherwise, he wouldn't be so stupid. If he dares to come again in the future, let the bodyguard beat him directly. Let's go. I don't believe that he is not afraid of death."

Elliot strode towards the bathroom.

He beat Nathan just now, and he thought his hands were dirty.

After Mrs. Scarlet wiped off the blood on the ground, she disinfected the ground with disinfectant, and then sprayed the living room with air freshener to remove the smell.

While doing these things, bits and pieces of the past came to Mrs. Scarlet's mind.

This Nathan was not a serious person.

Just a little weird.

When Old master Foster wanted to dismiss Nathan, his wife actually pleaded for Nathan.

Mrs. Scarlet also asked his wife at the time why she wanted to intercede for Nathan. The answer her wife gave at the time was that she could give the servants a chance.

But later, some servants made mistakes, and the lady did not give them a chance.

So why Madam indulges Nathan so much, she still can't figure it out.

Star River Villas.

When Avery got home from the hotel, the two children were tired and fell asleep on the bed.

After Avery turned off the lights for them, she dragged her tired body out of the children's room.

Face to face, Mrs. Cooper came over with Robert in her arms.

Robert had slept in the evening, so she was in good spirits at the moment, but Avery was very sleepy and had no energy to take care of the children.

“Avery, you are tired today!” Mrs. Cooper said to her, “I’m here to tell you that I put the gifts Hayden, Layla received today in the warehouse on the first floor.”

“Okay. Yes, I’ll deal with it tomorrow.” Avery patted Robert’s round head and said softly, “Baby, are you having a good time today? When you are one year old, your mother will also throw a birthday party for you, okay?”

Mrs. Cooper smiled and said with emotion: “Time flies so fast, our Robert is already half a year old!”

Avery nodded and walked towards the room.

She planned to take a bath and then sleep, but when she returned to the room, the big bed in front of her seemed to be calling her with magic.

She walked over to lie down in a daze, intending to rest for a while, and then take a bath when her energy recovered a little, but not long after she lay down, she fell into a deep sleep.

She usually has the habit of having nightmares, no matter how she adjusts it, she can’t adjust it.

The pictures she dreams of most often come and go.

The first is when Dad died, holding her hand in the room, apologizing to her, begging for her forgiveness. Before she could speak, Dad swallowed. It became her regret in her life.

The second is that her mother died in a car accident. She was hit with blood and blood, and she didn't even have a chance to say goodbye to her mother. She could never let go of this painful injury in her life.

The third is to break up with Elliot and divorce.

The fourth is Robert who almost died after giving birth prematurely.

These regrets and pains took turns to torment her every night.

But that night, she slept very soundly.

Not only has no dreams, but also does not wake up frequently during the night.

The next morning, Avery woke up abruptly when the phone rang quickly.

After waking up, she conditioned reflexively to reach for her phone by the pillow. But the phone is not by the pillow.

She opened her apricot eyes suddenly, and glanced at the pillow. "Where's my phone?"

The bell continued to ring, making her flustered.

She got out of bed and found that she was still wearing yesterday's skirt. She took a deep breath and patted her head violently.

When she woke up a little, she saw her bag on the cabinet, and the ringtone of the mobile phone came from the bag.

She took the phone out of her bag and saw the call from the vice president, Shaun Locklyn.

She answered the phone, and the voice of the vice president came anxiously: "Avery, something happened to my house! I want to ask you to do me a favor!"

Avery frowned and said calmly, "What happened to your house? Don't you? I'm in a hurry, if I can help you, I will define it."

"That's it, I applied to study at Hallstatt University three months ago. You know Hallstatt University, which specializes in training successful people. You can enter. They are all successful businessmen, and the quota every year is very precious. I finally got through the relationship and the application was successful. The result...my son is ill and needs surgery." The vice president's tone was full of regret, "I can't go now, can you go instead of me?"

Avery was confused: "I've never heard of Hallstatt University, what is this for?"

"It's training for the president."

"Oh, what's the training?" Avery was still a little confused.

“Training successful thinking skills and making more contacts. The lecturers are among the top business giants. They will teach you how to make the company stronger and bigger. I also applied for this in order to run our company better.” The vice president regretted, “If my son was not sick, I would definitely go.”

Avery said, “You take care of your family first. It doesn’t matter whether you go to this training class or not.”

“Why doesn’t it matter? After you go, you will definitely benefit a lot. By the way, you can help me make a record when the time comes.. okay?”

Avery didn’t agree to attend the training, but when the vice president said it, she couldn’t refuse, “How long will this training take?”

The vice president said, “One week. It starts tonight. You have to book a flight now.”

Chapter 960

Avery had slept well and was refreshed, but because of this phone call, her heart burned with urgency.

After the call, she received the address of Hallstatt University from the vice president.

Next, she has to book a flight and rush over.

Just when she opened the flight booking software, the alarm clock popped up on the screen of her mobile phone, so scared that she almost threw the phone out.

She clutched her chest and took a long breath.

Why be in such a hurry?

It's just a training session, even if you're late, it's fine.

Even when she was a student, it was okay to be late for class, not to mention that she is not a student now.

And she didn't sign up for this training either. She could promise the vice president to participate in the past.

Thinking of this, she fell onto the bed, planning to lie down for a while.

She turned on her phone and sent a message to Tammy: "Tammy, I'm going away today. I will come back in a week. Don't forget to tell me after you saw the psychiatrist in the past two days."

It was still very early, and she felt that Tammy should still be asleep, so after sending the message, she put down her phone and planned to get up and pack her luggage after a while.

A week is a long time for her.

She hadn't been on a business trip for so long since giving birth.

Just as she closed her eyes and adjusted her mood, the phone rang.

She opened her eyes, picked up her phone, saw Tammy's call, and immediately answered it.

“Avery, why are you going out all of a sudden? You didn't say you were going out yesterday. What's the urgency?” Tammy was worried after seeing the news, so she called her back to ask.

Avery yawned, “The vice president asked me to do him a favor. He signed up for a training class before and asked me to help him attend. His son is sick and has to have an operation, so I can't say no. The two things I hate the most, one is meetings and the other is training.”

Tammy couldn't help laughing: “Since you promised others, you must go.”

“Well, it's still early, I'll lie down for a while.” Avery looked at the ceiling, her voice muffled, “I can't bear to have children. Thinking of going out for a week, I feel very uncomfortable.”

“A week is very fast. You should give yourself a vacation.”

Tammy said, suddenly wondering, “I heard that Elliot was going on a business trip yesterday.”

Avery grinned and said helplessly, “Well. He also went on a business trip today. Do you know what he told me yesterday? He told me to wait for him to return from his business trip. Let's have a good talk. The more he pushes me to express my position, the less I want to give him a happy answer.”

Tammy gave her an idea, “I understand your mood. Don't promise him so quickly, hang him for a while longer. Let's see how long he can last. Otherwise he will catch you so easily, and he will surely make you angry again in the future.”

The smile on Avery’s face gradually faded.

She recalled her recent relationship with Elliot, and murmured: “Elliot had a good temper recently. No matter how I slapped him, he was not angry.”

“That’s because you haven’t promised to reconcile with him. Even if he doesn’t I want to get you, and I want to get three children through you.” Tammy said straight to the point.

“Okay! That’s exactly what you said. He really cares about children. My mother said that the older you get, the more you like children and your patience will get better. It seems to be true. Of course it makes sense.”

When Tammy said this, she thought for a while, “When Elliot comes back from a business trip and sees that you are not there, I guess he will get angry.”

Tammy’s words instantly made Avery sit up on the bed.

“He’s also on a business trip for a week.”
