Chapter 961

Tammy teased, “Ah, What a coincidence? Will you two go to the same place?”

Avery didn't know.

She didn't ask where Elliot was going on business yesterday.

Although she was a little curious now, she couldn't take the initiative to ask him.

After all, even in the same place, so what?

She went to the bathroom to wash up, changed her clothes and came out of the room. The two children had already gone to school.

Robert slept in the crib in the living room, while Mrs. Cooper was busy in the kitchen.

Avery walked to the door of the kitchen and said to Mrs. Cooper, “Mrs. Cooper, I'm going out today. I will be back in a week.”

Mrs. Cooper was stunned, “Why do you want to go out all of a sudden? When the child comes back in the evening and want to see but they find that you're not at home, they'll definitely miss you.”

Avery said, “I'm going to attend a training abroad. I've already promised others.”

“Oh, the child will definitely understand about work. If you go alone, you will still have a partner. right?” Mrs. Cooper was not at ease.

“I’ll go alone.” She walked to the dining room and sat down in the dining chair, “Don’t worry, it seems to be closed management, it’s quite safe.”

Mrs. Cooper brought the breakfast to the table, “That’s good. When are you leaving?”

“I’ll book the ticket after breakfast. Go out in the afternoon at the latest.” She picked up the milk glass and took a sip, “Where’s Mike?”

“He hasn’t gotten up yet.” Sure, Mike floated over from the side.

“What are you talking about me!” Mike sat down beside Avery with messy blonde hair.

Avery said, “I’m going out today, I’ll be back in a week and let me know. I’ll ask you at home.”

Mike was shocked by the news and suddenly sobered up: “Where are you going? Do you want me to go with you?”

“Hallstatt University, have you heard of it?” Avery scooped a spoonful of porridge into her mouth, and her stomach was instantly warmed, “The vice president signed up for this school’s training class, but he can’t go to the family temporarily, so let me help him with it.”

The most famous of the aristocratic schools is not the main university, but the affiliated CEO training camp. This is the CEO training camp you are going to, right?”

Avery was taken aback for a while: “If you are interested, you can go! All you need to do is take your class notes and bring them back to the vice president.”

Mike refused without thinking: “I hate training the most! I’m almost the same as training others, and no one else can train me!”

Avery was silent.

Mike said, “I don’t think you should go! Waste your time! Our company has been successful enough, unless you are invited to be a lecturer, you can consider it. Being a student will not bring down our company?”

Avery sighed, “I promised the vice president to take notes for him. He said that he signed up for this training course to better run the company. Since I promised him, I can’t go back. Moreover, What if I really learn something?”

Mike said, “Then go! I will help you take care of your home!”

Avery said, “Well, it’s been hard work for you. But I’m curious, when are you going to My family is moving out?”

Mike frowned in disbelief: “When you and Elliot become a family, I will consider moving!”

Avery said, “Oh, I asked casually. Why are you so excited? Elliot and I... By the way, do you know where Elliot is on a business trip today? He is also on a business trip for a week, what a coincidence.”

Chapter 962

Mike heard the meaning of her words and broke her fantasy mercilessly: “No matter where Elliot goes on business, it is definitely not the Hallstatt University you are going to. He is such a proud and pretentious person. How could he be willing to talk to you? Others share his successful experience? You search online, he has hardly ever given personal interviews, and with his character like gold, do you think he can stand on the podium and give lectures?”

Avery woke up like a dream.

She clearly knew Elliot, why did she still make unrealistic fantasies?

She blushed in embarrassment, and Mike didn't continue to laugh at her.

“Why don't you call Chad and ask? What if he really went to Hallstatt?” Mike didn't laugh at her, but he couldn't help laughing at Elliot, “Hallstatt is a good place, the environment on the mountain is beautiful and the air is fresh and a good place for leisure and vacation, what if he goes to the green hills to play in the name of a business trip?”

Avery's temple throbbed: "Whether he goes on a business trip or a vacation, it has nothing to do with me. I don't want to know that he goes Where, don't ask Chad, don't say anything."

She peeled a boiled egg and put it on Mike's plate.

"What time is your flight? I'll take you to the airport." Mike asked after biting into the egg.

Avery lowered her eyes and said, "I haven't bought a ticket yet! I'm a little confused. I'm totally unprepared. I was going to go to work today."

Seeing her gloomy, Mike comforted: "Hallstatt is a good place, but has not been developed, isolated from the world, especially quiet, you should go to retreat for a week!"

Avery said, "What image do I have in my heart? If there is no internet there, I promise I will leave as soon as I get there."

"How can there be no internet? That kind of CEO training camp where all the CEOs go, you won't stay without internet, and they can't stand it without internet." Mike teased.

"I can't stay there without the internet. I have to make videocall with my kids every day."

"Okay, don't be sad. The week is fast."

"Well, I'll go pack." She put down the dishes and finished the milk then go back to her room.

After she left the dining room, Mike took out his mobile phone and sent a message to Chad: Where is your boss on a business trip?

Chad was busy and didn't see any news from him.

After a while, Mike drove Avery to the airport.

Arriving at the airport, Mike's cell phone rang, and the company called him and asked him to go to the company immediately.

“Go back to the company! I'm fine now.” Avery took the suitcase from him, and her mood was completely calm.

If Vice President told her about it yesterday, she would not be so bored this morning.

Mike reached out and touched her head, “Call me when you arrive, and come back if you're really uncomfortable! You don't have to stay there for a week. The vice president is not your father, so you don't have to do it for him.”

Avery couldn't help but laughing: “Thank you for enlightening me, don't do this next time.”

The vice president worked with my father for a long time, although he was only a small supervisor before, but later Tate Industry was rebuilt and he helped a lot.

Mike saw Avery enter the waiting room, and then left the airport. He drove in the direction of the company. On the way, Chad's phone calls.

“I’m so busy today! What are you asking my boss for?” Chad took a mobile phone in one hand and a water glass in the other, and took a sip.

“I didn’t ask, it was Avery.” Mike asked, “Why didn’t your boss take you on a business trip?”

Chapter 963

“He doesn’t take me every time he goes on a business trip.” Chad put down the water glass and asked sharply, “Why does Avery care about my boss suddenly? Won’t she ask my boss herself?”

Mike laughed and said, “She is also on a business trip today. She was on a business trip for a week. So she asked me casually if I knew where Elliot was going. She imagined that she might have gone to the same place as Elliot, I said how could it be possible! How could Elliot go to some bullsh*t CEO? Training camp! With his temper, he is only suitable to be the king of h-e-l-l. Let’s forget it as a lecturer! He looks like he is lecturing on the stage with that iceberg face. The picture is too beautiful, I can’t imagine it!”

Chad wrinkled When he frowned, he noticed something was wrong: “Where is Avery going on a business trip?”

“Hallstatt University! Where is your boss?”

“Uh! My boss is also going to Hallstatt!” Chad was instantly refreshed, “Is Avery also going to Hallstatt as a lecturer?”

With a ‘poof’, Mike burst out laughing: “What kind of lecturer is she! She’s going to be a student! How the h-e-l-l do I think this is a trap! Chad, honestly, is this a gift from your boss? Avery’s trap?!”

Chad said, “Impossible! At least I don’t know about it at all.”

Mike said, “Oh, yes, this is a training that our company’s vice president signed up for. It was because the vice president’s house had a temporary emergency. Avery went. It’s impossible for my vice president to be infiltrated by Elliot, right?!”

Chad said, “It should be a coincidence. God wants to match the two of them.”

Mike said, “F*ck, God sees that they are not pleasing to the eye. Otherwise Why did the two of them spend so many years together and haven’t gotten married yet? I think the two of them have already gone through one-hundred and eighty-one hardships!”

Chad said: “Maybe the trip to Hallstatt will have A satisfactory result.”

Mike said: “Hopefully! Avery went too far today and asked me when I would move out of her house. Did she dislike me?”

Chad sneered: “It’s rare that you always think that you are a sweet pastry.”

Mike said: “Are you looking for smoke?!”

Chad coughed: “I’m busy right now. “

Hallstatt, located near the border of Aryadelle, is an original ecological mountain that has not been developed commercially.

Many years ago, a wealthy businessman with surname Kenny spent a lot of money to build a high-priced villa on the mountain, and the mountain has become famous since then.

When Avery arrived at the foot of Hallstatt Mountain, it was already evening.

Time in the mountains seems to go much faster than time in the city.

After the staff received her, they drove her up the mountain.

She looked at the winding mountain road outside the window and couldn't help but complain: "Why do many rich people like to live in the deep mountains and forests? Can this show their status? Don't they think the deep mountains are terrible?"

The staff laughed: "Ms. Tate, it is said that Boss Kenny chose to build a villa here because he listened to the advice of the master. Boss Kenny was not in good health, so the master asked him to move to Hallstatt, so as to avoid disasters."

Avery said, "Oh, After this Boss Kenny moved in, is he really free from illness and disasters?"

The staff continued to laugh: "As a result, Boss Kenny died of illness not long after he moved in. Later, the villa was taken over by the son of Mr. Kenny, who is now Boss Kenny, has been transformed into a training camp for presidents.”

Avery was shocked and speechless for a while.

About a quarter of an hour later, the car arrived at Hallstatt Villa.

She pushed open the door and got out of the car.
