

The Mafia Bosses Broken Queen chapter 1

Tomi Gilliam

Brett's POV Brett's POV Today is the day that my cousin Kaycie is moving in. I am excited for her to move in with me and three of my friends de ella. Kaycie and I are close and have been since we were little. She is four years younger than me at 20. She called me up about two months ago and said that she needed a change of scenery and asked if I knew anyone who had a spare room she could rent. I told her I have a spare room that is perfect for her and told her to move here. I inherited a large house from my grandmother. It is an older two-story but the inside has been completely renovated. It has two master bedrooms so I told her she can have the upstairs master. I have the downstairs master bedroom. I am standing outside with my two friends who also each rent one of the other rooms in the house when the moving truck pulls up and stops. I see my other cousin Todd get out of the driver's side and walk over to us . I introduce him to e guys .

” Hey Todd , how have you been man ? ” I ask him . ” I have been good working , going to college , and looking after Kaycie . ” He replies I am aware something has happened with her recently but I have never been able to get the full story . Last time I was able to visit her I noticed that she was more shy and jumpy . I was worried . I hope I can get her to tell me what happened to change my cousin . She was always so outgoing and happy . That's when I hear a car pull up . I watch as she parks her baby blue Mini Cooper in the driveway . I watch her get out and walk towards us . She slows down when she notices my two buddies standing by me . I can almost see the fear in her eyes . She walks over and gives me a hug . ” Hey Kaycie , how have you been squirt ? ” I ask her . ” Seriously , still using that stupid nickname . I have been good . ” She says smiling . I hear someone clear their throat and turn to my buddies . I guess I should introduce them .

” These two here are Darryn and Felipe . They are also our roommates . ” I tell her . ” Hi guys , thanks for the introduction , Brett . ” She replies .

I see her smile at the guys but I can tell she is nervous . I hear Todd telling her that it'll be ok and that they won't hurt her . The three of us look at each other and wonder why he needs to tell her this . I look at him and he mouths to me I WILL TELL YOU LATER . Finally , someone is going to tell me what changed my cousin . I tried to find out from the family when I visited her last but no one wanted to talk about it . The four of us start to carry her bedroom furniture upstairs to the room and she tells us where she wants it . Once we get all of her stuff off of the truck Todd and Felipe take it back to the local moving company . I noticed that Kaycie keeps stealing glances at Darryn and I smile . He is completely her type . I hear Felipe and Todd walk back in and they have dinner . We stayed up late talking when Kaycie decided that she was going to bed . We tell her goodnight and she walks upstairs . I hear her door shut and I turn to Todd .

” Ok , Todd what's the deal . This is not the Kaycie I remember . ” tell him ” I am guessing the last time you visited n o one told you what happened . ? ” He asks ” I nod my head and he lets out a sigh . He looks at the other guys and I tell him it's o k to talk in front of them . I am telling you this so you understand her . Her last boyfriend abused her mentally and physically . It was more mental than anything . He would tell her shit like she was fat and that she wasn't pretty enough . Kaycie started dieting and got down to under 100lbs . No one noticed because it was winter and she was wearing big baggy hoodies and other clothes like that . They weren't together that long but it came to a head when she wouldn't have sex with him and he beat her good and tried to force himself on her .

I thankfully decided to visit unannounced and caught him in the act . I was with my friend Paul and we ran in and pulled the bastard off of her and beat him good . We called the police and explained everything when they got there . Luckily we didn't get in trouble but he was thrown in prison for domestic violence . She has not been the same since . She has finally returned to a healthy weight but her self – esteem and confidence is still shit .” Todd explained . I sat there getting more pissed the longer he talked . That bastard hurt my cousin and I want to kill him . I noticed Darryn and Felipe looked pissed as well . The three of us are the bad boys of the town but we would never hit a woman for anything . I know this hits somewhat close to home for Felipe . Felipe tells Todd about his mom and the shit that they went through as kids . The four of us talked for about another hour and then decided to go to our rooms . I lay there here in my bed thinking of what I was just told . Hopefully , we can bring Kaycie out o f her shell and help her gain back her self confidence and esteem . I understand why none of the family wanted to talk about what happened . I am glad Todd told me . I believe this move to a whole new city and state will be a new fresh start for Kaycie .
