

The Mafia Bosses Broken Queen chapter 11

Brett & Darryn's POV

Brett

I am sitting in the waiting room at the hospital. I got a call about thirty minutes ago that Kaycie had fainted at work and was being transported to the hospital. I get up and start pacing. I see Ryan, Felipe, and Darryn walk through the door. They all had a look of panic on their faces. I told them all I knew which wasn't much. We were standing there when the doctor came in. He explains that Kaycie is dehydrated and that she was a tad underweight. We all looked down as he walked out.

“What do you wanna bet that she has only been eating when she is around us? She's probably only eating enough to make us happy.” Ryan says.

We all nod our heads. I am trying to figure out how we could all be so blind. She has been hiding behind her baggy clothes. That's how we didn't notice, plus she tries to not be around us. I hear my phone ping and I look at my text. It's from Davina.

—Have you heard from Kaycie? I was gonna meet her after she got off work.

– She fainted at work and hit her head. She is in the hospital

—WHAT! !! SAMMY AND I ARE ON OUR WAY

I smiled at this. These two have really taken to Kaycie and I know she likes them too. I know this whole situation is because of what fucking Reighly said to her. I really want to kick Reighly's ass but I will not hit a woman even if she deserved it.

We all walk down to her room and go in. She looks so small laying on that hospital bed. She is attached to a few monitors but the doctor assured us that she is nice and stable. They did a CT and she has a bad concussion but nothing worse. They are not sure when she will wake up. I am sitting there in a chair by her bed holding her hand. I really wish she would wake up. I have been sitting there for an hour when I hear the door to the room open. I turn around and I see Davina and Sammy standing there. I give them a smile and they come over to the bed. I explain what happened to Kaycie at work. They are not happy with Reighly but that is the last person I want to think about. Davina and Sammy sit down on the side of the bed and we all talk quietly. I tell them that I don't want Reighly to know that Kaycie is in the hospital. They agree that she doesn't need to know. I look at Kaycie again and my heart breaks. I was supposed to protect her and I let her get hurt. I know it's not my fault that this has to do with her insecurities. I hear the door open again and turn to see Darryn walk in. He looks heartbroken. I know he feels like he failed Kaycie. He pulls up another chair and sits down. I give him a nod of my head and he returns it. I stay there until I have to leave for work. Davina and Sammy left a while ago but want to know when she wakes up. They said they would come to visit tomorrow regardless. I give Kaycie a kiss on her forehead and close her door behind me.

Darryn

When I got the call from Brett that Kaycie was in the hospital my mind went blank.

I threw on some clothes and rushed down to the hospital. As I was walking up I ran into Felipe and Ryan. The three of us walked into the hospital together. I felt my heartbreak when I saw her lying in the hospital bed. She looked so small and fragile. I could tell that she had lost some weight. I wanted so badly to climb onto the bed and wrap her in my arms. I am sitting in a chair by her bed holding her hand. I feel like I have failed her. This never should have happened. I feel a hand on my shoulder. I look back and I see Davina. I thought she went home.

“I know but seeing her like this...” I reply.

I can’t finish my thought. Davina knows how much I like Kaycie and that I want to be with her. The only time I get up and leave her is when I need to use the bathroom or need to eat. I need her to be ok. I look at her and god she is so beautiful. I can’t help it as I cup her jaw in my hand and run my thumb along her cheek. I froze as she actually turned her face and nuzzles into my hand. She is not awake but for some reason, she how much I like Kaycie and that I want to be with her. The only time I get up and leave her is when I need to use the bathroom or need to eat. I need her to be ok. I look at her and god she is so beautiful. I can’t help it as I cup her jaw in my hand and run my thumb along her cheek. I froze as she actually turned her face and nuzzles into my hand. She is not awake but for some reason, she responded to my touch.

“Please wake up Kaycie,” I whisper in her ear.

I sit back down and intertwine our fingers. Her hand looks so small in my large hand. God how I want to see those gorgeous eyes of hers. I lay my head down on her bed.
