

Chapter 186

Lucas didn't return to his office after leaving the Sandoval Group. He asked the driver to go back to the Thomas villa,

After getting out of the car, Lucas threw the coat to the butler and went to Justin's study alone.

Dwayne's report let Justin know that Lucas had given the shares of the Sandoval Group to Jessica. After Lucas entered the study, Justin finally revealed a satisfied smile.

"Lucas, I heard that you gave Jessica the Sandoval shares. You did a good job, my smart boy."

Justin didn't care about the shares of a small company. If these shares were conducive to Jessica's re marriage to Lucas, the Thomas Group could get far more benefits.

Justin had been engaged in the business world for many years, so he was well aware of these schemes.

During this period, Lucas had been making his own decisions and escaping Justin's control. Now, Lucas had finally followed his expectations without going awry.

Lucas lowered his head to hide the emotions in his eyes. He pursed his lips and didn't answer.

Justin continued to ask, ignoring Lucas' silence, "Did you ask Jessica to remarry me?" :

"Grandpa, I won't marry Jessica again." Lucas thought of his conversation with Jessica in the park that night, Jessica emphasized that they were divorced, which was a throb of pain in his heart,

"Bastard!" Justin was furious when he knew Lucas didn't change his mind. "You've given Jessica the shares of the Sandoval Group. Why didn't you sound her out about her idea of remarrying you?"

Justin looked at Lucas and pondered. Then he asked, "Is Jessica not satisfied? What condition did she require? Tell me."

"No, grandpa." Lucas felt irritated in his heart. He took a deep breath and said, "Jessica has never made any requests. She only wants to stay away from all of our family members."

"Silly! She was just angry. How can you take her words seriously?" Justin choked and coughed,

Lucas didn't answer. He looked up at Justin and said, "Grandpa, I plan to send Olivia to our branch office in Paris."

"What did you just say?" For a moment, Justin thought that he misunderstood Lucas. He thought of Lucas' words and his face sank. "Did Jessica find out Olivia was involved? Did you tell her anything?"

"Grandpa, with the Hall family's influence in LA, do you think she can't find some clues by herself?" Lucas asked.

"Then you can ask Olivia to apologize to her. Besides, haven't you given Jessica the shares? Does she still want to punish Olivia?"

Justin also felt that Olivia was a troublemaker, But ever since Max died, Justin became a lot more tolerant of his only granddaughter.

His indulgence completely spoiled Olivia.

Lucas was not surprised by Justin's reaction. He had made up his mind.

"It has nothing to do with Jessica. I just don't want Olivia to continue like this. She might make a bigger mistake which will affect the entire Thomas Group," Lucas said coldly.

Justin frowned. For Justin, his grandson and his son were as important as the entire Thomas family

Lucas' words just hit the point.

"What are you going to do?" Justin walked to the desk and sat down. He didn't lose his temper but leaned back in his chair, intending to listen to Lucas' arrangements.

"Our Paris office is our largest office in Europe. Olivia can start as an ordinary employee. After achieving some good performance and getting a promotion, she can be transferred back to the LA headquarters."

"Sounds not bad."

After knowing Olivia could still return to LA, he didn't object to Lucas' plan that much.

The only problem he felt was that Lucas had arranged for Olivia to start working as an employee.

As Morgan's daughter, Jessica started from being the general manager of the family company's branch.

However, when Justin thought of Olivia's ability, he shook his head and dropped his idea.

"Then let's do as you say." Justin sighed and leaned against the chair back.

"I will arrange it as soon as possible. I need to tell you that this time, I won't give her any convenience or privilege, nor will I ask the head of the Paris branch to take care of her." Lucas added.

of therLucas added.eran

"I disagree!" A female voice suddenly came from outside the door.

Remarriage His Billionaire Ex-Wife By H.D. Cynthia Chapter 187

Chapter 187

Ever since she overheard the conversation between Justin and Lucas and learned that Justin wanted Lucas to remarry Jessica, Olivia had been paying attention to whatever Justin did.

Jessica and Olivia never got along well, and Olivia set Jessica several times.

If Jessica really married Lucas, with Justin's current attitude towards Jessica, Olivia knew that she would be in a much more miserable state than now.

Today, when Lucas returned, Olivia went to eavesdrop again.

She waited until Lucas went into Justin's home office. Then she tiptoed near the home office to hear their conversation.

To her surprise, this time she finally heard something about herself.

When she heard that Lucas intended to send her away from LA and to Paris, she resisted the urge to break in.

Olivia kept telling herself to be patient and wait for Lucas to leave. Then she could plead with Justin and Rebecca.

But then, she heard something more. Lucas arranged for her to be an ordinary employee in Paris and Justin agreed with it! She couldn't hold back anymore.

Olivia opposed loudly at the door. "I disagree!"

Just as she finished speaking, the door in front of her was opened, and Lucas, who looked unhappy but was not angry, stood at the door.

Olivia looked at Lucas' grim face and was stunned for a moment. This was the first time she had found Lucas so unfamiliar.

"You eavesdropped on us? Get in here!" Justin shouted angrily from inside and his angry shout startled Olivia.

"Grandpa, I'm not going. I don't want to go to Paris!" Faced with Justin's anger, she still walked in while sobbing.

"It's not up to you!" Justin looked at Olivia and frowned.

He found that as the young lady of the Thomas family, Olivia wasn't elegant enough. She couldn't be compared with Jessica, the young lady of the Hall family at all, so Justin found Lucas' arrangement somewhat reasonable.

"I don't want to be away from Mommy. And I don't want to be away from you, Grandpa." When Olivia thought of her miserable life later on, she cried even more. She had to go to Paris alone and she had to work!

"You will come back one day." Justin softened his tone and said, "Your brother wants you out to gain experience. Look at Jessica. She is now managing the entire branch company alone. Isn't that impressive? If you work hard, people will know that you're not bad either. You are the young lady of the Thomas family!"

"Why should I compare myself to Jessica? She likes to gain public attention and deal with different men. I don't want to be like her." Olivia didn't listen to Justin at all.

"Olivia!" Lucas heard Olivia's words and suddenly called out her name coldly.

Olivia was startled and quickly shut her mouth. She looked at Lucas' cold eyes and could not help but shiver.

She didn't know when it started, but her brother, who had always been on her side, began to favor Jessica.

She only said a few words, and Lucas was already angry.

"Stop!" Justin, who was sitting on the chair, had a headache as he looked at Olivia. He snorted coldly and his tone turned cold. "Olivia, look at you now. Do you still look like an elegant young lady? The decision is made. You can ask the servants to help you pack your luggage now. Go out."

Justin looked out the window after he said this, as if he didn't want to hear her say anything further.

Olivia looked at Justin, then at Lucas. After that, she stomped her feet angrily, crying as she ran out.

She cried as she ran back to her room. Along the way, the servants all looked at her in a panic and avoided her.

She lay on the bed and cried for a while. She thought for a long time and found that nobody could help her now, including her mother, Rebecca, and her father, who was always with his mistress and never returned home.

The matter of her going to Paris seemed to have been decided.

It was Jessica's fault!

Jessica is so annoying! She has divorced Lucas. Why does she still affect my life?'

Olivia bit her lip and thought hatefully.

And Lucas!

Olivia thought that she was obviously helping Lucas this time. If he seized the opportunity, perhaps Jessica would have agreed to remarry him by now.

Oh no, no!

Olivia suddenly thought of something else. 'If Jessica really remarries Lucas, I might never be able to come back to LA.

Even if she had to leave, she could not let Jessica get married to Lucas smoothly!

After Olivia left, Lucas said goodbye to Justin and returned to the company.

Justin sat in the home office and pondered for a moment. He picked up the fixed phone on the table and called Dwayne.

“Dwayne, come here.” Justin hung up the phone after he said this.

After a while, Dwayne knocked on the door of Justin’s home office.

“Mr. Thomas, what can I help?” Dwayne was as steady and polite as ever. He stood a few steps away from Justin’s desk.

“Well, before Jessica and Lucas divorced each other, our family owed her something.” Justin seemed a little tired. He looked at Dwayne and said slowly, “Now, I think it would be great if Lucas could remarry Jessica.”

“Yes, Mr. Thomas. the Hall family is the most compatible with Lucas.” Dwayne followed Justin’s words.

“So, I plan to help Lucas clear the obstacles. That’s why I agreed when Lucas said he wanted to send Olivia away,” Justin said seriously.

Dwayne didn’t say anything, but it could be seen that he was surprised by his expression.

“But there is one more person who needs to be dealt with,” Justin said.

“Mr. Thomas, are you talking about the second daughter of the Cheek family?” Dwayne asked.

Justin did not speak and just nodded.

A few days later, Dwayne came alone to the apartment where Trissy and Luna were temporarily staying.

Luna and Trissy never expected that Dwayne would personally visit them. The two of them looked at Dwayne at the door and exchanged glances. Luna took the lead to smile at Dwayne. "Mr. Dantes, long time no see."

Luna said, leading Dwayne into the apartment.

What Justin didn't know was that on the day he decided to send Olivia away, Olivia called Luna and Trissy.

Olivia told them that Justin wanted Lucas and Jessica to remarry.

And she also said that Lucas would send her out of LA.

This shocked Luna and Trissy greatly.

The last time, Trissy set Jessica up, but Jessica released the recording.

After that, Lucas sent Trissy out of the country, but Olivia was Lucas' sister! He did this to his sister because of Jessica.

Luna and Trissy found that something was wrong. But when Luna went to Jessica last time, Lucas let Vincent warn her seriously.

This time, they didn't dare to go to Jessica.

In the end, before they could think of a way, Dwayne came first.

“Mr. Dantes, have a seat.”

Dwayne took out the check and went straight to the point, “Miss Cheek, I came here today because Mr. Thomas told me to. You’re smart enough. I won’t say anything more.”

As he spoke, he handed a check of fifty million to Luna. “Miss Cheek, Lucas is going to remarry Miss Hall. Mr. Thomas said that you will affect the relationship between Lucas and Miss Hall if you continue to stay here. Miss Cheek, Mr. Thomas wants you to live in another city if you’re willing to.

“This fifty million is the compensation from the Thomas family for you, Miss Cheek.”

Luna was clearly delighted when she saw the check, but when she heard Dwayne, her face immediately paled. “Mr. Dantes, what do you mean? I don’t quite understand.”

Dwayne was nearly fifty years old, and he had far more life experience than Luna and Trissy. Luna’s pitiful trick was useless to him.

He looked at Luna calmly as she acted, “Miss Cheek, I have made it very clear. If you insist on staying in LA, then the Thomas family will show no mercy.”

Trissy couldn’t take it anymore. “We can stay wherever we want. It’s our right. Mr. Dantes, it’s fine if the Thomas family refuses to accept any of us as Lucas’ wife. But LA doesn’t belong to the Thomas family. Don’t you think you go too far?”

“Miss Cheek, you misunderstood Me: Thomas. You and Luna have always had a grudge against Miss Hall. After Lucas and Miss Hall get married, you will meet one day. Miss Cheek, do you think Lucas and the Thomas family will help you or Mrs. Thomas?”

Dwayne didn’t say a lot of things, but every sentence he said was harsh and mean. Luna and Trissy were embarrassed by his words.

Luna was so angry that her face turned pale. "Mr. Dantes, don't worry. We know ourselves well. As long as Lou doesn't want to see me, I won't try to embarrass myself. Mr. Dantes, take the fifty million back to Mr. Thomas. I want to marry Lou because of him, not because of how rich the Thomas family is."