Chapter 900

After that, Jared opened up Leviathan's mouth and shoved the rejuvenating pill down his throat. He even made sure to massage Leviathan's stomach gently so that the pill would go straight into his gut.

It wasn't long before Leviathan's face looked alive again, and his heartbeat became a lot more noticeable. However, his eyes remained tightly shut as he was still unconscious.

Colin, who happened to come in at the time, grew excited when he saw his father's condition improving. "Dad! Dad! Wake up! Look at me! It's me, Colin!" he shouted while throwing himself at Leviathan.

Although Colin received no response whatsoever, the fact that Leviathan's heartbeat could be clearly felt was a good enough indicator of his well-being.

"Mr. Chance, what's wrong with my dad?" he asked while looking at Jared in confusion.

"I have given him a rejuvenating pill, but it will take about forty nine hours before he regains consciousness. Make sure you keep him safe in the meantime," Jared explained.

Colin nodded profusely. "Thank you, Mr. Chance!"

If Leviathan were to die, then Shadow Estate would surely go down with him. Given Colin's capabilities, he couldn't possibly manage the entire estate all by himself.

Jared then gave Colin a few more reminders before returning to the Department of Justice with Lyanna.

Theodore felt a little surprised when he saw Jared returning so soon.

Unbeknownst to him, Leviathan was the main reason behind Jared's speedy return. Had it not been for Leviathan, Jared would've synthesized the jet melding cream for Tommy and Phoenix before returning.

"General Jackson, I want you to summon all the team members right now," Jared ordered.

Theodore nodded and instructed Shane to have all team members assemble in the martial arts arena.

Standing in the front, Jared retrieved dozens of body pills from his pocket and held them up for all to see. The first thing they noticed was the pleasant aroma that emanated from the pills.

"What are those, Mr. Chance?" Theodore asked softly.

"These are body pills that I had the elders from the Medicine God Sect synthesize last night. These pills will strengthen all of you, so you should be seeing results very soon if you train according to my instructions," Jared replied.

"Body pills synthesized by the elders from the Medicine God Sect?" Theodore stared wide-eyed at Jared in shock.

Pills from the Medicine God Sect are especially expensive, especially those synthesized by the elders! How on earth did Jared get his hands on dozens of these? These would sell for billions on the market!

The other members too were curious and surprised by what they saw. Had it not been for Jared, they would probably never be able to afford even a single one of those pills.

Unable to withhold his curiosity any longer, Shane asked, "Mr. Chance, are you really the Lord of Medicine God Sect?"

They had all doubted Jared when he claimed to be the Lord of Medicine God Sect because of his ridiculously young age. On top of that, the elders capable of synthesizing pills were all Martial Arts Grandmasters, so it was highly unlikely for them to acknowledge a young man like him as their leader.

Simply being powerful wasn't enough for one to become Lord of Medicine God Sect. To qualify, one would need to have exceptional knowledge in both medicine and alchemy.

"How dare you doubt Mr. Chance when he has already brought the pills over? Do you want the body pill or not?" Theodore yelled angrily while kicking Shane from behind.

Shane let out a surprised yelp and quickly apologized, "I'm sorry, Mr. Chance! I didn't mean it like that! I would never dare doubt you! I was just..."
