

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence

Chapter 1190

Cole said, "I'll send you a location, you can come directly. The rest, we'll talk about it when we meet."

Cole hung up the phone after he finished speaking. Avery's body froze, and her heart couldn't stop shaking.

Elliot has disappeared in the past few days. Could it be that he did this?

After this thought came up, Avery quickly got the answer in her mind. If Elliot doesn't nod, who can take his shares?

Tears quickly blurred vision. No wonder the people around Elliot hated him so much. Because they knew about it in advance.

Elliot transferred the shares, how could they not yell at them?

Avery feels that she is now an unpardonable sinner.

They must have thought that Avery forced Elliot to do this. Although Avery hadn't had time to speak to Elliot but she really wanted to talk to him about it.

Process aside, the result is the same.

Whether he knew it in advance or waited a few days for her to tell him, Elliot would definitely be angry. Because she touched his interests, and not a little bit. More because he thought she was forcing him so much for another man.

After a while, Avery's phone screen lit up, and Cole sent the location.

Avery raised her hand to wipe away the tears on her face, quickly adjusted the expression on her face, and strode out of the office with her bag in hand.

Half an hour later, Avery drove to the restaurant where Cole and Adrian were.

When Adrian saw Avery, he immediately showed a docile smile. His eyes were as clear and clean as ever, spotless.

Avery took Adrian's arm and wanted to take him away immediately.

"Avery, are you in such a hurry to leave? When will my aunt's surgery be done? How long will the surgery take? I must ask these questions clearly, after all, my aunt's illness is a trivial matter now, and Adrian can't make any mistakes." Cole grabbed Adrian's other arm and said.

Avery looked at Cole coldly: "You despicable villain."

"What are you scolding people for? Isn't it normal between us? Is it a fair deal? Why don't you have any spirit of contract But with a smile, "your husband has nothing now. In the future, he will take care of the children at home. Will you make money to support the family?"

Avery was stunned: "Didn't Elliot only transfer one-third of the shares? He still has...."

Cole looked at the fool Looking at her with eyes and asked, "Hahaha! D*mn it. You're so stupid, you're making me die. Did the two of you quarrel? And it's the kind of fierce quarrel? Elliot transferred all his shares to Adrian. Now, Elliot has nothing. His name will finally disappear from the rich list. And in the future, my name will appear on the rich list. Haha!"

Avery seemed to have been splashed with a basin of cold water, freezing to the bone. It broke her hearts.

What was Elliot doing? Why did he give away all the shares? ! He did this to get revenge on her.

"Avery, you will take my uncle for today and also I'll give you half a month. If you haven't handed my uncle back in half a month, I will go to you." Cole saw Avery's eyes filled with tears. Filled with tears, he let go of Adrian's arm contentedly.

Shame and pain filled Avery's sanity.
