When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1377

"She said she is willing to serve you with our boss. Our boss won't agree." The bodyguard said.

Elliot's expression froze: "I will warn her not to disturb you again."

He said this to Avery.

"Well, go back and rest." Avery saw that Elliot was not looking very well, and it was estimated that he hadn't slept much last night.

Elliot nodded: "The surgery time is fixed and let me know."

"Okay."

After Elliot and Ali left, Avery took a few bites of breakfast and put it down.

"Why don't you eat?" The bodyguard saw that the porridge in her bowl didn't move much.

"I don't have any appetite." Avery touched her stomach, "Maybe I'm a little nervous thinking about the surgery."
Xander gave her milk, and said, "It's fine to eat less. It'll be fine after the surgery."

"Well. What tests are you going to do today?" Avery asked. Then she took the milk and took a sip.

Xander told her about the inspections to be done.

After Avery heard this, she frowned slightly: "Is it necessary to do another angiography?"

Xander said, "The congestion in your brain has spread, and the tumor has grown. Do it again to be safe."

"Okay! The place where the anesthesia was administered last time still hurts a bit."

"Then after today's examination, I will let you rest for two days before the operation."

Avery vaguely disturbed, "It's better to have the operation as soon as possible. The more it drags on, the more panic I feel. How about I still write a suicide note?"

Xander: "..."

Bodyguard: "Hahahaha! Xander, do you know why my boss is like this? Because I lied to Elliot like this last night. I said that the surgery failure rate is quite high, and my boss has already written a suicide note in advance."

Xander: "Are you mocking my medical skills?"

Bodyguard: "I just want to see if Elliot cares about my boss."

Xander: "But you not only scared Elliot, but also Avery."

Xander's voice settled, and his cell phone rang. After looking at the caller ID, he said to Avery and the bodyguard, "I'll go out and answer a call."

He walked outside the ward and answered the phone.

"Doctor Xander, I've already come to the hospital." On the other side of the phone was Rebecca's voice.

Xander whispered, "Oh, your dad is sick, you should take care of your dad first. I will take the embryo out of her body today, and it doesn't have to be transplanted into your body immediately."

"My dad has someone to take care of it, I don't care." Rebecca felt a little nervous and excited, "Just transplant it to me today. Doctor Xander, I'm afraid that there will be many dreams at night."

At this moment, Xander's heart beat violently. He hesitated and nervous.

–Could he accept the consequences of doing so?

There was a sound from the phone, and he picked it up to see that it was from his girlfriend.

Xander kept Rebecca's phone and took his girlfriend's call.

"Xander, where have you been these days? If you don't come back and don't let me find you, what do you think of me? I'll give you the last three days, if If you don't return to Aryadelle after three days, we will break up." The voice of his girlfriend came angrily.

Dududu!

The phone is hung up.

Xander took a deep breath and turned on Rebecca's call, "Miss Jobin, if I give you the child, can you promise to treat the child well?"
