

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1711

Avery voluntarily gave up 30% of the Tate Industries's equity.

Mike voluntarily gave up 15% of Tate Industries's equity.

The equity they voluntarily gave up was disposed of at will by Elliot.

...

He picked up the pen and signed his name under the document.

"Aren't you going to call Ms. Tate to confirm?" Shaun did not expect him to sign so neatly.

"She doesn't answer my call." Elliot put the pen back in the pen holder, "Does she have anything else to tell you?"

Shaun shook his head: "No more."

"Did she call you or Mike? What did you say on the phone?" Elliot looked at Shaun with deep meaning, "After I divorced her, I can't get through to her again."

Shaun was embarrassed: "She called me and told me."

"So She doesn't want to answer my call because she doesn't want to. Also, after divorce, there is no need to keep in touch." Elliot laughed at himself, "Not only does she not want the company, but she also doesn't want children."

Shaun was shocked: "Avery is not like this kind of lady."

Elliot: "Do you think I'm lying to you?"

Shaun shook his head sharply: "I watched Avery grow up, she has always been very well-behaved and sensible..."

Elliot: "She completely changed now. "

Shaun nodded, not daring to speak for Avery again.

When he came out of the office, Shaun met Chad, who was reporting his work.

When Chad saw Vice President Locklyn, he immediately chatted: "What's the matter with you coming here?"

Shaun told him in a low voice that Avery and Mike gave up their shareholdings in the Tate Industries.

"Is it so outrageous?" Chad couldn't believe the news.

Because the Tate Industries has always been a very important existence to Avery.

The company was founded by Jack Tate. For Avery, it is not so important that the company earns more and less. Its existence is the greatest significance.

"I don't think Mr. Foster's face is very good. If you don't want to cause trouble, then you can go in later." Shaun reminded in a low voice, and then strode away.

Chad took a deep breath and returned to his office. He took out his mobile phone, found Mike's number, and dialed—

—The user you dialed is busy, please try again later.

Chad gritted his teeth.

—Is the mic turned off, or is there something else set up?

Now they don't want the company, and they don't care about Layla and Robert, what do they want?

Chad couldn't get in touch with Mike, and his mind instantly became a mess, and his fingers were clicked randomly on the phone screen.

Suddenly, he clicked on the location.

He had previously opened GPS location sharing with Mike.

He can see the real-time location of Mike's phone, and Mike can see the real-time location of his phone.

When he saw Mike's cell phone signal, he almost didn't think about it, and immediately clicked in!

He kept zooming in on where Mike was.

Finally, the name of a hospital appeared before his eyes.

Aprilia Hospital.

This hospital is a relatively well-known private hospital in Bridgedale.

His mobile phone showed that Mike's location in the past few days was in this hospital!

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1712

Why is Mike always in the hospital?

Who is sick?

Chad took a screenshot of the location and sent it to Mike, and then sent a string of question marks.

About half an hour later, Mike turned off the positioning and called Chad at the same time.

"I'm sleeping! The phone was set to Do Not Disturb at night just now." Mike said, yawning.

Chad asked, "You're in the hospital? Who's sick? It's impossible that you're sick, right? Could it be that Avery is sick?"

Mike sneered: "Did Elliot tell you nothing?"

"What are you? What do you mean? What did my boss say to me?" Chad was at a loss.

"Also, he probably wouldn't be embarrassed to tell outsiders about such a shameful thing." Mike teased, "Whether Avery is sick or I am sick, so what? Will Elliot come to see Avery? Will you come to see me? Neither of you! So what do you have to ask?"

Chad was speechless.

Mike continued, "Avery has given up everything in the country, please let us be quiet. It's very late, I continue to sleep."

Chad: "Oh... you sleep! But can you not Off location?"

"It's already closed." Mike said, "When you resign and come to me, I'll turn it on again."

Chad snorted coldly and hung up the phone.

3 days later.

Avery removed the gauze from her eyes.

Although the gauze was removed, the world in front of him was still unknown.

"Avery, how do you feel?" Mike asked her looking into her eyes.

"It doesn't hurt much anymore." Avery felt the world with her heart, "There is a red light in front of her."

"It's fine if it doesn't hurt. I'll take you for an examination."

"Well." Mike supported Avery and walked out of the ward.

After the doctor checked Avery, he said to her, "The recovery is okay. But it will take a while for the wound to recover properly before corneal transplantation."

Mike couldn't wait to ask the doctor: "Find a suitable one. Do you have the cornea?"

The doctor shook his head: "Not yet. But you don't have to worry..."

"How can I not worry? Why can't you find a suitable cornea?" Mike burned his eyebrows and his tone became anxious.

Because Avery told him that there are no blood vessels in the cornea, so there is no need to match.

As long as the cornea donor is within the appropriate age range and the cornea is healthy, it can be transplanted.

"The laws of our Bridgedale do not allow the illegal acquisition of other people's corneas. Only corneas donated voluntarily by others can we use them for transplantation to patients in need and those who donated corneas voluntarily. There are actually very few people. And there are a lot of patients waiting for corneal transplants... So corneas are basically in short supply. The doctor explained to Mike patiently.

"What do you mean? Are you planning to arrange a team? This will be in the year of the monkey and the horse month?" Mike asked.

"Avery has a special status and is a rare talent in the medical field. The dean speaks in person, and she must be given priority. As long as there is a healthy cornea, I will keep it for Avery immediately." The doctor promised Mike, "This point Don't worry!"

Mike breathed a sigh of relief: "What if no one donates?"

The doctor said, "If there is no local donation, we can contact a hospital in another place. It is impossible that the whole Bridgedale does not have one."

"In the end, if there is none, Then use mine." Mike sighed and decided.

Avery was very calm, and after listening to Mike's words, his fingers tightly clasped him: "don't talk nonsense. Even if I'm blind for the rest of my life, I won't use your cornea. Well, let's go back!"

....

Aryadelle.

Layla got a video call from her brother after a week of doom and gloom.

Seeing the video call from her brother, Layla should have been cheering and screaming with excitement, but she couldn't laugh.

Finger conditioning wanted to take the video call immediately, but she hesitated before taking the video.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1713

Layla was very angry. But she was a child after all, and she took over the video call after only three seconds of anger.

Layla angrily stared at Hayden in the video, and said, "Why are you making a video call for me? You ignore me!"

Hayden looked at Layla's anger and explained, "I just transferred over here, very busy. And mom..."

"What's wrong with mom? Didn't she want me? I called her and she didn't answer! I'm mad at you!" Layla's voice was loud, Attracted Elliot.

Today, Elliot took Layla and Robert out to go shopping.

Layla's school, before summer vacation, has a party.

Elliot took Layla out to buy new clothes and gifts for classmates.

When Elliot's figure appeared in the video call, Hayden swallowed the words that came to his mouth.

"We didn't want you. I told you before I left that I'll make you a video call when I'm not that busy here." Hayden explained here, and didn't want to continue. "Go shopping with your dad!"

Hayden hung up the video call.

Layla looked at Elliot: "My brother said he didn't want me."

"What about your mother? Did you see your mother?" Elliot's question made Layla drop her head.

She didn't see or hear her mother's explanation.

Still heartbroken.

"Layla, I did want to send you back to your mother before, but your mother's attitude has already said everything. If she regrets it later and comes to ask for your custody, I will not give it to her." Elliot was patient with his daughter and said, "Dad will take care of you."

"My mother doesn't believe you, how can I believe you? But my mother ignores me, and my brother just coaxes me casually. If I can choose, you two, I don't want either." Layla said, Turning around and walking in front of Robert, "If I hadn't let go of my brother, I would have gone to Uncle Eric's place!"

Elliot almost forgot about Eric!

"Layla, you can go to him during the holidays, but in normal times, you have to live with Dad." Elliot said sternly.

Layla took Robert's hand and walked forward without answering the question.

.....

Yonroeville.

After Hayden hung up the video call, he walked over to his mother.

Hayden: "Mom, Layla is a little angry. But don't worry, I'll coax her."

Avery: "Hayden, should you go to school?"

It's seven in the morning.

Before Avery's eyes were in trouble, She usually got up so early. Now that her eyes are in trouble, she can't see anything, so she sleeps a lot every day.

This caused her to wake up very early every day.

Although Mike invited the nurse home, he did not share a room with her.

Mike asked the nurse to come to her room at 6:30 every morning to take care of her.

But every morning, before the nurses came into her room, Avery was awake for a while. She didn't dare to get up rashly by herself, let alone go to the bathroom by herself.

She was afraid of the dark, afraid of wrestling, afraid of causing unnecessary trouble to others.

After being discharged from the hospital, her mood became more sensitive and inferior.

She didn't dare to show it, for fear that they would be worried.

Hayden's heart sank, and he said distressedly: "Mom, today is the weekend. I'm not going to school."

Hayden's words were very light, but they caused thousands of waves in Avery's heart.

Avery can't even know the most basic time and date now, she's really useless.