

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1921

Chapter 1921

At dinner time, the bodyguards came knocking on the door.

Elliot opened the door.

“Boss, do you want to eat now or later? Do you want to go to the restaurant or have the meal be taken to your room?” The bodyguard asked.

“Go eat first!” Elliot said.

Avery’s bodyguard stood at the door and looked inside: “Where’s my boss?”

“Avery locked herself in the room.” Elliot wanted to open the door several times to find her, but he didn’t dare.

Hearing this, the bodyguard immediately broke into the presidential suite: “How can I not eat? I didn’t say that Haze died! What is this!”

After the bodyguard walked in, he realized that the suite was like a labyrinth. There are too many rooms, and he doesn’t know which room Avery lives in.

Elliot’s bodyguard wanted to drag the reckless Avery out. After all, without Elliot’s consent, how could outsiders be allowed to enter casually?

But Elliot gave his bodyguard a look and told him not to act rashly.

At the same time, Elliot pointed out Avery’s room to Avery’s guard.

The bodyguard strode over, knocked on the door, and pushed in without Avery’s permission.

Avery was startled when she saw the bodyguard come in.

“Boss, what are you crying for?” The bodyguard was stunned for a few seconds when he saw Avery’s eyes were scarlet, “The name of Haze wasn’t written in that pit? You can wait for the exact news of Haze’s death. It’s not too late to cry! In our village, people start to cry before they die, which is very unlucky. Why don’t you expect Haze to be well?”

Avery: “...”

“You eat so little in the afternoon. Aren’t you hungry now? I’m starving to death!” The bodyguard said, pulling her arm and walking out of the room, “If you don’t want to eat, the three of us want to eat. If you are sure not to eat, how can Elliot dare to eat? Elliot wouldn't eat it, and neither did his bodyguards. Do you want me to eat it alone? Why am I embarrassed?"

Avery took a deep breath and quickly adjusted the mood on her face when she stepped out of the door.

"Avery, your bodyguard is right. I know you feel sorry for the other children in that pit, but things have happened, the criminal gang has been caught, and the tragedy has stopped. All we can do is to find Haze as soon as possible." Elliot comforted.

Avery pressed her grief to the bottom of her heart and nodded: "Let's go to dinner!"

Aryadelle.

Katalina came to Norah Jones's apartment and rang the doorbell.

When Norah Jones opened the door, she was talking on the phone with her mobile phone in her hand.

When Norah saw Katalina coming, a flash of surprise flashed in her eyes, as if she didn't expect Katalina to come.

Katalina saw her cousin's surprise and unwelcome in her eyes, and immediately said, "Cousin, you sent me a message yesterday and asked me to come over to play with you when I had time. I thought you were serious, so I came... I didn't want to..." Without saying the word 'come', Norah immediately changed to a kind face.

"Come in! I'll make a phone call first." Norah brought Katalina a pair of shoes, then took the phone back to the room to talk on the phone.

Katalina changed her shoes, wandered around the living room bored, and finally stopped at the door of Norah's bedroom.

She was very curious about this strange cousin.

The Jones family was originally poor. Later, because Norah had good academic performance and insisted on studying abroad, the Jones family's parents couldn't resist her, so they borrowed money to let her study abroad.

At the beginning, the Jones family still asked the Larson family to borrow money to let Norah Jones go to school.

Chapter 1922

Fortunately, all the Jones family's efforts are rewarded.

After Norah Jones graduated, one job is better than another, and the salary has gradually risen to the point where ordinary people can't keep up.

Until now, she has become an executive of the Tate Industries, and in addition to her salary, she also has huge bonuses every year.

Katalina's father is a businessman, and his family situation has always been good, but Katalina is not interested in business management at all.

Her dream is to be a teacher, but the treatment of a teacher is naturally not comparable to that of a big company executive.

Katalina doesn't envy Norah for making more money than herself, but is curious about her abilities and aspects.

Norah said, "I can get you out, but it's just a matter of money. I contacted you, and I spent a lot of money. Now the focus is not about money, nor whether I can get you out. If I can find a way to contact you, I will definitely be able to help you get out of Yonroeville..."

The voice over the phone questioned: "Are you sure you're not lying to me? Avery lied to me! She lied to me well. Miserable!"

"Avery is also worthy of being compared with me?! My success is completely dependent on my own ability! And Avery relies on men! She used to rely on Elliot, and then she divorced Elliot, and it was immediately revealed. She's nothing now!"

"I don't know...I don't know anything, all I know is that I'll never believe her bullsh*t again...and of course she won't come to me either. It's hard to say..."

"We haven't met, and no matter how much I say, you still have doubts about me. It depends on your own choice. Except for me, do you have a better way to survive? If you don't try, how do you know that I can't help you escape?" Norah induced.

The other party fell silent.

About twenty minutes later, Norah finished talking on the phone and came out of the bedroom.

Katalina was sitting on the sofa in the living room, doing nothing, looking completely bored.

"Sorry, it took a long time to talk on the phone just now." Norah seemed to be in a good mood, "Have you had breakfast?"

Katalina: "I came here after breakfast."

"Oh, let's go out to eat at noon! I invite You eat a big meal." Norah pushed the broken hair from her ear behind her ear, "Have you started to work? Are you still used to work? If you can't do it, you can come to our company..."

"Your Company?" Katalina wondered, "Is the Tate Industries already your company?"

Norah Jones chuckled, "I'm ready to sign a gambling agreement with Elliot. As long as I complete his goal within three years, I will own half of the shares of Tate Industries."

Katalina was stunned.

"At that time, the Tate Industries will be my company." Norah Jones picked up the water glass and took a sip of water.

"But what if you can't accomplish the goal he set? He has given you so much benefit, the goal must be very high, right?" Katalina continued to raise doubts.

"Three years later, who can say for sure. Besides, I don't fight uncertain battles. Just like when I joined the Tate Industries, I said I could lead the Tate Industries to glory, and I did it." Norah said in high spirits, "As long as I decide to do, no one can stop me."

"Oh... cousin, you are really amazing!" Katalina looked at her with admiration, "Just now you're talking on the phone to whom? The voice is a bit loud, I heard a little..."

The calmness on Norah's face disappeared instantly, and her eyes became tense visibly.

"Of course, what did you hear? Is the door of my house so soundproof?" Norah raised a stiff smile.

"I only heard a little...I didn't hear much..." Katalina felt embarrassed seeing her so nervous.

"Oh... what did you hear?" Norah pressed.

Katalina cleared her throat and said, “Cousin, I’m a little thirsty. Why don’t you have any water here?”

Norah immediately went to get her water.

“I drink bottled water.” Norah Jones handed her a bottle of water, “I usually boil it and drink it. But it’s fine to drink it directly.”

“Oh...cousin, you are very particular.” Katalina saw the bottled water brand, which is a famous high-end drinking water.

“I simply like the taste of this water. In fact, the skin care products I use are very cheap, and it is because I am used to using them.” Katalina unscrewed the bottle cap, took a sip of water, and eased her mood, “Cousin, I really only heard a little...I just took a sip of water, but I can’t remember anything. Probably because I have no memory of what I heard...”

Norah looked at her cousin’s face carefully to distinguish the truth from her words.

“Cousin, you look at me like that...I’m a little scared. Did you just talk about an important phone call?” Katalina choked her throat and screwed on the cap of the water bottle.

Norah smiled and shook her head: “Of course not. It was a call from an old classmate who wanted to pursue me, but I’m used to being single...”

Katalina: “Oh! Cousin, aunt and uncle have always been hope you get married soon. But you are so good, you can’t just find a man.”

Norah Jones breathed a sigh of relief, and said, “Of course, you are still young. You don’t understand a lot of things. In fact, it’s really meaningless to find a man. Especially good men, they don’t know what to do. Don’t treat women as human beings. Women are the same to them as clothes. I don’t want to cling to any man anymore. I want to be a queen by myself, and let those men please me for what kind of men I like in the future. I’m here now, and I’m rich and powerful, so it’s okay to cover you. If you have any problems or difficulties in the future, just tell me.”

Katalina nodded gratefully: “Hmm. I haven’t encountered any difficulties for the time being.”

“But are you really not considering coming to work in our company? How tiring is being a teacher, and the salary is average. It’s also your parents who dote on you, Let you join this line. If you were my daughter, I would definitely be reluctant to bear this burden on you.” Norah persuaded in the tone of an elder.

Katalina: “Cousin, I’ve just entered the business, and I haven’t felt tired yet! When I’m really tired and can’t hold on any longer, I’ll definitely come and hug your thigh.”

Norah: “Wait for you to come to me anytime.”

Yonroeville.

After dinner, Avery didn’t want to go back to the room.

"I'll go out with you to get some air." Elliot walked up to her and held her hand in his palm, "I've already asked where the accomplice is being held. Tomorrow morning, we'll go see that person."

Avery nodded.

The climate of Yonroeville has a large temperature difference between morning and evening.

In summer, it can reach more than 40 degrees during the day, and it can drop to about 20 degrees at night.

When the two came out of the hotel, a cool breeze hit, but they didn't feel cold.

Avery looked at the street lights in the distance, walked aimlessly, panicked in her heart, and said involuntarily: "Do you know why I chose to study medicine when I was in college?"

Elliot: "Everyone has their own hobbies. You like medicine."

Avery shook her head: "Study medicine is hard. No one is born to like to suffer. Have I never told you about my grandparents?"

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1924

Chapter 1924

Elliot: "Well. They all seem to have died when you were young."

"My grandfather died when I was four years old, and my grandmother was grief-stricken because of my grandfather's death, which caused the aggravation of various chronic diseases in the body, In the end, she died of pain." Avery said this, her eyes could not help moistening, "Before they died, I was protected by someone at home, and I didn't suffer any hardships. As soon as my grandparents left, Wanda was unscrupulous."

"Why did grandpa die?" Elliot looked into her eyes distressedly.

Seeing the tears in the corners of her eyes, Elliot stretched out his hand reflexively.

Avery pushed his hand away and wiped away her tears: "My grandpa suddenly fell and injured his brain, and he was not rescued. I remembered it very clearly, when my father took me to the hospital to see grandpa for the last time, I was hope that I can cure him. Let him continue to be by my side and protect me."

"Avery, don't be sad. Your grandparents must be watching you from the sky now and continue to protect you." Elliot held her hand and continued Going forward, "There's bound to be a lot of dark things happening where we can't see, but on the bright side, there's also a lot of good things happening. If our daughter is alive and dead, and if the person who adopted her is a good person... it's all possible."

"You're self-deception and self-paralysis." While exposing him, Avery pulled her hand out of his big palm, "I'm not cold, why are you holding my hand? "

"Can you pull me when it's cold?" Elliot asked back.

"Don't be a bull's-eye." Avery gave him a deep look, looked at his face, and asked, "I have a boyfriend, and you are still like this, do you want to know what to do with you?"

"Aren't you and your boyfriend married yet? Since you are not married, your relationship is not protected by the law." Elliot defended himself, "If other people fall in love, if they are in a different place, they basically keep their mobile phones with them and send messages and calls to their partners every day. Why didn't I see your boyfriend calling you?"

Avery didn't expect Elliot to be so scheming that he was secretly observing her 'love'.

"You should also know that my boyfriend is very busy. Unlike you, when it comes to love, you don't care about work. If I remember correctly, I said you were a love-brainer before." Avery scolded him.

Elliot twitched the corners of his mouth, "If this makes you happier, then I won't refute you."

"Don't talk like you are too big. The reason why you don't refute me is because you can't refute at all." Avery raised her chin and confronted him, "You are the brain of love. At least Ben Schaffer said this."

"Can Ben Schaffer's words count?" Elliot's cheeks were flushed, and his voice was a bit lower than hers." He also scolded me. Could it be true if he scolded me? I have a good relationship with him and often joke around casually."

"It is precisely because the two of you have a good relationship that he understands you better and evaluates you more truthfully." Avery's words blocked his next words.

"What's wrong with the love brain?" Elliot couldn't refute, but could only accept it reluctantly, "Love brain shows the importance of feelings."

"Oh." Avery felt that what Elliot said was not unreasonable.

Elliot's face turned even redder. He couldn't help but want to hold her hand again.

“Let’s go back!” Avery turned around, letting her outstretched hand be empty. “The wind outside is a little cold. I don’t know if it’s the headache caused by the wind or the original headache. It’s better for me to go back and rest. Otherwise, if the state is worse tomorrow, then nothing can be done.”

“Well.”

The two walked back and arrived at the hotel not long after.

“Wait a minute to make a video call for the child!” Elliot said when he entered the elevator.

Avery: “They are in Bridgedale now.”

“I know. When the three brother and sister meet later, you can make a video call for them. I’ll just go to the side and take a look.” Elliot said humbly, “Hayden still didn’t spend the money I gave him. “

Avery: “...”

Elliot’s words made Avery almost choked.

“What’s the matter?” Elliot looked at Avery seriously, “Didn’t you say Hayden is spending a lot now? How much pocket money do you give him every month? How about I give you the money, and you transfer it to him?”

Elliot shook his head, pressed down on the floor where the room was, and took a deep breath.

Avery: “Elliot, you don’t have to worry about my life with Hayden.”

“I know you have money. You usually live a frugal life. The money you sell from the company is enough for you to spend all your life. It’s really out of money. You can also take some surgical work, and you can earn enough for your own living expenses.” Elliot said here, the conversation changed, “As for Hayden, I think with his ability, as long as he wants to make money, he can make as much money as he wants. But...”

Avery raised her head and stared at Elliot, wondering what he was going to say next.

“Avery, this time you came back to Aryadelle to find Haze and left Hayden in Bridgedale, isn’t it good? I checked, Hayden’s current age is the rebellious period of his youth, if he doesn’t have his parents to look after him, he will make mistakes easily.

Although Hayden has always hated me, but I always have this son in my heart. I hope he can finish his studies well and step into society in the future. No matter what he wants to do, as long as it is legal, I can support him.”

Elliot told Avery his inner thoughts.

Avery felt Elliot’s deep father’s love.

Every time Elliot talks to her well and treats their children sincerely, her hatred for Elliot will naturally decrease a bit.

“Since you know he has the ability to make a living, why you give him money? For him, when you gave him money last time, you were insulting him.” Avery analyzed Hayden’s thoughts with him, “The card you gave him was an insult, maybe it was thrown away by him long ago. You should report the loss quickly when you return to Aryadelle. It is absolutely impossible for him to spend a penny on you.”

Elliot: “Although I guessed the result, it’s still a little uncomfortable to hear you say it.”

Avery: “What’s so uncomfortable, it’s not the first day he treated you this way.”

While speaking, the elevator reached the designated floor. The elevator door opened slowly, and they stepped out of the elevator.

“Our bodyguards, they live in one room?” Avery suddenly remembered this.

Elliot: “It seems like, what’s the matter?”

“Isn’t it inconvenient for the two of them to live together? After all, they don’t need to take care of each other. Wouldn’t it be better for them to have two rooms?” Although Avery did not explain why they lived alone ‘Better’, but Elliot made up his mind.

Elliot: “Your bodyguard has been with you for a few years, right? You are so considerate to him. And he seems to be more daring with you. Before dinner, I didn’t dare to mess with you, but he rushed into your room...”

“Are you sure you want to eat the vinegar of my bodyguard?” Avery looked at him in disbelief, saw his thin lips move, but didn’t say a word, so she said, “Take the room key to open the door!”

Elliot mechanically took out the room card, swiped the card to open the door.

Elliot: “Can I live in the room closest to yours?”

The two entered the room, and Elliot discussed with her.

Avery frowned: "what do you mean?"

Elliot: "Our room is too far apart. I'm afraid that if something happens to you at night, or if something happens to me at night, we can take care of it."

"Then Just call our two bodyguards to live together. My bodyguard lives next to me, and your bodyguard lives next to you, so that if we have anything to do at night, the bodyguard can take care of us. " Avery smiled sweetly, ignoring his face. With a stunned expression, she strode into the room and closed the door.

After entering the room, Avery held the lock button in her hand, wondering if she should lock the door.

Avery felt that Elliot was still outside the door at the moment. If she locks the door, Elliot may hear the door lock.

After hesitating for a while, Avery finally did not lock the door.

Elliot should not come in. Even if he wanted to come in with a fever, he would definitely knock on the door. If he hadn't knocked on the door and forced his way in...He shouldn't have done so.

Chapter 1926

Judging from his attitude towards her today, Avery felt that her judgment would not be wrong. But not necessarily.

Just like she had wrongly judged him.

If Elliot dared to force his way in without knocking on the door, Avery would move in next door to the bodyguard tomorrow.

About half an hour later, Avery finished taking a shower and made a video call to Hayden.

After Hayden received the video call, the faces of the three siblings suddenly appeared on the screen.

Looking at the warm picture of the three children sitting together, Avery couldn't stop the tears in her eyes.

This was the first time the three siblings had reunited since Robert grew up a little.

Avery felt that she was not a qualified mother, and she should have reunited the three siblings long ago.

Even if she divorces Elliot, she should find an opportunity every year for the three siblings to get together.

“Robert, did you call your brother?” Avery laughed and cried, making Robert a little bewildered.

“Robert is calling brother!” Layla answered first, “Mom, don’t cry! We are so happy!”

“Mom is so happy, so I can’t help it...” Avery took the phone, went to the door and opened the door.

“Mom, are you in the hotel now?” Layla looked at the picture on the screen, “Mom, the hotel you live in is so beautiful! It’s golden, like a palace.”

“Well, the decoration style here is like this... ..” Avery said, adjusting the rear camera, intending to show the children the suite she lived in.

As a result, Elliot entered the picture like this.

Elliot had just finished taking a shower, and he was only wrapped in a bath towel. He was about to change into pajamas, but he heard Avery’s voice outside the door, so he walked out involuntarily.

Who knows, when Avery is holding her mobile phone, facing him...

“You...” Avery saw Elliot wrapped in a bath towel, and her cheeks flushed. “Why did you come out without wearing clothes?”

Avery immediately covered the camera of her mobile phone, walked quickly to Elliot, and pushed him into the room, “I’m doing a video call with the children!”

Elliot understood what happened After the situation, immediately walked to the front of the suitcase and looked for clothes to wear.

“...my pajamas...?” Elliot quickly rummaged through the clothes in the box, but didn’t see the pajamas.

Avery took a deep breath, took a hotel nightgown from the closet next to it, and threw it to him: “You can do it first!”

“Okay...” Elliot quickly put the nightgown on.

Avery released the camera when she saw that Elliot was dressed.

She turned the camera to the front and looked at Layla and Hayden who were also embarrassed on the screen.

Only Robert smiled beamingly because he saw his father just now.

“Mom, didn’t you say you wouldn’t live in the same room with Dad?” Layla looked at her mother and said suspiciously, “You two, are you living together!”

Avery wanted to say no, but she felt she couldn’t hide it.

Avery: “This is the presidential suite. I don’t share a room with him.”

“Dad came out with no clothes on...I don’t think there is any difference between the two of you living in a suite, and living in a room.” Layla bluntly expose.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1927

Chapter 1927

Avery sighed lightly and wanted to explain to her daughter. At this time, Elliot spoke up. “Layla, your mother didn’t want to live in the same room with me, but I insisted on staying with her. Because the security here is not very good, I’m afraid your mother is in danger...”

“I think you are the biggest danger.” Layla gave her father no face at all.

Elliot blushed instantly. He could detect subtle changes in his daughter.

When Layla didn’t go to Hayden’s side, she was not so ruthless to him.

Avery couldn’t help laughing, and walked to the living room sofa and sat down.

“What are you doing?”

“We’re... playing around!” Layla took the phone and switched the camera, so Mike and Chad appeared.

The two of them were sitting aside, not knowing what they were whispering.

Layla cuts to the two of them, and they don’t even know it.

“Brother Chad, thank you for sending Robert and Layla to Bridgedale, did they trouble you on the way?” Avery saw Chad, so she spoke politely.

Chad was so frightened that his soul flew away when he heard Avery speak to him. He suddenly looked at the camera, and when he saw that Layla was holding the phone facing him, he smiled: "Layla, you changed the camera, why didn't you say anything?"

Chad walked over to Layla and turned the camera to into the front.

"Hello Avery! Layla and Robert are very obedient. Robert didn't make any noise on the plane and didn't bother me at all. Layla doesn't have to worry about me."

Avery: "That's good, I should have taken them. Let's go."

"It's alright, are you all okay over there?" Chad was more concerned about his boss.

Avery understood his mood, so he turned the camera to Elliot.

And Elliot didn't want to look at his assistant at all. He just wanted to see the kids. But he was afraid that Hayden would see that he was unhappy, so he kept hiding from the camera.

"Talk to the child." Elliot whispered to Avery.

Chad didn't expect the boss to be so ruthless, so he could only walk away in despair.

Avery was a little tired after talking about the video call with the three children, so she took her mobile phone and prepared to go back to the room.

"Avery, I'm really worried." Elliot said suddenly.

Avery stopped and looked at him: "what are you worried about?"

"Hayden and Layla don't want to look at me. I've been waiting for Robert to call me, so that I can enter the camera openly, but Robert starts from the beginning. He didn't call me at the end." Elliot was heartbroken, "I suspect now that when I finally raise Robert, Robert will follow Layla and run to Hayden, which is you."

Avery: "..."

"Chicken and egg beat, one shot and two scattered, both people and money are empty..." Elliot lamented.

Avery felt that what Elliot said was very likely, so she comforted: "If you can't change it, just accept the reality. It's very late today, go back to your room to rest!"

"You really don't want me to sleep in the room next to you?" Elliot got closer.

Avery: "Is there any difference between you living in the next room and living in your current room? Not both..."

"Yes! Since there is no difference, why don't you let me live in the room next to you?" Elliot said. When he reacted, he immediately walked towards the room next to her.

Avery: "..."

Forget it!

Seeing that in the near future, he will be slaughtered and scattered, let him sleep next door!

At night, Avery had some insomnia.

The scene she saw when she went to the corpse pit in the afternoon would pop up in her mind uncontrollably.

Even if she fall asleep because she's too sleepy, she will soon dream of those terrible scenes. That night, she couldn't count how many times she woke up.

At 7 o'clock in the morning, Avery couldn't bear the nightmare and simply got up.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1928

Chapter 1928

After washing, Avery came out of the room.

The door of the next room was closed, Elliot should still be resting.

Avery was going to go down for breakfast first. Just as she walked to the door and was about to go out, Elliot's door opened.

Elliot was neatly dressed, with a fresh face, and walked towards Avery.

"Why did you get up so early?" Avery asked in surprise.

"Avery, didn't you get up too?" Elliot went out with her, "Look at your dark circles, you lost sleep last night?"

"No, I fell asleep, but I just kept having nightmares." Avery said, covering her mouth with her hands. She yawned, "Go see that accomplice after breakfast!"

Elliot looked at her with a worried look, and suggested, "If you don't eat breakfast, go back to your room and take a nap first? You might sleep better during the day."

Avery: "Is there any scientific basis?"

"No." Elliot was stunned, "Or take some medicine?"

"I don't have trouble falling asleep, so I don't need medicine." Avery declined his suggestion, "Don't habitually rely on medicine. It's medicine, three points of poison."

Elliot: "But there are many chronic diseases that require long-term medication."

Avery said, "If you have chronic diseases, you have to take medicine. If you are not sick, don't take medicine indiscriminately. It's like a minor illness and a pain, you can handle it yourself. No need to take medicine. It's the same for children. Don't turn my two children into medicine jars."

Elliot did not dare to answer.

Avery glared at him and threatened him with her eyes.

"Robert gets sick every time the season changes. I don't need to go into details about how pitiful the child is. He must be given medicine, otherwise he will cry." Elliot confessed truthfully, "Layla is fine. It looks like she is sick two or three times a year."

Avery knew that the child was sick and pitiful, so she didn't blame him for that.

Avery: "When Layla was by my side, I got sick at most twice a year."

"Two or two or three times, isn't the difference?" Elliot pondered for a few seconds, "I also get sick three or four times a year."

Avery: "You're weak, you're still proud?"

"What about you? You don't get sick all year round?" Elliot retorted, "You're so good, so I'll ask you to take care of me and my child?"

Avery felt she dug a hole for herself.

After breakfast, when she thought of meeting the criminal accomplice who broke the news about the corpse pit, she immediately became in high spirits, with no sign of distress.

"I'll call the bodyguards." Elliot took out his mobile phone and was about to call the two bodyguards down.

Avery said: "It's still early. Since they are still resting, let them rest! We can go by ourselves."

Elliot raised his eyebrows slightly: "It's their job to protect us. We go out and they sleep in the hotel? Are you sure?"

Avery didn't stick to these small details: "Didn't you say that the person was detained in the detention center in the city center? We don't go to remote places, and it's fine without bodyguards. If you are so afraid, call your bodyguard!"

Avery picked up the milk cup and drank the milk. Of course Elliot was reluctant to admit that he was timid.

Elliot put away his phone and went to the detention center with her.

The two called a special car at the hotel and went to the detention center.

Arriving at the detention center, the police station staff immediately took the criminal accomplice out.

Avery was shocked when she saw the middle-aged woman with her hands shackled in front of her.

This...isn't this the woman she met last time she came to Yonroeville?

The two of them made a deal at the hospital.

The woman asked her for enough sleeping pills for euthanasia, she pretended to agree, and then the woman told her that Haze was sold to Aryadelle.

She didn't expect that they would meet again so soon.

Unexpectedly, this woman actually broke such a shocking surprise.
