

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2140

Chapter 2140

“Ali, go home first.” Avery said to Ali.

“Didn’t you buy chestnuts?” Ali wondered, “Is something wrong at home?”

“Elliot and Hayden are at home, I’m afraid they will quarrel again.” Avery said worriedly, “Hayden still so angry to me. He must also be angry with Elliot.”

Ali comforted her: “When you didn’t come out of the room last night, they didn’t quarrel. Hayden only had an attack when he saw you come out.”

Avery’s temple hurt a bit: “I’m still worried.”

Ali: “Then let’s go back now.”

The villa.

The nanny gave Elliot a bowl of chicken soup, and then brought another bowl of chicken soup to Hayden’s room.

When the nanny brought soup to Hayden, she told Hayden that Elliot was back.

So Hayden came out of the room with the chicken soup.

This was his mother’s home, which was equivalent to his home. As Avery’s legal ex-husband, Elliot was an outsider in the family, so he won’t hide in the room and let Elliot saw jokes.

The nanny did not expect Hayden to come out. But seeing Hayden finally willing to come out, she was relieved. But when Hayden walked to the living room and saw Elliot, he gasped again.

Father and son meet each other, shouldn’t it be like last night...

“Hayden, why don’t I go out for a walk with you? You haven’t gone out all day today...”
The nanny wanted to take Hayden Get out and avoid.

Hayden’s eyes were fixed on Elliot’s face.

Elliot’s heart beat faster when his son watched.

Elliot said to the nanny: “Go and get busy! I’ll chat with Hayden.”

“Oh oh... OK!” The nanny quickly walked towards the kitchen.

In the living room, only the father and son were left.

Elliot sat down on the sofa, picked up the soup bowl, and took a sip of soup.

Hayden also walked to the sofa and sat down. Not to be outdone, he picked up the soup bowl and took a sip of soup.

“Hayden, you can be mad at me, but don’t be mad at your mother. She blamed herself last night, tossing and turning all night and couldn’t sleep.” Elliot broke the silence, “No matter how much you blame me or hate me, It’s okay. It’s okay if you scold me. But don’t hate your mother for that.”

Hayden: “Don’t try to sow discord there. You can’t sow my relationship with my mom!”

“You know I’m not trying to sow discord.” After drinking the soup, Elliot put the soup bowl on the coffee table and looked at Hayden calmly, “I don’t want you to hate me either. But I know I can’t change your mind. I can only tell you, I never thought of deliberately cause you trouble. On the contrary, I am most afraid of causing trouble for you, so I will make such a choice.”

“Only a coward would choose to use death to escape trouble!” Hayden said. He looked down on his behavior.

“You’re right. I’m not as good as you.” Elliot was willing to show weakness to his son, “I accidentally learned that Travis planned to use me to blackmail your mother into marrying his son Emilio. I can’t watch your mother marry someone else. And this makes me more uncomfortable than killing me. Hayden, if you were me, what would you do?”

Elliot asked this deliberately, not only to know how his son behaved, but also to shorten the distance with his son.

“I will make those who threaten me pay a heavy price. If I die, I will let them be buried with me!” Hayden gave this answer without hesitation.

Elliot looked at him with a look of relief: “Even if I’m gone in the future, I don’t have to worry about your mother and your siblings being bullied. Hayden, I’m relieved to have you take care of them.”

Elliot’s eyes were very gentle, and his tone was doting.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2141

Hayden's face turned red.

"I think you're old. You're going to commit suicide because of that old thing. It's stupid!" Hayden scolded him a little lower.

Elliot: "As people grow older, their temper does change. When I first met your mother, your mother suffered a lot of grievances with me. Of course, I was also very aggrieved at that time and I like your mother very much."

Hayden didn't know much about their past.

So he suddenly heard Elliot talk about it, he thought it was very interesting, and he didn't interrupt.

When Avery came back, the living room was peaceful.

The nanny walked up to her with a smile and whispered to Avery, "the two of them didn't quarrel. Mr. Foster followed Hayden in everything and didn't give Hayden a chance to get angry at all."

Avery breathed out silently.

"Boss, should I go buy chestnuts?" Ali asked behind her.

"Okay." Avery responded, walked to Hayden and sat down, "Hayden, let mother see your face."

"It's all right." Hayden didn't want his mother to see the scars on his face.

Avery grabbed his hand and held it in her own. After thinking for a moment, she said, "Hayden, we can't look at your father in the eyes of normal people now. When people are sick, their minds are very fragile. Your father's condition is like a terminally ill person. His condition is worse than that of ordinary patients. So I have always been cautious, fearing that he will be stimulated."

"It turns out that every time I was cautious, I was reminding him that he was not the Elliot he used to be..." Avery added, "We'll just treat him as a normal person in the future."

Elliot got up from the sofa with an embarrassed look: "Let's go eat!"

"Mom, I just drank the soup, and I don't want to eat it now. Go eat it!" Hayden took his hand out of his mother's palm and walked outside.

"Hayden, it's cold outside, you have to wear a coat!" Avery was worried and went to his room to get him a coat.

Hayden stood at the door of the villa, leaning on his side, waiting for his mother to bring his coat.

Elliot stood in the living room, also turned his body sideways, his eyes fell on Hayden.

Out of the corner of Hayden's eyes, he saw that his father was looking at him, and he was very uncomfortable, so he lowered his head, raised his foot and kicked the stone that did not exist under his feet.

Not long after, Avery came out with Hayden's coat and put it on Hayden.

"Put the mask on." Avery took a mask out of the shoe cabinet and handed it to him, "Don't go far, come back for dinner after a walk."

Hayden put on the mask and walked out.

Avery watched Hayden walk away, and then walked towards Elliot.

Avery: "What did you talk about with Hayden?"

Elliot: "We talked about our past. I don't know if we didn't talk, but after chatting, I realized that so many years have passed."

Avery: "Does he like to hear those things?"

"Didn't you know? Have you told him about our past?" Elliot asked, "Hayden listened very carefully."

"What is there to talk about in the past?" Avery cheeks were hot, and she thought about their past, and her face became even hotter. "Don't you feel ashamed to tell your child this?"

"What is there to be ashamed of! At his age, he has already reached the age of first love. Maybe some day a little girl will lead him by the nose." Elliot said what he was seeing everything, "My son is like me, and the person who can control him in the future must be a girl with a sweet personality."

"Are you complimenting me indirectly?" Avery raised her eyebrows.

"It used to be sweet." Elliot seemed to be reminiscing, and after recalling, he concluded, "You are more domineering now."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2142

Avery's smile suddenly solidified.

"I also like your domineering." Elliot added, "I used to think that I should protect you and our children, and I think it's my duty. But now I can't protect you, and I want you to protect me, causing me that it was difficult to accept mentally, so I was depressed for a while."

"Then have you figured it out now?" Avery could feel a lot of relaxation from his light tone.

"Hayden taught me a lesson today." He shrugged, "I feel like I might be really old."

"Don't think like that. Everyone gets old. When people get old, they are like old worn-out machines. It is inevitable that there will be a shaft." Avery said and picked up the chopsticks and gave him a piece of beef, "Eat and drink well, I hope there will always be."

"You went to see those experts today, do you think they are reliable?" Elliot expressed doubts about the person Mike found.

Avery put a chopstick of green vegetables in her mouth and chewed it slowly: "I don't know enough about it yet, so I don't dare to make comments. But that Ivory Pepin is still very famous. I never thought he would come to help me."

"He was attracted by the resurrection technique!" Elliot guessed.

"Yes. Like me, Ivory doesn't believe in such a miraculous operation at all. It's too sensational to bring people back to life." Avery said and she changed the conversation, "Maybe our thinking has been solidified, so it is difficult to accept beyond things within the scope of her own knowledge."

Speaking of which, Avery asked, "What about you? Did you go to the Tate Industries today? Have you met Norah?"

"Yes." Elliot looked relaxed, "Avery, The Tate Industries is yours. It will always be yours. I won't rob you of anything."

Avery: "I know. I doubted you before, but then I chose to trust my own judgment."

"When you have free time, transfer the company back to your name." Elliot discussed with her, "Or Tomorrow!"

"So anxious?" Avery glanced at him, "I don't think you need to transfer it to me. It's fine under your name. You must have made a private will, right? When you made your will, give the Tate Industries to Layla. Just pull it."

Elliot: "Okay."

The hospital.

Norah came to Travis's ward to visit him.

"Dad, how are you feeling today?" Norah put the flowers on the table.

"What are you doing here?" Travis asked. His face was sullen.

"My mother asked me to come and see you." Norah calmly replied, "Also, I have good news for you."

Travis's eyes suddenly lit up: "What good news? You found Emmy? Finding Emmy is good news!"

"I don't have any news about Emmy. I'm sorry." Norah lowered her head in shame.

"Hehe, I knew you were useless! Even Emilio didn't find Emmy, how could you find Emmy?" Travis glared at her contemptuously, "Tell me, what do you want to tell me?"

"Dad, do you still want the Tate Industries?" Norah asked seriously, "Today, with the attitude of giving it a try, I chatted with the top management of Sterling Group to achieve the goal ahead of schedule and whether I can immediately fulfill the promises in the gambling contract, the other side said yes. He didn't even say to ask Elliot... So I asked him for a share transfer contract after the performance of the agreement."

Norah opened the bag and took the contract from the inside and took it out and handed it to Travis.

"I have read the contract, and it matches the terms in the gambling agreement." Norah said.

Travis gave the nanny a look, and the nanny immediately raised the head of his hospital bed.

"Dad, it's actually the equivalent of spending your money to buy shares in the Tate Industries." Norah explained, "I personally think that the Tate Industries is a company with great potential. You will never lose money if you buy it."

"How much does it cost?" Travis put on his glasses and asked while looking at the contract.

Norah: "$14 billion."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2143

Chapter 2143

Travis frowned suddenly: "Norah, you really think I should spend so much money to buy shares of the Tate Industries?"

"Dad, if you give this opportunity to others, someone will be willing to pay the money." Norah argued, "Now Elliot is busy with his life, and Avery is busy looking for experts to study his disease, the two of them have no time to manage the Tate Industries, so there is a loophole to take advantage of. If you don't take this opportunity, what if Avery rescues Elliot?"

Travis couldn't read the contract when Norah talked about this.

"Norah, are you sure what you said is true?" Travis had been busy with Margaret's wedding these days and planning a bigger business, so he didn't pay much attention to Tate Industries.

"I'm sure. If I'm not sure, how would I dare to tell you?" Norah was afraid that Travis would not believe her, so she said, "I have a good personal relationship with the vice president of Sterling Group. As long as Elliot didn't ask him to target me, he wouldn't. It's embarrassing for me. And we are all here according to the gambling agreement I signed with Elliot. Even if Elliot makes trouble in the future, he will not take care of it."

Travis stared at Norah, and after thinking for a few seconds, he decided to fight.

Because the prospects of the Tate Industries were far ahead of the MH Medicine.

Now even if he emptied out MH Medicine, he had to eat the big fat Tate Industries!

After all, Margaret was dead, and his plan was likely to be stranded.

Now it depended on whether the Tate Industries could succeed in this wave.

Travis: "Okay. I'll leave this matter to you. Once it's done, the Tate Industries will be handed over to your supervisor in the future."

Norah: "Thank you Dad. I will not disappoint your expectations. You have a good rest, and I will do it tomorrow. When it is done, I will see you again."

"You must report to me every day. If something goes wrong, do you know what will happen to you?" Travis said seriously.

Norah: "I understood."

After coming out of the hospital, Norah got into the car, turned on her phone, clicked on the ticketing software, and started to look back Airfare for Aryadelle.

The world is so big, but it seems that there is no place to live.

It's Norah's fault that she had too much ambition at the beginning, but her ability could not support such ambition.

The next day, in the morning.

Her card received $14 billion from Travis.

Because the gambling agreement was signed by her and Elliot, the money could only be transferred to the Tate Industries through her to complete the gambling agreement.

But in fact, Norah signed a cancellation letter with Elliot yesterday to terminate the gambling agreement.

This money, Norah was cheating!

It was Elliot who asked Norah to lie to Travis.

Because Travis loved money, Elliot wanted to make Travis bleed!

Norah looked at the number of $14 billion on the phone screen, and was about to burst.

In fact, she could take the money and escape to the ends of the earth, as long as she was determined not to let Travis find it, she would definitely be able to hide it well.

Travis was over 70 years old, and he would definitely die in a few years.

When he's dead, Norah won't have to hide anymore. But thinking that her parents would be killed by Elliot by doing this, and that she had to live through countless lives hiding like ants, her scalp felt numb.

After taking a deep breath, she made a quick decision.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2144

Chapter 2144

Tate Industries Bridgedale Branch.

As soon as Norah got to work today, the secretary of the general manager's office notified the executives of various departments to have a meeting in the conference room.

The employees of the branch were basically recruited by Norah.

The highest-level leader they could usually come into contact with was Norah.

So when the meeting started, Chad informed everyone that after Norah had resigned from the company, everyone showed shocked expressions on their faces.

“Why did Ms. Jones suddenly leave?”

“She was fine at work the day before yesterday. She also discussed the Q4 sales with me... It’s all too sudden.”

Chad listens to everyone After speaking, he explained: “Norah quit the Tate Industries for personal reasons. As for her future development, you can ask her privately. From now on, she has no relationship with the Tate Industries. “

“Chad, isn’t that the real reason? You don’t need to tell us this kind of cliché. If you don’t tell us the real reason, Norah will not dare to tell the real reason.”

“Norah was fired by you, right?”

“Everyone is not a fool, before Elliot came, Norah was working well in the company, how could she leave by herself?”

“Norah was indeed fired, do you want to follow her?” Chad’s expression was sharp and his tone increased a bit, “The main content of today’s meeting, in addition to notifying you Norah’s resignation, also informs you, There will be a lot of changes in the company’s personnel in the future. After the new personnel manager goes to work, I will talk to you one by one!”

Most of the people in the company are Norah’s confidants and must be eliminated!

After Chad’s remarks were settled, none of the people below dared to ask questions like just now.

They have numbers in their minds. It was Norah who left today, and she may be killed tomorrow.

After the meeting, everyone else left the room one after another.

Elliot sat in the chair and didn’t move.

Chad noticed that Elliot had been staring at him, so he suddenly said, “Boss, why are you looking at me all the time?”

“You performed well today. You are very imposing.” Elliot boasted.

Chad: "Maybe it's because I usually work in the Sterling Group, and I have a good relationship with everyone, and I don't have to worry about your presence in everything, I just need to do errands behind you..."

"The branch office will be handled by you. It's over." Elliot entrusted Chad with a heavy responsibility.

"Okay. Don't worry, leave it to me! You can rest at home next, or go to accompany Avery." After Chad put away the documents on the table, he leaned back against the conference table and chatted with him.

Elliot: "She's very busy now, and I don't want to disturb her."

"Then what's your plan? Do you want to go back to Aryadelle to see Layla and Robert? Or have the two of them be sent over... let them both come over. It's the best. If you go back to Aryadelle, Avery will definitely be worried."

"I do have this idea." Elliot has missed this two children especially, "the two of them want to go to school, it's better for me to go back to Aryadelle."

Chad: "The primary school and kindergarten classes are not heavy."

"Layla was about to enter junior high school. She was influenced by me and Avery before, and her studies declined a lot." Elliot didn't want to affect the child.

Chad said with relief, "Boss, the score is not so important. It's useless to think about it yourself. You go back tonight to discuss with Avery and see how Avery arranges it. You can just listen to her for such trivial matters."

At that time, there was a knock on the conference room door.

Chad immediately walked over and opened the conference room door.

It's the front desk secretary.

"Mr. Chad, a woman came over and said she was looking for Mr. Foster. She said she was a relative of Mr. Foster."

Chad frowned: "What relative? I'll take a look."

After Chad and the secretary left, Elliot turned on the phone to see if there was any news.

If relatives really came to him, they should have told him in advance.

But there was no news on his phone.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2145

Chapter 2145

Explain that this so-called relative was not a relative.

Not long after, Chad strode over and reported, "Boss, that woman is Zion White's wife. Zion White, do you remember? Your half-brother."

When Elliot heard the man's name, his face became gloomy.

He knew that Zion had always been in Bridgedale.

Zion is a person who has no ability, but his heart is higher than the sky.

"Why did his wife come to see me?" Elliot didn't really want to see that woman.

"She asked you for money." Chad replied, "She said that Zion failed to start a business and owed a lot of debt outside. Not to mention the debt, people don't know where to go now. And the creditor found her here. There is a way to repay the debt, so she came to you for help."

"How much does she want?" Elliot stood up from his chair.

Chad: "I didn't ask. Should I ask now?"

Elliot: "You bring her here and I'll ask."

"Okay." Chad left the conference room and brought Zion's wife over.

After bringing the person, Chad immediately walked out.

Zion's wife was crying with tears all over her face, and she was out of breath when she spoke: "Elliot, I really have no choice..."

"When did you and Zion get married?" Elliot never heard of Zion's marriage news.

"The certificate we got the year before last, we had the wedding last year. I'm five months pregnant now, but his whereabouts are unknown." Zion's wife burst into tears, "If it wasn't for the creditor, I wouldn't even know he owed so much money. 6 million, how can I have so much money?"

The woman looked pitiful, Elliot glanced at her slightly bulging belly, and moved with compassion.

“Give me the contact information of the creditor.” Elliot couldn’t confirm whether the identity of the woman and what she said were true. After all, Zion got married and did not invite him.

Zion’s wife immediately took out her mobile phone from her bag, found a number, and showed it to Elliot.

The hospital.

When Travis was infusion, the assistant hurried into the ward.

Travis was disturbed and immediately turned black.

“Boss! I found Emmy!” If there was no major news, the assistant would not dare to be so rude.

Travis’s eyes suddenly lit up.

He propped up the bed, trying to sit up.

The assistant and the nanny helped Travis sit up.

“I searched the city through the clues you provided, but couldn’t find Emmy’s house purchase information, so I sent someone to look for it in the neighboring city, and found Emmy in the neighboring city! This Margaret is really smart. She’s not bad for this daughter! Emmy’s new house is a villa!”

Travis’s face flushed with excitement: “You’ve done a great job this time! Hurry up and arrest her! I want to ask her face to face!”

Travis added, “When I’m discharged from the hospital, I’ll reward you!” He told his assistant With admiration, “Emilio is not half as good as you!”

The assistant: “Boss, you have passed the prize.”

.....

Two hours later.

An old man dressed simply came to the Tate Industries and said that he had something to say to Elliot.

The front desk looked the old man up and down and felt that the old man might have mental problems.

How could someone as noble as Elliot know such a low-level person?

“If you don’t leave, I’ll tell the security to drive you away!” The front desk threatened.

The old man looked helpless: “I’m also entrusted by others, otherwise I don’t want to run so far... Then you have a message for Elliot... A girl asked me to tell him, saying Everything is fake.”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2146

Chapter 2146

“What is true or false, what girl...?” Because the old man spoke with an accent, the front desk was more impatient.

At this time, the security came over and asked about the situation. “I think the old man’s mostly here to blackmail money! He said that the girl asked him to come to our big boss Elliot... How could our big boss know someone like him? he doesn’t know how to make up lies! It is estimated that he wants to rely on our big boss!”

The front desk was in a bad mood, “There was a woman this morning, she said she was a relative of the big boss, so I notified the general manager’s office, but the woman came to ask the big boss for money!” The front desk girl added: “My supervisor scolded me in private! He told me not to report anything in the future. If it is really a relative of the big boss, how come there is no phone call from the big boss?”

More things were worse than less things. It was not easy for them to work as ordinary people.

“This old man, this is not where he came from! Hurry up!”

The old man took a few steps back in fear, and then turned back in two steps.

He was not familiar with Emmy.

The old man was a cleaner in the community where Emmy lived. Before Emmy was taken away, he happened to be cleaning near her house.

Emmy called The old man at the window and begged him to go to the Tate Industries branch to find Elliot and help her with the words.

After Emmy told the old man everything was false, the gate of Emmy’s house was broken into by savage gangsters.

The old man was so frightened that he hurried to the community security.

But the security guard said that it was someone else's family business, and the property owner couldn't manage it.

As long as The old man thought of Emmy's desperate and frightened expression in the window, his conscience was disturbed.

So The old man took a long-distance bus to the capital and found the branch of the Tate Industries.

The old man didn't expect to be kicked out. He didn't know if the lady at the front desk will convey what she said to Elliot.

But The old man had done what he could, and he had a clear conscience.

Half an hour later, Chad returned to the company after finishing the meal.

Elliot had already gone back, and Chad would handle the personnel changes of the Tate Industries's Bridgedale branch.

Chad just needs to dismiss Norah's confidants, recruit a new batch of people, and then he can let go when the company is running smoothly.

Entering the company, the lady at the front desk hesitated for a while, and then called out to Chad with a blushing face.

The front desk lady: "Mr. Chad, someone came over just now to look for the big boss."

Chad asked cautiously, "Who was it?"

"A middle-aged man dressed in ordinary clothes...middle-aged and old people...looked like He's in his fifties." The front desk lady explained, "He should not be a local. He spoke with a heavy accent. He said that his girl has something to tell the boss..."

Chad quickly digested the information at the front desk what she said.

An old man from out of town said that a girl was looking for the boss...

"What about others?" Chad looked around.

"I thought the old man was lying, so I sent him away. I was a little nervous and didn't know if I was doing the right thing. What if the old man really knew the big boss?"

The front desk lady just wanted to use this little thing to chat with Chad.

Chad thought for a moment and said, "I'd better go check the surveillance."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2147

Chapter 2147

“Okay.” The front desk lady did not expect Chad to be so cautious.

Chad went to the monitoring room to take a look at the monitoring, took a picture with his mobile phone, and sent it to Elliot.

This old man, Chad looked very strange.

Chad didn't meet him before.

Elliot received the picture Chad sent, took a look, and returned a question mark.

Chad: [Boss, do you know this person? This person just came to the company to find you.]

Elliot opened the picture again, zoomed in on the picture, and glanced at the face in the picture: [I don't know. What was he doing with me?]

Chad: [The front desk said he spoke with a heavy accent and was a foreigner. Said a girl had something to tell you.]

Elliot: [I didn't know him or the girl. I am in Bridgedale and have no female friends.]

Chad: [Okay. Then leave him alone.]

.....

Hospital.

After hanging up the needle, Travis was refreshed, got out of bed and walked on the ground for a while.

Probably because he was too anxious, after walking for a while, he felt a little dizzy, so he could only go back to the hospital bed and lie down.

Not long after, Emmy was taken to Travis's ward.

Seeing Emmy's hands tied with ropes, Travis immediately glared at his subordinates: “What are you doing?! Emmy is my half daughter, you b*stards, how dare you treat her like this! Don't you hurry up and hold her hands? Let go!”

One of his men approached Travis and explained in a low voice, “Miss Gomez always wanted to struggle to escape, and we had no choice but to tied her up.”

Hearing the reason, Travis immediately gave Emmy a brighter smile.

Travis: "Come down, I'll chat with Emmy alone."

The men immediately left the ward.

In the ward, only Travis, his assistant and Emmy were left.

Emmy looked at Travis helplessly: "Uncle Jones, I have no grievances with you, so why did you arrest me?"

Travis: "Aren't you Margaret's daughter? Answer me first, are you?"

"Yes. But I have never met you, and I am not half your daughter." Emmy distanced herself from him.

"Do you know how much Margaret has taken from me all these years? Emmy, don't pretend to be confused with me. If you and your mother are not guilty, why did you buy the house in another city? It doesn't matter if you are her own daughter or adopted daughter, she owes me, I can't just let it go." Travis sat up and looked at Emmy viciously.

Emmy lowered her head: "I didn't know about you and my mother. She didn't usually tell me this."

"She and I were already getting married, and she and I were a community of interests. The interests were over!" Travis told her the interests, "Little girl, I didn't want to embarrass you. Your mother's suicide was planned. She could prepare a house for you before she died, so what about her inheritance? I mean everything related to her resurrection technique!"

Emmy shook her head sharply: "I didn't know. Mom didn't tell me this. She just bought me a house and let me support myself in the future."

"Why? Possibly!" Travis did not accept this answer, "Did she not tell you about her academic research, how she can control Elliot?"

Emmy shook her head: "Uncle Jones, I am not a medical student, even if my mother told me this, I don't understand either. Maybe she knew I didn't, so she didn't tell me anything."

Travis: "Emmy, I advise you to think about it again. If you refuse to tell me anything, I will definitely not let you go. You are still young and have not married and have children yet. Do you really want to sacrifice Margaret? Do you have a good time? Don't answer me first! Think carefully before you talk about it!"

“Uncle Jones, why don’t you believe me? Your subordinates have already searched my house, if there really is my mother research’s there. The relics have long been found by them.” Emmy said with red eyes, “Uncle Jones, even if you kill me, I can’t change what you want!”
