

The Mans Decree Novel Chapter 1123

Chapter 1123 You Underestimate Me

As Kai and Warren were the only two people around, the latter did not beat around the bush.

"Your Demonic Cultivation has no effect on me anymore. If this is your trump card, you're doomed," Kai coldly told him.

"Let's see, then!"

Warren fumed. Then, his hands swiftly moved in the air, and the black mist began swirling rapidly like rushing horses.

Soon, the black mist transformed into a ferocious beast, and it bared its fang and howled.

All of a sudden, a drop of blood essence floated out from the mark on Warren's chest. It then drifted toward the spot between the beast's eyes and sunk under its skin.

"Kai, you've underestimated the art of Demonic Cultivation. If the art of Demonic Cultivation is that lousy, why would I even waste time cultivating it?"

As Warren spoke, he moved his finger. The beast roared and instantly lunged toward Kai.

It sped toward Kai at an unimaginable speed, and at that moment, it seemed like Kai was about to become its prey.

Nevertheless, Kai calmly unleashed the Power of Dragons and shot out a fist.

However, that fist of his didn't do anything. It was so weak. On the other hand, he was sucked into the beast's body as though it was a black hole.

Kai's body disappeared into the darkness. The beast howled before it began radiating light. All of a sudden, Kai, who was in the darkness, saw light in front of his eyes. Then, next came the scorching heat.

It was hundreds of times hotter than the heat of the sun—it felt as if the heat was going to melt Kai.

When Warren saw that, he grinned.

"You're still too inexperienced."

Although Kai was powerful, he was still young. He did not have enough battle experience.

Thus, he did not realize how mighty Warren's black mist could be.

Warren then took out his phone and called Zion.

"How is it? Have you killed Kai?" Zion asked.

"Three minutes. In three minutes, Kai will melt into a puddle of viscous liquid," Warren confidently replied.

"You used Demonic Cultivation?" Zion frowned. "No one saw you, right?"

"Don't worry, President Zeigler. No one's around. Even if there is, they'll be dead too," Warren hissed, a vicious look in his eyes.

If anyone were to witness the scene, Warren was going to end their life without hesitation. He would not care who they were.

Fortunately, Kai had asked the taxi driver to leave. Otherwise, the taxi driver would have died as well.

"Good. I'm glad to know that Kai's going to die. He's nothing but trouble."

Zion let out a sigh of relief before ending the call.

Just as the call ended, the black mist beast abruptly began thrashing. Then, its body started rapidly concaving.

A ray of golden light shot out from inside the beast's body.

"W-What's going on?"

Warren's complexion turned pale.

The beast was still struggling, and its body was shrinking.

Warren hurried flung out a drop of blood essence at the beast, but nothing changed.

In mere dozens of seconds, the black mist beast was gone. In fact, all of the black mist dissipated, and the sun began shining on the land again.

Kai smiled as he stood in front of Warren and taunted, "Thank you so much for gifting me with such a fantastic cultivation resource!"

Promptly, a chill ran down Warren's spine, and cold sweat began beading all over his body.

"Y-You—"

Warren jabbed a finger at Kai, but he could barely form a coherent sentence.

At that very moment, Kai was vitalized. His elixir field was filled to the brim with spiritual energy.

Initially, Warren wanted to use Demonic Cultivation to kill Kai, but as it turned out, the black mist turned into Kai's cultivation resource.

Chapter 1124 Invisibility

"Now, die!"

Kai disappeared from his spot and reappeared in front of Warren.

“Divine Safeguard!” Warren bellowed. Then, the mark on his chest began flashing as his body toughened up.

Bang!

Kai’s punch smashed against Warren’s chest.

Warren promptly flew backward, and cracks began forming on his hardened body. In fact, the mark on his chest started dulling as well.

“How can this be?”

Warren crashed onto the ground, and blood seeped out from the corner of his mouth.

He could not believe that Kai could easily defeat him.

After all, to Warren, Kai was as powerful as an ant a few months ago. Warren never even bothered paying attention to Kai.

“What other tricks can you do?”

At that moment, Kai had his icy gaze fixed on Warren, and the murderous intent was evident in his eyes.

Warren knew that the only option he now had was to risk a fight with Kai.

“Boy, either you or I will be dead by today. Still, I have to admit that you’re the first young man who managed to force me to a dead end.”

As Warren spoke, he slowly lifted his hands before muttering under his breath.

In the next second, his face scrunched up as his facial features contorted maliciously.

The mark on his chest glowed, and that glow spread to every part of Warren’s body.

Every vein on his body popped, especially the ones on his forehead.

Gradually, Warren’s body turned transparent. Soon, Kai could see all his veins and even the movement of his blood.

Then, the veins slowly faded from sight, and only a vague outline of him could be seen.

“Invisibility?”

Kai furrowed his brows slightly as he watched Warren disappear from sight.

Hastily, Kai swung his hand across the air and created a visible aura that covered his surroundings.

Kai was afraid that Warren would escape once he was invisible.

It was unlike the skills that Jetroinian samurais used, for the Jetroinian samurais' skills were based on illusion.

True invisibility was about becoming one with nature. As a matter of fact, the aura would be hidden, and the user would be completely undetectable.

“Did you think that I was going to escape?”

Warren's voice sounded out by Kai's ear. “You're looking down on me. I won't leave this place until I kill you.”

“I've told you before. You're still not capable enough to kill me.”

Although Kai could not see where Warren was, he did not panic.

Even though Warren was completely invisible, Kai could still sense his aura.

As long as Warren made his move, he would certainly reveal his aura to Kai. It was unless he chose not to attack Kai, but how was he going to kill Kai without attacking him?

“Arrogant! I'll let you have a look at my true trump card then. Even if I can't kill you by attacking you, I'll kill you by tiring you out!”

Mid-sentence, Warren suddenly threw a fist at Kai.

Kai could sense Warren's aura from the side, so he swung his fist to counter it.

Boom!

The earth shook from the shockwave, and a trace of Warren's body turned visible. Nevertheless, he soon turned invisible again.

Thump! Thump! Thump!

Warren kept launching attacks at Kai.

Still, Kai was capable of counterattacking each and every one of them.

“Are you doing this to try to deplete the martial energy in me?” Kai sneered. “If that’s your plan, I’ll tell you that you’ve made a mistake. I have plenty of martial energy, but you, on the other hand, are on the verge of depleting yours!”

Kai could acutely sense that Warren’s energy was weakening more and more over time.

“Hahaha! I have an endless amount of martial energy; I can utilize everything in nature!” Warren declared as he laughed boisterously.

In the next second, the trees around them began shaking.

Then, countless crystalline beams of light shot out of the trees and gathered in Warren’s body.

Chapter 1125 Revitalized

Nothing—from trees to living beings—within a radius of a hundred meters could escape.

Animals died and turned mummified.

If any human were within the radius, they would end up with the same fate as those animals.

That was the terror of Demonic Cultivation.

As the beams were absorbed in Warren’s body, Warren’s body slowly turned visible. The martial energy in him was instantly recovered. In fact, he had more martial energy in him than before.

“I knew it. I knew that Demonic Cultivation was nothing good,” Kai commented, narrowing his eyes as he watched the plants and the animals die around him.

“To you, no. But, to me? This is the art of the gods!”

With that said, Warren slammed his palm toward Kai.

A formidable wave of energy surged toward Kai and enveloped him.

There seemed to be an unlimited amount of martial energy in Warren, and they slammed against Kai’s body like sharpened blades.

The golden glow around Kai was dulling as the Golem Body came close to its limit. If the Golem Body was used to its limit, Kai would have no choice but to withstand Warren's attacks with his flesh body.

At the sight of that, Warren laughed in excitement.

"Hahaha! Kai, I know that your body is tough, but I still have ways to deal with you!"

With that said, he drew a circle in front of him. The air around him began to ripple.

All of a sudden, two tentacles emerged from the ground and locked Kai's legs in place.

The rippling space in front of Warren began dashing toward Kai, circling him.

"If I can't take you by force, then I'll do it the gentle way! There's a reason I'm the director of Warriors Alliance! Let me tell you, there are few who are a match for me when it comes to magecraft in the world of Martial Arts Grandmasters!"

Warren then sneered at Kai.

If he was not a capable man, he would not have ever been able to be a director of an alliance.

Kai struggled with all his might, but he simply could not get out of the tentacles' grasp. Moreover, a strange energy was eroding his body.

The energy was soft—it did not utilize tough collisions—so Kai's Golem Body could barely defend against the energy.

"You're very confident."

Kai suddenly clapped his hands together before muttering an incantation of spiritual arts under his breath, "In spring, the trees will sing..."

Right as he said that, a soft wave of power descended from the skies. Immediately, the wilted plants around him returned to life.

Countless branches grew toward Warren at a rapid rate.

At that, Warren anxiously and hastily smacked out his palm. He managed to break a few branches, but even more branches started entwining around his body, restricting his movements.

In seconds, Warren was restrained, and the tentacles that locked Kai in place disappeared, as well as the rippling space.

Warren's face was flushed as he tried his best to break free.

How can these darn branches keep me here with how powerful I am?

Yet, no matter how much he struggled, he could never break free from the branches.

With a wave of Kai's hand, the branches then brought Warren to Kai.

"I've forgotten to tell you that I know a little magecraft too," Kai said to Warren in a flat tone.

By then, Warren was truly panicking as his eyes widened into saucers.

"Kai, w-what are you trying to do? If you kill me, Warriors Alliance will see you as an archenemy forever!"

Warren was frightened, and he began pleading, "As long as you don't kill me, I can convince Warriors Alliance to let your girlfriend go. From now on, Warriors Alliance won't seek trouble with you anymore!"

"Shouldn't you have done that a long time ago? You're only pleading for mercy when you realize you're about to die."

As Kai spoke, he slowly lifted his hand, which was illuminated with golden rays.

"What are you trying to do? I can give you all of my powers as long as you let me go!"

Warren's heart lurched when he sensed the murderous intent pouring out of Kai.

Furthermore, he became even more frightful upon recalling what Kai had done to the five Jetroinian samurais.

Death might not be scary, but there were scarier things awaiting him.

Chapter 1126 Powerless

"I don't want your rubbish Demonic Cultivation."

Kai narrowed his eyes dangerously.

"T-Tell me, what do you want? I can give them all to you," Warren stammered out in fear.

Kai sneered as his eyes drifted toward Warren's chest. "I want the elixir field in you."

Right as Kai uttered that, fear manifested in Warren's eyes.

The elixir field was the source of energy for martial artists. Without the elixir field, the martial artist would be useless. Energy cultivators could recover their shattered elixir field through cultivation, but that was not the case for martial artists.

Therefore, by asking for his elixir field, Kai was telling Warren that he wanted him to never be a martial artist for the rest of his life.

That would be an ending worse than death for Warren.

He was the director of the Warriors Alliance. How was he going to face those prestigious martial arts families if he were to lose all of his abilities?

"Please! Please don't do this to my elixir field. I—" Warren begged, but before he could even finish his sentence, Kai punched him.

Thump!

Kai's punch collided against Warren's chest. In fact, his whole fist penetrated Warren's body.

The force of the blow had gone through Warren's Divine Safeguard.

Crack! came the soft sound of shattering.

Warren froze. Then, he slumped to the ground.

Kai's punch had shattered Warren's elixir field.

In a second, all of Warren's martial energy dissipated, and he became a powerless man.

"Y-You really shattered my elixir field..."

Warren was as pale as a sheet.

Kai then removed his bloody hand from Warren's stomach. Then, with a casual wave of his hand, the branches that kept Warren in place disappeared.

Warren's body fell to the ground with a loud thump. The aura on him was rapidly gushing out, and so was the blood from the wound on his chest.

Warren tried to climb to his feet, but his few attempts were for naught. He did not even have the energy to stand up.

"Kill me... Kill me!"

Warren did not want to live anymore.

His elixir field was shattered, and he was now powerless. There was no meaning to his life anymore.

Warren had cultivated Demonic Cultivation because he craved more power. To many martial artists, power was everything.

Therefore, Warren was unable to accept the fact that he had turned powerless.

"Kill you?" Kai looked at Warren coldly. "That's too easy on you. Where's that high and mighty attitude you had? Have you ever thought of this day when you took my girlfriend? Kneel before me, and I might consider making your death swift."

Warren glared at Kai. "Keep dreaming! Even if I'm now powerless, you're not worthy enough for me to do that. You can kill me, but I'll never kneel before you!"

With that, Warren widened his mouth before clamping his mouth shut, about to bite on his tongue.

He wanted to bite off his tongue and end his life, for there was no meaning to his life anymore. Living was now tormenting for him.

"Are you trying to kill yourself?" Kai slapped Warren hard.

All of Warren's teeth fell out. There was no way he would be able to bite off his tongue and end his life anymore.

When Warren realized he could not even kill himself, he screamed, "Kill me! Kill me!"

"I told you, I won't let you die so easily." Kai reached out to grab Warren's hair. "Kneel."

"Dream on! I'll never kneel before you!" Warren growled.

At that, Kai lifted Warren into the air. "You're as good as an ant to me now. You have no right to reject me!"

With that said, Kai kicked Warren's calves. After two loud cracks, Warren fell to his knees.

He tried to struggle free from Kai, but his efforts were in vain.

Ring!

Right then, Warren's phone rang.
