

Chapter 5071

In the earphone, Joseph said to Charlie:

“Mr. Wade, can you be sure that the plane flying to Sweden is to pick up people,”

“Not to send another group of people to Sweden to perform other tasks?”

“I’m afraid they may still be some other missions for them in Swede.”

Charlie said: “I heard their conversation just now, they are not here to kill people this time,”

“But to take back some target people who are important to the organization,”

“So they must have a safe enough. Moreover, in order to avoid exposure,”

“The plane in which they came has already returned,”

“So I speculate that the plane that flew to Sweden is here to pick them up.”

After speaking, Charlie added: “Also, Land traffic between EU countries has no border controls,”

“And the convenience of driving is as simple as driving between two provinces in the country.”

“However, although in every country, law enforcement agencies serve their own countries.”

“So once they arrive in Sweden, it will bring a lot of difficulties to the investigation of the Nordic police,”

“And leaving the country from Sweden is a very perfect choice.”

From the call of the other party just now, as well as the sequence of the two planes,

Charlie probably clarified this. Eight people on this mission.

They flew all the way to Norway to capture someone who was extremely important to the organization.

The route they arranged was to enter Norway and leave via Sweden.

After they complete the stealing from Bergen and capture the target,

They will drive more than 600 kilometers to Sweden and take a flight from there.

Just another Boeing 777 took off from Nigeria, and when the plane landed in Sweden,

These people should be able to make it to Sweden.

Joseph said at this time: “Mr. Wade, your subordinate feels that we still have a window of seven or eight hours to make the rapid deployment.”

“If we send people to Sweden now, we will keep an eye on the one from Nigeria to Sweden.”

“The planes should be able to figure out their specific context,”

“Maybe they can follow the clues and find the specific location of one of their bases!”

Charlie smiled slightly, stared at the eight killers sneaking in the dark, and said,

“It’s not necessary to go to their bases for now, and now the clues of these six planes are a huge advantage for us,”

“As long as we don’t fight this idea of six planes, don’t follow these six planes to their base,”

“They won’t realize that it’s the six planes that have a problem.”

Charlie knew very well that even if he took these eight killers in Bergen and kill them,

Joseph can continue to make a fuss on that plane.

After all, as long as it flies out, even if it can’t receive anyone,

It will definitely go back. Maybe it can really find some information.

However, Charlie did not plan to do anything about the six Boeing 777s of Yuantai International Express for the time being.

He said to Joseph: “In my opinion, these six Boeing 777s are equivalent to six telephone lines that the enemy has already exposed but still doesn’t know about.”

“It’s like the communication code was deciphered by the enemy during the war.”

“Realizing that the communication password has been deciphered, we will continue to use this password,”

“So that we can find out the specific actions of the other party without any contact with them,”

“As long as we can ensure accurate strikes every time, they won’t realize which link went wrong.”
