Chapter 2417

The next day, morning.

Gloria Wiens came to the company to report.

It happened that Avery and Jesse Caldwell were in the office talking about the spokesperson.

“I’ll ask him when he’s free first! When he’s free, I’ll ask him out to meet and chat with him.” Avery said to Jesse, “Don’t worry about this matter. It’s almost the new year, and after the new year, it’s okay to talk.”

“Ms. Tate, the end of the year is a good time to rush for performance. Other companies are all working hard at this time, we can’t relax!” Jesse wanted to achieve performance, “Why don’t you give him his contact information? I, I’ll contact him. I promise not to disturb his work.”

Avery: “Let me think about it again! Go ahead! I have something to talk to Gloria about.”

Jesse glanced at Gloria, then walked out.

Gloria closed the office door after Jesse went out.

“President Tate, what do you have to tell me?” Gloria walked up to Avery and spoke respectfully.

“Uh, it’s nothing. I just wanted to send him away, so I just made an excuse.” Avery took out the thermos cup from her bag, unscrewed the cap, and took a sip of water.

Gloria was stunned for a moment and asked, “President Tate, what am I doing today? “

Avery put down the thermos cup and turned on the computer: “I’ll send you an email, you can wait and see.

Our company’s annual meeting will be held in half a month. You are now watching with the administration department to ensure that the annual meeting is held smoothly. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me. “

Gloria: “Okay, President Tate. Besides this, is there any other arrangement? “

“You do this first. You just joined the job, I’m afraid that I will arrange too much work for you and scare you away.” Avery joked,

“And the annual meeting is very complicated, you will know after reading the email later. I’m done.”

“President Tate, don’t worry, I promise to finish the work well.” After Gloria finished speaking, she went out.

Today was the second time she saw Avery. Avery felt the same to her as she felt yesterday morning.

Gloria's softer and more powerful. However, Gloria still suspected that it was just Avery's illusion.

Her workstation was in the general office.

Entering the general office, other employees immediately greeted her warmly.

"Ms. Wiens, you are so lucky that you were recruited by President Tate to be an assistant just after graduation. Our internal employees failed to apply for transfer!" A secretary said enviously.

"I'm really lucky. I thought President Tate was always the kind of strong woman who was high and difficult to approach." Gloria said this deliberately, wanting to see what everyone would think of Avery.

Secretary: "Hahaha! President Tate is always the most arrogant and best boss I've ever seen. Every time I see her, she laughs at me."

"Me too. Every time I see President Tate, I feel just like sister, she's very kind. I feel more fortunate after hearing what you guys said." Gloria said, "I originally submitted my resume to the Sterling Group, but the personnel there told me that the Tate Industries also lacked assistants, that's why I came here."

“That’s why we envy you! Ms. Wiens, you work hard with President Tate, and we will all rely on you in the future!” A secretary said enviously.

“Yeah, Ms. Wiens, when you change to a regular position, your future will be even more limitless. Do you know the assistant Chad of the Sterling Group? He is the former assistant of Elliot. This assistant Chad has been promoted to Vice President after working for Elliot for a few years. If you do well by President Tate’s side, you may be promoted in the future! “

When Gloria heard this, her cheeks flushed, so she raised her hand and pulled the hair behind her ear.

“Ms. Wiens, what are you wearing on your wrist? Is this a wristband?” Someone asked curiously when they saw Gloria wearing something on her left wrist.
