

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2472

□ □ □

Chapter 2472

“Hayden, really do you want to go?” Before Avery could respond, Mike said in surprise, “How do you want to save your father?

Do you know it’s dangerous there? You’ve been there once before, you forgot?”

Avery followed suit at this moment: “Hayden, we can just send someone over there, you don’t need to go there yourself.”

“He saved me before once, this time I saved him, so I won’t owe him any more.” Hayden never forgot that the last time he went to Yonroeville to get into trouble, Elliot settled it.

“Hayden, he is your father, you don’t need to make such a clear distinction with him. If you have difficulties, he will definitely help you. You are his child, and it is his responsibility for him to help his own child. It’s not just the father and son. The same goes for other people’s fathers and children.”

Avery tried to make Hayden understand the meaning of father and son.

Mike saw Hayden frowning, knowing that Hayden was uncomfortable.

Whatever Hayden wanted to do, Mike always followed him.

If he didn't follow him, he would show this look.

“Okay, okay, Hayden is going, let him go!” Mike smoothed things over, “Just send more people there.

Since Hayden has the heart, why do you stop it? Think about it, if Elliot is in Yonroeville, seeing Hayden go to save him, how touched should he be? I'm afraid he is more moved than seeing you.”

Avery: “...”

Hayden: “...”

Hayden wanted to go to Yonroeville to save Elliot, not to impress Elliot, okay?

What Mike said was so nasty!

“Mike, you're right. Although I'm afraid that Hayden will be in danger if he passes by, I'm really happy that Hayden has this heart.

Elliot will definitely be happier when he finds out.”

Avery said in a cheerful tone. and added. “But I still can't let Hayden go to Yonroeville... Elliot alone is enough to worry me, if Hayden passes too, I will worry about the two of them...”

Mike Followed Avery to have a private chat.

“Avery, since Hayden wants to go, let him go! We’ve made the preparations and let him go, and nothing will happen. We’re going to rescue Elliot, not to die. You need to understand this concept.” Mike reasoned with her.

“Why do you always let Hayden go? Hayden is not yet an adult, he is still a child. Although Hayden matures a little earlier than his peers, he is still a child and needs timely guidance from his parents. I can ignore other small matters. Now it is a matter of life and death. Can I leave it alone?” Avery retorted, “I won’t let him go anyway.”

“What if he insists on going?” Mike asked back, “As long as he wants to go, he can have a hundred ways to get there. You can’t stop him at all.”

Avery: “...”

“Avery, you might as well be a good person and let him go.” Mike persuaded, “If you are worried, I will go with him.”

Avery frowned tightly: “If you go too, then I will worry about the three of you...I...”

“If you force Hayden to stay at home, he won’t be happy either.” As long as Elliot doesn’t come back for a day, you won’t have a smile on your face, do you think your child can't feel your emotions?" Mike said, "Hayden has always been very proud, he thinks there is nothing in this world that he can't do. If you let him go, if he hits a nail, wouldn't it just dampen his spirit?"

"I'm afraid that what is dampened is not the spirit, but the ashes." Avery said in a low voice.

Mike: "..."

"Since you all have to go, what else can I say?" Avery didn't want to make the child unhappy, and the New Year was coming soon. The family was supposed to be reunited and everyone was happy, but it turned out like this.

"Don't worry! We must have made the arrangements before we set off. You wait for our good news." Mike patted her on the shoulder, "That sh!tty place in Yonroeville won't trouble us."

Avery could only trust Mike.

The day after Mike and Hayden set off was New Year's Eve.

Because Elliot and Hayden were not at home to celebrate the New Year this year, Ben brought Gwen over to celebrate the New Year together.

This was a lot of fun at home.

“Why don’t you make a video call with Elliot and Hayden?” Ben suggested.

“We just had a video call with Dad.” Layla said, “Dad is going to pick up my brother.”

□ □ □