Chapter 2514

Chapter 2514

Layla took a deep breath, found a photo of Eric on the Internet, copied it, and sent it to her best friend.

When Daisy saw Eric’s photo, she immediately responded with a series of question marks: [Why did you send me Eric’s photo? I asked you to send a photo of your senior!]

Layla’s typing hands were slightly numb: [He is my senior!]

Daisy: [D*mn it!!! Hastily...]

Layla: [What’s your reaction?]

Daisy: [I can! I can! I can!]

Layla: [Daisy, be normal!]

Daisy: [If your boyfriend is Eric! I can! He is so handsome, even if he is fifty years old, I am willing!]

Layla: [...don’t rob me!]

Daisy: [Are you two talking? Does he like you too? How are you two doing now? Is it convenient for you to speak on the phone now? Let’s talk on the phone!]

.....

Thopiavelle.

Hogan family.

“Siena, has your salary arrived? I told my wife about your mother-in-law’s death. My wife knows that you are helpless and very pitiful, so I decided to give you full attendance last month.” Mr. Todd shouted to the side, and smiled.

Siena immediately took out her mobile phone to check the bank information.

“Uncle Todd, thank you! My salary has arrived.” Siena said gratefully, “I owe you money...”

“Don’t worry. You also owe money outside, and you have to go to school in the future. If you insist on paying it back, you can pay it back after you graduate from university and start working!” Mr. Todd said, “Siena, if you didn’t have a disfigured face, you would definitely be a very likable child.”

Siena: “Uncle Todd, thank you.”

“Hey, you’re welcome. It’s the Hogan family’s salary for you. If you really appreciate it, take good care of Young Master Hogan.” Mr. Todd urged, “When Young Master Hogan goes to college, if you still want to work in Hogan’s house, I will tell my wife when the time comes, and I will transfer you back to the back kitchen... But it depends on whether you can still come to work.”

Siena: “Uncle Todd, thank you very much. I’ll tell you when my final exam is over.”

Mr. Todd: “Okay. Go get busy!”

Siena: “Yeah!”

Siena walked briskly towards the auxiliary building.

Lucas was putting together a model gun.

This was what he asked Mr. Todd to buy back.

“Young Master, I’m getting paid today, so let me invite you out for dinner!” Siena invited Lucas to dinner in order to repay Lucas for asking a teacher to give her extra lessons.

Lucas focused on the model in front of her, and said lazily, “Don’t you want to pay off the debt?”

“We just don’t eat too expensive food.” Siena warmly invited, “Young Master, let’s go out to eat at night! It’s very lively outside. I haven’t played at night yet, I dare not go alone.”

Lucas raised his eyes and asked: “You take me there to give you courage?”

“Let’s go shopping together! You stay here every day, isn’t it boring at home?” Siena made up lessons every day these days and was wanting to relax.

“Let’s talk about it tonight.” Lucas continued to put together models.

Siena sat beside him, staring at the model.

This relatively detailed model required a lot of patience to put it together.

Siena watched, her eyes naturally shifted from his slender fingers to his face.

The two of them met almost every day, she knew what Lucas looked like, but she had never stared at his face carefully.

Firstly, it’s not very polite, and secondly, she dared not.

But now, Lucas was concentrating on working on the model, and his serious look made him seem like a different person.

Siena forgot to be afraid, after staring at Lucas’s face for a while, she actually thought he was a bit handsome.

“Have you seen enough?” Lucas raised his head and looked at her astonished expression, “Nympho!”
