Chapter 221

Chapter 221

After Savanna snatched the phone from Brandon, Leo hung up.

Savanna glanced at Brandon but did not speak.

The atmosphere froze.

Mandel rubbed his eyes and woke up. He saw that Savanna was unhappy, so he asked his father, "Daddy, you made Savanna angry again, right?"

Brandon stroked Mandel's messy hair and his voice was very soft, "You already know that she is your mother. Don't call her Savanna anymore."

Brandon didn't like hearing Mandel call Savanna's name.

If it was before, Mandel would definitely refute and say to Brandon that he liked Savanna. Mandel would say that Savanna was his girlfriend and he liked to call her name.

Mandel not only had his body collapsed after his illness, but he had also matured a lot. Most of the time, he did not look like a child.

Savanna did not want to quarrel with Brandon in front of Mandel. She suppressed the anger in her heart and took a bunch of grapes from the plate to eat with Mandel.

Mandel was a lot more cheerful after Savanna came.

Brandon looked at the scene of Savanna and Mandel laughing, and his dark world had a glimmer of light.

Savanna took the pregnancy test from Lizeth and entered the bathroom.

After a while, Savanna stood by the washbasin and stared at the pregnancy test. She was nervous and expectant as she watched the red lines begin to spread at the end of the pregnancy test.

Savanna clenched her fists tightly.

However, she saw a red line. Savanna waited for a long time, but there was no second red line.

The result made Savanna very disappointed.

Brandon stood up immediately after Savanna came out of the bathroom. He stared at Savanna. Clearly, Brandon was also very nervous.

Brandon saw Savanna's depressed expression and knew the result.

Brandon said in a hoarse voice, "It's fine. Let's work harder."

Sayajina did not respond, and she was in a very low mood.

Lizeth brought in the medicine, and Savanna quickly took it.

Lizeth was also very shilly shally. She was anail beside Savanna and knew Savanna well. Lizeth knew that Savanna was not pregnant

Lizeth took the empty bowl out and secretly prayed, "Goodness, please bless Ms. Thompson to be pregnant."

Il it was an ordinary person, they would break down after taking medicine three times every day.

Brandon stood there, motionless as he watched Savanna take the medicine. He knew the medicine was very bitter, but Savanna did not even frown.

Brandon was heartbroken.

Brandon was about to say something when someone called Savanna.

"Hello," Savannd answered the phone in front of Brandon.

"Mrs. Young, do you still want the appointment injection? If not, I'll give it to a lady on my side. She needs it badly..."

This doctor was from a certain hospital's department of gynaecology. Savanna had pulled some strings to get to know this doctor

Savanna replied urgently. "I want it."

She continued, "I'll be right there. Don't give it to anyone else. I'll pay three times the price."

Savanna said as she walked out. She didn't even have time to speak to Brandon before she left.

Brandon looked at the back of Savanna, who left in a hurry and felt extremely upset.

Savanna arrived at the hospital. The doctor saw Savanna and said to her, "Mrs. Young, fo and pay the fet". Do you need to inject it immediately."

Savanna replied without the slightest hesitation, "Yes. Inject it immediately."

The doctor said, "Okay, I will arrange it immediately. You can go to the injection room directly after paying the tee."

"Thank you, Dr. Moore."

After paying the fee, Savanna went to the injection room. Today, there were many people injected Savanna saw the line was very long, so she sat in the long chair and waited.

A young couple sat back to back with Savanna. They seemed to be here to have an abortion. The woman said in a nervous voice, "It will definitely hurt. I don't want to do it."

The man gently coaxed, "We are still young and we still need to concentrate on our careers. Besides, you just need to suffer from a stab now. The pain of giving birth is far more painful than this."

Savanna thought, what a scumbag man!

Savanna smiled bitterly.

She remembered five years ago, when she was pregnant with Mandel, Brandon proposed a divorce to her, and she felt that the world had collapsed.

On the day Savanna left New York, she swore that she would never love Brandon again.

However, Savanna would never have dreamed that Mandel would get sick, and to cure Mandel's illness, she and Brandon needed to have another child.

The nurse shouted loudly with the repister, "Savanna Who is Savanna?"

"I'm Savanna" Savann Slood up and walked toward the nurse.

When the nurse saw Savanna, she immediately said, "You made an appointment online. There's no need to wait Follow me."

The nurse brought Savanna into the injection room

The nurse who injected Savanna was wearing a mask and her eyes were big and bright. She glanced at Savanna and motioned for Savanna to prepare Savanna sat on the stool and pulled open the zipper of her jeans.

The nurse injected Savanna while saying, "Mrs. Young, after the injection, you should have a hot compress. Your body is cold. This kind of injection can't be said to have no side effects."

The nurse sighed softly.

For the women who were not easy to conceive, every time the nurse gave them injections, she would sigh.

"Okay." The nurse gave Savanna three injections.

Savanna put on her jeans. When she got up, she suddenly felt dizzy. The nurse saw that Savanna's face was a little pale and quickly held Savanna.

"Mrs. Young, this injection.. Ordinary people can't bear it. You can go back after resting."

Savanna nodded.

The nurse carried Savanna to the break room next door

Savanna lay inside for quite a while, feeling slightly better. She was about to get up and leave

Her phone was buzzing.

Savanna picked up her phone to take a look and Brandon's name appeared on the screen,

"Do you want me to go pick you up

Brandon's voice was soft, and no emotions could be heard. Obviously, he knew where Savanna was.

"No need. I will be back soon."

Savanna hung up the phone, got up to tidy herself, and left the break room.

When Savanna went downstairs, she saw a tall and eye-catching man leaning against the hospital hall. He wore a white shirt and black pants. A simple outfit made Brandon look extraordinary

Brandon bit his lips and looked down, pondering.

When Brandon saw Savanna come down with a pale face, he frowned. He quickly walked over and picked Savanna up.

Brandon's action attracted the attention of the people nearby.

Savanna blushed.

She buried her head in Brandon's arms and whispered, "Put me down."

Brandon ignored her. Savanna did not dare to struggle. She was afraid that her struggle would attract more attention. Savanna could only bury her head even lower.

Back to the Moon Villas...

Brandon took a hot towel and applied it to Savanna.

The injection marks on Savanna's fair skin were obvious.

Brandon's throat tightened and his eyes turned red.

Brandon gently applied the towel to Savanna with trembling hands.

"I can do it myself."

Savanna had her back to Brandon, so she could not see Brandon's expression at all.

Brandon did not say anything. He gently pressed down on the hot towel. He was so careful, as if he was afraid of breaking his treasure.

Sensing that there was something wrong with Brandon, Savanna wanted to turn around, but he held her stubbornly. He pressed her against his chest so tightly that Savanna almost couldn't breathe. He buried his face in her shoulder, and his tears gradually wet her clothes. Savanna was shocked.

"Brandon.

you..." Brandon did not answer her and did not allow her to turn back towel.

About three minutes later, he entered the bathroom with the towel. Soon, he came out again, and the green towel in his hand was replaced with a yellow one. on for a long time.

He put the yellow towel gently on Savanna.

It went

Finally, he opened the door and went to the terrace.

He stood by the white railing and quietly looked at the golden sunset on the horizon.

The last afterglow of the sunset shone on his face, making it even gloonier. room.

When he met Savanna's probing gaze, he parted his thin lips slightly and said with difficulty.

After a long while, Brandon pushed the door and entered the "Savanna, let's not do this." Savanna could tell that Brandon was upset when he saw her body.

He was struggling and heartbroken. For the first time, Savanna believed that Brandon loved her.

Savanna exhaled.

She walked towards him and gently grabbed his hand.

"Don't be like this.

It doesn't hurt at all." Savanna said in a relaxed tone and deliberately revealed a smile on her face.

However, Brandon knew that she was lying

She suffered every day.

Even healthy men couldn't bear such torture. The most important thing was that she was disappointed each time.

The painful torment alone was enough to drive her crazy. Brandon knew.

Savanna was hanging on to save Mandel. The calmer Savanna was, the more

Brandon's heart ached.

He felt that every breath he took seemed to have become a sharp knife.

It pierced his heart and lungs mercilessly.

It was killing him.

"Don't do this anymore.

And drop the pills.

I'll let Lizeth and the hospital know..." Before Brandon could finish his words, Savanna interrupted him.

She said, "Right now, I just want to save Mandel.

As long as I can save him, I am willing to do anything." this simply made him sutter!

How he wished he could be her! She was determined.

Brandon felt sorry for her.

Why couldn't she understand?

Seving her like

Seeing that, Brandon held her thin shoulders and took a deep breath.

"Savanna, maybe there are other ways.

The doctor said that those drugs have side effects.

What should I do if you are pulled down by your body before saving Mandel? Mandel is my son, and you are my wile.

My only wife.”

Savanna looked at Brandon.

For the first time, she saw the derp affection in his eyes.

She saw his worries and sorrow. Such emotions wouldn't exist if he didn't care about her. him, she could see no one but him.

Just like back then, when she loved
Eyes were the window of one's soul.

The emotions in one's eyes were the truest thing in the world. felt the urge to ask Brandon these questions, but she didn't. Facing his anxiety and pain, Savanna finally compromised.

Why couldn't you face your heart sooner? Why did you have to wait till so many things had happened?

Savanna

She asked in a hoarse voice, “But can there be any other way?”

“I think so.” Brandon nodded.

He then said resolutely.

“Leave everything to me.” Sering that Savanna was silent, Brandon quickly had Lizeth over.

“Lizeth, Savanna won't take the medicine for now.” Lizeth glanced at Savanna.

Seeing that Savanna was silent, Lizeth nodded and went downstairs. Then Brandon called the hospital to cancel the further treatment. had been staring at him. It turned out that Brandon knew everything, He even had the number of her doctor. Brandon froze slightly.

Brandon was relieved after doing all this.

He looked at Savanna, who

Afraid that Savanna would have the wrong idea, he quickly explained, “Don't think too much.

I was worried about you, so, I asked Seth to find the doctor.”

Savanna still did not say anything.

She wasn't unmoved after seeing those things Brandon had done. Seeing that she was calm, Brandon relaxed a little.

He gently held Savanna's hand that was hanging by her side, rubbing her fair skin slowly.

“I love you, Savanna. “I don't want to live without you ever again.”

It was too painful.

He wished he were dead.

“Don't worry.

I will find a match for Mandel.

I promise.

After Mandel recovers, the three of us will get back to New York.

I know you don't like it here.

Me as well.

But now isn't the time.

Be patient.” Brandon said so inuch. However, all Savanna heard was “i love you, Savanna.

I don't want to live without you ever again.” Savanna was extremely shocked. didn't care about her. "You ... love me? Really?" Savanna's voice trembled slightly. "Yes."

Brandon's warm breath blew on her face.
She had always thought that Brandon
His face rubbed against hers, and he said with difficulty.
"I love you very much."
Yet when I realized that, you weren't with me. "I don't want to fight anymore.
Let's enjoy our days from now on, OK?" For some reason, Savanna's eyes were moist.
After a moment, they were watery.
She sniffed and said, "But you loved Winnie so much.
I really..." Before she finished speaking, he reached out and covered her mouth.
He looked at her with tenderness, "What I had for her was mostly guilt.
But I had never had feelings for anyone before, so I thought I love her.
My feelings for her were more like compassion because my mother often picked on her.
When I met her, my parents had a lot of fallouts, and they were always at each other's throats.
At that time, Winnie was very good to me.
I relied on her.
However, when she died, I just felt sad.
Nothing more.
But when I heard that you were dead, I could barely continue to live.
I did not want to experience that heart-wrenching pain ever again.
So, please don't question my love for you anymore. "Savanna, for the rest of my life, you are the only one I ever want." and she gradually cried even harder. She said,
"Brandon, don't lie to me again.
Tears fell from Savanna's eyes,
If you do, I won't give you another chance.
I mean it.
I'd rather be alone than love anyone.
I would never want to get married again." Brandon said, "You have my word." Savanna could barely breathe. Brandon wished he could stick to Savanna every second.
He pulled her into his arms, his face pressed tightly against hers, so tight that Chapter 223 His phone was buzzing.

Brandon looked at the caller ID on the screen, and he didn't pick the phone up.
After a long time, Savanna couldn't bear it anymore.
She turned her head and looked at him.
"Why don't you answer the phone?" "It's a crank call." Brandon raised his hand and rejected the call.
He held Savanna's shoulders and turned Savanna over.
He gently leaned over, his face touching hers.
His big hands cupped her face, and his warm lips gently pressed against hers.
He did not want to leave her for a single second.

Brandon kissed her gently.
Sensing that she did not resist, he deepened the kiss.
He kissed her tenderly.
Gradually, he found it hard to control himself.
His breath was a bit chaotic.
He propped himself up and looked at her sparkling eyes.
He stared at her deeply, as if he wanted to look into the depths of her soul.
Just as he was about to say something, the ear-piercing sound of the ringtone dispersed the intimacy between them.
Brandon picked up his phone and went to the terrace to answer the phone impatiently.
He ended the call and came in with a sullen face.
He said to Savanna, "Things have come up at work.
I have to go to the company and deal with them.
Get some rest." After saying that, he kissed her on the forehead and left in a hurry.
Savanna looked at his back as he left.
There was sadness and loneliness in her heart, but more than that, she was moved.
She thought she didn't love him anymore.
However, Brandon told her he loved her.
Those three words were enough to move her.
She couldn't deny that she still loved him.
It was just that the love was too heavy, tiring, and bitter.
She did not want to bear it unilaterally, Savanna covered her breasts where her heart was.
It was burning.
She said to herself, "Brandon, can we start over?" Brandon hurried to the hospital, not the Young Group.
Rex stood outside the ward, looking anxious.
Seeing Brandon come, he took a deep breath.
"Finally, you're here."
She ... suddenly felt unwell..." Before Rex could finish speaking, Brandon had already walked into the ward.
In the ward, all the doctors were standing, and no one dared to go forward.
On the bed, Chloe was drenched in sweat.
She held her stomach tightly, her face livid.
The lady standing at the end of the bed looked noble and rich.
She was Chloe's mother, Addyson Felton.
Her hands were clenched lightly, and her fingertips were utterly pale.
Addyson looked at Chloe on the bed anxiously.
Just as Addyson was at her wit's end, Brandon arrived.
Addyson grabbed the corner of Brandon's clothes abruptly and pleaded, "Shelton, Chloe refused to have the operation no matter what I said.
I'm glad that you're here." She made it sound like Brandon was Chloe's savior.
His appearance gave Addyson hope.
Chloe tried hard to open her eyes.
She saw Brandon's handsome face, and she smiled with her dry lips, "Shelton, you... are here." "Why wouldn't you have the operation?" Brandon frowned.

He removed Addyson's hand, and the words that came out of his mouth were cold
Nobody dared to answer,
Tears rolled down Chloe's pale face.
She was about to cry.
"It had nothing to do with them.
It was me.
I didn't want to.
I'm afraid, Shielton.
I'm afraid that I won't be able to get out once I get in there.
I'm afraid that I'll never see you again." "Nonsense!" Although he was very angry,
Brandon suppressed his anger.
He turned around and ordered the doctors, "Bring the stretcher over."
A nurse immediately pushed the stretcher in.
Chloe looked away and reached out to hold Brandon's warm hand, she looked very scared.
Two doctors came over and carried her to the stretcher.
After the stretcher started to slide, chloe grabbed Brandon's hand tightly.
Brandon had to go together with the stretcher.
They arrived at the door of the operating room.
Though Chloe was in so much pain that her lace went utterly pale, she was still unwilling to let go of Brandon's hand.
The doctor had to cough awkwardly and remind her, "Ms.
Gilbert, there is no time.
If we wait any longer, the consequences will be disastrous."
Hearing that, Addyson became anxious.
"Shelton, why don't you go in with Chloe?" Brandon pursed his lips coldly.
"I have a blood phobia." The doctor immediately said, "Then you can't go in there.
Mr.
Young, we have to save you as well if you faint." Shelton won't leave.
Being rejected, Addyson could only persuade Chloe, "Chloe,
Don't worry.
Go ahead." However, chloe stared at Brandon, as if she was asking for an answer.
Seeing that, Addyson was burning with anxiety.
She turned around and asked Brandon, "Right, Shelton?" Brandon turned his head slightly and looked at Rex behind him.
Rex motioned for him to agree.
After all, Chloe was Mandel's donor.
Nothing could go wrong.
"OK.
I'll wait here for you to come out.
I won't go anywhere."
Finally, Brandon agreed.
Chloe was relieved.
Just as she loosened her grip, she was quickly pushed in by the doctors and the nurses.
The operating room door was closed.
The indicator lit up.

Addyson stood at the door, twisting her fingers.
She was extremely nervous.
Brandon lowered his gaze and looked at his sleeve, which was wrinkled because of Chloe's grip.
He felt a little irritated.
He took a few steps and walked to the end of the corridor to smoke.
Suddenly, there was the sound of footsteps in the corridor.
He looked up and saw Addyson.
Addyson was relieved when she saw him smoking at the end of the corridor.
Then she turned and walked to the door of the operating room.
Soon, Rex arrived.
Rex glanced at the cigarette between Brandon's long fingers.
He asked, "Didn't you quit? You don't want a kid now?" from excessive smoking and alcohol might be deformed.
Seeing that Brandon did not speak, Rex continued, "Brandon, a child born Mandel is torturing enough.
Another will kill Savanna." Rex knew that as long as Savanna was involved, Brandon would think twice before acting.
Sure enough, Brandon put out the cigarette.
Brandon pinched the extinguished cigarette butt.
His mind was a mess.
His hoarse voice from smoking echoed in the corridor, "Rex, go and check again.
See if there's anyone who can be Mandel's donor.
It's difficult for Savanna to be pregnant.
I just can't bear to see her suffer trying to be pregnant."
Seeing her like that was simply killing him.
Rex sighed deeply.
"Brandon, don't make things difficult for me.
If I can manage to find anyone, I will.
You're my friend.
If you can't bear to see Savanna suffer, then you have to turn to Chloe.
But... She's a bit tricky." Rex remembered the scene just now.
Chloe was in so much pain that her body was drenched in sweat, but she still refused to go in.
She insisted on waiting for Brandon.
Rex hesitated and said, "Mrs.
Young still doesn't know about Chloe's hospitalization.
If she knew, she would urge you to make a choice.
And the Young family and the Gilbert family have already had a deal about you and Chloe's marriage." "It's only a joke.
Don't take it seriously." Brandon's voice, however, didn't sound so calm.
"Mrs.
Young made the decision herself.
You didn't have a say.
It's a shame that you and Savanna have just reconciled."

Rex felt somewhat sorry.
“Brandon, you can’t afford to offend Chloe now.
Otherwise, Mandel will die.
You need to coax Chloe and make her happy.”

Chapter 224

Brandon’s fingers trembled as he held the cigarette. He smiled mockingly, “How should I coax her?”

“I am never good at coaxing others.

I have never even coaxed Savanna, let alone Chloe.” Rex looked at Brandon sadly.

“That’s why she has been away from you these years.

You asked for it.” Rex raised his wrist to look at his watch and patted Brandon on the shoulder.

“Just wait here.

There should still be a few hours before she gets out.

I’m sure she’ll want to see you when she wakes up.

Otherwise, who knows how big a scene she will make by then?

“I have surgery.

Got to go.” After Rex left, the corridor suddenly quieted down.

The cool wind blew the scattered hair next to Brandon’s ears.

The sensor lights shone on his face, leaving a faint halo on it.

The world was quiet.

Brandon, however, wasn’t calm.

He smoked a cigarette, his mouth full of the smell of nicotine.

He called and heard Savanna’s soft voice.

She said, “Are you still working overtime?” “Yes,” Brandon replied softly, feeling bitter.

He glanced at the dark sky and asked gently, “Haven’t you slept yet? Where’s Mandel?”
had some snacks and went to sleep.

“Mandel

I’ll sleep after watching a drama.” Savanna’s voice was very light and calm.

However, the affection between them seemed to have flowed into their hearts through the airwaves.

“OK.

Don’t stay up late,” Brandon said.

“You too...” When Savanna was about to hang up, she suddenly thought of something.

She asked, “Are you coming back tonight?” Afraid that Brandon would get her wrong, Savanna quickly added, “Mandel has a checkup in the morning.

I might not be able to handle it.” Therefore, she was a bit afraid.

Savanna did not know what she was afraid of.

Only now did she realize that she was afraid without Brandon by her side

She found it hard to believe.

After all, she had been away from him for so many years, and she managed.

Savanna's words made Brandon fill with tenderness.
His chest rose and fell, and he even heard the sound of his heart beating, Again and again, it was beating extremely fast.
His heart beat wildly, representing his nervousness and uncontrollable longing.
He had only been gone for a while.
He glanced at the operating room and said in a gentle voice, "I'll be back soon. Go to sleep." "OK" After that, Savanna hung up Brandon stood in situ, holding his phone tightly.
Hearing the busy tone on the phone, he felt that his mind went blank
He smiled bitterly.
On the other end of the corridor, the sound of hurried footsteps echoed.
A group of people appeared.
The one walking in front was Lorena.
Her clothes weren't buttoned properly, and her hair was a bit messy.
Obviously, she came here in a rush.
When Addyson saw Lorena, she cried out.
Lorena looked at the closed operating room door and held Addyson's hand tightly.
Lorena comforted her, "She'll be fine.
Don't worry.
Chloe is a lucky girl.
Nothing will happen to her." Hearing that, Addyson became even more excited.
She was about to cry her eyes out.
"Mrs.
Young, I'm so afraid... What if I lose Chloe?" Addyson's eyes were red, and her face was a mess, filled with tears and snot.
"You won't," Lorena said firmly, stopping Addyson from crying.
In fact, Addyson was worried that the Young family would look down on Chloe because of her poor condition.
Seeing the resolute expression on Lorena's face, Addyson was relieved.
Addyson said, "Chloe has been in poor health since the car accident.
Mrs.
Young.
I'm worried that she won't be able to give birth if this continues."
Lorena was a smart woman, and she knew what Addyson meant.
Lorena said, "Addyson, let's just focus on getting Chloe better.
If she still can't get pregnant, it's fine.
Shelton already has two kids.
If Chloe wants, she can go to the orphanage and adopt as many as she wants." words made Addyson so excited that her face turned red.
Lorena's
"Mrs.
Young, Chloe is so lucky to have you taking care of her." family and the Gilbert family is settled.
Lorena wiped away Addyson's tears and said, "The marriage between the Young
No one can change it.
Don't worry." As Lorena spoke, she glanced around but did not see Brandon.

She frowned, clearly displeased, "Where is Shelton?" Addyson glanced at the end of the corridor and said softly, "He said he was going over there to have a smoke." Lorena saw Addyson's unhappiness and sternly ordered the servant standing behind, "Get Mr. Young here.

Chloe is suffering.

He has to be here for her." The servant quickly went over and passed the message to Brandon.

Brandon went back Lorena saw hun and immediately ordered, "Stay here and accompany Chloe tonight.

You are not allowed to go anywhere." Brandoni looked at Lorena and pursed his thin lips.

Addyson was afraid that Brandon would be unhappy, so she said to Lorena, "Let him do whatever he needs to do.

I've got it covered here.

I'll take care of chloe.

And there are plenty of servants here.

Nothing will go wrong." Lorena said to brandon, "The one lying inside is your future wife.

Of course, you have to be there for her.

Besides, the company of others is different.

I dote on Chloe, and I won't allow hier to suffer even the slightest bit."

Lorena had always been overbearing.

She wouldn't take no for an answer.

Brandon silently lowered his eyes.

He looked very docile, but in fact, Addyson knew that he was controlling his anger since the veins on his forehead were popping.

Addyson wanted to say something, but she was afraid of angering Lorena.

Besides, Lorena was always on Chloe's side.

Addyson had to return the favor.

Therefore, Addyson also fell silent.

The operation doors were opened.

Chloe was pushed out, and Addyson was the first to rush over.

Lorena also walked over.

Chloe, who was in the cart, had a pale face.

Her eyes were closed.

She was in a coma.

Tears welled up in Addyson's eyes.

Lorena kept calling Chloe's name.

Brandon looked at Lorena and the tears on her face from afar.

He was confused.

Did Lorena really dote on Chloe? Or was she acting for the sake of the interests brought by the marriage of the two families? pushed into the ward by the nurse, and Addyson stuinbled and chased after her.

Seeing that Brandon was not moving, she became angry and said, "Why are you standing there? Hurry up and go check on Chloe.

You have to be the first person she sees when she wakes up." have a fallout with Lorena in the hospital, so he walked to the ward reluctantly.

Brandon did not want to

Due to the special nature of the operation, Chloe was put under general anesthesia and had not woken up.

Addyson and Brandon were waiting in the ward.

Lorena was getting old, so she went back to the Young's place to have a rest.

Brandon sal at the head of the bed and looked at Savanna's iMessages several times.

Anyway, she did not reply.

Chloe's eyelids moved, and she woke up.

Seeing that Chloe had woken up, Addyson was so excited that tears rolled out of her eyes.

She shouted in tears, "Chloe!" Addyson immediately sat down and grabbed Chloe's hand.

Chloe's eyes flickered.

She glanced at Addyson, and then she looked around.

Only when she saw Brandon's face did she calm down.

Addyson said, "Are you looking for Shelton? He's here." Addyson signaled Brandon to come over.

Brandon put the phone in his pocket, got up, and slowly walked to the hospital bed.

He stood with his hands behind his back and looked down.

The light cast a layer of light on his face, adding a hint of coldness to him.

Chloe pursed her lips and fixed her gaze on Brandon's face.

Her eyelashes fluttered.

Tears instantly wet her eyelashes.

Her bloodless lips opened and closed.

"Shelton..." Brandon's expression was still cold and indifferent, as it he was looking at a stranger.

Brandon's indifference hurt Addyson.

Addyson walked to him and reminded him in a low voice, "Shelton, Chloe just had her surgery.

Go ahead.

She wants to say something to you." Brandon leaned over, his ears close to Chloe's mouth.

Chloe said weakly, "Thank you ... for staying here, Shelton." Savanna.

He didn't want to waste another second on Chloe.

Brandon said, "Chloe, since you are awake, I think you're fine.

Have some rest.

I will come to see you again tomorrow." Brandon turned and said to Addyson, "Addyson, something comes up at work.

I have to deal with it now.

If there's anything, call me." Brandon ignored Addyson's livid expression and left the Ward

Chloe was agitated.

She stared fixedly in the direction of the door, her teeth chattering.

Addyson saw a trace of blood flowing down from the corner of Chloe's mouth, which made Addyson flustered.

Addyson immediately took a tissue to wipe the blood for Chloe, trembled, and cried, "Chloe, calm down! He will be back.

Didn't you hear what he said? Something comes up at work.

He'll come back tomorrow." Chloe withdrew her gaze and looked at Addyson's face.

Chloe was desperate.

"Mom, he isn't going to his company.

He is going back to Savanna.

Mom, in what aspect is Savanna better than me?" Addyson cried harder.

She sobbed and said, "Chloe, you are way more outstanding than Savanna.

Do not compare yourself to her." In fact, what Addyson wanted to tell Chloe was that feelings were a strange thing.

There were no fixed rules when it came to relationships.

One didn't need a reason to have feelings for another.

However, Chloe just had her surgery.

Addyson was too distressed to tell Chloe those things.

Chloe closed her eyes.

Tears rolled down from the corners of her eyes.

Brandon returned to the villa, A small light was on in the hallway.

Other than that, the surroundings were dark Brandon stepped into Mandel's room.

Mandel was facing the window, sleeping soundly, and he was sweating slightly and wiped the sweat for Mandel.

Brandon took a towel

It was hot and humid.

Brandon changed Mandel's quilt and quietly left Mandel's room.

He then stood at the door of his bedroom, hesitated for a moment, and finally reached out to open the door on the terrace, and the soft light enveloped the bed.

In the room, there was a small light
He walked to the side of the bed, and his huge shadow immediately enveloped Savanna.
Savanna opened her eyes at once.
Their eyes met
Savanna's probing gaze alerted Brandon.
He immediately turned around and walked to the bathroom while asking.
"Why haven't you slept yet?" Brandon entered the bathroom before Savanna could reply.
He came out.
Instead of wrapping the towel around his waist like he always did, he changed into his nightgown.
He looked up and saw Savanna sitting on the bed in a daze.
His eyebrows were slightly raised.
"May I flatter myself that you are waiting for me?"
"I am waiting for you," Savanna said bluntly.
She had been thinking tonight.
She thought that the reason why she and Brandon parted for five years was that they lacked communication.
"What's the matter?" seeing that Savanna was worrying about something, Brandon asked.
Savanna said, "Brandon, tell me, is it hard to find a match for Mandel's bone marrow?"
Brandon did not answer immediately.
His hesitation made Savanna panic.
She got up from the bed and almost rolled down because of her hurry.
Fortunately, Brandon reached out to hold her in time.
Brandon saw her dark circles, and his Adam's apple rolled.
He said, "Savanna, I told you already.
Leave it to me.
You don't have to worry.
Rex will find Mandel a match." Having lived with Brandon for two years, Savanna knew him well.
He never said anything he was not sure of.
The reason why he hesitated was probably that he had encountered something tricky.
It was not about work or life, but about Mandel.
"Brandon, no matter what the result is, don't lie to me.
You have to tell me the truth." The unknown fear overwhelmed Savanna, she was suffocating.
She grabbed Brandon, her voice anxious and painful.
Brandon looked at her, his Adam's apple rolling for a long time before he said in a low voice, "Rex found a match, but she's not in good condition.
She just had her surgery.
I went to check on her tonight." She was just given a glimmer of hope, yet it was soon replaced by despair.
Savanna opened and closed her mouth for a long time before she muttered, "How come?" she quickly adjusted her mood.

However,
She grabbed Brandon's hand so hard that her fingertips turned pale.
Brandon frowned in pain.
"Where is she? Take me to see her."
I want to beg her to take care of her body no matter what.
She can keep Mandel alive!" Brandon was filled with sorrow at once.
His Adam's apple quickly rolled, and his voice was hoarse from enduring.
He said, "She just woke up, and she needs time before seeing others.
Listen to me.
Leave everything to me.
You don't have to worry about it.

Chapter 226
Chapter 226 Savanna was a sensitive woman.
Seeing that Brandon was keeping her in the dark, she was upset. She grabbed Brandon even harder and roared angrily, "Take me to see her." Brandon was reluctant.
Seeing that, Savanna pushed him away and rushed out the door crazily.
Brandon reached out and stopped her.
He held her tightly in his arms.
Savanna struggled so hard that her head bumped against Brandon's chin.
Worrying that he couldn't hold Savanna down, he pushed her against the wall hard.
Savanna could no longer move.
She raised her head and stared at Brandon.
There was resentment, hatred, and an unspeakable pain in her eyes.
She trembled and asked, "Why won't you take me to see her? Who is she?"
Savanna was very smart.
She had a vague feeling the person who matched Mandel's bone marrow was someone she knew and wanted to keep her distance from.
Brandon gritted his teeth, "You don't know her I don't even know her.
It willen who found her when she is in better condition.
I will take you to see her OK? Brandon was practically pleading
Savanna caught him off guard and took out his phone from his orkut.

"Dr Barton, Brandon said that he found someone who to thank her in person." When Rex heard Savann's vox, he suddenly up in the Hearing her words, Resfriado ke up a

He pondered tor a while before slowly saying.
"There

But it take you to her right now No, wait, let me rephrase.

She doesn't want to see you right now House she just had her surgery, and she is very weak."

Rex had speculation and made up the story based on Svanna's words.

"Now you believe me, right? Ask Rex and see if I lied to you I already told you that she just hand her surgery You just won't believe me" Brandon's voice was very loud.

He was saying this to Rex, who was on the other end of the line.

When Rex heard Brandon's words, he broke out in cold sweat.

Rex was glad that he reacted quickly.

Otherwise, they would have been exposed.

The phone was hung up, and Rex tell back to bed to sleep again.

Rex did not know that Savanna would call to ask about this.

The fact that Rex and Brandon's stories echoed each other proved that Brandon did not lie to Savanna.

Savanna fell to the ground, feeling weak Brandon took the phone back from her hand, picked her up, and strode towards the bed.

He gently placed her on the bed.

"I know you are worried.

Me too.

But you cannot rush on this."

Savanna didn't answer.

She just adjusted to a more comfortable position.

In fact, she didn't want to see Brandon's face.

That night, Brandon fell asleep with Savanna in his arms.

He smelled the faint fragrance coming from Savanna.

For the first time, he slept soundly, like a wanderer finally found his destination after drifting for a long time.

The next day, Savanna asked Neil to investigate the mysterious donor.

After an hour, Neil reported to Savanna, "Recently, Rex had two major operations.

I looked into it and found that neither of the patients was Mandel's donor.

But last night, a young lady with the surname Gilbert was hospitalized.

It was said that Mrs.

Young was informed in the middle of the night.

After learning that Ms.

Gilbert was hospitalized, Mrs.

Young hastily took many people to the hospital." Last night? Savanna thought of what Brandon said last night.

He said that he went to see Mandel's donor.

Last night, the woman was so sick that she had an operation.

And the surname of the person who made Lorena so nervous was Gilbert.

Savanna grabbed the phone tightly.

"Is the patient Chloe Gilbert"

Neil was stunned.

"Yes." As if all her strength was drained, Savanna fell to the ground.

Her mind was buzzing, and her heart was a mess.

“Ms. Thompson...” Savanna was silent for a long time, so Neil called her name several times at the other end of the line.

After a long time, Savanna came back to her senses. She calmed herself down, and she moved her bloodless lips.

“What else have you got? Tell me. I’m listening.” “I pulled some strings and got Chloe’s medical record. The medical record shows that her body is not functioning. I found a medical expert to analyze it. The expert said that Chloe had a major operation. In other words, Chloe should have had a major accident before.”

Neil spoke very slowly. He felt that he should tell Savanna every detail.

“We followed this clue and secretly did some digging about the Gilbert family. Chloe had a car accident not long ago. It was said that she had a fallout with her brother that day and ran away from home out of anger. She drove and had a car accident. Chloe’s mother, Addyson, stabbed Chloe’s brother because of this. Indeed, Chloe is not doing well. Brandon and Rex did not lie to you.” The phone was hung up, and Neil’s words lingered in Savanna’s mind for a long time.

After a long while, Savanna finally accepted the fact that the person who donated the bone marrow to Mandel was Chloe. Fate was good at teasing people. There were countless people in the world, yet Chloe was the only one whose bone marrow could match Mandel’s, Savanna now realized the reason why Brandon kept it from her.

Savanna sat by the windowsill she was flustered, and she found it hard to breathe normally.

In the afternoon, she went to the hospital alone behind Brandon’s back. In the ward, Chloe was lying on the bed. Suddenly, she saw someone out of the corner of her eye. When she saw Savanna’s face, she immediately sat up from the bed and said in an unfriendly tone, “What are you doing here?” “Ms. Gilbert, I am here to visit you. I know everything.” There was no trace of hostility in Savanna’s eyes. Seeing that, Chloe gradually let her guard down. Chloe said, “Are you here to thank me?” Savanna nodded.

“Yes. “Thank you for saving Mandel. I heard that you are very weak. I made some soup for you.” Then Savanna unscrewed the lid of the thermos in her hands. The aroma of the soup dispersed. Chloe glanced at the steaming soup, and the corners of her mouth curled into a mocking smile.

"I am the beloved daughter and the treasure of the Gilbert family. I can drink any soup as long as I open my mouth. You don't have to do this, Ms. Thompson."

Savanna was indifferent and was not angry. "It's just a little something from me. After all, you can only donate my son your bone marrow after you get well." Chloe was furious. "Your son isn't the one I'm saving. I'm saving my happiness, my future. I'm saving Shelton's son." Savanna smiled, and her eyes were cold. "I gave birth to Shelton's son. Ms. Gilbert, what are your terms? Just Dame them." Savanna seemed to have been prepared. Chloe said, "My terms? What do you mean? Savanna, you don't give me enough credit. I'm bigger than you think." Chloe looked up and saw a figure flashing by outside the window. Her voice was soft as she said, "Let alone my bone marrow, I can sacrifice my life for Sheldon and Mandel." Savanna was wondering why Chloe's attitude would change so quickly when she turned around and saw Brandon standing at the door.

Chapter 227

Chapter 227 Brandon was also surprised to see Savanna here. His eyes were filled with affection. "You... Why are you here?" Savanna pursed her lips and did not speak. "Shelton, you came. I thought..." Chloe was thrilled. Brandon walked towards Savanna. He grabbed Savanna and gripped Savanna's shoulder with his fingertips. He was extremely nervous. "I was going to tell you last night. But I was afraid that you would be even more..." Before Brandon could finish, Savanna said, "I heard that Ms Gilbert was ill, so I made her some soup. Ms. Gilbert said she liked it very much, so I was going to make her some more tomorrow. In that case, Ms. Gilbert would feel better soon." Chloe didn't know what Brandon wanted to tell Savanna last night, but anyway, she didn't want to leave a bad impression on Brandon. The second Savanna finished speaking, Chloe quickly took the bowl in Savanna's hand, took a sip, and praised, "Yes, it is delicious. Thank you, Savanna." Brandon knew that Chloe and Savanna were just acting. Savanna said Chloe enjoyed her soup, while Chloe didn't even Cat it. Brandon was afraid that Savanna would misunderstand him.

Therefore, he finally fixed his gaze on Chloe's face and said coldly.
"Chloe, Savanna is Mandel's mother and my wife.
I hope what you said is sincere, and you should treat her with respect."
Chloe was dissatisfied deep down, but she didn't dare to show it.
She smiled awkwardly, and when she ate the soup, she muttered unwillingly.
"Fine."
Savanna withdrew her hand from Brandon's palm.
She took the empty bowl from Chloe and said, "Chloe, take care.
I will visit you again tomorrow." Chloe rolled her eyes at Savanna secretly.
She didn't want to see Savanna at all.
Savanna ignored Brandon and walked out with the thermos cup in her hands.
Brandon was just about to go after Savanna when he was stopped by Chloe.
"Brandon, my waist is bothering me again.
And there's something wrong with my heart.
The doctor said that my heart beats faster than the average person.
Aren't you afraid that I will die? if I die, no one can help Mandel."
Her tone was very soft, but for Brandon, her words were a fatal threat.
He bit his lower lip, and his handsome face was sinister and cold.
"Chloe, you know me.
No one can threaten me.
Don't push your luck." Brandon shook her hand off and turned to leave.
"Aren't you worried that Mandel will be hopeless?" Chloe shouted.
Yet Brandon ignored her.
He didn't even look back Savanna walked to the entrance of the hospital and thought of what Chloe had just said.
She recalled the scene of Brandon and Chloe staying together.
Suddenly, her heart ached.
Savanna was upset, and she could not move.
She could only reach out and support herself with the door frame.
"Savanna." She heard Brandon's voice
Savanna calmed herself down.
She looked back and met Brandon's gaze.
There was anxiety, regret, and unspeakable worry and pain in his eyes.
Savanna forced a smile and said, "Why are you out? She needs you.
Go back." Savanna's voice was very light, so light that it would break at any moment.
The generosity and sincerity she showed right now bothered Brandon a lot Brandon stood next to Savanna and stared at her "You really want me to take care of her Savanna lowered her eyelashes, covering the panic and sadness in her eyes.
She tried her best to hold back her tears and sound as normal as possible she said, "I told you already.
Right now, Mandel is my priority." Brandon's heart skipped a beat when he heard her words
He locked Savanna's arm and pulled her under the covers.
He held her chin with one hand and forced her to look at him, Savanna saw his red eyes.
He said with anger, "Tell me the truth Do you really want me to take care of Chloe?"
Savanna ignored the pain in her heart and suppressed her bitterness.

“So what if I say no Brandon, Mandel’s life is in her hands.”

Brandon heaved a sigh of relief, and his lips curved into a beautiful smile.

He said, “That’s all I need to hear.” He spent five years waiting for her.

It paid.

Suddenly, Brandon loosened his grip.

When Savanna thought that he had let go of her, he pulled her hand and walked to the black commercial car parked by the road.

Brandon pushed Savanna into the car and then sat in himself.

Seth started the car and drove into the traffic.

Along the way, Brandon’s eyes were frighteningly cold, and he tightly held Savanna’s hand with his right hand.

He was silent. Seeing that, Savanna didn’t dare to say a word.

They quickly returned to the Moon Villas.

Brandon pulled Savanna out of the car.

The two of them walked into the room, and just as the door closed, Brandon pressed Savanna against the door at once.

Before Savanna could react, Brandon had already pinched her chin with his slender fingers, forcing her to look up and kiss him. His kiss was passionate, affectionate, and indescribably gentle.

Brandon slid his lips down from her lips to her chin, and then to her slender neck.

He saw that her skin that had been kissed by him was rosy, and her veins under his lips seemed to be bulging.

He stopped and looked into her eyes.

Her eyes were flickering and watery.

She was turned on.

He stroked her soft lips with his slender fingers, lowered his head, and kissed her again.

Brandon’s movements were wild.

His desire, which had been suppressed for a long time, poured out like a storm.

He hugged her soft body that he had missed for a long time and conquered her.

Savanna breathed quickly, and the sex went on and on...

Brandon carried her sweaty body and walked into the bathroom.

He took the shower to clean her body gently.

It was late at night when Savanna woke up.

She thought that Brandon was gone, but she was wrong.

Brandon didn’t leave, and his arm was under her head.

At this precise moment, her breathing and her surroundings were filled with the scent of pinewood that she was fascinated with, a unique scent that belonged only to Brandon.

Brandon said in a sexy voice, “Are you awake?” He picked up a strand of Savanna’s hair to the tip of his nose and smelled it.

The gardenia-flavor shampoo was his favorite.

Savanna closed her eyes, and the veins on her forehead stood out.

Brandon was worried that she would fill her head with nonsense.

He grabbed her hand, and his slender fingers went through hers.

Their fingers were tightly clasped together.

The heat from his fingertips penetrated Savanna’s skin and reached her heart.

“Forget about the treatment.
I’ve already told them.
No one will dare to give you medicine again.
Savanna, we will have sex every night from now on.
They say that love can make everything possible.
As long as we love each other, we will have a baby again.
I’ll be glad to see Mandel having a younger sister or brother.”
He turned her face over, looked at her, and kissed her chin.
As long as Savanna was pregnant, they would no longer be shackled to Chloe.

Brandon clung to Savanna’s body. His body was hot. Savanna touched his hot cheek and red skin. She could feel his love for her from that.

She was also turned on and her body gradually warmed up.

They two enjoyed romantic sex.

Early in the morning, Savanna woke up from her sleep.

The dream she had last night was sweet like pink bubbles.

And the world after she woke up was also sweet.

In such a sweet room, Brandon was putting on the shirt and fastening the buttons.

She reached out to grab his shirt.

Brandon looked at her from the corner of his eyes and a smile immediately appeared on his face.

“I have to go to work You should sleep more.” Last night, she was exhausted.

Brandon buttoned up his buttons.

When he got up, he gave her a warm kiss.

When he looked down, all he saw were red marks on her snow-white skin.

The marks were all from him during the sex They looked at each other with deep affection.

Brandon felt her enthusiasm and his heart was even sweeter than honey.

Brandon tidied himself up and went out.

Savanna lay on the bed, her thoughts in a mess.

She dialed Neil’s number.

“Hand over Chloe’s medical record.

I want to see it.” Ten minutes later, Neil took Chloe’s medical record.

Savanna stared at the medical record.

Chloe suffered from a major accident and all the functions of her body were damaged..

Savanna’s gaze fell on the time below.

March 23rd.

She was lost in thought for a time.

If she remembered correctly.

the time of Tracy’s accident was also March 23rd.

Savanna asked Neil, “Neil, would one’s face be damaged after a severe accident that destroyed all her body functions?”

Neil immediately got her meaning and was impressed.

Neil gave Savanna a thumbs up.

“Ms.

Thompson, you are so smart.” Neil said, “But, Chloe’s face is exactly the same as before she was injured.

Ms.

Thompson, what’s your opinion? Do you think that the current Chloe and the previous Chloe are not the same person?” Savanna fell silent.

A moment later, she let out a sigh of relief and said to Neil, “After I meet someone, I will understand everything.” Savanna was talking about Rex.

Rex was not surprised to see Savanna come to his office.

The night before yesterday, Savanna called him with Brandon’s phone.

He had already expected Savanna to come to find him.

Rex made a cup of tea for Savanna and asked Savanna to sit down.

Rex said, “You came to be because you wanted to ask if Chloe was a match with Mandel’s marrow, right?”

Savanna shook her head and rubbed the cup with her fingertips.

“I already know that Chloe’s bone marrow can match Mandel’s.

I came to ask you something.

Dr.

Barton, you grew up with Tracy and Brandon.

How much do you know about them?” Rex did not expect Savanna to suddenly mention Tracy.

His long and narrow eyebrows were slightly furrowed.

“Why did you suddenly mention Tracy? Isn’t she already...” Savanna asked stubbornly.

Rex said, “Her personality, her voice, her smile, and her movements.

I am familiar with these all.” “To what extent?” Seeing Savanna insist on getting an answer, Rex realized the seriousness of the situation.

“Savanna, what are you trying to say? What did you find out just say it directly Brandon and I are good friends.

And I treated her as my sister too.

You are the woman Brandon loves the most in his lifetime.

For Brandon’s sake, don’t beat around the bush.

Tell me what you want to know.

As a doctor, Rex was straightforward and he didn’t like to talk roundabout way.

Savanna looked at Rex and said, “I suspect that Chloe is Tracy”

Savanna’s words caught Rex off guard, and his body swayed. Rex carefully recalled the process of the car accident that happened to Tracy.

After a long time, he finally came to his senses and muttered, “The possibility is small.”

Savanna had a calm and gentle expression.

“See, you also said that the possibility is small, but you didn’t say that it is completely impossible.”

Rex was completely shocked by the news.

Savanna’s guess made him unable to recover from the shock for a long time.

“Savanna, you can’t randomly guess about this kind of thing.
We have to have solid evidence.
Tracy is no longer there.
I know that she did a lot of bad things to you in the past.
But why do you have to make things difficult for a dead person?”
Not to speak ill of a dead person was the basic respect for the dead.
Rex was not speaking up for Tracy, but Savanna was really...
Savanna said, “I have already forgotten what she had done to me before, but if anyone dares to harm Mandel and scheme against Mandel, it is taking my life.
“She and I will always be enemies.” Rex felt the resentment in Savanna’s heart and immediately said, “I have a way.” Rex and Savanna immediately bought plane tickets and flew back to New York. The old house of the Cassel family was cold and empty.
There were two tombs in the courtyard.
One was Giselle’s, and the other was Tracy’s.
Savanna got two people to help them.
Tracy’s tomb was gradually dug open.
Rex looked at the pile of rotten bones in the coffin.
His face was as pale as winter snow.
No one was a fool.
Tracy had only died for half a year.
It was impossible for the corpse to rot into a few bones.
The situation in the coffin equaled an empty one.
Savanna smiled as if she had already expected it.
“Rex, did you see that? Do you still dare to say that Tracy is dead?”
Rex seemed to have not expected this result.
He was stunned, and his expression gradually became cold.
“However, it’s still a bit too much to say that Chloe is Tracy.”
Rex carefully thought back to the time he spent with Chloe.
No matter in what aspect, Chloe was not like Tracy.
But when she first came to the hospital and said that her marrow matched Mandel’s, she made a request.
She asked to meet the family of the receiver’s family, so that she would be willing to sign the donation agreement.
At that time, Rex felt that Chloe was very familiar, as if he had seen her somewhere.
The more Rex thought about it, the more he felt that something was wrong.
The more he thought about it, the more he stood upright.
“If Chloe is Tracy, then where is the real Chloe?” “Judging from the current situation, she should be dead,” Savanna answered smoothly, as if she had already thought about it in her heart.
“Even if that’s the case, how did Tracy manage to do this?” Rex took a deep breath and asked, “Moreover, at that time, Brandon prepared for the funeral on his own.
If it was really the case, Tracy was treating us as fools.”
Rex had the anger of being deceived and played.
In the end, they grew up together, so he valued Tracy.
Savanna said, “I now suspect that Chloe’s bone marrow doesn’t match Mandel’s at all.”

Rex was even more surprised.
After a long time, he finally moved his lips.
“This...
This is impossible!” If this was true, Rex really wanted to give himself several slaps.

Chapter 229

Chapter 229

Rex calmed down and carefully analyzed Savanna’s words. The empty coffin in front was not enough to prove that Tracy was Chloe, but it suggested Tracy was not dead. If so, where was she? Rex stroked some strands of messy hair on his forehead.
“Are you going to tell Brandon?” “When I gather enough evidence, I will tell him. The time is not right now.” Rex complained, “Shouldn’t you tell your husband about this kind of thing as soon as possible?” Why tell him? I’ll only add more burden to him. Savanna raised her eyebrows.
“You’ve said you’re Brandon’s best friend and you can do whatever good for him. It has only been a few hours and you are about to go back on your word.
Dr.
Barton,
your friendship is fragile.”
Savanna’s words choked Rex.
He snorted coldly.
“You’d better go straight to the point.
What do you want me to do? If he couldn’t offer any help.
Savanna wouldn’t have told him about it before she collected enough evidence.
Savanna said, “You are a doctor, so you know the medical knowledge better than us Chloe believes in you.
You’re the one who can get close to her every day and know her condition. Please, help me check if her bone marrow has been switched or something.”
Rex finally understood why Savanna asked him for help.
Savanna was extremely intelligent.
Rex said, “You’re wasting your talent by only managing the Thompson Group. You should be a police officer.
You’ll probably solve the most difficult case.” Savanna smiled deeply.
“I’ll take it as a compliment.” After a moment of silence, Savanna said, “I won’t tell Brandon for now.
After all, Tracy is his younger sister.” Rex answered Savanna with silence.
Before leaving New York, Savanna sent an anonymous message to Lucas on Rex’s phone.
After sending it, Savanna immediately deleted the record.
Rex did not know who Savanna sent the message to and what the content was.
“Did you send the message to a man?” Rex asked.

“Neither men nor women.” Hearing Savanna’s answer, Rex didn’t know whether to laugh or cry, “Aren’t you afraid that I will tell Brandon and he will break up with you?” Hearing Brandon’s name, Savanna immediately recalled their last night’s passionate lovey-dovey time.

The smile on her face froze, and her expression looked indifferent.

“He and I have experienced so many things.

If he still doesn’t trust me, there is nothing I can do.

Right now, Mandel is my priority.” She meant that once something happened, Savanna might abandon Brandon and choose the child.

“Having a loving husband and acute son together makes you the winner of life”

Rex broke into a cold sweat for Brandon Savanna and Rex returned to Philadelphia Rex wanted to go back to the hospital but Savanna stopped him Savanna took Rexto.

Mexican restaurant During their dinner, Brandon called more than one ind asked

Savannnd where she was

Savanna told him that she went to New York for some errands and would be back by today After dinner, Rex went back to the hospital After leaving for half a day, the work piled up Rex was busy back in the hospital Savanna held Rex back because she was afraid that Lucas would send a message But there was no reply from Lucas as if he didn’t receive it at all When Savanna returned to the Moon Villas, Brandon was standing by the window and dialing her number.

Mandel was lying on the sofa with a pillow.

His eyes were red after crying because he could not find his mother.

Seeing that Savanna had returned, Brandon hung up the call and walked over.

“How can you go back to New York without telling us? Mandel couldn’t find you anywhere.

He was so angry that he cried.” Brandon pulled Savanna in front of Mandel and said softly, “Your mom is back.

Don’t cry anymore.” Mandel took off the pillow on his face.

His eyes were full of tears.

When he saw Savanna’s face, his nose twitched violently.

The tears fell down like sharp swords that stabbed Savanna’s chest.

Savanna squatted down and hugged Mandel.

“Mom didn’t leave.

Don’t cry.

I just went out to do something.” “Why didn’t you tell me?” Mandel was not the only one who was nervous about Savanna’s disappearance.

Brandon was so nervous that several strands of gray hair appeared.

“Alright, I’ll tell you wherever I go, okay? Don’t be angry.”

For the first time, Savanna was gentle and soft.

Brandon seemed to enjoy it and did not say anything more.

Mandel personally made dinner.

Alter dinner, Mandel was taken by Lizeth to the backyard for a walk Brandon left the study to handle the company business, while Savanna cooked some soup for Chloe.

Unfortunately, she saw a familiar figure when she was about to enter the ward.

It was Lucas.

Lucas didn't notice her.
He lowered his head and hurried into Chloe's ward.
Savanna quickened her pace and stood outside the door.
She turned on the voice recorder and listened to the recording.
The atmosphere in the room was dull.
Lucas gritted his teeth and said, "If you are alive, why didn't you contact me? Chloe, do you think I'm in a clown?" Unable to hear Chloe's voice, Savanna pressed her ear against the door.
But she still couldn't hear anything After a long time, Chloe said in a slow voice, "Lucas, I don't love you anymore.
I don't have any feelings for you.
Why are you still pestering me? Is it fun?" These words hurt Lucas.
Suddenly, he roared, "Your name is on my certificate.
Since you promised to marry me, why did you change your mind?"
Lucas thought that Chloe suddenly disappeared because of another relationship.
He didn't know the Stella he loved no longer existed, and the woman lying on the bed was not Stella.
Chloe also got angry.
She shouted, "Who I love is my right.
My name is Chloe.
The person you married is Stella.
I don't want to see you.
Get out of here." Finding out that Stella was still alive, Lucas put down his work and rushed over to the hospital.
He didn't come here to quarrel with Chloe.
The veins on his forehead bulged.
He suppressed the anger in his heart and said affectionately, "Honey, I love you.
I can't live without you."
Chloe only coldly sneered.
"Lucas, you love the wealth of the Gilbert family, right? I am looking forward to the true love of my life.
I didn't expect that I dumbly loved you.
Now, I am sober.
Don't lie
to me again."
Lucas admitted his intention.
"Maybe I got close to you for the sake of interest, but later on, I knew my feelings.
I love you, and it has nothing to do with interest.

Love Has Its Will

Chapter 230

Chapter 230

In the past, Chloe was gentle, and Lucas would not be angry at her. However, Chloe now had changed greatly How could she stand Lucas' harsh words? She sneered and narrowed her eyes.

"You want to kill me? Lucas, what ability do you have to kill me? Just rely on your crumbling Davis family?" Hearing this, Lucas laughed instead of getting angry.

"Don't worry, I have a thousand ways to kill you.

As long as you dare to marry Shelton, I don't mind making things worse."

Lucas' attitude was clear.

If Chloe was unwilling to be with him again, he would do something stupid.

At that time, no one could bear the consequences.

As the saying went, where there was nothing to lose, there was nothing to fear.

"You..." Chloe gritted her teeth.

Lucas turned around, opened the door, and saw Savanna, He did not expect that she would be outside.

"Savanna, why are you here?" Lucas asked Savanna.

Savanna pursed her lips and smiled.

Her gaze was cold.

She did not answer Lucas' question.

Instead, she walked past him and entered the ward.

"You..."

Why are you here?" Chloe looked at Savanna in surprise.

Chloe thought to herself, did Savanna hear the conversation between me and Lucas?

"I said that I will bring some soup for you today." Savanna held the bowl and scooped the soup slowly.

After that, she handed the bowl to Chloe.

"Please have some.

I've been making it for several hours." The moment Savanna appeared with the thermos lunch box, Lucas fixed his eyes on her.

Seeing her bring the soup for Chloe, Lucas slowly cleared his thoughts.

He didn't want to leave, and he was too embarrassed to come in again.

He just stood at the door.

Chloe glanced at Lucas out of the corner of her eyes.

Afraid that Lucas would come in to cause trouble, she thanked Savanna and took a bowl to drink the soup.

Chloe drank hurriedly and finished the soup in a few mouthfuls.

Savanna took the empty bowl from Chloe's hands and put on a fake smile.

"Chloe, I'm leaving now.

Call me if you need anything." After saying that, Savanna left with the thermos lunch box.

From beginning to end, she ignored

Lucas completely.

Lucas glanced at Chloe who was on the bed.

Then he took a step forward to catch up with Savanna.

Savanna had just walked to the entrance of the hospital when her arm was grabbed by someone with brute force.

It hurt so much that she was about to cry.
Savanna was a little annoyed and turned around.
She slapped Lucas on the face.
Lucas did not expect Savanna to hit him.
Although he was angry, he did not dare to flare up.
After all, it was his fault.
Maybe it was because he grabbed Savanna so suddenly, and Savanna thought that he was a rogue.
Lucas could only let go of Savanna.
He stood in front of her and stopped her from leaving “Why are you here? And why did you give her soup?” Savanna’s gaze was sharp as she asked, “Is she Stella? She is your nominal wife, right?” Lucas avoided Savanna’s aggressive gaze and swallowed.
“It’s true She is indeed Stella, but I couldn’t find her for a period of time.
That’s why I asked you to pretend to be her and trick Brandon
You can’t blame me for this.”
Savanna said, “Since she is Stella and your wife, why is she racking her brains and trying so hard to marry Shelton? Also, do you know who Shelton is?” Lucas looked sad and shook his head.
“I was busy with L&S Limited’s business, and I had been on a business trip for two months.”
Regardless of whether Lucas pretended not to know, Savanna’s voice was cold.
“Let me tell you,
Shelton is Brandon.
You should know that Brandon is not your aunt’s biological son.
He and Tracy are both adopted by your aunt in the orphanage, and the Young’s house is their home.
Now, Brandon has returned to the young family and becomes Shelton.
Your wife is pestering him every day.” Speaking of this, Savanna was a little agitated.
“Did you send me that anonymous text message?” Lucas suddenly understood.
Savanna admitted it.
“Yes, I sent it, but I have to make it clear.
I don’t want to mess with Chloe.
Lucas, there is something you don’t know yet.
Mandel is sick, and Chloe’s bone marrow just happens to match Mandel’s.
She used this to threaten Shelton and force Shelton to marry her.
I can’t bear to see you be deceived, so I sent you the message.”
Savanna made things sound serious.
Lucas was so angry that his face turned pale.
“Doesn’t Brandon love you? Why would he agree?” “The Young family is now under Mrs.
Young’s control.
Because of her, Brandon seems to have agreed to marry Chloe.
Lucas, you are cheated.”
Savanna’s words infuriated Lucas.
Lucas’ eyes turned sinister.

“Chloe is my wife.
She can’t marry someone else unless I die.” Savanna put on a sly smile.
“But she said that she would not marry anyone except Shelton.
Lucas, you have to find a way to stop her.
Otherwise, it will be a tragedy.
In fact, she does not like Shelton.
She wants to marry into the Young family only because she likes its wealth and power.”
Lucas seemed to grasp a glimpse of hope.
Savanna’s words kept echoing in his mind.
“In fact, she does not like Shelton She wants to marry into the Young family only because she likes its wealth and power.” Chloe didn’t like Shelton, which meant that Lucas still had hope.
Lucas turned excitedly and wanted to rush back to the Ward, but he was stopped by Savanna
Lucas was anxious.
“Why are you pulling me? I’m going to ask her what she means and why she is going to marry a man she doesn’t like.” Savanna said, “Lucas, what you need to do now is to think of a way to stop the marriage alliance between the Young and Gilbert families, not go back to let her humiliate you.” Savanna was right.
Lucas thought of Chloe’s heartless words.
His heart ached as if it had been cut by a knife and bleeding.
He was in so much pain that he wanted to end his life.
“Then tell me, what do you think I should do?” Lucas asked Savanna for help.
Savanna pursed her lips and smiled.
It seemed that everything was under her control.
Savanna got close to Lucas’ ear and whispered for a while.
Lucas’ eyes lit up and he gave her a thumbs up.
After they talked for a while, they parted ways.
– In the evening, Rex sent Savanna a message.
“I had checked Chloe’s bone marrow examination reports.
There is no problem.
Her bone marrow can indeed match Mandel’s.” Savanna read the message for a long time before replying, “I got it.” Lorena stormed into the Moon Villas with anger.
Before Seth could say a word, he was hit by the walking stick thrown by Lorena, which hurt him so much.
“Mrs.
Young...” “Where is Savanna? Call her out.” “I’m here, Grandma.” Savanna went downstairs with steady steps.
Lorena saw Savanna, and her angry face almost twisted.
The servant picked up the cane and handed it to Lorena.
Lorena pointed her cane at Savanna.
“You are not pregnant, aren’t you?” It was obvious that Chloe had informed Lorena.
Savanna smiled faintly.
“I never said that I was pregnant.
