Chapter 35 Do You Really Want to Deal With This Demon?

However, for some reason, after the age of 17, Pierre rebelled so much that he caused a ruckus within the Fowler Family and even made John so angry that he vomited blood once. John had no choice but to comply with the Moody Family's wishes and sent him to the army to train.

Since then, few people had heard about Pierre, and five years later, he suddenly returned from the army. It was said that he had made a grave mistake in the army which caused him to be driven back home, but after he came back, he founded his own Empire Group.

Regardless of the truth, what Selena was sure of was that Pierre must be a very difficult man.

"But if we can deal with this demon, we can do whatever we want unhindered in Astoria."

When Linda heard that, she gulped and asked, "President Yard, do you really want to deal with this demon?"

"After all, I've dealt with a demon before, and I really don't believe there is a second demon in this world," Selena muttered in an undertone.

"What?" Linda didn't hear Selena's words clearly.

"Nothing." Selena smiled faintly and didn't continue the topic.

Now, she had already made up her mind to start her own clothing brand, and she wanted to seek connections with Fowler Corporation and Empire Group too.

After turning on her computer, she found Pierre's email address which was obtained from a previous international seminar. At that time, many leaders of corporations from all over the world had participated in the seminar, and they were given a contact e-booklet for the convenience of contacting each other later.

Then, she wrote a very sincere email, saying that she hoped she could visit Pierre.

Meanwhile, Pierre was having a meeting in the conference room with the company's top management, and each employee had a laptop in front of them. Suddenly, Selena's email popped up on Pierre's screen.

His computer screen showed the project they were doing this time, but Pierre ignored what he was supposed to be looking at and clicked on Selena's email before carefully reading through it.

He could immediately guess that Selena wanted to collaborate with Fowler Corporation and Empire Group. To put it bluntly, Selena wanted to build a connection with them, but Fowler Corporation and Empire Group would also naturally reap benefits. Thus, this was a win-win situation.

After reading the email, Pierre was lost in thought for a while. He never expected that just one email from her could immediately mess up his thoughts.

At the same time, everyone noticed that Pierre was staring at the computer screen without blinking. Is he lost in thought? They looked at each other, not knowing what was going on.

"President Fowler..." Niall knocked on the table.

Only then did Pierre come back to his senses. "Today's meeting is done for now. Everyone should go back and think about the things we discussed today. The meeting is adjourned."

After saying that, Pierre turned off the laptop and left the conference room. Behind him, Niall put away the computer and immediately followed behind Pierre.

At the moment, Pierre's heart was in turmoil. During this period of time, he had actually gotten to know Selena's character, so he knew that Selena would get what she wanted if she put her mind to it. Hence, she would definitely seek ways to contact him.

If that happened, his identity would also be exposed.

In the beginning, Pierre concealed his identity from Selena to investigate whether she was a spy, but now, he found that the acting had gone off the rails. What will happen if she knows about my true identity? Pierre had no idea about that.

Later, he sat in his office, playing with the ring that Niall had just prepared in his hands and fell into deep thought.

On the other hand, Selena was somewhat discouraged after she did not receive Pierre's reply even after two days. Out of courtesy, he should at least reply back to her. After all, considering JNS Corporation's current development, any other company could not possibly look down on them, let alone ignore them!
