

Chapter 5321

After Gina returned to the room and met the two sisters, she saw the righteous indignation and jealousy on their faces.

She hurriedly asked: "Have you finished recording all the recordings? Don't let me lose the chain at this time!"

Tabia said angrily: "Sister Gina, this family is too fcuking worthless,"

"You may not be able to hear what they said outside the balcony,"

"Horiyah and that dead old woman called us stinky sh!t!"

"Yes!" Lexi also said very angrily: "The key one Horiyah is not a thing,"

"Let alone scolding the three of us,"

"Even those who paid them money in the live broadcast room were scolded by her."

"How bad do you think this stinky bltch is?"

Tabia also echoed: "This stinking shameless person, Horiyah is now thinking about other deceptions,"

"She asked her husband and her son to pretend that one has advanced pancreatic cancer,"

"The other pretended to have uremia, and even she also arranged a script for that dead old woman,"

"Let her cry slowly and blind her eyes, this is simply a beast!"

Gina said angrily after hearing this: "Play the sound you recorded for me!"

Tabia immediately handed her her mobile phone, Gina pressed the play button, And listened to the conversation of Horiyah's family in the room just now from beginning to end.

Since it was Elaine's idea to let them stuff the earphones and microphones into the crack of the door,

The effect of their recording is very clear.

Gina listened to the entire conversation verbatim, and her veins were so swollen that she wished she could rush downstairs,

Kick the door open, and drag the Willson family out one by one. Beat up.

However, she quickly realized that the most important thing now is not to beat up these people, but to quickly send all these materials to Elaine, and let Elaine find a way to get Horiyah's family online. Give exposure.

So, she quickly sent the video she took, as well as the audio recorded by Tabia, to the group.

At this time, Elaine was lying on the bed, tossing and turning, waiting.

She changed to a new short video account and has been watching the live broadcast in Horiyah's room.

Seeing that the live broadcast was over, she began to look forward to Gina, And the others to reveal the real faces of Horiyah's family behind the scenes, and then quickly send the evidence.

Just when she was burning with anxiety, both video and audio files were sent to the group.

Elaine sat up from the bed with a jerk and immediately turned on the audio to listen to the conversation.

It didn't matter what she heard, Elaine was both angry and happy when she heard it.

What makes her angry is that Horiyah is really capable.

She understands the principles of live broadcasting, selling goods, selling misery, And setting up people. She can even analyze data. She really has two brushes.

The good news is, with these conversation recordings, how can Horiyah's family not fail?

Thinking of this, she immediately downloaded both the video and audio to her mobile phone,

And then opened the video editing software.

If we go back five or six years, how could an old lady like Elaine learn the technique of video editing?

However, thanks to the rapid development and growth of the short video platform in recent years,

The threshold for short video entry has been reduced to the extreme,

And many entrepreneurs have developed a lot of fool-like operating software for the short video platform,

Allowing the professional technology of video editing to become so simple,

Even the elderly and children can play it with ease.

Elaine used to edit small selfie videos, so she is very familiar with the operation of this software.

She skillfully opened the software, added the video, then canceled the original sound of the video, and pulled in the audio again.

Next, there is only one slightly laborious process left,

Which is to match the audio and video time tracks so that the audio and video can be synchronized.

Fortunately, the video file and the audio file are whole, so Elaine only needs to find one of the clips that are easier to recognize the mouth shape,

And then echo the corresponding audio of this clip, then the entire video and audio will be completely matched.

Soon, Elaine found a very convenient lip-sync clip, and synchronized the audio and video 100% completely.

Then she previewed the entire video, and after confirming that there were no problems, she exported the video.

After the video was exported, Elaine grinned happily while reviewing it again.

She couldn't help sighing: "Oh, Horiyah, Horiyah, I really underestimated you. I didn't expect you to earn hundreds of thousands a day."

"If I do this, I still can't earn such a small goal in a year?"

"Unexpectedly, you stinky b!tch really has two brushes, and this live broadcast can make you a millionaire!"

As she spoke, she giggled, shook her head, and said, "It's a pity, you can't even imagine in your dreams, your trick can fall into my hands?"

"With this video, you still want to be a billionaire? As long as I release this video, I don't think you can eat hot sh!t!"

After all, immediately opened her own short video software.

Later, she changed her nickname to Elaine, a counterfeit fighter!

The personal profile was changed to: "A righteous person who is active in society,"

"Who can't rub the sand in his eyes, vows to expose all liars!"

After the modification, she immediately uploaded the video. The title of the video is:

Internet celebrity Horiyah made up stories and sold them, earning hundreds of thousands a day with live broadcasts!

After the video was sent out, Elaine couldn't help muttering: "Shouldn't the video be sent out, and no one will watch it like the previous live broadcast?"

Although this revelation is very powerful, wouldn't it be over if no one read it?"

Thinking of this, Elaine couldn't help gritting her teeth: "No way! I have to give some promotional money! And I have to vote a little more, another two thousand!"

After making up her mind, she immediately clicked the promotion button and created a promotion plan for this video.

The total amount of the promotion plan was 2,000 yuan, all of which were used to increase the number of clicks.

After the creation, she immediately clicked to pay, and found that the actual payment amount is 1995 yuan, just wondering, she saw a coupon deduction information at the bottom, and then realized that the customer service gave her a five yuan coupon last time.

Elaine couldn't help but scolded the customer service again in her heart before completing the payment.

Immediately afterward, she found that her promotion plan was running very fast, and the advertising fee of 2,000 yuan was consumed by 300 yuan in the blink of an eye!

And the number of views of this video is also growing rapidly.
