When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2808

Chapter 2808—In the afternoon, Elliot and Avery also came over.

Because Layla told them that she would move to Eric's house.

This information showed that Eric agreed to be with Layla.

That being the case, they must meet and talk again.

In fact, Avery had nothing to discuss with Eric.

With Eric's current physical condition, he was struggling to take care of himself, so he definitely didn't have any ideas.

The matter between the two of them must be led by Layla.

Eric had always doted on Layla, and he didn't have to wait for Layla to cry, make trouble, and hang himself, before he raised his hand and surrendered.

After the two came over, Mrs. Santos quickly asked them if they had eaten.

"We've finished eating, you don't need to be busy, sit down and rest!" Avery pulled Mrs. Santos to sit beside her, "Elliot and I came here because Layla said that she would move to Eric's house. It's good that the two of them decided to be together. After all, we know each other well, so we don't have to worry about not being able to get along."

The smile on Mrs. Santos's face, a little haggard.

"It's his honor for us Eric to be liked by Layla. Who doesn't like such a beautiful and excellent girl as Layla! It's just that we are not lucky in Eric!" Mrs. Santos sighed, "I don't know how long will he stay with Layla?"

Avery understood Mrs. Santos's worry: "Don't think so much. They can be together as long as they can."

"Yes." Mrs. Santos said enthusiastically, "You guys stay for dinner tonight! It's inconvenient for Eric to go out now, so it's more convenient to eat at home."

Avery nodded: "Will it be too much trouble for you?"

"Why? I bought a lot of vegetables today, and I have a nanny to help, so it's not troublesome." Mrs. Santos smiled.

“That’s good. Regarding the future life of Layla and Eric, Elliot and I have the same attitude. We will not interfere with their lives. But if they need help, we will definitely do our best to help.” Avery expressed her attitude.

Mrs. Santos nodded in satisfaction: “I think the same as you and we will not interfere. It is Eric’s physical condition, and Layla will have to work hard to take care of him in the future.”

Layla didn’t intend to intervene, but after Mrs. Santos said so, Layla immediately said: “It’s not hard. Even if it’s hard, I’m not afraid of hard work.”

“Is Eric resting?” Avery glanced at Layla and asked.

Layla: “Well. I went to see him just now, and he fell asleep.”

“Before this happened, he didn’t sleep very much. This time he came back from the hospital, he slept more.” Mrs. Santos explained.

“His physical function has not fully returned to normal now, more rest will help him recover.” Avery asked, “How is his diet recently?”

“It’s pretty normal. He doesn’t eat much, but he can finish a bowl of rice every meal. He also drank the soup that was stewed for him every day.” Mrs. Santos thought about it for a while, and smiled, “After returning to Aryadelle, I feel that his complexion is a little better.”

Avery: “That’s good. As long as there is no serious rejection later, his body will return to normal.”

“Is there no other way to control this rejection except taking medicine?” Mrs. Santos hoped so much that Eric could live in health like ordinary people until he grew old.

“It can only be controlled by taking medicine for the time being. Remember not to stop the medicine casually. You must go to the hospital for reexamination on time. If all the indicators are normal later, the doctor will appropriately reduce the dosage of the medicine.” Avery consulted domestic doctors after returning to Aryadelle, “The situation I’m talking about is the best. Because after the drug is reduced, he can live like a normal person and have his own children.”

Mrs. Santos and Layla’s eyes lit up at Avery’s words.

Avery: “I’m talking about the best situation. It’s still too early for the best situation I said. But don’t worry, as long as you take good care of him, I believe he can do it.”

After chatting for a while, Layla brought her father and Mr. Santos pulled to the poker table.

It's still early for dinner, and the content of the chat was basically settled, so they played cards to pass the time.

"Little sister, do you want to come and play?" Layla asked.

Chapter 2809—Hazel shook her head without even thinking about it: "Sister, I don't know how to play cards."

After Hazel came on, Layla also sat down.

After playing for a while, Hazel basically learned it, so Elliot gave up the position to Robert.

"I'll go and see what your mother is doing." Elliot was afraid that Avery would be bored by herself, so he wanted to see what she was doing."

Robert joked, "Dad, you don't think it's fun to play cards with us! Why don't you call mom over to play."

Elliot: "I'll ask."

After Elliot walked away, he didn't come back. He took Avery out for a walk.

The house where the two elders of the Santos family live was an old villa area, and the environment in the community was quite good.

"Honey, are you a little sad?" Avery glanced at him with a smile, "I guessed that Layla could convince Eric."

"It's okay." Elliot looked into the distance and spoke calmly, "Layla yearns for marriage. Even if there is no Eric, she will marry another man. Although I have a prejudice against Eric, it is undeniable that he is excellent in his field."

"This matter has come to an end now. From now on, we and Eric will be a family."

Elliot didn't answer, but he didn't raise any objections.

"Do you still remember that when Layla was 15 years old, she drew a picture?" Avery suddenly remembered the picture her daughter had drawn.

Layla had painted many paintings, and Elliot had seen almost all of them, so he didn't remember which one Avery was talking about.

"She once painted a picture of a girl wearing a wedding dress in a church." The reason why Avery remembered it was probably because Layla had fantasized about dreamy weddings.

Elliot had a little impression, "You asked your daughter who the girl in the painting was, and she said it was herself."

"Yes. You still remember!" Avery laughed, "Layla wanted a grand wedding. So let's help her prepare!"

Elliot: "Shouldn't you ask Layla first? What style does she want, and when will the wedding be? You have to decide first?"

Avery: "Then I'll discuss to her privately later. Let's see when she moves to Eric's house."

Elliot: "Yeah."

Nantah University.

After the list of intern hosts came out, the entire broadcasting and hosting department exploded.

A total of 18 people were selected, including four seniors, two juniors, one sophomore, and one freshman.

"Why are there freshmen and sophomores selected this year? I think in previous years, they were basically selected from the juniors, juniors and seniors!"

"Maybe they are better!" Someone mocked sourly, "The sophomore is also considered. We are a famous person in our department. She is indeed outstanding and beautiful. But the freshman... I remember that she has no strength at all besides being good-looking, right?"

"Hazel is really not good. I heard her talk. She has an accent."

"No wonder she doesn't like to talk! So it's because of her accent!"

"My God! She has an accent and can still get an internship in a TV station? Is the TV station run by her father?"
