When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2810

Chapter 2810—“If her father is so good, then what is she going to study! The TV station belongs to the country! It’s not personal!” Someone mocked, “Besides, if the daughter of the TV station comes to our school, can we not know? “

“I’ll look up the surname of the director of the TV station...” Another classmate was more serious and checked with his mobile phone, “The director’s surname is not Foster hahaha! So she should have nothing to do with the director.”

Then how did she get in? It’s a beautiful vase with an accent, can it be broadcast after entering? Could it be that the TV station opened a dialect column? Haha!”

“Okay, please keep your voice down... She must have some tricks to get into the TV station for an internship, if you talk about her like this, if she hears it, be careful that you won’t get into the TV station in the future!” Someone kindly advised.

“It’s funny, there is more than one TV station in Avonsville! Besides the provincial TV station, the city TV station, and the county TV station below! Can Hazel’s relationship cover the sky with just one hand? Even if her backstage relationship is truly that good, I’ll be able to leave Avonsville!”

Xiomara listened to everyone’s discussion, feeling mixed feelings in her heart.

At the beginning, Hazel didn’t know about the internship at the TV station, so she told her herself. And the registration form was sent to her by himself.

At that time, Hazel’s reaction was obviously very sincere, and she felt that she couldn’t make it through.

Although Xiomara would not speak ill of Hazel behind her back, like other students, she felt that Hazel was not capable enough to be an intern anchor.

Xiomara took out her mobile phone and sent a message to Hazel, telling her about her selection as an intern anchor.

Xiomara didn’t directly ask how she was selected, after all, it seemed a little bad to ask directly.

Hazel was a girl with a strong sense of boundaries. If Xiomara asked directly, Hazel might not reply.

After Xiomara sent the message, after a while, Hazel replied: [I see, thank you.]

Xiomara looked at her reply and was a little confused.

Hazel didn't say how she was selected, if Xiomara asked about it, she didn't know if she would tell.

Xiomara thought for a while, and asked politely: [Our classmates are talking about you, saying that you were selected because of your relationship. There are people who know that I know you and come to ask me what's going on, but I don't know how to answer.]

Xiomara edited the text and sent the message.

At this time, someone walked up to Xiomara: "Xiomara, don't you know Hazel? Do you know how she was selected?"

Xiomara shook her head: "I don't know. I have no personal contact with her."

"Oh, it seems that you two are really unfamiliar." The person who spoke lowered his voice, "I saw her get into a luxury car at the school gate a few days ago. It's a real luxury car... It seems to be a Rolls-Royce...that was the first time in my life that I saw such a luxury car at such a close distance."

"Are you sure you saw her get on a Rolls-Royce?" Xiomara was a little shocked, "Did you take a picture?"

"I didn't. But I'm sure I saw her get in that luxury car."

"Are you sure that the car you saw was a Rolls-Royce? I don't even know What is the logo of Rolls-Royce..." Xiomara didn't quite believe what her classmate said.

Hazel usually wore pretty plain clothes. Neither her school bag nor the clothes she wore had a logo from a well-known brand.

"I didn't pay attention at the time, but after I checked it on the Internet, I thought it was a Rolls-Royce..." The student was a little agitated, "It's an extended car. Even if it's not a Rolls-Royce, it's definitely not cheap."

Xiomara: "Oh, you're not sure, so don't say that. Besides, even if Hazel's family has money."

"I didn't say that Hazel's family is rich. If Hazel's family is really rich, why hide it like this? She must have found a rich man and was taken care of by others."

This inference, in Xiomara's opinion, was too arbitrary, and if it leaked, it would be disastrous for Hazel.

Xiomara: "It's better not to talk about other people's private affairs. And don't talk about things without evidence."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2811

Chapter 2811

"There are only eight places in the whole department, and she takes one...Of course everyone is not convinced! If she has the strength, let it be, but she obviously has no strength, and she still takes up other students's places, it's really shameless!" The classmate finished, walked away angrily.

Xiomara picked up the phone and saw Hazel's latest reply: [I will work hard.]

It seemed that Hazel could be selected, it was really strange.

Hazel never mentioned how she was selected, which showed that she herself had a guilty conscience.

Xiomara thought that her aunt had taught Hazel extra lessons before, and that her aunt had also worked in a TV station before, so she might know the inside story.

So Xiomara sent a message to her aunt, asking her if she knew about it.

Because this was the first time that a TV station selected a fresher for an internship.

Her aunt replied quickly: [I don't know about this yet! If you hadn't told me, I wouldn't have known she had been chosen. I asked my TV friends.]

After a while, her aunt sent another message: [I just asked my friend from the TV station, and my friend couldn't explain it clearly.]

Xiomara: [You can actually ask Hazel.]

Aunt: [She didn't tell me, so I still don't ask.]

Xiomara: [You can congratulate her! If she wants to say it, she can say it, if she doesn't want to say it, forget it. Our department is in trouble, the main reason is that you know her situation well, she has an accent, how dare she go to a TV station for an internship?]

Aunt: [She does have an accent, but it's not a serious problem. She is very willing to learn, but also very hard. And she's very smart, basically it's all right. I don't know what level she is now, but as long as she is willing to work hard, she will definitely have no problem entering a TV station in the future.]

Aunt's words made Xiomara felt less out of balance.

Also, in order to improve, Hazel could privately ask her aunt to make up lessons.

This showed that her family was either not short of money, or she was willing to invest in her own education.

Hazel didn't go to University that day.

Because the courses had been finished, there were still a few exams and the winter vacation would be held.

Today her sister was going to move to Eric's house, so Hazel asked for leave to help her sister move.

She said it was to help her sister move, but in fact it was to visit Eric's house.

She could play with her sister in the future once she knew where Eric's family lived.

Layla had a lot of luggage, so she directly called a professional moving company to move it.

After the moving company moved the luggage to the destination, it was also responsible for helping to put the luggage into categories.

Layla just stood by and made them work.

Hazel had been following her sister, watching the staff busy.

Two hours later, the house was cleaned up, and after Layla paid the staff, the staff left.

The house suddenly fell silent.

"Brother Eric's house is so beautiful." Hazel praised with a smile.

"Are you busy today? I see you have been looking at your phone just now." Layla asked.

"The list of internships was announced today, because I was the only freshman selected, so it caused a lot of discussion in the University." Hazel thought that she could withstand this wave of pressure, but when she thought of the current treatment of her in the University Public opinion and mood were still affected.

“Don’t worry about what other people say. Isn’t the winter vacation coming soon? When you enter the TV station for an internship in the winter vacation, everyone will not say anything after seeing your performance. Your sister believes in you.” Layla persuaded.
